SALUTATION

This book is dedicated to the memory of Hubert Post of the seventh generation and is to pass to his descendant sons from generation to generation. So may it be.

My prayer is that we so live that there shall be the full eleven of us there in the Bye and Bye.—Hubert Post in Round Robin Letters.

This book is dated February 12, 1938, in memory of Mother.—Erwin.

POST GENEALOGY

The early part of this data was obtained by Edward Post of the seventh generation in the year 1898 and came from Hebron and Gilead, Conn., and from Jasper, beginning with Stephen Post, who, with his family, came to America from England in 1633.

Stephen Post, the Puritan, and his wife, Eleanor, born in Chelmsford, County Essex, England, came to America on the ship Griffin, arriving at Boston, Mass., September 4, 1633. They were members of the congregation of Rev. Thomas Hooker, and with his party came through the wilderness in June, 1636, to found the New Colony (now the Hartford of Connecticut). After a time he removed from Hartford to Saybrook, where he died August 16, 1659. Eleanor Post, his wife, died November 13, 1670.

Their children (second generation), born in England, were:

John, born in 1626.

Thomas, born in 1628.

Abraham, born in 1629, and Katherine.

Thomas Post
