ANCESTOR PAUL RAYMOND OF GREAT ISLAND, HARPSWELL, ME.:

HIS ANCESTRY AND DESCENDANTS.

*****

Ancestor Paul Raymond, removed from Mass., Great Sebasco-degan, Island, Harpswell, Me., at a very early date, and became one of the very prominent citizens of that town. He was born at Rochester, Mass., according to the data furnished by the descendants, Sept 11, 1718; "he died at Harpswell, Me., well advanced in life." He was a Selectman of Harpswell, Me., 1761---- 1760 1765. and in 1770 and 1771. Some give his first term as Selectman as 1759. He owned a large farm at Great Island, Harpswell, Me., which was long in the possession of his descendants. The marks of his cattle were recorded in the Harpswell, Me., Town Records Feb 12, 1765.

The maiden name of his wife Abigail was not given by the descendants.

According to the data furnished by the Raymond Family Paul Raymond was of the 4th Raymond Generation in America, His Line of ancestry is given as it was furnished by the descendants who have made this matter a careful study.

"Raymond is from an old German word, Rozemond; spelled Raimond in the 9th century. Another old Frankish form of the name is Razemond, which was much used in Southern France, where there was a long line of the Counts of Toulouse, called Raymond, one of whom was celebrated by Tasso, in the first Crusade as a gallant Knight. The present form of the word is either derived from the French word Ra (that is, a beam of light) or from a Latin word which formerly had the same significance."

(1st generation) The brothers William Raymond and John Raymond, with their "Cusin Richard" were the first of the name in America.

William Raymond came to New England about 1652 and became a prominent settler of Beverly, Mass. As Captain William Raymond he is early mentioned as Steward of a trading Company of Englishmen of Laconia. He bore the same honorable character which has ever distinguished his descendants. He died June 9th, 1708. That he was a brother of John Raymond is proved by his ~~WILLIAM~~ Deed which was recorded at Salem, Mass. He is said to have had a faithful service in the Army. It is stated, but without positive proof that Capt. William Raymond had sons, William and John, and a brother Richard Raymond.

THE RECORDS OF PAUL RAYMOND OF THE 6th GENERATION.

*****

(6th generation) Paul Raymond; a highly esteemed citizen of Great Island, Harpswell, Me.

"In 1824, having lost two sons at sea, he removed from Great Island, Harpswell, Me., to Wayne, Me., where he died May 13, 1829." He bought 2 farms; he gave one to son Wm; the other to son Alfred.

M(1st) Mary Thompson, who died Sept 23, 1823.

"The Harpswell, Me., records give her name as Abigail Thompson, and state that she was the daughter of William Thompson, which may be an error."

M(2nd) at Wayne, Me., Feb 3, 1828 Mrs. Sally Reed.

*****

The children, who may not be arranged in their proper order.

(7th generation) Edward Raymond and Jonathan Raymond

"They were lost at sea, and are said to have been unmarried."

Mrs. Etta (Bartlett) Casey of Dorchester, Mass." Edward and Jonathan Raymond were, with others, taken prisoners by an English cruiser during the 1812 War. The English had taken a number of prisoners prizes, and had manned each one from their own crew, which made them short-handed. These prisoners were told that if they would 'enter aboard aboard,' that is, enlist in the British cause, they would fare as well as their own men.

All did this but Edward Raymond and his brother Jonathan. They were at once put in irons and nearly starved to death. They were given a scanty supply of mouldy hard tack and vile water, and every morning when these meagre rations were given to them they were asked if they would 'enter aboard,' and each time they emphatically answered, 'NEVER.' At last an American vessel engaged and conquered the British vessel and the two loyal Americans were liberated, and the best that could be found was given them. They were mere skeletons when they were rescued. My grandmother, Mrs Sarah S. (Raymond) Bartlett, their youngest sister, recalled that people came from far and near to see these brothers, and that their father was exceedingly proud of his truly patriotic sons."

(1st Generation) William Raymond, was one of the earliest settlers of Wayne, Me. His story is thus told by the descendants, who were unable to give his ancestry, "William Raymond went from Massachusetts to Wayne, Me., on foot, guided by spotted trees. He valiantly cleared the farm which was recently owned by John R. Sturdevant, which is opposite the road leading by the home of John S. Raymond to Evergreen Cemetery. He was at the rail fence at the battle of Bunker Hill, and participated in all the battles under Gen. Washington to the fall of Yorktown, and never received a wound, though he was always at the front of duty. After the Revolutionary War he received a pension.
