Rideout Index	584-589

I am starting the book with Abraham Rideout, b. abt. 1685 in England, and Mary as the 1st generation. He md. (2nd) Jemina Davis.

Some people think Abraham was the father of Nicholas, b. abt. 1705 and others that they were brothers. Nicholas, b. abt. 1705, had a son, Abraham, b. January 4, 1748, md. Mary (Molly) Seavy.

From what information I have received, I am very sure Abraham, b. abt. 1685, was the father of Nicholas, b. abt. 1705.

The Rideouts are descended from:

A(1) Abraham, the first generation

A(2)1. Nicholas, the second generation

A(3)2.1. Benjamin, the third generation, etc.

"A" refers to Abraham as well as his descendants.

(1) The number in parenthesis stands for the number of the generation. Example:

(1) is 1st generation

(4) is 4th generation

A(2)1 is 1st child of Abraham

A(3)2.3. is 3rd child of 2nd child of Abraham.

Where a * is placed before a name, it means that person is carried on into the next generation.

From record of Miss D. B. Johnson. Mrs. Sarah Rideout Abbot of Saco, Me. came from Nova Scotia, her father was a Methodist minister. She says all Rideouts in this country are related.

In a letter from Arthur G. Rideout of 72 Philbeach Gardens, England, 4 September 1934 to Mrs. Edwin Taylor.

In the Parish Register at St. Peter's church, Shaftbury.

Abraham, son of Nicholas Rideout, chr. 24 September, 1677.

Nicholas had 6 sons--Nicholas, chr. 9 Mar. 1663 and Abraham. There is a Nicholas, chr. Yorick, 18 Feb. 1638.

An earlier Nicholas, son of Andera, appears as a garntee of land at Sherborne in Jan. 1317.

Miss Dymple Johnson (deceased), when I wrote her for information, sent me a good sized box of her material, requesting only that I return it to her. When I returned it, I included a book I had prepared of her direct line back to Nicholas and Mary Ingersoll. She was very grateful. She was of Ft. Smith, Ark.

Records received from Dennis Williams of England:

"I've tried the Norman Conquest angle without any success. There weren't any real surnames at that time. In any case, it's more than likely that the Rideouts or Ryohuts, as they were then fighting on the other side, since Rydnut seems to be a Saxon name."

History of the Woodgates of Stonewall Park and Summerhill in the County of Kent by G. Woodgate 1910, page 291.

The Rideouts were a good Sussex family, settled for many years at Framfield Park, England.

Richard Rideout married on 18 Dec. 1684 to Sarah, daughter of Walter Dobell and Sarah his ideal wife (Arms: Sable a doe between three bells argent).

Their son, Richard, of Framfield Park and Ann, his wife, had four children of whom--

(1) Sarah died unmarried and was buried at Framfield on 20 April, 1743.

(2) Ann, beptized at Framfield on 2 August, 1716.

(3) John, later the Rev. John Rideout, Rector of Woodmancote, Sussex, died at Lewes 1804.

(4) Richard.

Richard Rideout of Lewes, Sussex, was baptized at Framfield on 10 June, 1715, and married Elizabeth daughter of Nicholas Willard of Chiddingley and widow of Richard Payne of Lewes.

It was their son, Richard Rideout, vicar of Westmeston, who married Frances Woodgate, youngest daughter of the Rev. Francis Woodgate, born 1756.

The arms of Rideout are "Azure a trefoil slipt between three mullets argent. Rest a horse trotting, saddled and stirrupsed."

Richard Rideout died April 28, 1767, age 52.
Elizabeth Rideout, widow, buried at Framfield, April 28, 1767."

From Mrs. Taylor's book:

In Sherbourne, England, there appears an Andrew Rideout who was granted land. This same Andrew had a son, Nicholas, who had six sons. One of these six sons was Nicholas, chr. Mar. 1663. Another son, Abraham, 24 September 1677.

Abraham had a son, Nicholas, who was born abt. 1705. It is thought Abraham and Nicholas came over from England together. Nicholas came to Old Falmouth, Me., now Portland, Me., settled at Back Cove in 1730, md. to Mary Hunt Ingersoll. He had a small shipyard at this place. It is thought Nicholas was a son by a former marriage. Nicholas was among the men of Kent, England.

Abraham's son, Nicholas, fought the Red Skins.

Abraham appeared on the land records of York Co. Me. 7 Feb. 1716, buying from Joseph Shaw, a tract of land north of the mill pond or pool in Sagadahoc. He was associated with John Hutchins, Samuel Palmer, Benjamin Thruston in the deal. He is spoken of as Abraham of fye town of Haverhill and the 3 men were of Essex Co., Mass. Rideout is called scrivener, which means public writer. Anyway, he had education. He may not have moved his family from Mass. as the King Phillip's War was still smouldering in Me. and the men stayed at the forts and worked the land. They moved their families to New Hampshire and Mass. A man named Rideout accompanied William, the Conqueror from France to England.

Different spellings of the name: Ridoiu, Roydeu, Ryden, Riden, Ridout, Rideout.

In the early days there was a Rideout neighborhood at Cumberland Centre, Me.

The History of the Rideout Family in Maine

(Compiled by Rev. Charles N. Sinnett)

June 16, 1921

Rev. C. N. Sinnett

Box 278, Braine Rd., Minnesota

In the records and legends which have been handed down in the sturdy Rideout Family, the trails lead back to the ancient city of Georgianna, which is more familiarly known as "Old York, Maine". Here the pioneers of the family are ranged side by side, with the "noblemen of Kent", who had such a large part in making that town by the sea, strong, patriotic, and thoroughly progressive, "for the times." Many valorous deeds in the times of Indian invasions, and other troubles are ascribed to Nicholas Rideout and his family.

To a member of that ancient household is given the credit of the rapid-firing reply, when one sarcastically asked, "Where did you ever get such a queer family name?" -- "Oh, we rode out and met the savages when they came down on the towns, when some other people were asleep." Young Rideout strode on without a glance behind him. He well knew that the fellow who had jeered at his name, had hidden in a brush heap in the time of Indian onslaught. Though none of these early deeds of powers are found on yellowed history pages, there are so many of them in other times of the country's danger and "sore needs" that one in doubt is inclined to hold fast every hint of valour from "Old York".

In the early annals of Revolutionary days at Brunswick, Maine, we find the name of Benjamin Rideout in the list of privates of the famous company of Captain James Curtis. The date of May 17th, 1775, is very significant. He is supposed to have been Benjamin Rideout, Jr., as his father was already a prominent member of the "Committee of Safety", which passed such patriotic resolutions and made great sacrifices to prepare for a victorious struggle against oppression. A little later on we find enrolled for patriotic service, the brother, Abraham Rideout and Stephen Rideout, who no doubt, were cousins of Benjamin Rideout, Jr., and the sons of William Rideout.

The first brother was but twenty years of age, and his brother was barely eighteen. That they were gladly welcomed to the Company of Captain Coombs, of Colonel Mitchell's Regiment, is clearly seen from the fact that their names are the second and third in the list of some of the best men of that time. "They were to serve for nine months from the time of their arrival at the Fish Kills." As both these young men were five feet and seven inches in height, they were surely hardy specimens of the Rideout family.

Passing on to the War of 1812, we find in the records of Topsham, Maine, that in Captain Patten's Company, and Colonel Mitchell's Reg., there was no truer-hearted soldier than Jacob Rideout. From many Maine towns during the Civil War, went forth many of the Rideout name. It is widely known that the Grand Army Post of Bowdoinham, Maine, was named for the brave soldier, Thomas Tyler Rideout. He was only a little past twenty years of age when he enlisted, but he was appointed Sergeant of Co. F. the 19th Maine Volunteers. Capt. Silas Adams well says in his History of Bowdoinham, Maine, "He was with his Company continually until he was mortally wounded in the shoulder, July 3rd, 1863, in Pickett's famous charge at the battle of Gettysburg. No nobler man went from this town, and no nobler man died for her honor."

It is a great satisfaction to all who are familiar with the history of the Rideout family to find that some of the wisest counselors of Bowdoinham selected the lot which had so long been occupied by the Stinson House, and so hospitably managed as a hotel by the beloved George Washington Stinson, as the site of the Monument in memory of Bowdoinham, Me., soldiers in the Civil War.

This is the Rideout coat of Arms that was sent me by Mr. Ralph Rideout Sr. of 2018 McCasland Ave. Madeson, Ill.

Taken from a copy of Genealogy written by James Rideout, Jan. 1870. At that time he was of Oakhill, Florida. The Ridout who came with William to conquer England was later called Rideout.

"I have no definite data concerning ancestors. We have what I might call a tradition--that the family is of Norman origin and came over from Normandy with William the Conqueror and settled near London, England. One, Nicholas Rideout, came to Pa. with William Penn's Colony. My grandfather b. 1776 was named William Penn Rideout in honor of William Penn, the founder of Pennsylvania. "

The following information concerning Nicholas Rideout was sent by Mr. Ralph Rideout.

NICHOLAS RIDEOUT, OF PHILADELPHIA, 1681

The first time this man's name appears upon record in this country is in the year 1681. It is on record that in the 4 mo. 1685, Thomas Holme, Surveyor General for Pennsylvania, obtained a patent for 600 acres of land, and in the same year sold it to Nicholas Rideout, who named it "Shaftsburie Plantation."

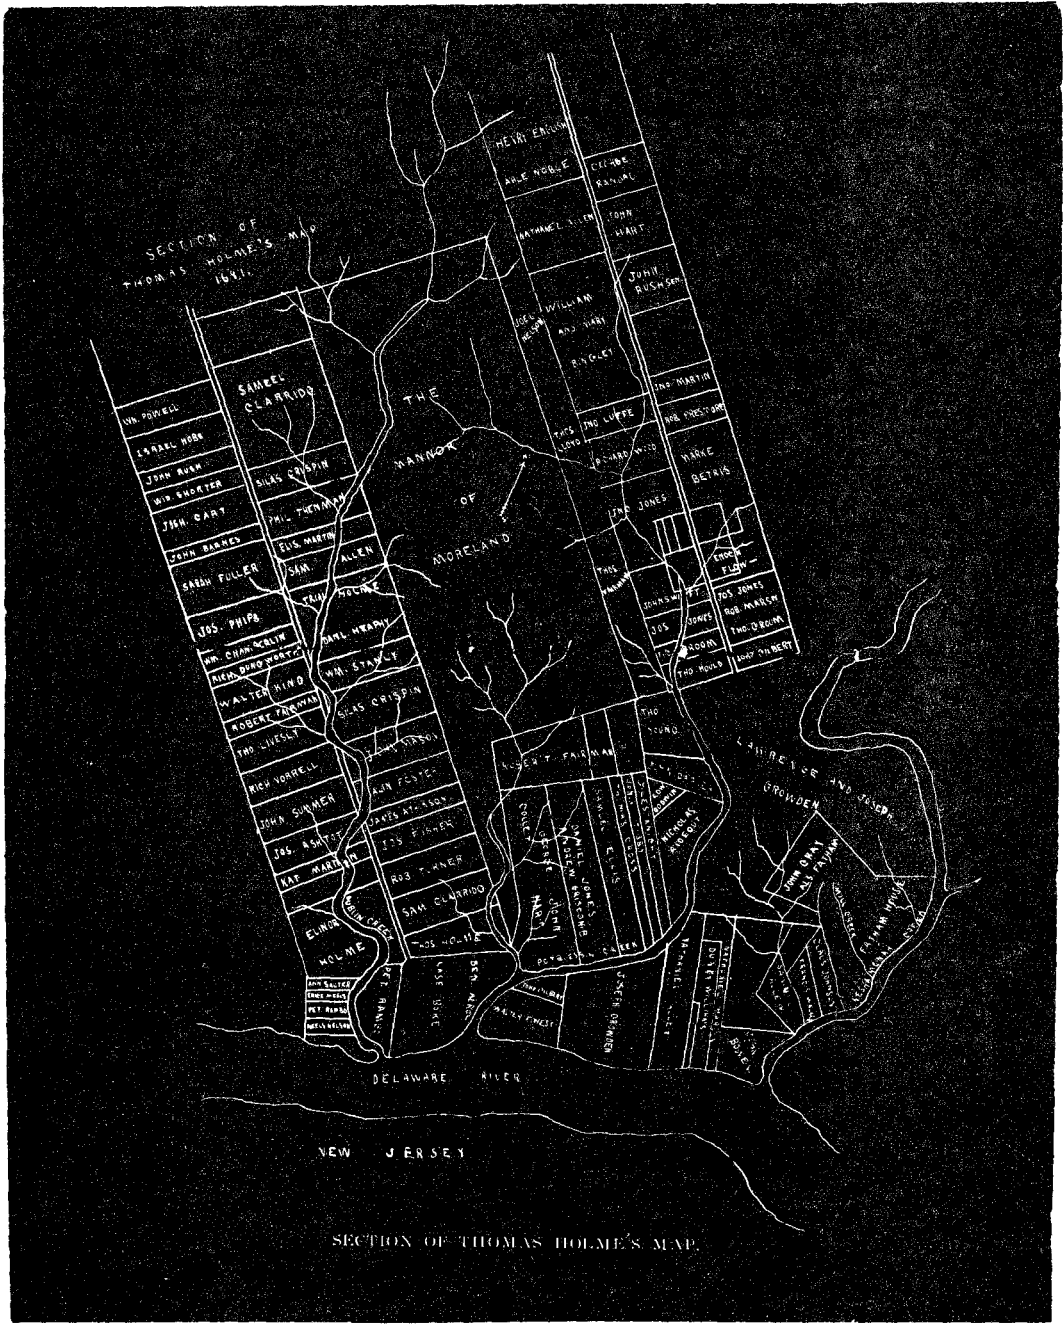

This land was located on the west side of Poquessing Creek in Byberry Township, Philadelphia County, On "Holmes Original Map of Philadelphia:" the name of Nicholas Rideout appears on the above 600 acre tract. (1681).

By deed of 19, 12 mo. 1695, he sold this land to John Gilbert. He then bought 40 acres of "Liberty Land of the City of Philadelphia" a rectangular tract northeast of the German town road, beyond Isaac Norris, Fair Hill Plantation.

These 40 acres belonged to Silas Crispin, who as the record reads...by assignment endorsed dated April 20, 1695, conveys the same to Nicholas Rideout, a last maker, and he in turn by deed dated March 31, 1696, conveyed this tract to Nicholas Wain who was a Welsh Quaker.

The first land Nicholas bought (the 600 acres) was on Poquessing Creek, and the supposition is that upon finding that the city of Philadelphia was to be situated farther to the southwest he purchased the 40 acres of Liberty land which he sold to Nicholas Wain in 1696, and then sold his land on Poquessing Creek. This land known as Abington township, Montgomery County.

Nicholas Rideout signed a petition regarding taxes which was dated March 10, 1692. At a monthly meeting of the Society of Friends in Philadelphia September 25, 1692, Alexander Beardsley on September 8, 1699, Nicholas Rideout witnessed a will in Philadelphia and this seems to be the last time his name appears in connection with any records. It is stated that he received sixteen shillings per dozen for his lasts; about three dollars and eight-five cents in our money.

If this man had a wife and family, they simply disappeared from Pennsylvania, as no one of the name was later found in that state. The Quaker Records show that he was not a Quaker although he lived and worked among them, and was buried by them on October 31, 1707.

This information was taken from the Ency. of American Quaker Gen. by Henshae Vol. 2 p. 447 at Phil. monthly meeting.

The following records and information I have gathered from many libraries.

I have written hundreds of letters, always enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Many have sent me the records and information I asked for, but there are many who haven't answered. Therefore, many of our kin will not be in the book, for which I am very sorry.

A few have really sent a great deal of information, not only their own families, but records of others.

I will aim to mention a few, but I wish to thank anyone who has been interested in sending me records.

Mr. C. S. Corey of 573 Vine St., Kent, Ohio, has spent some of his vacations looking up records, going to cemeteries, court houses, etc., and sent the material to me. One summer he came west, looked up my phone number, phoned and came out to our home that evening, bringing me stacks of material he had gathered. He was kind enough to trust me with his records, so I could copy them and return them to him.

Mr. Ralph Rideout Sr. of 2018 McCasland Ave. Madison, Ill., has given me a great deal of help. He sent our Rideout coat of Arms. He has given me much encouragement, and many good suggestions. Also, he gave me the idea for the name of the book.

Mr. Ralph Leslie Rideout Sr. of Madison, Ill. thinks Nicholas Rideout, who went to Pa. with William Penn in 1681 was the father of Nicholas, b. abt. 1705, s who md. Mary Ingersoll. I am wondering if he could be the grandfather of Nicholas, b. abt. 1705, going thus:

Nicholas went to Pa. in 1681 and was buried October 31, 1707, and was the father of:

Abraham, b. Eng. father of Nicholas, b. abt. 1705, md. Mary Ingersoll. I have people searching in England for the men who came from England with William Penn. I do hope to get some definite information before the book is printed.

I am typing in two charts, one prepared by Ralph Leslie Rideout Sr., taking his son back 9 generations of Rideouts to Nicholas who came with William Penn. The other is the map of Nicholas Rideout of Philadelphia, 1681, d. 1707.

If we are able to find more information, I will add it.

Records found in the N. Y. Gen. & Biog. #79- 80, p. 65-70, "Servants to Foreign Plantations from Bristol, England. (1654-86)"

Two transcribed volumes, bound in calf, were found at the back of an old (ancient) wall press when the top floor of the Bristol Council House was rebuilt in 1925 which evidently had not been consulted for more than 200 years.

In May 1940 they were removed with other records from the Council House to the bomb-proof record rooms. They remained there until 1946 when they were brought back to the Council House, none of them destroyed in any way. The two volumes contain 2,656 names to Barbados, 2,560 for Nevis, 555 for British West Indies, 4,876 for Virginia, 163 for New England, 177 for Maryland, New York and Pennsylvania.

The majority of the servants were respectable and industrious men and women, although some were convicts and political outcasts.

They were servants to Bondmasters for a fixed term of usually less than 5 years to become Freeholders of 50 acres of land after the term of their bonds was served.

There were 92 Bondmasters. One was Nicholas Ridout who had 161-163-175 servants. Of the other Bondmasters, only Joshua Cart, George Cowley and Abraham Wilde had more than Nicholas Ridout.

I found this record in the St. Louis Library today, August 19, 1967. The above mentioned Nicholas Ridout I think, is no doubt our Nicholas Rideout of Pennsylvania with the 600 acres in Philadelphia, Pa. (1681).

William R. Rideout was a sturdy, helpful citizen of Brunswick. He deeded land in North Yarmouth, 28 Jan. 1793 to son, Nathaniel in Cumberland Co. He drew a pension because he was blind, which was caused by smallpox suffered during the Revolution in 1724. He became the owner of pew 43 in the Old North church, the one where the lanterns gave their message to Paul Revere. "Only quality people had pews here," according to our source.

Nicholas joined the Perley Colony and migrated to Mangerville, New Brunswick, Canada in 1762. He was the ancestor of most of the Rideouts of New Brunswick. In 1765, the government of Nova Scotia granted Nicholas some 500 acres of land in Mangerville. In 1757, he was a member of the Georgetown Militia. It is said he was a ship builder and worked with his father. He went to New Brunswick with the "Perley Colony", which was composed of a large number of Massachusetts and Connecticut families. One account says these people went to N.B. in one of Rideout's ships. They were nearly all farmers and most of them sympathized with the American Colonies.

Among these Mangerville Colonists, Nicholas seems to have had great weight and influence. He had quite a little wealth and owned several vessels.

In Kidder's valuable book called Eastern Maine and Nova Scotia During the Revolution, is an extract of a letter from Colonel John Allen to the Massachusetts Council, Boston, 25 Feb. 1777.

"I must beg leave at this time to acquaint your Honours, that the inhabitants of the county of Subury in Nova Scotia, now a county in N. B. had authorized me to appear in their behalf and agreeable to instructions would make known their warm and zealous attachment for the United States. Esteeming themselves the subjects of the States and are determined to defend the cause to their utmost. "

The American Colonies then sent troops to Subury Co. to protect these people, and John Allen was made "1st Colonel for the Expedition to the St. John River. " Forts were built near Frederiction and the committees of both houses resolved to send ammunition to the inhabitants of Subury Co. to use in helping the American Colonies.

In the histories of this time, we read in several places that "Colonel Allen is stopping with the Rideouts in Mangerville. " Kidder says, Col. Allen sent a very particular letter to Mr. Rideout of commendation for his attachment to the cause desiring him to procure something that was needed, and send in Rideout boats. After the Revolution many descendants of Nicholas Rideout returned to Me. and didn't go back to New Brunswick. Rideout was always a good friend to the American Colonies. He was very upright.

FOURTH GENERATION OF PARENTS
FIFTH GENERATION OF CHILDREN

A(4)2.1.1. Benjamin Rideout, Jr., b. 13 July 1754 in Brunswick, Cum., Me., md. 11 Oct. 1777 to Miriam Stover, b. 1762 of Brunswick, Me., Son of Ben Rideout and Mary Getchell.

Issue:

+A(5)2.1.1.1. Wanton Stover.

Benjamin Rideout was a resident of Brunswick, and while there enlisted in May, 1775, served as a private in Captain James Curtis' Company, Colonel James Cargill's Massachusetts Regiment, marched from Cambridge to Deer Island, Penobscot Bay, where he was assigned to be stationed and was discharged in Dec., 1775, having served eight months. He again enlisted in March, 1776, served as a private in Captain William Lithgow's Company, Colonel Mitchell's Massachusetts Regiment, and was stationed at Portland, Massachusetts (Maine) building forts and doing guard duty. Length of this service was nine months. His army number was W. 24754.

He was allowed pension on his application executed July 26, 1832, while residing in Bowdoin, Lincoln County, Maine, where he had then resided for about fifty years.

He died August 3, 1833, at Bowdoinham, Maine.

The soldier married October 11, 1776, at Brunswick, Massachusetts (Maine), to Meriam Stover. Their marriage was recorded on the records of the town clerk of said Brunswick.

Soldier's widow, Meriam, was allowed pension on her application executed August 11, 1837, at which time she was aged seventy-five years and resided in Bowdoinham, Maine.

There is no reference to children of Benjamin and Meriam Rideout.

A(4)2.1.2. John Rideout, b. 24 Apr. 1759, Brunswick, Cum., Me., son of Benjamin Rideout and Mary Getchell, md. 30 May 1783, by Rev. Samuel Eaton, to Elizabeth Getchell, b. abt. 1764 of Brunswick, Cum., Me. He was a sea captain during the Revolution.

A(4)2.1.2. John Rideout, md. (2nd) spring of 1839 to Margaret Shellrup. He was a farmer of Lincoln Co. Me., and of Sandusky and Clermont Co., Ohio. Miss Johnson writes, "Just when John Rideout moved to Ohio from Lincoln Co., Me., we do not know; but probably in 1818, as that was the year of the big migration to the West from Me. He was listed in the 1790 census as being a resident of Clermont Co., Ohio. The genealogical books give the name of Rideout as being derived from the name of the occupation of the Riderout or Out-rider for the King. In the old days, family names were created from the occupation of the first man in any group to gain any prominence in the tribes, while the Anglo-Saxons were still semi-savages." According to Miss D. Johnson, John was a sea captain during the Revolution.

John was the son of John Rideout and Elizabeth Getchell. His wife Sarah had some Cherokee blood in her. She was very good with the sick and traveled over the valley on horseback to wherever she was needed. She died of consumption in Ohio at the age of 71. As yet I have not been able to trace her ancestors.

John and Sarah first went to Ross Co., Ohio from Brunswick, Cumberland Co., Me. with the Isaac Van Tassel Marmee Indians Mission Emigrants in 1822. He was one of the first to settle in the N. W. section of the Ballville Township. Two years later, he located on the Sandusky River and the 15 July 1827 was given a deed to (Inlet Number 50 in the new survey) in the Reservation of two miles square at the foot of the rapids of the Sandusky River on the east side thereof and in the county of Sandusky.

From Deed Book of Sandusky Co. E. p. 33: Part of his land was conveyed by patent to James Monroe, later President of the United States. This land was located on the main highway from Lake Erie to the Western Reserve.

John Getchell built a large two story home with a wing on each side. Here he had an Inn and a dance hall. The main house was still standing and in splendid preservation in 1946. The present owners have a roadside fruit stand.

John Getchell Rideout's lineage traces back to Nicholas Rideout (who married Mary Ingersoll). They lived at Falmouth, Portland, Maine. He was a man of very sturdy qualities which have been inherited by a long line of descendants.

it says: Silas M. was one of the oldest residents of Cumberland, Me. His grandfather, William, was the first ancestor to settle in Cumberland, Me., which was then part of N. Yarmouth. Silas was a cabinet and carriage maker, doing beautiful work in his shop. He used raw materials.

He felt fortunate to attend school six months of the year.

His sons worked with him in building for many years. During Silas's long period of activity, he industriously applied himself to his calling and worked hard for his posterity. He was skilled in cabinet work and made his last table when he was 87 years. An antique specimen and taste in this direction is a table with an inlaid top of different kinds of wood forming a map of the U.S.

A(5)2.4.3.13. Nathaniel. As a starting item, here is a rather startling story that really happened right here in our own area, around the turn of the century. While the story has been in the family since that time, authentic confirmation was not available until recently, when a clipping, apparently from The Advertiser, was found by my father, A. R. Rigby, among the myriad clippings which had been saved by my mother during her long lifetime. Herewith is a copy of that clipping.

BODY NATURALLY EMBALMED

Twelve years ago Mrs. Nathaniel Rideout died at her home at Sommerville, and was buried in what was called, "The Rideout burying ground," which is situated near the schoolhouse, halfway between highway and the river. Last week friends of the deceased decided to disinter the body and place it beside the remains of her husband which reposed in one of the cemeteries near Hartland. John Kay of Waterville was employed to do the work and he had several assistants. One man present was A. G. Downey of Somerville. The outside coffin was found to have been quite decayed and the inside was in more or less the same condition. A new outside box and cover was secured and preparations made ready to raise the body to the surface of the earth. In life she was a very large woman and it was expected to be no easy task. Blocks and tackle were secured and it was found that even this material was insufficient. More men and more tackle had to be brought and those present say the body must have weighed no less than seven hundred pounds. The remains seemed to be neither petrified nor fossilized, as the color of the features were most lifelike. To look at the face one could scarcely believe that life had fled longer than 24 hours. Exposure to the atmosphere made no change and every appearance was that a natural embalming process had taken place.

The graveyard is situated near and on lower ground than a swampy piece of land, and the water was running under the coffin. The water there is heavily laden with lime which must have had the embalming effect.

It is odd that certain vital statistics were left out of this story by Mr. Stevens who, although he must have been rather young at the time, must have known local family relationships. The late Mrs. Rideout in question was the mother of a large family of boys and girls. She was the mother of the late Mrs. Samuel Hallett of Upper Brighton, and grandmother of the late Mrs. A. R. Rigby which made her the great-grandmother of the writer. After her death, her husband was taken into the home of his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Hallett, and was buried from this home, in the nearby Hallett Cemetery. It was because of this that it was decided to move the body of Mrs. Rideout from Somerville to lie beside that of her late husband.

The home now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Faulkner is a modernized version of the original Rideout home. The house next door to the Faulkner home but on the downhill side, now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis, was built by Mr. Rideout for one of his daughters. The old graveyard downhill from The People's Church, still shows signs from its past, there being remains of a headstone indicating that a Scot and his two young sons were also buried there. Evidently the site was being used as a community burying ground.

Among the citizens of this area who are great-grandchildren of this unusual couple are also Max Rideout and Harry Hatfield as well as Howard Kennedy and Clifford Rideout.

The writer feels most fortunate in possessing a framed photograph of Mrs. Rideout, taken when she was apparently quite a young woman.

The following history of the Nathaniel Rideout family, which was copied by the writer from the Rideout Family Bible should be of considerable interest to many of the descendants. The Bible was at that time in possession of Henry Oscar Tompkins (since deceased) of Milltown, Maine, a grandson of Nathaniel. The home has since been broken up, and the present whereabouts of the Bible is not known to the writer.

David Oliver, Sr. was the son of John Getchell Rideout and (1st) Sarah Randall. David Oliver, was of a wondering nature. He hunted the hills for mining prospects and would be gone for weeks. His parents owned a large farm just two miles from Fremont.

He was a fine looking young man. He was very popular with the young people. He loved to dance and played the fiddle and accordin very well. He became very excited at the gold rush in California, and urged his brothers and brothers-in-law to make the trip to the gold fields. So they took three ox teams and wagons loaded with provisions, tools and trinkets to trade with the Indians. They made the trip to Salt Lake in safety but when arriving there, their wagons were badly in need of repair and their oxen surely needed a rest, so they decided to rest in Salt Lake.

While resting there, David decided to attend the Mormon Church meetings, much to the disgust of his brothers. In time, he told them he had been baptized. The brothers turned back, but David stayed in Utah and finally married Ann Blows Gilby, who had lost her husband (Mathew Gilby) and five children with cholera in St. Louis. Ann and her small son Mathew walked across the plains. She met David Rideout and they were married. They would buy small farms and the eggs and butter kept the wolf from the door. He located the large coal fields in Carbon Co. , but not having the money to develop them he sold them to a large mining Company for $300.00.

When Draper, Utah was settled, the Rideout family was sent there to help colonize it.

ghter of Oliver Blows and Hannah Norman. She was md. (1st) to Maure (Mathew) Gilby in England. They had six children, 1. Charles, b. 1839, d. 1850, 2. Mary Ann, b. 1841, d. 1850, 3. Jane, b. 1843, d. 1850, 4. Ann, b. 1845, d. 1850, 5. Mathew, b. 8 Aug. 1847 in Biggleswade, Bedford, England, d. 24 June 1913 in Granger, Utah.

Ann's parents were peasants, owning no land, but were tenants on the lands of wealthy landowners. He was an expert weaver and supplemented his family income with this work. He taught his daughter, Ann, how to weave and she became very efficient. She had very little schooling and her mother taught her how to read and write. She got work as a nurse maid, later became a ladie's maid and traveled with the ladies she worked for. She md. about in 1838 to Mathew Gilby. They lived in Caldecott, Bedfordshire, England. They were of a religious nature and upon meetng some Mormon Elders, they joined this church, which was very upsetting to her parents, who refused to recognize her as a daughter. So they decided to come to America. They sailed on the ship, "James Pennell," on 2 Oct. 1850 as steerage passengers. This was at the time of the cholera epidemic of 1850 and 51. Mathew, Sr. and all their children but Mathew took the cholera and passed away. Ann was very ill, after she recovered, she came to Utah with the Heber C. Kimball Co. She and her son walked all the way.

A(6)2.2.10.1.1. Albert's parents, Joshua Merrill Rideout and Elizabeth Clough were natives of Cumberland Co., where he now resides. His great grandfather, William, first settled on the farm now owned and occupied by Albert and was preceded by his grandfather, Ruben, and his father Joshua. The family of Rideouts were among the first settlers of the town, and this time honored homestead has been in the family for four successive generations. The original purchase was some 80 acres, but now contains over 150 acres. At the age of nine years he was with his parents from Portland and settled on this farm where he has resided since. Mr. Rideout ranks among the representative agriculturalists of Cumberland, and is known as a citizen of reliability and integrity in all of his relations in life. He is a member of the Republican party and a promoter of all enterprises tending to the good of his own town and its citizens.

Samuel was made a deacon in 1882 and served in that capacity for over forty years and as church treasurer for eight or nine years. He was in the 14th Vermont Regiment and was in the battle of Gettysburg.

Sarah's children were especially studious. 1. Adelaide taught school in an Indian school in Santee, Neb.
Her husband, Fred B. Riggs was the son of the principal of the Normal School and at his father's death, Fred became principal. Adelaide died of tuberculosis. 2.
Eugene went to Chicago and learned typewriting readily and became a very proficient workman. 3. Bertha went to the Udson Academy and Bradford, but because of her health, she took up shorthand and typewriting and completed a year's course. Then she went to Canada and worked at dressmaking with her grandmother. Later she studied Domestic Science and Music in Chicago where she died of pneumonia. She was of a happy and sweet disposition and very bright and attractive. 4. Carroll gave up his academy course and joined his brother Eugene in the printing business. He left the printing and went into the hardware business, but returned to the linotype machine. Carroll and his wife, Anna, had no issue, but adopted a little girl named Amy, who went to college. 5. Henry graduated from the Union School in Hudson, attended W. Reserve Academy for awhile.
Then he took a year course at the Cleveland Business College after which he worked three years in Cleveland

Trust Co. Following this he went to Chicago to learn the linotype business under Eugene. He is a very accurate and skillful workman, always thoughtful of his father. He and Carroll are both musical as was their father. Carroll played the cornet and Henry played the alto horn.

A(7)2.1.2.5.2.5. David Oliver Rideout, Jr. Taken for the Herald-Republican. David O. Rideout, a member of the Utah state Senate who is prominently mentioned for the gubernatorial nomination and who is being urged by a host of friends all over the state to permit his name to be used as a candidate for the honor, was born at Holiday, Salt Lake county, Utah, in 1855. His father was D. O. Rideout, who was one of the forty-niners into California. The senior Rideout shortly afterward returned to Ohio, his native state, where he organized a company of pioneers and again started for the golden west. He traveled as far as Salt Lake, where he remained, becoming a convert to the Mormon faith.

The young man endured the hardships of early pioneer life in Utah. His parents were poor and it became necessary for him to work for himself and contribute to the support of his mother and sister. As a boy, he worked on a farm, at the saw mills in Cottonwood canyon, at the mines, at the smelters and on the railroads and other work. Mr. Rideout was educated in the common schools of the early days. When the family moved to Draper he was aided in his studies by Dr. John R. Park, who was teaching at Draper at that time. Later he attended the Logan Academy. In order to keep himself in school it was necessary to sell what little property he possessed, including his saddle, bridle and favorite riding horse. This was not done without keen regret, but the desire for an education prevailed. Later he taught school at Spanish Fork, Springville, Salem and South Cottonwood. He then took up the study of law at Ann Arbor, Mich. He graduated and was admitted to the bar of that state and later in Utah.

On his return to Utah after graduating, the enabling act having just been passed and the constitutional convention called, he was unanimously chosen as a nominee to represent his district in the convention, but was defeated by the narrow margin of 35 votes. For six years he served as a justice of the peace in Draper, being unanimously chosen at each election. He was a member of the school board at Draper for eleven years. He was elected on the Democratic ticket as state senator in the first Legislature, serving in the Senate for the long term, returning in 1900. He was again elected state senator as a Republican in 1912 and is still. . . Senator Rideout was chairman of the committee of education in the senate . . . of the bill which became the school law of the state. In the Legislature of 1909 Senator Rideout was the chairman of the judiciary committee.

Senator Rideout was married in 1877 to Mary A. Terry, a daughter of Joshua Terry, one of the first pioneers of this state. Mrs. Rideout died two years ago, leaving eight children.

During the last session of the Legislature, Senator Rideout secured the passage of twenty-one bills through the senate, twenty-one of which passed the house and twenty of which were signed by the governor. This is said to be the highest record in the career of any member of any Legislature. All the bills were of a constructive and progressive nature.

Among the important bills introduced by Senator Rideout and which became laws were the following: A bill authorizing the governor to appoint a commission to inquire into the question of the liability of employers to injured workmen and to draft a bill to be introduced in the next Legislature providing compensation in case of injury; a bill appropriating $1500 each to the families of the victims of Lopez; a mother pension bill providing relief to mothers with dependent children; a land mortgage bank act, providing for the incorporation of rural credit banks with small capital, designed to promote thrift in small communities; an act providing for the use of the camera in the recorder's office for the purpose of recording deeds and other instruments entitled to record, and to make photographic copies of the same. It is estimated that in a county as large as Salt Lake county, $7000 to $10,000 per year could be saved in the recording of these instruments alone, in addition to the saving to attorneys and others who desire certified copies of such instruments. This method provides against forgery, as the eye of the camera sees everything that is on the face of the deed or other instrument and makes a perfect record thereof. An act providing for the election of an additional justice of the peace of cities of 40,000 or more inhabitants; seven bills directing the state institutions and state board to pay into the state treasury monthly all money received as fees or for the sale of products, stock, etc., looking to greater accuracy in keeping the accounts of the state. Senator Rideout was also successful in securing the passage of a joint resolution proposing an amendment to Article XIII of the constitution relative to revenue and taxation. This resolution will be voted on at the next general election. If the amendment carries, the assessor will be able to reach billions of dollars' worth of property, for the purposes of taxation, which it is impossible to reach under the constitution as it now stands, and thus considerably lessen the rate of taxation of property which now bears its just proportion.

During the time that he was a member of the school board in Draper, Senator Rideout was a strong advocate of the centralization of school buildings and he inaugurated the system of transporting the children living at a distance to one central school. At that time the schools were widely scattered. For two years he provided such transportation at his own expense in order not to cripple the school funds. Originating in Draper, this system of school centralization and transportation of children has been generally adopted in nearly every school district in the state. In 1896 Senator Rideout opened up an extensive silica bed in the south end of Salt Lake county on the San Pedro railroad, said by experts to be the largest deposit of silica to be found anywhere in the world, the material being used extensively in the building industry and by the smelting companies for the lining of converters.

Within the past few years, Senator Rideout has been interested in farming and has been successful in reclaiming a large acreage of alkali lands formerly considered worthless for agricultural purposes.

Senator Rideout is also a director in the affairs of the Draper Canning company, Draper Irrigation & Pipe Line company and the Draper Commercial company.

At his services, U. S. Senator William H. King was one of the speakers and told of his honesty and integrity. Gov. Dern came to the services, and was invited on the stand and asked to speak. The Governor gave a wonderful tribute.

Mary Ann had a happy girlhood. She worked with the young girls in the town. She helped with all civic or church duties, and where there was need, she and her husband were the first to give help.

There was a large family, but when her husband needed to go away, she would get help in the home and take care of the store. She had a beautiful voice. Her husband's mother lived at our home and was given our love and respect.

Mary Bergeta Vail was born 12 Feb. 1897 in Thayne, Wyoming, daughter of Lewis Vail and Mary Ann Peterson. She went to school in Star Valley, Wyoming and came to Salt Lake in 1927.

Seth went to school in Draper, Utah until 1896 when he left with his parents and family for Wyoming. At the age of 19, he was thrown under the front wheel of a wagon and his right arm was crushed, his shoulder blade and several ribs were broken and he has been crippled since. He went with his father to Alberta, Canada to check on moving there, but returned to Cowley, Wyoming. In 1922, he moved to Salt Lake City, Utah. He worked in the R. R. Shops and then got work at the Bell Shoe Co. where he met Mary and they were married. They established a retail coal business and did very well. Later on they built a service station near their home and stocked some groceries. They worked hard and bought their present home. Mary's mother lived with them and they were all very happy.

Seth sang with the Tabernacle Choir and traveled with them and belonged to the Swanee Singers Male Chorus.

By the summer of 1947, their health had begun to fail and their doctor advised them to go to a warmer climate.

So for a number of years, they spent the winters in Mesa, Arizona and St. George, Utah. They are most contented and have some valuable property in Holiday, Utah.

Frank Herbert Hanson, widely and favorably known among the teachers of Newark, was born in Portland, Maine, September 11, 1861. He inherited his love for teaching from both his parents. James Hobbs Hanson, the father of Frank Herbert Hanson, was a well-known educator of his day and a graduate of Waterville College (now Colby College) in the class of 1842. In September 1843 he became preceptor of Waterville Academy at a time when the school had only five scholars. In March 1854, when he resigned by reason of ill health, 150 students were enrolled in the institution. From 1854 to 1857 he was the principal of the high school in Eastport, Maine. He then became principal of the Boy's High School in Portland, Maine and held this position for seven years. In 1865 he returned to Waterville and took charge of Waterville Academy (now Coburn Classical Institute) making it a preparatory school to the University. Here he remained principal after 40 years of service in the one school, until his death in 1894. As a Greek and Latin scholar he stood preeminent. Among the fruits of his unceasing service was the gift of $50,000 from ex-Governor Coburn to the Institute, in consequence of which the name was changed to Coburn Classical Institute. Besides teaching, Mr. Hanson found time to write many text books, all of which were published by Ginn & Co. of New York. Frank Herbert Hanson's mother, Mary Ellen (Field) Hanson, daughter of Captain Benjamin Field, of Sydney, Maine, was also a teacher in the Waterville Institute. She was at the head of the primary department of the school for the greater part of her life.

With such a heredity, it is not at all strange that Frank Herbert Hanson early evinced an aptitude for study. After a good preparation, he entered Waterville Classical Institute from which he graduated in 1877. In 1879 he entered Colby University, now Colby College and graduated in 1883 with the degree of A. B. In 1886 he obtained his degree of A. M. Meantime, he spent a year in business, but quickly decided that he was far better qualified for teaching than for business. He gave up his position with Chase Brothers of Rochester, New York, and went to Atlantic City, N. J. to fill the post of principal of a grammar school. In 1888 he removed to Newark and was appointed the principal of Washington Street School. Ten years later he was placed at the head of Lawrence St. to So. Market Street School as its principal. There he remained until September 1912, when he was appointed principal of Burnet Street School.

All of Mr. Hanson's energies have not been absorbed by his duties as a teacher. He has delivered public lectures on travel in the New York City Lecture Course, in the Newark Lecture Course, the Irvington Lecture Course, and others. He is also one of the Directors of the Teachers' and Improvers' Building and Loan Association, a member of the Essex Camera Club, of the Maine Society of New York and also Secretary of the Newark Public School Athletic Association for 10 years. He is also a member of the N. J. State Council of Education, of the Schoolmasters Club of New York and of Newark Schoolmen's Club.

Mr. Hanson is also affiliated with several fraternal societies, being a member of Hope Lodge, No. 124 East Orange, Free and Accepted Masons; and of the Royal Arcanum, Woodside Council.

Mr. Hanson married June 20, 1885, Mary Alice, daughter of William K. and Mary (Thompson) Wyman. They had 2 children: Helen Sophia (mar. George Edmund Smith of Lexington, Mass.)

William King and Mary (Thompson) Wyman. Frank Herbert was the son of James Hobbs Hanson and Mary Ellen Field.

There was a wealthy branch of the Rideout family at Sherbourne. A letter from R. L. Mullett of Sutton Road, Preston, Weymouth, throws a little light on one branch of the Rideout (Ridout) family, "My father's mother was a Rideout, her father was Benjamin Boyt Rideout of Okeford, Fitzpaine Dorset. Her brother, Wm. Rideout, farmer of Okeford, Fitzpaine was probably one of the eight Rideouts owning property. He was in Henstridge. The records can be found in Okeford, Fitzpaine, Dorset, England.

The following is from the records of Miss D. B. Johnson.

Mrs. Sarah Rideout Abbott of Saco., Maine, came from Nova Scotia. Her father was a Methodist minister and she says all the Rideouts in this country are related.

A letter from Arthur G. Rideout of 72 Philbeach Gardens, England, dated 4 Sept. 1934 to Mrs. Edwin L. Taylor of Cincinnati, Ohio, Parish Register at St. Peter's Church in Shaftbury states: Abraham, son of Nicholas Rideout, christened 24 Sept. 1677. Nicholas had six sons. Nicholas was christened 9 Mar. 1663. There is a Nicholas christened in Yorick, 18 Feb. 1638. Earlier Nicholas, son of Andrew appears as a grantee of land at Sherbourne in Jan. 1717.

The following is copied from the Indianapolis News dated 18 Sept. 1915, sent to me by Miss Johnson of Arkansas.

Whittier, Cali-Hoosiers accustomed to the delicious pears of the orchards in Indiana are greeted with a surprise here when they examine what the people out here term the alligator pear--the proper name of which is aguacate. When ripe, this pear is six inches long and about fourteen inches in circumference. The skin of the peel is smooth and glossy and very thin. The meat surrounds a seed about the size of a black walnut and the seed is divided from the meat by a thin shell. The seed is in three sections and in its green state tastes like the Hoosier acorn. The germ is in the center of the seed. These alligator pears are on the market here in California and sell for $1.00 each.

The original aguacate tree in California was brought from Australia ten years ago by Albert Raymond A(7)2.4.3.6.6.5., of Whittier, and at this time the tree is about the most valuable on the Pacific Coast. Mr. Rideout sold the ranch on which it grows to J. S. Woodsworth, who says he would not part with the tree for less than $10,000. As soon as the food value of the alligator pear became known to the wealthy residents of California, the fruit found a ready market. The demand became so great that Mr. Woodsworth could not meet it and budding from the original tree was begun. At this time, there are only five acres of bearing aguacate trees in California and one at the Woodsworth ranch is prized so highly that extra precautions have been taken to protect it. Thieves stole the buds for a while and when this was discovered, Mr. s Woodsworth built a board fence around the tree its full height and now keeps it under lock and key.

A. R. Rideout, the pioneer grower of alligator pears, reports a stimulated interest in the fruit since the opening of the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco, where there is a large display of the fruit. Recently, the growers of alligator pears organized a national association with headquarters in Los Angeles and Mr. Rideout is one of the directors. When interviewed, Mr. Rideout said, "Do you want to become fat and at the same time healthy? If you do, eat aguactes. This fruit is the latest laurel in the crown of southern California enterprising fruit men and growers conceived the idea of introducing the aguacate into southern California and it became an immediate success.

Miss Johnson wrote the Dorset Daily Echo, Weymouth, in 1939 concerning Rideouts and Getchells. (Answer)

There was a Phillip Rideout of Sharwick, Clerk in the Holy Order and eight Rideouts who were property owners in various parts of the county.

A(8)2.1.2.5.1.2.1. William Jacob was a leading Phy. and Surg. for more than 30 years in Freeport, Ill., but he devoted himself untiringly and unsparingly to the furthering of Civic progress. Every movement that promised to advance the welfare of the people of the city could count upon his generous and enthusiastic support. No other individual citizen of Freeport, in recent years, had assumed leadership in so wide and varied a field for the common good of the community, and no man had been so universally loved and esteemed by the people as Dr. Rideout. The nobility of his thoughts is clearly shown in the following verses, written by him in the hospital, during his last illness, June 1930.

"Thoughts on Immortality" by Dr. William Jacob Rideout

"How often have I pondered our Mission on Earth and what we are placed here to do.
And why live a life of exceeding worth, if there is nothing to be gained when we are through,
It is no natural plan to sustain such a loss, God and nature ne're go amiss.
I must go home by way of the Cross
There is no other way than this."

"I have read much concerning religion of men, and their varied beliefs of God.
But none show a way at all clear to my kin,
But the path our Savior has trod.
Then why should eternity be but a loss, and the Promise of Eternal Bliss.
I must needs go home by way of the Cross
There is no other way but this."

A(8)2.1.2.5.2.5.12. Eva Mary graduated from the 10th grade at Park School in Draper, Utah. After taking the teacher's examination, she taught school for ten years, the last four in Draper. After her marriage, she and Alfred settled on an eighty-acre farm in Burley, Idaho. By hard work, they succeeded in becoming very independent in later life.

At first their home was small, but there was plenty of the necessities and their children had a good normal life.

Alfred bought sheep, which helped them along, but when World War II came along, their boys went into the service, so they sold their sheep for lack of help. They built a nice four bedroom home and bought eighty acres adjoining them.

Eva became ill, so they bought a very comfortable home in Burley and turned the farm over to the boys.

They have always been willing to help with any church or civic need in the community.

Subject: Letter of Appreciation

To: First Lt. Howard A. Ballard, C. M. P. 0-1798715
Draper, Utah.

1. I wish to express to you my heartfelt appreciation for an outstanding performance of duty in the United States Army Military Government in Korea.
2. In the performance of your duty as Public Safety Officer in the city of Kwangju, Kaang San Gun, Tam Yan Jun, Yong Gwang Gun, and Chong Song Jun from January 1946 to August 1946, you have displayed unusual and outstanding ability in establishing an efficient and aggressive police organization. Thru your efforts, the police in this area have been able to establish an enviable record in limiting crime, in the apprehension of criminals, and the direction of traffic.

By the leadership and ability you have displayed, you have accomplished your mission in such a manner as to be a credit and an example to the United States Army Military Government in Korea.

Malcolm Edmund Rideout
(Biographical Review)
(1898)

Malcolm E. Rideout, a prominent citizen of Cam., (Mass.) and ex-Representative to General Court from this district, (Middlesex) was born in Baring, Maine, on June 9, 1851, his parents being Raymond and Nancy (McIntosh) Rideout. Representatives of the family have lived for many years, in the Kennebec region, where they have been engaged in lumbering. Raymond Rideout, who was a native of Maine, operated saw-mills at different times, and was a life long lumber dealer. He was a member of the Baptist Church. He died at the age of sixty-seven. His wife, who was a daughter of David McIntosh, is still living at the age of sixty eight. Of the eight children born to them three are living, Malcolm E., being the eldest.

Malcolm E. Rideout received his early education in the public schools of Maine, and subsequently began his working life by assisting his father. At the time of the business depression in 1872, he came to Massachusetts, to work in Osborn's planing and moulding mill in Boston, where he continued for several years. Beginning business for himself in Western Avenue in 1880, for five years he manufactured builder's finishing supplies; and in 1883 he bought a factory in State Street, which he operated in connection with the Western Avenue factory until 1885, when the lease of the latter expired. Since then he has occupied only the State Street factory.

Mr. Rideout has always been a Republican, and has always taken an active interest in public affairs. He was elected in 1883 to the Common Council; and subsequent to that he served two terms as Alderman one under Mayor Fox's administration and one under that of Mayor Russell. In 1890, 1891, 1892 and 1893 he was Representative to the Massachusetts legislature, where he served on the Committee on Finance, on the Congressional Redistricting Committee, and also on a special Committee on Taxation that held meetings in all the important cities in the State during the recess. He was for two years, chairman of the Finance Committee, which is the most important in the House, and in that capacity rendered valuable service. He was also House chairman of the special Committee on Taxation. He could have been State Senator the year following his last term as Representative, but demands of his business precluded his accepting the office.

Mr. Rideout is well known in Cambridge among fraternal organizations. He is a member of Amicable Lodge, F. & A. M. ; of Cambridge Chapter and of Cambridge Commandery, K. T. ; also a member of Cambridge Lodge, IO. O. F. of the New England Order of Practection; Past Chevalier of St. Omer Lodge, No. 9, K. of P. ; and ex-Governor of Harvard Colony, Pilgrim's Fathers. He is also a member of the Cambridge Board of Trade.

Mr. Rideout was united with Corris A. Dunbar, of Cherryfield, Maine, in 1872. They have five sons. The eldest of these Percy R., is associated in business with his father, having charge of the bookkeeping. Malcolm E. Rideout, Jr., is private secretary to Congressman McCall.(Earl)

---Postscript---Mr. Rideout, served as Alderman, and later became associated with Cities Service Oil Co. Mr. Howard Eugene Rideout went to Coast Guard Academy in Maryland, and is now retired Commander. Mr. Henry Gilmore Rideout, after graduation from Harvard University, was in New Orleans, La. but became ill with tuberculosis, and passed away.

1. John Christopher was a Captain in the 46 Regiment. He received a grant of arms from the College of Arms in 1783. His G. G. daughter, Mrs. Louisa Black Hawkins says he fought in the Battle of Bunker Hill in the American Revolution on June 17, 1775.

2. Elizabeth, b. 27 Feb. 1754, in St. Paul's Deptford, London, England, d. 10 June 1842, md. 25 April 1781 to Henry Read.

These records are from the Register of Reads and some connections, page 157. It says by Elizabeth marriage to Henry Read in 1781 that she became ancestors to all the Reads recorded in later generations. The early part of the pedigree down to Joseph and Jane Rideout, was drawn up by Mr. Arthur George Rideout who has made extensive researches into the history of his family and kindly supplied for this book.

In early times the Rideouts appear to have settled in Dorestshire, where they are all represented at the present day. In that country, the name is pronounced "Riddut" but elsewhere more usually "Rideout" and this latter pronunciation is the one our family has been accustomed to, so it appears likely that the ancestress, Elizabeth was known by this form.

This is supported by the fact that her g. father, Joseph Ridout was buried under the name of Rideout which seems to indicate how the name was pronounced at that time.

Children of Elizabeth Rideout and Henry Read:

a. Elizabeth, b. 19 Mar. 1782 in Southmark, London, England, d. 28 Aug. 1807.

b. Mary, b. 3 Feb. 1784 in Southmark, d. 27 Feb. 1806.

7. Sarah, b. 7 Feb. 1653, md. (1st) Mr. Eldridge, (2nd) John Colby.
8. Joseph, b. 2 Dec. 1656.

William, b. abt. 1609, was the youngest of the three emigrant brothers, Christopher and John, who came to America on the ship "Confidence", which sailed from Southampton, Eng. 11 April 1638. The family of John consisted of wife, Sarah, and 4 children. It seems that William, as protector for John's family, as John was already in New England judging of the country. William was a millwright and carpenter. He built a barn for John Spencer of Newberry in 1640. William and some associates were prospecting the valley of the River Merrimac for a place to locate, when he heard the sound of water falls of the Powow River not far from the junction with the Merrimac. The place being favorable for mill sites, he located there, built and owned the first mills in Salisbury. These long retained the name of Osgoods Mills. He was one of the proprietors of Salisbury and had a grant of land on each side of the Powow going back 1/2 mile. Entracing a large portion of the land on which now stands the settlements of Salesbury and Amesbury. He owned other tracts of land. There is an Osgood Coat of Arms in Journal of American History, Vol. 5, p. 304. By the original articles of agreement in 1654, William and his family were to have certain rights in the new town of Amesbury while residing in the old town of Salisbury. His mill, known as "Osgood Mills", on the Powow River, though on the Salisbury side, brought him into close relations with Amesbury. Quite a number of residents of both towns worked for him at different times; and his enterprises appear to have drawn young men to that locality from other places. It is said that Sumon, the notorious Indian, once lived with him. His will was proved 15 Mar. 1700.

In Hutchin's Visitations of the Somerset, now in the college of Arms, London, mention is made of a coat-of-arms in 1551 to Thomas Ridout of Henstridge. These arms bear a striking resemblance to those borne by the de Rideouts de Sanci (see Hozier's Armorial General of the French nobility) near Fontainebleau. The will of Walter Rideout of Lanylin, Dorset, a descendant of Thomas, dated 1582, among other legacies he bequeathed a large sum of money to the church of Fontanebleau. Christopher Ridout, son of Thomas, was bapt. at Henstridge, Somerset, 24 Nov. 1664, and settled in Sherlirine, Dorset, Eng. His oldest son, George, b. in 1702, was the father of John Rideout, who came to America with Horatio Sharpe. Another descendant of Thomas of Henstridge settled in Bristol, and mention is made in Hutchins of the marriage in 1674 of Susannah, d. of John Ridout of Bristol to Thomas Strangways of Mellury Dorset. Their dau., Eliz, md. Stephen Fox, who was created Earl of Grandsons of LeRoy Getchell Rideout and Eva May Banta.

Rideout twins, former Tuscola track stars, now in Hall of Fame:

Two former Tuscola high school track stars--the Rideout twins, Wayne and Blaine--were recently chosen for the track and field Hall of Fame of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for their outstanding performances while enrolled at North Texas State College. Awards were presented to the Rideouts at the NAIA track and field championship meet held in Abilene. The awards will be placed permanently in Helms Hall in Los Angeles, according to W. R. Schroeder, managing director of the Helms Athletic Foundation. In addition, copies of the awards have been sent to North Texas State for display in the trophy room.

In 1939, Blaine Rideout won the National AAU 1500 meter race, defeating San Romani, Glenn Cunningham, and others. In 1940, he ran a record mile of 4:10.1 at the Kansas Relays. Blain's best mile, however, was a 4:08.5 at the Memphis Cotton carnival in 1940.

Wayne Rideout set the record in the three-quarter mile run in 3:00.3 to defeat Cunningham at the Princeton Invitation meet in 1938. In 1937, he ran his best two mile performance at the Sugar Bowl meet, where he defeated Don Lash in 9:03.5.

In Madison Square Garden in 1938, the Rideouts teamed with another famous pair of North Texas twins, Elmer and Delmer Brown, to set a world's record of 7:25.5 for the indoor distance medley at the Melrose games. They then teamed with Henry Morgan and Alvin Chrisman to set a world record of 9:59.4 in the outdoor distance medley at the Penn. Relay in 1938.

Placed as underdogs in the 1938 Lone Star track meet, the Rideout twins teamed to enable the North Texas squad to make a runaway of the team scoring. Wayne Rideout was clocked in one of the fastest 880 distances ever run in Texas at that time when he clipped 3.3 seconds of the standing meet record, as well as seven-tenths off his own mark to enter a new record on the Lone Star Conference books. Wayne's time was 1:53.7.

The twins started setting records at TCHS in 1933 when they were juniors, and during that season and the next, the Tuscola team was unbeatable. Both Rideouts are now coaching in Texas.

The Virginia Rideouts from Mrs. Taylor:

Many years ago, John Ridout, an enterprising and wealthy Frenchman came to this country and settled in Virginia. He was one of the founders of Petersburg, Va. In fact, it is said that he contracted to build the city, but met with heavy losses, which gave him much trouble and caused him to die of a broken heart. He left a number of children, one of them a son, John, whom I shall call John the second.

This John the second married the beautiful and accomplished Alice Eldridge, who came from one of the oldest and best families of Virginia, being a descendant of Pocohontas.

From Mrs. Taylor:

Nearly 300 years ago, in 1664, there was a certain Englishman who was christened Christopher Ridout at Henstrede, Somersset, Eng. He was formerly from Fontainebleau, France, and afterwards removed to and settled at Sherbourne, Dorset, about the middle of the 16th century. This gentleman had two sons, John and George. John was born the 4 July, 1699, and is said to have gone to America. He married, but had no children.

The name Ridout has been spelled in many ways, viz; Rydoubte, Tydeout, Riddet, Rideout, and Ridout. They are an old Norman family. The spelling of the name changed about the time the family moved to America. We find an officer in the 43 regiment Light Infantry who fought under Wellington in the Peninsular. He was referred to one year as Lt. Ridout and Lt. Rideout in another year.

Capt. Walter R. Rideout, President Pacific Freight & Transportation Company, also the Rideout Transportation Company, at the foot of Washington Street, Oakland, California. No business man of Oakland is more widely and popularly known about San Francisco Bay than the veteran steamboat man, Captain Walter R. Rideout, the head of the largest trans-bay freighting company in Alameda County.

Walter R. Rideout was born in Truckee, California, July 1867, the son of Capt. J. R. Rideout, who came to California from the state of Maine in 1852, and who was the first man to operate a stern wheel steamer on San Francisco Bay--the steamer "Annie", which had a regular run from San Francisco up the Sacramento River to Marysville. Naturally enough, Walter R. Rideout became a steamboat man very early in life. While still a boy of seventeen years he went to work as fireman on one of his father's ships, working rapidly up to the position of chief engineer and securing an engineer's license. Reaching the highest position possible in one branch of the service did not satisfy his ambitions. He became a navigator, and finally captain of his own steamer, and was the first man in the state of California to hold both a captain and an engineer's license. Although it has been quite a number of years since he has practiced his profession actively, he has always remained interested in and connected with some phase of the transportation business, of which he is an acknowledged authority.

He was the first man to make a commercial success of trans-bay shipping independently from the railroads. In 1909 he established the Pacific Freight & Transportation Company and the Rideout Transportation Company, a subsidiary firm. The business has grown steadily from the beginning, increasing from 75 tons handled daily to 350 tons now handled each day. He employs about eighty-five men, operates three freight boats, the "Alviso," 150 tons; the "Trilby," 100 tons, and the "Juliett," 500 tons. A little more than a year ago, following out his policy of increased efficiency of service, he purchased six big auto trucks to use in the distribution of freight in Alameda County.

The Rideout family has always been active in California's industrial life. E. V. Rideout, brother of Walter R. Rideout, operates a line of steamers running between San Francisco and Sacramento River points. N. D. Rideout, his uncle, was a pioneer Northern California banker, who at the time of his death owned twelve banks scattered over the northern part of the State, and who was well known among the men of finance in the early days in California.

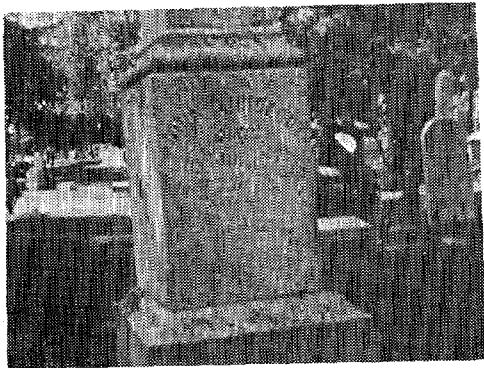

Among the organizations with which he is affiliated may be mentioned the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Alameda County Tax Association, Native Sons, and Woodmen of the World fraternal orders. He was married in 1892 to Miss Sydnor, daughter of S. Y. Sydnor, a pioneer Sacramento Valley rancher. The children of this marriage are two daughters, who make their home with him in this city.
