PREFACE

This compilation is an index of the book as it is - no attempt has been made to correct spelling or information. It contains separate indexes for all by the name of Rathbone-Rathbun and for all other surnames.

Women are indexed and cross indexed under maiden and married names in the following manner: all Rathbone, Rathbun women under husbands' names; all other surnames who married into the Rathbone-Rathbun family and all those of other surnames who intermarried and who were included in a feature article and/or whose descendants are mentioned.

No attempt has been made to distinguish between the use of the surname Rathbone or Rathbun as the spelling was interchanged so freely that often the same person is entered in two different places with different spelling of the surname.

It would be wise to check other sources for verification of information in the book, as in the course of the compilation of this index a good many discrepancies were observed.
