

DESCENDANTS
of
FRANCIS PLUMER
of Newbury, Massachusetts

assembled by
George Plumer Smith

Philadelphia
1875

THE following Genealogy of the descendants of Francis Plumer, of Newbury mainly of those who remained in New England—is now printed to enable the older surviving descendants of Jonathan Plumer, who, as stated in note, was commissary under General Braddock, 1755–6, to more clearly and satisfactorily trace the particular branch from whence they came.

I am indebted to Richard Plumer, Esq., of Newburyport, for the interesting and valuable record left by his father.

GEO. PLUMER SMITH,

I REPRINT, verbatim, the following letter from Mr. Samuel G. Drake, of Boston, since deceased. He was a venerable and interesting man, of high authority in New England history. Governor Plumer's son, William Jr., was also governor of New Hampshire, and both, I believe, senators in Congress from that State.

G. P. S.

In the Life of Gov. Plumer by his son, I think there is no mention of his brothers & sisters. I have no record of them, & can only speak of them as I knew them about fifty years ago: the brothers were Samuel & Daniel: the sisters were Rebecca, Molly, & — wife of Col. Daniel Cilley of Epsom. Rebecca & Molly were never married. Mrs. Cilley had several children. Robert Knox of Epsom married a daughter of Mrs. Cilley.

Samuel Plumer was a younger brother of the governor. His wife I do not remember: they had Joseph, Nancy, Elsa, & perhaps others. These I think are all dead, except possibly Nancy. She married her cousin, George Plumer, son of the Governor. Joseph married a Miss Ladd (I think that was her name) he died about two years ago.

Col. Daniel Plumer, the youngest brother of Gov. William, was born June 18th, 1770, died March 16th, 1852; hence in his 80th year. His wife was Sarah, dau. of Mr. Simon Drake of Epping, married Dec. 8th, 1794. She died June 26th, 1852, nearly 79. Their children: David Dole, born April 24, 1795, d. unmarried about three years ago. Abraham, b. Sept. 21, 1796, married Sarah L. Cilley of Nottingham. He died 1873. Samuel,* b. 20 July, 1800, m. Elizabeth Ann Martin, Mar. 16th, 1842. Daniel, b. 12 Nov. 1802, died 21 June, 1849, leaving a wife whom he m. Apl. 10, 1847. Abraham had three sons, one of whom died in California, one went a soldier in the Union army, & was killed in the battle of Fredericksburg, Va., & one remains with his mother: they had two daughters: one is deceased, the other, Elizabeth is married to — Edgerly of Eping.

Perhaps these crude details will be of no interest to you. If they are, & you desire other particulars of a similar nature, I would advise you to write to Samuel Plumer of Eping, denoted above by a * & I think he will be able to give you much that I am unable to furnish. His mother was my father's sister.

Respy

BOSTON, 25 Dec. 1874.

SAML. G. DRAKE.

I will mention that Gov. Plumer had sons, William (his biographer) Samuel, George, & Jay. The last mentioned died some ten years ago. I think there was a daughter, & that she was married.

Col. Daniel Plumer never had any daughters.
