PREFACE

The compilation of the accompanying data, while it is by no means complete, is the result of several years of research and effort. In the beginning, the data was collected for the writer's own satisfaction and pleasure without any thought of publication until others, learning of the material that had been collected, urged that it be put into book form. The writer does not pretend to be a genealogist and knows this book is imperfect in many ways but it is offered to those concerned, hoping it may prove of interest and inspire some of you, of the younger generation, to do further research and find some of the "missing links".

Many events respecting some of our ancestors lie buried in darkness and oblivion. Few records were kept in the days between 1750 and 1790, and those that were kept have sometimes been burned in court houses. The dead were buried in farm or plantation graveyards and, in many of them, not even the tombstones have lasted.

Data for the first three generations has been taken from authentic court records, census records, and other records officially filed in State and National Archives, and in genealogical and historical societies. For subsequent generations, the writer has had to rely on information furnished by many interested members of the family.

To those who have responded to requests for data, the compiler extends her sincerest thanks. The information given by them has aided greatly in making a continuous and connected record. The writer is also very deeply grateful to Mr. Colin James of Denver, Colorado, for all his help, advice, and encouragement. From across the country, he is mainly responsible for this effort's finally reaching the printer.

Do not be intimidated by the "facts" you find here which you think are wrong. Even the most carefully compiled genealogy will have some errors and the compiler will appreciate being corrected and will welcome any additional data.

If you do not find your family in this volume, you are referred to three other Poston genealogies:

- 1 ELIAS B. POSTON AND HIS ANCESTORS (With a Record of His Descendants), published in 1942 by Elias Olin James (Oakland, California) and Mrs. Glenna J. Mosgrove (Mansfield, Illinois).

2 JOHN HAMILL POSTON, HIS ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS, published in 1959 by Colin James (722 High Street, Denver, Colorado 80218).

3 POSTON GENEALOGY (NORTH CAROLINA),
now being prepared by Mr. James.

The volumes above named contain data concerning the descendants of John Poston of Maryland, a contemporary of John Poston of Pennsylvania. These two Postons probably were related and it is not too much to assume that they migrated about the same time from the same section of England.

In this book, the families in each line of descent are consecutively numbered. The descendant's individual reference number appears first, as a child and second, as the head of a family. A small Roman numeral appears opposite the name of each child. When a child has only this small Roman prefix, it indicates that the compiler had no further information for that person. Superior numbers to the right of a name indicate the generation of that person in America. The immigrant ancestor is considered the first generation, as John¹ Poston. When a daughter of a descendant has married the son of another descendant, lineage is through the male line, with cross references.

Because of a business transfer to another state, scheduled for September, 1965, the writer does not know her future address. However, any correspondence after 31 August, 1965 addressed to:

Mrs. Erma Poston Landers
Lake City
South Carolina

will always reach the addressee.

Time and circumstances did not permit all families to be completed in this book. However, corrections and additional data concerning any family will be gratefully received. Research will be continued with the hope that this book will someday be revised, or a supplement be added.

CHAPTER 1

FAMILY TRADITION

There is always truth in family tradition but, as a story is handed down orally from generation to generation, facts are certain to get changed a little. And so it was with tradition in the Poston family.

The tradition in this family was that two brothers, John and Andrew Poston, left their home in England, came to America, landing at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and settled in Buncombe County, North Carolina. Sometime later, they moved to South Carolina and settled in what was then Marion District, now Florence County. In vain did the writer search the records of both North and South Carolina for the two brothers. Many Postons were found in North Carolina named John but not one of them had a brother named Andrew. The North Carolina Postons, even to the present generation, are descendants of John Poston of Maryland. The Pennsylvania family of Postons did come through North Carolina but they did not settle there.

Just as the writer was about to give up in despair, she received from Mrs. W. H. Poston the following item copied from a paper written 29 September, 1936, by her husband, the late Dr. W. H. Poston of Pamplico, S. C.:

"J. Helon Poston says that it is common knowledge in his family handed down by his father, James Harbert Poston, who died about 20 years ago, at the age of 76 years, that all the Postons in South Carolina are the descendants of two brothers who came to this country from Buncombe County, North Carolina, by the names of John and Antney Poston. It is also common knowledge that they came from England, either directly, or were descendants of immigrants from that country."

The riddle was solved! John's brother was not named Andrew. His name was Anthony ("Antney"). Both John and Anthony had been found in the South Carolina census records in the Marion District but the writer had heard no tradition of an Anthony in the family.

So the two brothers had been found. But had they come directly from England, or were they descendants of an immigrant from that country? Since tradition was that they had come through the port of Philadelphia, early Pennsylvania records were searched and it was learned that they were the grandsons of a John Poston who migrated from England to Pennsylvania early in the 18th. century. Chapter 2 tells what has been learned about the immigrant, John Poston.

Since the similarity of the names, Andrew and Anthony, baffled the writer for so many years, it may be fitting to mention some errors that can be caused by a similarity of names.

Poston has been found spelled Postan, Posten, Postin, and Poston, but always the first syllable was Post. Some one tried to connect the Postons with the famous Pastons of England but found there was no connection. Another, because of the similarity of names, claimed descent from an Italian nobleman, Count Postonii, of Venice. That claim has been proven false, also. In Charleston County, S. C. and the lower part of the State, there are many Postells, descendants of fine Huguenot families from France. In Pennsylvania, there were Poulstons of Swedish descent. Poston has even been confused by one researcher with the name Boston. But the name, Poston has been found by the writer in records of Shropshire, England, spelled POSTON as early as 1623.

CHAPTER 2

JOHN POSTON - THE IMMIGRANT

John Poston, migrated from England early in the 18th. century. He landed in Philadelphia and settled in Chester County, Pennsylvania. Chester and Lancaster Counties in Pennsylvania are separated by the Octoraro Creek and it was on a branch of this creek in Chester County that John Poston settled.

Concerning John Poston's life before his arrival in Chester County, his parentage, or his birthplace, actually, nothing is known. A John Poston sailed from Liverpool, England, 26 April, 1703 (New England Historical Genealogical Register, 65:50). He was from in or near Shrewsbury, Shropshire, and landed in St. Mary's County, Maryland (John Hamill Poston, His Ancestors and Descendants Chapter 1, Page 1). During years of research, this writer has found other Postons in England, all living in Shropshire, so it is reasonable to suppose that the ancestral home of the Postons was in Shropshire, England.

We know nothing about the wife of John Poston. She is known only as Martha (from his will).

Early records are scarce and we do not know when John Poston came to Pennsylvania. The first record is found in the Chester County Tax List for 1722. At that time, his land was in Sadsbury Township. The township later was divided and the part on which his land was situated became Fallowfield Township. We do not know how long he had been living on the land since a survey was not made until 14 March, 1733. The warrant was returned to the Patent Office 9 May, 1744 (Land Warrants, Vol. A, No. 11, page 432, Land Record Office, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania), and 6 August, 1744, John Poston was granted a patent for 274 and $\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land in Fallowfield Township on both sides of a branch of Octoraro Creek (Survey Book C, page 155, Patent Office, Harrisburg). For this land, he paid a little more than 42 pounds.

WILL OF JOHN POSTON

(Will Book 2, Page 222, Chester County)

I, John Poston, Sr., living in the Township of Fallowfield and Chester County, being in perfect health and memory, knowing that it is appointed to all men to die and not know when, moveth me to make my last will and testament while the Lord favors me with life, health, sense, and knowledge. The first thing I desire, I give my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it to me and after my decease, I order my corpse to be decently interred at the discretion of my executors, and as touching such worldly goods as it has pleased God to bless me here with all, I order, inform, and dispose in the manner as followeth;

My oldest son, Robert, I give to him the settlement he now lives on, and one sheep more after my decease.

For my son, John, I devise and give to him my real estate, he paying out of it to my son, Anthony, the sum of 30 pounds, lawful money of Pennsylvania, within two years after my decease.

And also, I devise and give to my son, Anthony, all my movable goods and chattels, with 30 pounds from his brother, John.

And also, to my daughter, Ann, I leave to her according to her behavior, I devise and give to her five shillings, and further,

I except of the whole, that is to say, of the real estate and the chattels, and the third part of all profits that shall be made on the same, and with the use of my house while I and my wife live for maintenance.

And further, I order my wife, Martha Poston, and my son, John, to be my executors, now revoking all other will or wills made by me but this to be my last will and testament, given under my hand and seal this 8th. day of December, 1745.

Before the signing of this, daughter is _____.
(Writer unable to read last word.)

John Poston

Witness: John Devor
Martha Dunn

Letters of administration were granted to Martha Poston and her son, John, 8 June, 1747, and the will was probated the same date. John Poston's will and the inventory of his estate are filed in the Chester County Court House, West Chester, Pennsylvania.

The Inventory, filed 30 June, 1747, listed such things as 4 spinning wheels, 4 milch cows, 3 heifers, 1 bull, 26 sheep, 1 mare and 3 colts, 1 old mare, 1 horse, and tools such as saws, chisels, etc. The writing is so old and faded, the writer could read only about half the articles listed.

Children (named in the will):

i Robert
2 ii John (Page 8)
iii Anthony iv Ann

No further records of Anthony and Ann have been found. Ann probably married and her descendants may be living in Pennsylvania.

Robert continued to live on his land in Oxford Township, just south of Fallowfield, as late as 1779 (Chester County Tax Lists).

If Robert or Anthony had any sons, they migrated from Pennsylvania before 1790. There are no Postons listed in the Pennsylvania census for that year.

John married Margaret Baldrige, a daughter of William and Janet Holmes Baldrige, of Lancaster County.

CHAPTER 3

THE BALDRIDGE AND HOLMES FAMILIES

In his genealogy, "Riggs, Baldrige, and Agnew Families", (1915), Henry Earle Riggs, a descendant of Alexander Baldrige, gives the following information extracted from letters from members of the Baldrige family to a relative, the Reverend William Baldrige:

William Baldrige, son of Richard Baldrige of County Tyrone, Ireland, was born in Ireland in 1689. He married, 16 June, 1714, Janet Holmes who was born in Ireland in 1694. Their children, all born in Ireland, were:

John	born 1715	married Rebecca Clark
Alexander	" 1717	" Jane Ramsey
Margaret	" 1719	" John Poston ("left issue")
Janette	" 1721	" Matthew Atchison
Elizabeth	" 1723	" John Brownlee
Michael	" 1725	" Mabel Wilson

William, Janet, and their children came to America in the ship, "Queen Margaret", and settled in Little Brittain Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, in 1726. William died 25 November, 1772. Janet died 28 July, 1768 and both are buried in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

In his will, drawn 9 January, 1767, probated 14 January, 1773, William "ordain and allow my son, John Poston, five pounds". (Lancaster County Wills, Book C, Vol. 1, page 124.) Since Margaret was not named in the will, we conclude that Margaret Baldrige Poston had died before her father made his will and her share of the estate was left to John Poston and Margaret's children.

THE HOLMES FAMILY

Sir James Holmes, a well known merchant and trader of Belfast, Ireland, married Jane Jennings, also of Belfast. Their children were Thomas, Charles, Robert, William, and a daughter, Janet. Sir James died 1 June, 1727. His will was probated in Ireland 14 June, 1727.

In almost every family, there springs the legend of a fabulous fortune left, and still waiting for the heirs, in the "old country". And so it was with the Baldrige family. It seems that Jane Jennings had inherited a fortune from her father and Janet Holmes Baldrige had been willed her share of her mother's inheritance, plus her share of her father's fortune in Sir James Holmes' will. Tradition in the Baldrige family was that when William and Janet Holmes Baldrige came to America in 1726, Sir James persuaded them to leave their oldest son, John, with him in Ireland. John grew to manhood in Ireland, married Rebecca Clark, and brought her to Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, to be near his family. He brought with him a will which was supposedly his grandfather's will. Many attempts were made by the Baldrige family to claim the fortune before lawyers in England proved the will to be a forgery. And so the fabulous Holmes fortune turned out to be a myth.

CHAPTER 4

SOUTHERN MIGRATION

As immigrants continued to pour into Pennsylvania through the port of Philadelphia, land became so high in price and so thickly populated, the settlers began a southward movement. Thousands of Pennsylvanians made their trek to the south over the "Great Philadelphia Wagon Road" to the fertile bottom lands along the rivers of North and South Carolina. This road ran from Philadelphia through The Great Valley of Virginia, to Winston-Salem, and to Salisbury. From Salisbury, a road ran through the valley of the Yadkin to Cheraw and along the Great Pee Dee River to Georgetown.

The settlers traveled in the sturdy wagons devised by the Pennsylvania German craftsman in the Conestoga Valley in Lancaster County. They traveled with household goods, women and children in the wagons, the men and boys walking and driving the cattle before them. This then, is the way the Postons left Pennsylvania and traveled south, finally settling in Marion District, now Florence County, South Carolina. We cannot help admiring the courage of our ancestors.

Land was cheaper in the Carolinas and the climate was milder than in Pennsylvania, so in 1766, we find John and Margaret Baldrige Poston selling their land to join the southward march. They sold their 274 and $\frac{1}{2}$ acres to James Smith for 730 pounds on 2 September, 1766 (Deed Book A3, page 187, Chester County Deeds, West Chester, Pennsylvania).

Unfortunately the compiler has found no records for the fifteen years following the sale of the land. From the deed, we know Margaret was living 2 September, 1766, and from her father's will, we know she died before 9 January, 1767, the date of the will. Since Margaret died so soon after the land was sold, she may have died in Chester County, leaving John to make the move to the south with their children. It is probable that John reached South Carolina since later census records indicate that John and Anthony, the two sons, were hardly old enough to carve out homes for themselves in the wilderness that was at that time the back country of South Carolina. Perhaps future research will reveal when and where Margaret died, when and where John died, and the names and birth-dates of their children. At the present, we know only that:

- 2 John² Poston (John¹)
 - Married Margaret Baldrige
 - b. 1719 in Ireland
 - d. 1766

Two of their children were:

3 i John Poston
155 ii Anthony Poston (Page 56)

CHAPTER 5

JOHN POSTON IN SOUTH CAROLINA

3 John³ Poston (John², John¹) was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania about 1755 (estimated from Census Records). We assume that he died between 1821 and 1830. He witnessed the will of Benjamin Exum in Marion District, 4 July, 1821 (Marion County Wills), and he is not listed in the census for 1830.

The name of John's wife is not known. She was living when the census was taken in 1820.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR RECORD:

John Poston served as a private in Colonel Hugh Giles' Regiment of Militia and also in the Regiment of Colonel John Ervin in the Revolutionary War (Indents To Claims Growing Out Of The Revolution, Book YZ, page 138, No. 922, South Carolina State Archives Department). Hugh Giles and John Ervin were Colonels in General Francis Marion's Brigade.

The names of John's sons have been handed down to us but nothing is known of his daughters. Census records show that he had five sons and three daughters, all born in Marion District, South Carolina.

Children: Years of births estimated from census records, except that of John (Jack).

All daughters were listed as unmarried and living with their father and mother in the 1820 census.

In the census for 1850, a Sarah is listed as unmarried, 54 years of age, and living with Thomas. She could have been the youngest daughter born in 1796.

CHAPTER 6

THE THOMAS POSTON FAMILY

4 Thomas⁴ Poston (John³, John², John¹) was born in Marion District, South Carolina, about 1781. The name~~y~~ of his wife is not known but census records show that they had six sons and four daughters. It is not known when Thomas or his wife died, neither is anything known of the daughters.

The sons were:

CHAPTER 7

THE JOHN (JACK) POSTON FAMILY

19 John (Jack)⁴ Poston (John³, John², John¹) was born in Marion District, South Carolina, in 1784 or 1785. He died of dropsy in May, 1850, at the age of 65 (1850 Mortality Schedule, South Carolina State Archives Department). The name of his wife is not known by the writer. Census records show that he had three sons and four daughters. Nothing is known of three of the daughters.

Known Children:

- 20 i Alfred Poston b. about 1818
53 ii James Rayford Poston b. about 1820 (page 26)
66 iii John Thomas Poston b. 20 November, 1830
 (See page 30)

The only information available for one of the daughters is that her name was:

- 93 iv Cecelia Poston (See page 38)

She probably went to South Georgia about 1854 with her brother, John, where she married a Farnam from Quincy, Florida.

CHAPTER 11

ANTHONY POSTON IN SOUTH CAROLINA

155 Anthony³ Poston (John², John¹) was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania, probably about 1760. Census records indicate that he was several years younger than his brother, John³.

It was shown in Chapter 1 that the name was originally Anthony. More evidence is the fact that Anthony is listed in the South Carolina Census in 1800 and in 1810 but the first Andrew Poston listed^{is} Anthony's youngest son listed in 1840. It is not known when and why the name Anthony was changed to Andrew but Anthony's oldest son, Hugh, in his Bible bought 6 November, 1838, stated that he was the son of Andrew Poston and his wife, Elizabeth.

From Hugh's Bible, we know that Anthony's wife was named Elizabeth. Anthony and Elizabeth are shown in the 1820 S. C. Census as an older couple living with Hugh and his wife. By the 1830 Census, Anthony and Elizabeth had died.

Census records also show that Anthony and Elizabeth had three sons and two daughters. The only information the writer has concerning the two daughters was found in the notes left by Dr. W. H. Poston: "Antney Poston's children were Hugh, Daniel, wife of Bobbie Powell, mother Wilson".

The sons were:

156	i	Hugh Poston	b. 27 August, 1791
	ii	Daniel Poston
286	iii	Andrew Poston	b. 1807 (Census)

286 Andrew⁴ Poston

CHAPTER 17

JAMES GREENFIELD DANIELS

James Greenfield Daniels was born in Middletown, Connecticut, about 1794. His age was recorded as 55 in the 1850 South Carolina Census.

During the early days of the American Colonies, Connecticut had more home industries than any other colony. All kinds of household gadgets were invented and manufactured in the homes. These early necessities were carried all over the eastern section of the present United States by the so called "Yankee Peddlers".

Family tradition is that after serving as a drummer boy in the War of 1812, James Greenfield Daniels came to South Carolina about 1820, selling a line of tin ware.

Tradition also says that while in the Britton's Neck section of Marion County, heavy rains washed out the bridges and Daniels was not able to travel for a while. A plantation owner, Joshua McWhite, invited Daniels to stay with him and later employed Daniels as an overseer.

James Daniels married two of Joshua McWhite's daughters. His first marriage was to Elizabeth McWhite. They had two daughters:

- 287 i Elizabeth Daniels m. Josiah R. Poston
 (See Josiah R. Poston, No. 100, page 40)
- 288 ii Hannah Daniels m. James Rayford Poston
 (See James Rayford Poston, No. 53, page 16)

After the death of Elizabeth McWhite Daniels, James Daniels married Elizabeth's sister, Mary. The children of James and Mary McWhite Daniels were:

- iii James G. Daniels, Jr.
 m. Caroline Broach
 d. South Island, near Georgetown, S. C., 1862
- iv Mary Daniels m. Benjamin Poston
 (See Benjamin Poston, son of Hugh, page 57)
- 289 v Jane Daniels m. Andrew Poston

- vi Anne Daniels m. David Smith
- 290 vii Sarah (Sally) Daniels m. Hugh Poston
 (See Hugh Poston, No. 200, page 73)
- viii Martha (Patsy) Daniels m. Alexander Bellflowers

Mary McWhite Daniels is buried in the vicinity of Mt. Zion Church, near Pamplico, South Carolina.

The third wife of James Daniels was Margaret (Peggy) Poston, a daughter of Ely Poston (See page 98) There children were:

- ix Catherine (Katie) Daniels
 - b. 5 April, 1843
 - d. 26 January, 1897
 - (Unmarried)
- x John L. Daniels
 - b. 1845
 - d. in Civil War
- xi William Thomas Daniels
 - b. 1 May, 1847
 - d. 1 November, 1913
 - m. Sarah Jane Carter

James Greenfield Daniels died 7 March, 1857, and is buried at Mt. Zion, near Pamplico, S. C.
