This Work, the fruit of the past year's labor, is very respectfully, and affectionately Dedicated, as a mark of esteem and friendship.

TO PATRONS AND FRIENDS.

IN the following pages I have embodied all the information I have succeeded in obtaining, of the Stetson Family. Though I have not been able to trace its history back farther than to the earlier days of our country's history, I regret this the less, for the reason that the Family has made for itself a name, and rendered itself illustrious, by the private and public virtues, intelligence, and enterprise of its members. Cornet Robert Stetson, our first ancestor, was one of the most noted and valuable men in Plymouth Colony, and held many offices of trust and responsibility. Several of his descendants distinguished themselves in the War of the Revolution, and the War of 1812, and held different offices in the U. S. Army. Among our number, there has been one Representative to Congress, and several Senators and Representatives in Massachusetts and Maine; Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians, and Justices of the Peace; eminent Merchants, and Manufacturers; one Judge of the Municipal Court; Deputy Sheriffs; Selectmen, and other Town Officers; one Professor, in Jefferson College, La.; Captains, in the Army and Navy; Directors of Banks and Rail Roads, &c. &c. Indeed, the name stands deservedly high in the public esteem; and it is believed none, with the same advantages, can present a greater array of men of worth and influence. Its present representatives, wherever known, prove the truth of this assertion.

I find our Family name differently spelt on old records; as Stilson, Sturtson, Studson, Stedson, Stutson, and Stetson. At present, it is usually spelt Stetson, though some families spell it Stutson.

The Coat of Arms, in the Title-page, is a copy of the coat found among the papers of Cornet Robert, and is, without doubt, authentic.

To those who have assisted me, by furnishing copies of Records, &c., I tender my sincere thanks. Were I to name all to whom I have been thus indebted, I should mention several Town Clerks, and very many heads of Families. I have sought to render the work as perfect as possible. I dare not flatter myself that it is entirely free from errors, but as a whole, it is believed to be worthy of confidence.

TO THE READER.

IN the following pages, the ARABIC numeral is placed against each son who left descendants ; and each numeral will be found to occur twice ; once to designate the position of the individual in the series, or in his father's family ; and the second time at the head of his own family. By this means, it is easy to trace every family, and every individual, back to the first ancestor. The object of the few ROMAN numerals which occur, will be readily understood. The abbreviations are few. Generally, the date which follows the name, is the date of birth ; bap. stands for baptised ; m. for married ; d. for died ; and ch. for children.

ERRATA.

P. 6, Note 1, line 10, for County read Countrey. P. 10, line 25, omit the words "of land." P. 12, line 25, for promise read proviso. P. 13, line 3, after annually insert the words to be. Line 13, for "of the same," read "thereof." On p. 21, it is said that Mr. Robert Stetson of Hanover, "lived on a part of his grandfather's Indian purchase." I have since ascertained that his farm was made up of the Common lands of Scituate. P. 40, Nos. 89, 90, and 91, James, Abel, and Royal, were sons of Gideon, instead of Benjamin. P. 41, For the family and descendants of Mr. Zenas Stetson, see Appendix. P. 48, No. 140, instead of Sarah Tronbon, read Troubou. P. 51, line 6, for Dudley read Dwelley. P. 52, in family 12, Bradbuary m. Benj. Dwelley, not Dudley.

FAMILY ORIGIN

THE ancestor of the Stetson family in America, was Robert Stetson, commonly called Cornet Robert, because he was Cornet of the first Horse Company raised in Plymouth Colony, Mass., in the year 1658 or 9.* From what place he originated, I have not been able satisfactorily to learn. Tradition says that he came from England, and from the County of Kent. The precise year when he landed in this country, is also unknown. He settled in Scituate in the year 1634, at which time he received from the Colony Court a grant of a considerable tract of land, on the North River, which constituted his farm.† His house stood on a sloping plain, near the bank of the river, and an unfailing and valuable spring, which supplied him and his descendants with water for two hundred years, still marks the spot. The old house is gone; and the farm, which was kept in the possession of the family until the time of Charles Stetson, has, by his death, and by the marriage of his widow to Clarke Sampson of Duxbury, now passed out of the Stetson name.

Whether the Cornet married before or after his settlement in Scituate, I am unable to say; and the maiden name of his wife is unknown. Tradition says he married twice, and the last time a widow Bryant. In his will, he calls his widow Mary.

I find the name of Robert Stetson among those able to bear arms in Scituate, in the year 1643; and in the year 1652 he became a freeman.‡ The Cornet appears to have been a very enterprising man from the time of his first settlement in the Colony, and was held in high estimation by his own townsmen, and by the Colony in general.

In 1656, he erected a saw-mill on what was then called the "third Herring brook,"* which was burnt by the Indians in 1676.†

In 1658, being in "want of a convenient way from his house to the meeting; this Court doth request and appoint Mr. Hatherly and Capt. Cudworth with any other whom they shall choose to lay out a foot way from the uper meeting house att the north river at Scittuate up the said river to the house of Robert Studson; soe as may be most convenient and least prejudiciall to any."—Col. Rec. In the years 1654, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9; 1660, 1, 2, 6, 7, 9; 1670, 1, 3, 4, 7, and 8; seventeen in all,—he was a deputy to the General Court; a responsible office at that time, and one conferred only upon the most prominent men in the several towns. In 1660, and for several years subsequent, according to Deane, he was commissioner to act for the country, in all matters relating to the trade at Kennebec; and in 1665, for his services in that capacity, he had granted to him two hundred acres south of Mr. Hatherly's grant, above Accord Pond.‡

* "At a full town meeting of the town of Scittuate, Nov. 10, 1656. Free libertie was this day graunted to any man or men of the town to sett up a saw mill upon the third herring brooke as neare the north river as conveniently it may bee on these conditions viz: that in case any of the townsmen doe bring any Timber unto the mill to bee sawne the owners of the mill shall saw it whether it bee for boards or planks before they saw any of their owne Timber and they are to have the one halfe for sawing of the other halfe. And in case any man of the Towne that doth not bring any Timber to the mill to bee sawne shall want any boards for his owne pticulare use the owners of the mill shall sell him boards for his pticulare use soe many as he shall need for the County pay at three shillings and six pence an hundred Inch Sawne, but in case the men of the Towne doe not supply the mill with Timber to keep it att worke; The owners of the mill shall have liberty to make use of any timber upon the common to saw for their benefitt; and in case any man or men of the towne doe undertake to build a saw mill as aforesaid they shall begine the worke within three monthes after this day or ells this order to be voide.

JAMES TORREY, Town Clark.

We whose names are underwritten doe testifie that we were with Robert Studson att worke the 9th of February 1656 to provide Timber to build the saw mill that the said Robert Studson hath built."

‡ It is presumed that the following records relate to the above named grant. "June 1665. In reference unto a former libertie granted by the Court unto Cornett Studson; two hundred acres of land is granted unto him on the southerly side of the three mile square of land formerly granted unto Mr. Hatherly. The said two hundred acres of land with all and singular the appurtenances belonging thereunto to appertaine unto the said Cornet Robert Studson to him and his heires and assigns for ever, to bee layed forth for him by Leiftenant James Torrey."—*Col. In the year 1661, Cornet Stetson was chosen a member of the Council of war;* and in 1681, I find him still holding that office.† It is presumed that he held it during this whole period of twenty years, as at different intervals his name is mentioned under such circumstances as to prove that he was connected with this council.‡ The members of the Council of War were all men of the first standing; chosen because of their peculiar qualifications for the office; and regarded as among the most active and valuable men in the Colony.

In the war with Philip and other Indian tribes, which was carried on by the Colony during the latter half of the aforementioned twenty years, Cornet Stetson was an active officer, and rendered valuable assistance. In 1671, the Court agreed and voted, that "some force be raised and sent to the Indians att Saconett to fetch in their armes and in defect thereof their p<sup>r</sup>sons as oc-son. It is also ordered that when they come upon the place That they are to allow him such a proportion thereof as they shall thinke meet considering the badness of the land there. 1667. According to the Courts appointment we layed out unto Cornett Robert Studson a certain tract of land bounded as followeth viz. on the North side by those lands that were graunted att accord pond; on the east by the line of the Towne of Scituate untill it crosse a deepe still brooke; and on the South west and westerly side by the said brooke; and soe againe from the Townes line as Mr. Hatherlys land runs westerly untill it crosse the said brooke there again; with all the spots and holes of meadow that are within the abovesaid bounds.

† The Council of War chosen in 1681 were, "Capt. Nathaniel Thomas, Capt. Josiah Standish, Capt. Jonathan Sparrow, Lieft. Ephraim Morton, Lieft. John Thacher, Ensigne Marke Eames, Cornett Robert Studson, Secretary Nathaniel Morton, and Mr. James Walker."—Col. Rec.

The following is a copy of the oath administered to the members of the Council of War: "You shall redily appear on any summons directed to you by the President of the Councill of Warr at such place or places as you shall be ordered unto by the said summons unless any inevitable providence doth or shall impaall; att which meetings you shall with respect to the good and welfare of this Jurisdiction Give your best advice and counceill; in all matters of Importance (or soe seeming) presented to you in reference to peace or Warr; you shall not disclose or discover any counceill committed unto you; but shall conceale all matters that may be agitated and Transacted in the said Council in reference to the p<sup>r</sup>misses, That shall be thought meet to be concluded by the President and counceill of Warr; Soe help you God whoe is the God of truth and punisher of falsehood."—*Col. ‡ Under date of 1671, June, after speaking of the disposition to be made of certain arms taken from the Indian King Philip, which were declared to be "justly forfeit," and which were to be "kept att the severall Townes according to their equal proportions; untill October court next;" and of arms taken from the Indians of Namasakott and Assowamsett, allies of Philip, "that were fetched in by Major Winslow;" I find the following names of "such as are aded to the magistrates to be of the Councill of Warr; Mr. Josiah Winslow Sen'r, James Walker, Thomas Huckens, Nathaniel Morton, Lieft. Morton, Cornett Studson, Ensigne Eames, and Isacke Chettenden."—Col. Rec.

cation may require;" and the management of this enterprise was "referred to the Council of Warr, or soe many of them as shall meet; soe as they be nine in number, viz: the major p'rts of them concurring."—Col. Rec. Of this Council, it will be recollected, the Cornet was a member. At home and abroad, were his services important; in protecting his own townsmen, who suffered greatly during the war; and in giving battle to the foe wherever they went. In the year 1667, about the time of the opening of the war with Philip, Cornet Stetson was appointed by the Colony to visit that Sachem, "in behalf of the country," but it does not appear that he succeeded in his mission, or in inclining the Indian warrior to keep the peace.

In 1668, Cornet Stetson was commissioned to purchase of the Indian Sachem Josias Chickatabutt, a tract of land now principally comprehended in the towns of Hanover and Abington, for the use of the Colony; and as that tract of land, by order of the Court, was subsequently re-deeded to him, the following papers relating to that transaction are copied from the Colony records, as matters of family interest, and as serving to show, in connection with the grants of land made to the Cornet at different times by the Colony, the amount of his Real Estate.

"Whereas I whose name is hereunto subscribed was by the Court held at Plimouth the fourth of July 1684 ordered to lay out a certain p'sell of land formerly purchased of Josiah Chukatabutt the late Indian Sachem by Cornett Robert Studson for the use of the Colony of New Plimouth ; as by the deed thereof under the said Indians hand and seale dated April 13th 1668, more at large appeareth, and after purchase made thereof the court disposed of the said tract of land to the said Studson, William Brewster and divers other p'rsons as by the order of the said Court may apcare Have according to the above recited order with the helpe of severall other p'rsons Laid out the said tract of land according to the length and bredth ; and in such manner as by the said deed is specified and sett down, viz : beginning at the South East corner of a tract of land of 3 mile square formerly graunted unto Mr. Timothy Hatherly at Accord pond commonly called the shares and from the South east corner wee measured along by the upper bounds of Scittuate Township 3 miles Southward and on the brow of a hill neare a beaver dam made across Indian head River wee marked a white oake tree of about two foot over on four sides for the southeast corner bounds from which tree we sett and ran west nine degrees south and marked severall Trees in and by the range and on the East side of poor meadow brooke at the bank side wee marked a Clumpe of maple trees, from whence wee continued our line about 60 rodd farther and came to the extent of 2 mile from the said white oake tree and there on a plane on the west side of the said brooke sett up a stake marked and raised heap of stones about it ; for the south west corner bounds of the said tract and from the said heape of stones we sett and ran north

In witness whereof I hereunto sett my hand the 16th day of May 1685.

NATHANIEL THOMAS."

In 1672, Oct. 29th, an order of Court was issued to the town of Scituate to lay out certain lands in the westerly part of the town, and in accordance with this order a Committee was chosen, of which Robert Stetson was a member, who reported their doings to the Court at its session of the 4th of June 1673; and in that report I find set off to Cornet Stetson "80 acres of land along by the side of the land hee had of the Countrey and adjoining to it 555 rodd in length."

In 1656, "fifty acres of land were granted to Robert Studson, aded to twenty acres which hee hath bought which was James Davis his land for which the said Robert Studson shewed a deed in Court; the said 50 acres of land to lye to the seaward of Plymouth path towards the Indian head river In case it be found not to intrench on any former graunts; and in case it shall be soe faund to doe then to have it in some other convenient place where he shall find it."

The above seventy acres, fifty of which were granted him, and twenty purchased; with the eighty acres of common land set off to him; and the Indian tract, three miles long and two wide; and the two hundred acres granted at Accord Pond; constituted his possessions in the west part of the town, and in Hanover and Abington; — an immense body of land, now very valuable, and covered partly with heavy timber, and embracing several dwelling houses and farms. At the homestead, near the North river, his possessions were also extensive. The exact amount of land owned by him here, I have not been able fully to ascertain, but according to the statement of Mr. William Stetson, one of his descendants, who lives very near the old place, and upon a part of the Cornet's land, it extended "from the Block house on the river, below Union bridge, to the Smelt brook, adjoining the bounds between Scituate and Hanover, and from the river back to the road upon which Deacon Ebenzor Stetson, one of the Cornet's descendants, now lives." He also, it appears, owned land in what is now called the "Old Pond Country." Putting all these together, it appears that his landed property was very extensive.

Cornet Robert Stetson died Feb. 1, 1702 - 3, aged 90. He was a man much respected and highly esteemed. "He lived long, and left a good name at last."

His will bears the date of Sept. 4, 1702, and a copy of the same is annexed, which was taken from the Probate Records some years since by Nathaniel Thomas, Register.

    - Timothy. 1657. bap. Oct. 11. Not named in his father's will. Probably died young, and without issue.

JOSEPH OF SCITUATE.

II. Joseph, eldest son of the Cornet, m. Prudence — (See his will, Prob. Rec. Plym. 4. 417. Date Ap. 4, 1722.) He lived in Scituate, and seems to have passed his days in comparative retirement, as his name is not conspicuous in the annals of the town or church. He died between the years 1722 and 1724, as under the first date his will is found, and his Estate was inventoried May 8, 1724. He had—

8. Joseph. 1667. bap. June. Rec. 2d Ch.
9. Robert. Dec. 9, 1670.
Lois. Mar. 1672. m. ~~Joseph~~ Ford. (See her father's will.)
William. Dec. 1673. d. Aug. 14, 1699. No ch.
Desire. Sep. 1676. m. Richard Sylvester of Scituate, Aug. 16, 1703.
Prudence. Sep. 1678. m. Ebenezer Leach of Bridgewater, Dec. 17, 1707.
10. Samuel. Dec. 1679.
Hannah. June 1682. Called Hannah Lincoln, in her father's will. Probably she is the one who m. Solomon Lincoln, Ap. 25, 1705.

8. Joseph, son of Joseph, m. 1st, Hannah Oldham of Pembroke, Nov. 6, 1688; and 2d, Widow Mary Perry of Pembroke, Mar. 1, 1736. — "Mary, wife of Joseph Stetson, Sen. bap. Sep. 26, 1742, agd 61." Pemb. Ch. Rec. The records of his children are from the Scituate books.

- Ruth. Sep. 11, 1689. m. William Bryant of Pembroke, May 7, 1712.
Lois. Aug. 10, 1692. bap. Oct. 18, 1713, agd 22. Pemb. Ch. Rec.

12. Joseph. May 23, 1698. bap. Feb. 21, 1720, agd 22. Pemb. Ch. Rec.
Hannah. Aug. 1, 1700. m. Austin Beane or Bearce of Halifax? Oct. 21, 1736.
13. Hezekiah. Aug. 29, 1703.
Abthiah. Ap. 24, 1706. bap. Dec. 25, 1726, agd 22 — Called Apphia. P. C. R. m. 1st, Moses Wade, 1738; and 2d, Jonathan Chandler, 1745. d. in Bridgewater, 1792, agd 86. Mitchell.

*Abigail. Jan. 17, 1707. bap. in private, being sick, Mar. 31, 1727. Recovered.

Mary. Feb. 1, 1713. bap. Sep. 26, 1731. Pemb. Ch. Rec. m. Isaac Oldham, jr. ? Nov. 11, 1731.

* Is this the Abigail who m. Stutson Bishop of Pembroke, July 22, 1756 ?

9. Robert, son of Joseph, m. Mary Collamore, of Scituate. He was Constable in the year 1722, and seems to have been a man of some business enterprise, though his name does not often occur on the town books.

14. Anthony. Sep. 12, 1693. (Ought this to be 1692 ?)

*Jemima. Mar. 13, 1694. m. Daniel Damon, of Scituate, July 27, 1721. His 2d wife.

Isaac. Mar. 15, 1696. bap. 1700. Drowned in Scituate, by the 4th Cliff, in 1719. Not m.

15. William. June 26, 1700. bap. Nov. 5, 1704.

16. Amos. June 18, 1703. bap. Nov. 5, 1704.

Martha. Sep. 3, 1706. bap. Sep. 8. m. Nehemiah Hatch, Dec. 21, 1731.

17. Gideon. July 19, 1709. bap. July 24.

18. Robert. Sep. 3, 1710. bap. Sep. 10.

* Records 2d Church call this child Jeremiah. The Church records must be mistaken.

10. Samuel, son of Joseph, m. 1st, Elizabeth — (Rec. 2d Ch. where several of the first ch. are called ch. of Samuel and Elizabeth.) She d. before the year 1731, and he then m. Rachael Stetson, da. of Sergt. Samuel Stetson, Jan. 7. His will is dated Nov. 8, 1757, in which his wife is called Rachael. He died in the year 1761. Prob. Rec. Plym. 20. 308.

19. Abner. Nov. 3, 1712. bap. Sep. 6, 1713.

20. George. Nov. 6, 1714. bap. Feb. 20, 1714 - 15.

Elizabeth. Mar. 24, 1717. bap. Sep. 1. m. Nathaniel Stetson of Pembroke, 1739.

21. *Joshua. June 26, 1719.

Alice. Mar. 20, 1720. m. Joshua Ripley, Mar. 29, 1744.

22. Joseph. Mar. 25, 1724.

Ruth. Called Ruth Merritt in her father's will. Is she the one who m. Jonathan Merritt ? Nov. 6, 1746.

* The Records 2d Church say that Joseph and Alice were bap. Sep. 30, 1722 ; but I think the name Joseph is mistaken for Joshua ; and in all the records of the Church relating to this Joshua, the same mistake occurs ; he is constantly confounded with his brother Joseph. An instance will be seen in my account of Joshua's family.

11. Nehemiah, son of Joseph, jr. He lived in Pembroke, whither his father moved after the incorporation of the town; and his wife's name is called Sarah. The date of his marriage, as also the maiden name of his wife, I have not been able to ascertain.

Hannah. bap. Aug. 4, 1723.

23. Zebulon. bap. Aug. 4, 1723.

John. bap. Aug. 4, 1723. d. Ap. 18, 1725.

{ Mary. bap. Ap. 12, 1724. d. Ap. 27, 1726.

{ Nehemiah. bap. Ap. 12, 1724. d. Ap. 27, 1726.

John. d. Dec. 10, 1730.

24. John. b. 1731. bap. Feb. 13, 1732. Pemb. Ch. Rec.

Mary. bap. Mar. 19, 1727.

25. Nehemiah. bap. May 9, 1729.

Deborah. bap. May 11, 1735. m. Jabez Hull of Halifax, in 1762.

12. Joseph, jr., son of Joseph, jr., lived in Pembroke, and m. twice: 1st, Abigail Hatch, Dec. 26, 1727; and 2d, Elizabeth Bourne of Pembroke, May 5, 1757. His will is dated Ap. 10, 1775. Prob. Rec. Plym. 24. 57. and in it he calls his wife Elizabeth. His history is involved in some obscurity, and my records of his children, and of his brother Nehemiah, are much less perfect than I could wish they were.

26. Abel. bap. Nov. 10, 1728. (Called in his father's will, his oldest son.)

27. { John. May 20, 1730. bap. July 12.

{ Hezekiah. May 20, 1730. Not named in his father's will. Probably died young.

Joseph, jr. Dec. 22, 1736. bap. May 8, 1737. Not named in his father's will. Probably he died young. See below.

Hannah. bap. July 9, 1732. Called Hannah Cushman in the will.

NOTE.—Abel, John, and Hannah, are the only children named in the will. If he had others, they doubtless died, either in early years, or without leaving issue, as it is quite probable their names would have been mentioned, had there been any, for he speaks of his son John's da. Hannah, jr. As for Joseph, I find from the Prob. Rec. Plym. 19. 434. that one Joseph Stetson of Halifax d. in 1765, and Abel Stetson administered on his estate; and it is quite probable that this is the one.

13. Hezekiah, son of Joseph. I have not been able to learn any thing about this person. I have no record of his marriage, or of his death. His history, thus far, is entirely a blank to me.

14. Anthony, son of Robert, m. Anna Smith, Mar. 28, 1717. He died in 1747. Prob. Rec. Plym. 10. 394. He lived in Scituate, and was a Cordwainer. (Let. of Admin.) But little is known of his public life. He raised a large and respectable family of children.

Mary. Dec. 9, 1717. bap. May 11, 1718. m. 1st, — Vinal, and 2d, — Woodworth.

28. Isaac. Oct. 19, 1719.

29. Joseph. Feb. 24, 1722. bap. Aug. 5.

Anna. June 2, 1724. bap. June 7. m. William Hayden, in 1744, and left a large family.

30. Charles. Oct. 17, 1726. bap. Dec. 25.

31. Ezra. Sep. 22, 1729. bap. June 28, 1730.

32. Elisha. Jan. 28, 1731. bap. Aug. 4, 1734.

33. Thomas. Ap. 22, 1734. bap. Aug. 4.

34. Benjamin. July 7, 1736.

35. Abiel. Oct. 23, 1738.

*Martha. Aug. 18, 1741. m. Seth Taylor of Pembroke, Nov. 29, 1759, and moved to Chesterfield, Mass., where she d. Ap. 22, 1815.

*In a letter from Mr. William L. Stetson of Chesterfield, a descendant of Abiel Stetson, he says, "My grandfather had a sister Martha, who married Seth Taylor, and moved to C. They had 10 children, all of whom lived to an adult age; and two of them, Mrs. Elizabeth Southwick, aged 87, will now travel 2½ miles on foot and back, to attend meeting on Sunday; and Miss Sally Taylor, aged 70, now lives in town. The others have all died within a few years."

15. William, son of Robert, m. Hannah Lapham, (Lappam, Rec. 2d Ch.) Nov. 21, 1723. He appears to have been a man of considerable note in his day, and was actively engaged in public life. He held for many years, the office of Constable and Collector. He died in 1761, and is supposed to have been murdered, as his body was found in the North River, opposite his house, and he disappeared under circumstances of a very suspicious character. His widow survived him twenty years, and died in 1781.

36. Job. June 23, 1724. bap. June 2, 1728.

Caleb. May 31, 1726. bap. June 2, 1728. As he is not named in the letters of administration on his father's estate, it is presumed that he was then dead, and died without issue.

37. William. } bap. in private, Sep. 28, 1738. Probably they

38. Stephen. } were sick at the time, but recovered.

Hannah. Jan. 18, 1731. Not named in the settlement of the estate.

NOTE.—I find that Anne, da. of William was bap. Sep. 24, 1732, and she m. James Briggs in 1751. I think this Anne is the same as the Hannah above, for Anne Briggs is named in the settlement. A little obscurity hangs about William's family, and the above is the best information I have been able to obtain.

16. Amos, son of Robert, moved to Braintree, and there m. Margaret Thayer, May 9, 1727, da. of Benjamin T. Thayer, who, it is said, kept for a time the garrison in Boston, to defend the whites from the Indians. Under date of 1731, I find on the Prob. Rec. Suf. that "Amos Stetson of Braintree, and Margaret his wife, and da. of Benjamin Thayer, late of Braintree, Quit Claim, for £120, to her brother Benjamin Thayer, all their share of her father's estate." The above Amos was a Cordwainer, and d. in Braintree in 1777. Eleven children, or their legal representatives, are named as heirs to his estate.

Margaret. Dec. 13, 1728. m. 1st, Adam Howard, and 2d, John Gibbens.

39. Amos. May 19, 1730.

40. John. Oct. 27, 1731.

Mary. Mar. 14, 1733. m. Hezekiah Thayer.

41. Rufus. Dec. 8, 1735?

Sarah. m. Samuel Mellish of Dorchester.

Rachael. m. Benjamin Lyon.

42. Benjamin. July 3, 1741.

43. Gideon.

Thankful. Feb. 8, 1746? m. Major William Seaver of Taunton, in 1771.

Hannah. Oct. 24, 1744. m. John Niles.

17. Gideon, son of Robert, lived in Scituate, and was a Currier by trade. He m. Lydia, da. of Joseph and Mary Pitcher, who was bap. Nov. 24, 1717, and m. June 5, 1735. Until the year 1748, on the Scituate Town books, their children are invariably recorded as the children of "Gideon and Lydia." But in his will, he calls his wife Mary; and from the Scituate and Braintree records, it appears that Gideon Stetson of Scituate, m. Mary Puine of Braintree, July 12, 1740. (Aug. 18. Br. Rec.) It may be that the name of the wife is mistaken in the record of births on the Scituate books, as there is no doubt in my mind that Gideon married twice, and married the persons named. He d. in 1761. Prob. Rec. Plym. 16. 173. The children, as named in his will, and as recorded on the town's books, are —

44. Gideon. May 6, 1737. bap. May 29.

45. Amos. June 9, 1741. bap. Jan. 24, 1742.

46. Zenas. Dec. 28, 1743. bap. Mar. 11, 1743 - 4.

Lydia. Nov. 28, 1745. m. Joseph Brooks of Hanover, 1769.

Hannah. Nov. 23, 1747. m. Adam Hunt of Braintree, Mar. 29, 1770.

Mary. May 11, 1750. m. Seth Turner of Scituate, Dec. 11, 1773.

JOSEPH OF SCITUATE.

18. Robert, son of Robert, lived in Hanover. He m. Hannah Tower of Pembroke, Nov. 23, 1733. Mr. Robert appears to have lived on a part of his grandfather's Indian purchase; but his farm there contained only forty-three acres of land. The house erected by him is still standing, on the road from the Congregational meeting-house in Hanover, to Hanson; and is the oldest house but one in Hanover. In 1746 he sold this place to William Stetson. The date of his death is not known.

Robert. May 8, 1740. bap. May 18. d. Feb. 27, 1768.
not m.

Reuben. Nov. 31, 1746. d. Jan. 24, 1769. not m.

Hannah. Sep. 15, 1748. m. Elijah Gilbert. (Some say Josiah Randall.) Date of marriage and death unknown.

Mary. June 22, 1751. m. Gershom Curtis, 1780.

47. Batcheler. Dec. 11, 1753.

Caleb. Aug. 13, 1756. d. Sep. 21, 1774, in the W. Indies.

Martha. July 28, 1760. m. Morgan Brewster, Mar. 31, 1784. d. 1838.

Jemima. Dec. 24, 1763. m. in Maine.

19. Abner, son of Samuel, m. Deborah, da. of Matthew Stetson, Oct. 7, 1762. He lived in Scituate, and d. Nov. 20, 1805, aged 89. Rec. 2d Ch. His will is dated July 28, 1795. Prob. Rec. Plym. 40. 334.

Deborah. 1763. m. Abner Crooker of Marshfield, Nov. 27, 1791. (Nov. 21. Ch. R.)

48. Joshua. Oct. 1766.

Lois, or Louisa. 1768. m. Henry Josselyn of Pembroke, Ap. 13, 1793, and d. July, 1843.

49. Abner. July, 1771.

50. Melzar. Nov. 27, 1772.

Rogers. 1775. Deaf and dumb. Never m. d. Oct. 1843.

20. George, son of Samuel, m. Eunice, da. of Jonah Stetson, May 10, 1742. He was in the Revolutionary War, and tradition says he was one of Washington's Life Guards. He was also in the French War of 1756. Deane. The date of his death I have not been able to ascertain.

Eunice. bap. Oct. 25, 1747. m. 1st, Thomas Nash, Feb. 18, 1766, and 2d, ——— Jordan.

51. George. bap. June 2, 1751.

52. Samuel. bap. Oct. 20, 1754.

Christopher. Never m. Lost in a privateer.

21. Joshua, son of Samuel, m. Mary ———. He lived in Scituate. The record of his family is quite imperfect, and as yet I have not been able to learn the fate of any of its members. On the town books I find against one Joshua, presumed to be this one, the following.

Joseph. bap. in private Jan. 19, 1744 - 5, being sick. The child doubtless died.

Susanna, (or Lusanna.) Feb. 28, 1745. bap. July 27, 1746.

Mary. Aug. 15, 1748.

Prudence. Mar. 19, 1750. bap. Dec. 1, 1751.

The Rec. 2d Ch. call Lusanna, Mary, and Prudence, children of Joseph Stetson; but, as I remarked when speaking of Joshua in the family to which he belongs, he is constantly confounded with Joseph on the Church Records, and here his children are thus confounded. I am sure that my account of Joseph's children, which follows, is correct, because his son Joseph is living; the above must be, therefore, as the town records say, the children of Joshua.

22. Capt. Joseph, son of Samuel, m. Martha Gross of Scituate, Mar. 20, 1778. He was a mariner the former part of his life, but settled down to farming before his death, which took place in 1797. Prob. Rec. Plym. 36. 225. I have been told, by Mr. Harvey Stetson of Pembroke, that Joseph owned a place in Scituate, which he sold to Capt. Seth Foster, and then bought another, above the old forge in Hanover, on which Charles Dyer now lives.

Xoa. May, 1779.

Zintha. 1781. m. Ebenezer Curtis, jr. and moved to Maine.

53. Joseph. Aug. 27, 1787.

Lucy. 1789. d. Mar. 13, 1846.

One son, Joseph. b. 1783. d. at the age of 4.

23, 24. Zebulon, and John, sons of Nehemiah. I have been able to learn nothing about either of these, except that John was published to Joanna Dote of Plympton, in 1763. Halifax Records.

25. Nehemiah, son of Nehemiah, lived in Halifax, and m. widow Elizabeth Bearce, July 30, 1754, of Halifax. His estate was administered upon in the year 1756, from which it appears that he died at the age of 27. Prob. Rec. Plym. 14. 29. d. Jan. 11, 1756, in Halifax. His widow m. Abner Hull of Kingston, July 15, 1758.

Sarah. Feb. 21, 1755. m. Gamaliel Bryant of Halifax, Nov. 20, 1772.

26. Abel, son of Joseph, m. Lydia ——. His will is dated Jan. 11, 1776. Prob. Rec. Plym. 24. 67. He lived in Pembroke, and probably died there about the time of the Revolutionary war. His widow died Nov. 16, 1810.

Lydia. Aug. 11, 1754. d. Sep. 26, 1754.

54. Abel. Aug. 7, 1755.

Abthiah. July 22, 1757. d. Oct. 13, 1758.

55. Zenas. Nov. 7, 1759.

Lydia. Mar. 19, 1762. m. James Vaughan of Pembroke, Nov. 2, 1784.

Martha, Dec. 4, 1765. m. Benjamin Bates of Hanover, Mar. 3, 1786.

56. Hezekiah. Dec. 2, 1752.

Hannah. Sept. 1763. Burned to death.

Abigail, called Nabby in her mother's will. Not m. — d.

27. John, son of Joseph, m. Hannah Cushing of Pembroke, June 25, 1770. His estate was administered upon in the year 1776, Oct. 7. Prob. Rec. Plym. 24. 208. His widow m. William White of Middleboro', July 13, 1778.

Hannah. Mar. 29, 1771. m. — Ecls.

57. John. Nov. 16, 1772.

58. Joseph. Dec. 26, 1774.

28. Isaac, son of Anthony, m. Ruth Prouty of Scituate, Nov. 16, 1749. He lived in Scituate, south of George Moore's Pond, and died there, June 8, 1811, aged 92, very much respected and beloved. His widow died Sep. 18, 1805. Rec. 2d Ch.

Isaac. Nov. 30, 1750. d. Mar. 5, 1778, on board the Jersey prison ship.

Ruth. Mar. 27, 1752. bap. May 3. m. John Lincoln in 1779, and moved to Maine. Now dead.

Elizabeth. Sep. 7, 1754. bap. May 5. m. Gershom Bowker of Scituate, Feb. 18, 1773. d. 1842.

Annc. Sep. 22, 1755. m. John Morton of Scituate, Nov. 13, 1785. d. 1836.

Eunice. May 31, 1757. d. Nov. 29, 1758.

59. Elisha. Ap. 8, 1759.

Eunice. Jan. 2, 1761. m. Richard Boylston of Charlestown, Mass. and d. in 1840.

Abigail. Dec. 26, 1762. m. Henry Nye of Hingham. d. Mar. 1844.

Mary. Jan. 1, 1765. Not m. Yet lives near the Scituate Town House; a very active and intelligent woman for her age.

Chloe. Aug. 21, 1767. m. Benjamin Bowker, June 30, 1791, and moved to Charlestown, Mass.

60. David. July 7, 1769.

29. Joseph, son of Anthony, m. Mary Eames of Marshfield, in 1743, and moved to Kingston, where he died. I find from old papers, that he was in Kingston in 1749, and in 1758. Also in the year 1754, when Elisha Stetson died, Joseph Stetson is one of the names mentioned in the papers relating to the settlement of his estate. The only record of birth I have found is the following:

Jedediah. Jan. 23, 1757.

What became of this Jedediah, I do not know.

30. Charles, son of Anthony, m. Bathsheba Hatch of Rochester, in 1752, and lived in Rochester?

61. Charles. b. 1752.

62. Thaddeus. b. 1756.

63. Joseph. b. 1758.

Hannah. b. 1760. m. Deacon Wm. Sherman of Rochester?
Smith. b. 1754; died without issue, aged 29.

Rebecca. b. 1762. m. Richard Hammond of Fairhaven.

31. Ezra, son of Anthony, m. Sarah Rider of Plymouth, and moved to Hardwick, Mass. He d. Ap. 25, 1805. The following list of his children was sent me by Mr. Wm. L. Stetson of Chesterfield, and Mr. Thayer of Dana.

64. Anthony.

65. Benjamin.

66. Ezra.

Mary. m. Benjamin Thayer of Dana. She is d.

Hannah. m. Wm. White of Fairhaven. She is d.

Sally. m. Ephraim Thayer of Dana, Mass. She is d.

Anna. m. Theodosius Russell of Greenwich, N. Y. She is d.

32. Elisha, son of Anthony, m. Lydia Cook of Kingston, in 1753. He is called Elisha the 3d, on the Kingston Records. It is presumed that he died in the year 1761, as from the Prob. Rec. Plym. 16. 143. I find the death of one Elisha of Kingston under that date. He had one da.

Phœbe. Jan. 30, 1755.

On the Pembroke Ch. Records, I find that Phœbe, da. of the widow Stetson, was bap. May 29, 1757. It is presumed that reference is had to this Phœbe, and if so, after the death of her husband, Mrs. S. probably moved to Pembroke.

33. Thomas, son of Anthony, m. Susanna Gray of Barnstable, about 1766, and d. in B. Feb. 8, 1785. He was a Ship-carpenter by trade, and left

67. Thomas. July 15, 1766.
 Susanna. 1770. m. Thomas D. Young about 1795. She d.
 July 21, 1842, and he Feb. 21, 1802.
 Mary. 1774. m. Job Stevens of Fairhaven, about 1790.
 He d. in 1831.
34. Benjamin, son of Anthony, m. Mercy Turner, June 14,
 1763, and lived in Scituate. He was a tailor by trade.
 Lucy. Ap. 26, 1766. m. Benjamin T. Lane, Nov. 2, 1790.
 Rec. 2d Ch. and moved to Sherburne, Mass. She d. in 1836.
 Mercy. Mar. 30, 1768. m. Elijah Jenkins of Scituate, Sep.
 19, 1794, and d. in 1845.
68. } Benjamin. Jan. 8, 1771.
 } Joseph. Jan. 8, 1771. d. single, Oct. 12, 1778. A mariner.
 Betsy. m. Leonard Clapp, Nov. 28, 1797.
 Fanny. m. — Bradburn, and moved to Beverly. She d.
 in Attleboro'.
35. Abiel, son of Anthony, m. Ruth Bonney of Hardwick, in 1767, and settled in Chesterfield. His deed of land there is dated Sep. 9, 1765, lot No. 32, in the original survey. Mr. Wm.
 L. Stetson, his grandson, says — "My grandfather wintered in
 C. the first winter, in company with a man named Benjamin Bryant, also from Scituate; and I have heard him say that they lived in a log house, covered with bark, and were obliged to watch, and keep a good fire burning all night, to prevent freezing to death. Bryant had a wife; my grandfather was then single."

It is presumed that Mr. Job Stetson d. previous to the year 1767, as from the Prob. Rec. Plym. 19. 490. it appears that Luther Stetson, a minor, was then put under guardianship. Also, Rhoda seems to have m. Jehiel Simmons of Duxbury, in 1763; for, from an old paper, I find that Jehiel and Rhoda Simmons of Hunger Island, Lincoln Co. Me., deed to Stephen Stetson of Scituate, all their right, &c. in the estate of William Stetson, deceased, (her father,) which was set off to Hannah Stetson, his widow, also deceased, &c. Dec. 9, 1783. Malachi, or Melatiah. Prob. Rec. 28. 317. m. and moved to Taunton; for under date of Ap. 5, 1782, I find that Luther Stetson of Taunton, Blacksmith, as guardian for Mary and Bathsheba Stetson, minors, children and heirs of Malachi or Melatiah Stetson, deceased, deed to Stephen Stetson, &c., as in the former case. The foregoing notes embrace all that I know about this family. The Taunton town records were destroyed by fire some years since, and I could learn nothing there. What became of Luther, I know not.

69. Bela, son of Abiel, m. Cynthia Bissel of Chesterfield? Nov. 19, 1801. By occupation, he is a farmer; and his son, William L. Stetson, Esq., says he is the oldest native inhabitant, excepting one, now living in C. There are but two persons who have lived in town longer than he has. To show the state of things when his father was young, he says, "The first settlers had to endure many hardships and privations; the nearest settlement being at Northampton, twelve miles distant; and there was but a blind path of marked trees, to point out the way. In one instance, my grandfather, in coming from Northampton, missed the track, and got into the wrong line, but continued to pursue it, not knowing where it might lead him, until it brought him to the top of a hill about two miles from home. As another instance, of the privation of a neighbor, Mr. Buck, I would state, that, finding himself short of provisions, and that he should soon need further supplies, he started for Northampton. A severe snow-storm set in, and he was detained some time. The people, knowing the situation of his family, turned out upon snow-shoes, and went to their relief. They found them entirely destitute, excepting that Mrs. B. had dressed a dog, which was all she had in the house, for the sustenance of herself and children. Mr. Bryant, the father of the person with whom my grandfather wintered the first season he resided in C., started for Ashfield, ten or twelve miles distant, and got lost in the woods, and perished, his remains being found the next Spring." He adds, — "Several families came to C. from your town, (i. e. Scituate,) many of whom I have known. There were three by the name of Bates; three Bryants; two Ewells; three Sylvesters; two Beswicks; three Pierces; one Stephenson; one Stetson; one Taylor; two Cudworths; three Rogers; one Jones; and three Damons; making twenty-eight in the whole."

It seems that Mr. Abiel, the father of Bela, was a soldier in the campaign of 1758, under General Abercrombie, and was at the battles of Ticonderoga, and Catarocqua, where they were defeated. He afterwards went to Canada, and helped take the fort where Kingston now stands. He suffered many hardships during this campaign, and finally returned to Scituate at the close of the year, being sick with a fever, his brother meeting him with a horse, somewhere between Springfield and Albany. He continued to live in Scituate, following the fishing business, till the year 1765, when he moved to Chesterfield. — Mr. Bela's children are —

John. 1809.

77. Samuel, son of John, m. Katharine, da. of Rev. Moses Taft of Randolph, June 16, 1789. He lived for a time in Randolph, and then moved to Boston, where he was engaged in business, with his brother Amasa. He died in Watertown, in July, 1805, and his wife the same month and year. His wife died first, and whilst her funeral was going on, he was on his dying bed, and breathed his last before his friends returned from the grave.

Catharine. m. Ezekiel Jones. d. aged 28.

124. Samuel.

Irene. m. Rev. Mr. Ely, of Fredonia, N. Y. Now a widow.

Hiram. d. at sea, at the age of 18 or 19.

Mary D. Nov. 14, 1802. m. Luther Clark of Stoughton, Mar. 1, 1821.

NOTE.—From the Prob. Rec. Suff., it appears that Amasa Stetson, and Jacob Canterbury, were appointed to administer on the estate of Samuel Stetson, deceased, in 1809. Also, Jonathan Stetson of Randolph, was appointed guardian to Catharine, Samuel, Irene, Hiram, and Mary Stetson, all being minors, under fourteen years of age. Date, July 29, 1803.

78. Amasa, son of John, m. Rebecca, da. of Joseph and Rebecca Kettell of Boston, and grand-daughter of the Rev. Thomas Prentice, formerly of Charlestown, Mass. She was b. Aug. 25, 1775, and m. Aug. 21, 1798. Mr. Stetson had no children. He commenced life, as a poor boy, and learned the shoemakers' trade, which was the trade of his father. He afterwards went to Boston, and engaged in the shoe business, with his brother Samuel. By that close application, and strict economy, for which he was always distinguished, his business prospered, and his circumstances began to improve. He was a man much esteemed wherever known; and during the last war, held the office of Commissary for the district of Massachusetts; and has held the office of Senator in the same state. His property was very large; the assets, at his death, which occurred Aug. 2, 1844, being over $500,000; and his liberality was in proportion to his ability. He gave to the town of Randolph the sum of $10,000, for the erection of a Hall, which occupies a conspicuous station in the western part of the town; and $10,000, for the endowment of a School, to be kept in the Hall; also $100 towards building a face wall in front of the burying-ground, on North Street, in which his father and mother lie. The town of Stetson, in Maine, was named from him, and a short time before his death he caused a church to be erected there, for the use of all denominations. It was finished at the time of his last visit to the place; and what is a little singular, the first time the bell was ever tolled, was for his death. He resided in Dorchester, and the splendid clock on the church of the Rev. Mr. Hall, which was his place of worship, was a present from him, and cost $700. Many acts of private munificence might be recorded here; and a large circle of relatives and friends have reason to remember him with thankfulness and gratitude. A pleasing circumstance connected with the School founded by him in Randolph, may be noticed here. Soon after its establishment, all the scholars, accompanied by their teacher, made a visit to Mr. Stetson, at his residence; and it being the winter season, the scholars had both the ride, and an opportunity to see the man to whom they were so greatly indebted. He received them with his accustomed hospitality, and on their departure, they gave three cheers for his health and happiness. A full length portrait of Mr. Stetson, by Frothingham of Charlestown, graces the Town Hall in Randolph, and one of the most excellent and striking likenesses it was ever my privilege to look upon, is in the house of his widow at Dorchester. His body lies in the Dorchester burying-ground; and over his remains stands a chaste and elegant monument of white marble; a most appropriate and touching memento of the affection of his surviving partner.

79. Simeon, son of John, m. Elizabeth, da. of Reuben Kidder, Esq. of New Ipswich, N. H., Jan. 25, 1796. She was b. June 4, 1773. Three of his children, Reuben, Anna, and Charles, were born in New Ipswich; and one, Thomas, the oldest, at Washington, N. H. He moved to Hampden, Me., in the spring of 1804, and here spent the rest of his days. Here, too, the rest of his children were born. Mr. Stetson was a man of good property, and highly respected by all who knew him. He was, for many years, Justice of the Peace; and held the office of Representative whilst Maine was part of Massachusetts, and after its erection into a separate government, he held the office of Senator in Maine. He d. Dec. 20, 1836.

In 1805, he was chosen Ensign; in 1806, Captain; and in 1809, Major, of the 3d Regiment, 1st Brigade, and 1st Division of the Massachusetts Militia. He is a man much respected by his townsmen, and has presided at many of its meetings, for business, and the advancement of the cause of Common Schools. He has spent most of his days as a shoemaker and farmer, and yet lives in Randolph.

CAPT. BENJAMIN OF SCITUATE.

CAPT. BENJAMIN OF SCITUATE.

III. Benjamin, son of the Cornet, m. Bethiah — (Prob. Rec. Plym. 3. 66.) He lived in Scituate, and was a man of considerable enterprise. He was chosen deputy from Scituate, to the General Court at Plymouth, in 1691, and was Representative in 1693 and 4, and 1700. He d. May 4, 1711. His name occurs frequently on the Church Records. He was one of a Committee to make the rate in 1684; and in 1698, with Dea. Thomas King, he was chosen "to go to the neighboring elders and acquaint them with our present state and condition, (in consequence of the long absence of our pastor Deodat Lawson,) and intreat their advice what sd. church may and ought to do." At a subsequent meeting, the same Committee were appointed "to look out and get a minister for us;" and he was chosen agent, with Joseph Turner and Stephen Clapp, to appear at the next general court at Boston, to answer a petition presented by the lower part of the town for a division of the town as to the maintainance of the ministry. — In 1702, with others, he was chosen a committee to settle Mr. Eels. In 1708, with Mr. Collamore, he was chosen to make application to the town for the rectification of a mistake in laying out some of the parsonage land.

Margaret. July 26, 1742. d. Aug. 17, 1742.

Atherton. Nov. 12, 1746. d. Dec. 6, 1746.

Nota. I think the above James must have been a carpenter, as the first parish of Scituate contracted with him to build a new meeting house for them in 1733.

8. William, son of James. He also appears to have lived in Hingham, and to have m. Abigail ——. His children are from the Hingham Records.

Richard. Feb. 22, 1739.

William. Mar. 10, 1740.

I have been able to learn nothing more of this family, or what became of the sons.

9. John, son of James. As yet I have been able to learn nothing of him.

10. Matthew, son of Matthew, m. Mary Randall of Pembroke, Feb. 5, 1761. She d. June 22, 1800, aged 64, and he Jan. 25, 1807, aged 77. (Dec. 1806, aged 74. Rec. 2d Ch.) I have been told that he was at the taking of Louisburg in 1745; but if so, he must have been very young at the time. I have also been told that he was the first minute-man drafted from Scituate, at the time of the Revolution, and that his name still stands on the army roll, made out at that time. For the correctness of these traditions, I cannot vouch. They are given as I received them, from some of his descendants.

Matthew. Mar. 3, 1763. d. June 9, 1782, in Boston, of a fever.

23. Gershom. July 27, 1765.

Asenath. m. Barnabas Strout of Durham, Me., and has two children.

21. James, son of James. Of his history I have been able to learn nothing. From the Hingham records, I find that a son of James Stetson, Sen. d. in 1741, and as this date applies to no other child, it may be that it applies to the James above.

22. Benjamin, son of James, m. Zibiah Elmes of Scituate,

THOMAS OF SCITUATE.

IV. Thomas, son of the Cornet, m. Sarah Dodson. Deane. His will is dated July 2, 1729. Prob. Rec. Plym. 6. 296. As his wife's name is not mentioned in the will, it is presumed she was dead at the time.

Margaret. Aug. 4, 1698. m. Nathan Pickles, jr. Mar. 13, 1731 - 2.

1. Thomas, son of Thomas. From the Boston Records it appears that he m. Mary Balston, Nov. 18, 1715. He was a blacksmith by trade, and lived in Orango Street, where he owned a house. His will is dated May 21, 1740. Named as dead in Gershom's will, date 1754.

Thomas. July 25, 1719. d. Jan. 27, 1721?

John. Jan. 12, 1720. m. Bethiah Oliver, Dec. 30, 1751. Bost. Rec.

Sarah. Feb. 13, 1725.

Thomas. Aug. 5, 1728. d. June 27, 1729.

Lydia. Called Lydia Safford in her father's will.

2. Gershom, son of Thomas, m. 1st, Mary Holmes of Scituate, Nov. 28, 1707. She d. Sep. 9, 1708, and he m. Anne King, Jan. 29, 1712 - 13. His history is involved in some little obscurity. He lived and died in Scituate, and during his life appears to have been a very active man, especially in the Church, as the following minutes show. He was chosen Constable in 1714, to collect the Church rates; and assessor in 1724, 1728, 1729, 1730, 1731, 1732, and 1733. He was Committee of the precinct in 1734; and one of the Committee chosen in 1737, to settle the bounds between the two precincts in Scituate. In 1740, he was one of a Committee to see about enlarging the meeting-house.

In several places, on the Church Records, he is called Sergeant; from which it is inferred that he held that military office; and an office of much more consequence, or esteemed so, in his day, than in ours. — The following curious document from the Church Records also relates to him. "Whereas complaint is mad of divers badd men and women and boys and garles on Sabbath days mack disturbance in the meeting house and else ware for Remeday The day above sd the precinct mad choice of Mr. Peter Collomer, Mr. Gurshom Stetson, Samuel Curtis, jun., Elisha Silvester, and Gilbord broocks to be aded to the fomer comity, to suppress all disorders on Sabbath days, both in the time of divino sarvis and in the vacancy between the publick exercise." This was in 1732.

He d. in 1754. Prob. Rec. 13. 321. and his wife Anne, is named in his will. In this will, he speaks of his son Caleb as deceased, but as having left children. This is all I have been able to learn about him.

8. Caleb.

3. Joshua, son of Thomas. From the will of Gershom, his brother, it appears that he was married, and had children; but died previous to the year 1754; and from the Prob. Rec. Suff. it appears that one Joshua Stetson of Boston, Cooper, who is probably the same person, died about the year 1740, and his wife Sarah was appointed to administer on his estate. This is all I have been able to learn about him.

4. Caleb, son of Thomas. From the Mass. Hist. Soc. Coll. Series 2. Vol. 3. p. 208. it appears that "Caleb and Elisha Stetson were living in North Plymouth in 1717, and with thirty-nine others, residents of that town, and of Plympton and Pembroke, petitioned for, and were set off as a separate parish, afterwards known as Kingston." On the Kingston records there is a copy of this petition, with the names of Caleb and Elisha Stetson appended. Caleb had descendants, but their names I have not been able to learn. They settled somewhere in Halifax.

5. Elisha, son of Thomas, m. Abigail Brewster of Kingston, about the year 1706. He was in Plymouth as early as 1699, for Dr. Nathaniel B. Shurtleff of Boston, informs me that in that year Plymouth was divided into two military districts, and Elisha Stetson was in the Southern. After Kingston was set off, he became a resident of that town, and lived and died there. Five of his children, and it is presumed all he had, were baptized Mar. 19, 1721, viz.

NOTE.—Nathaniel, Elizabeth, and Simeon, were baptized with their mother, Mar. 31, 1723.

7. Ebenezer, son of Thomas. Mr. Joseph Pitts of Dighton, one of his descendants, informs me, that he m. Lydia Barker of Scituate, who d. Feb. 20, 1776. He d. in 1778. Prob. Rec. Plym. 28. 91.; and he and his wife were buried on Church Hill. It is said that he was a very zealous Churchman, and built the Church on Church Hill at his own expense. No vestige of that building now remains; it was taken down in 1810.

13. Ebenezer. Dec. 12, 1728.

His obituary, published in the Old Colony Memorial, at Plymouth, June 14, 1828, states that he lived happily in the married state for fifty-two years, and "by industry and diligence, filled up his time with usefulness to the community, and support to a numerous family. His correct example as a Christian, in the various relations of life, was crowned with consolation and peace in the prospect of approaching dissolution. He came to the grave as a shock of corn in its season, fully ripe, leaving behind him a worthy character. His children rise up and call him blessed, and all who knew him have occasion to say, may we live the life of the righteous, that we may die his death, and that our last end may be like his."

His life has been checkered with many eventful scenes. At the early age of sixteen, on the 26th of March, 1777, he enlisted in the Army of the Revolution, for the term of three years, in the company of Capt. Carver, attached to Col. Bradford's Regiment, and Gen. Patterson's Brigade. He was in the engagement of Saratoga, which resulted in the surrender of Gen. Burgoyne, and his army. He was then marched to Valley Forge, for winter quarters, and in the spring of 1778, went to New Jersey, to intercept the march of the British army from Philadelphia to New York, and was in the battle of Monmouth. In 1780, March, he entered on board the American Privateer Viper, William Williams of Boston, Master, and on the 16th of July they engaged the British Letter of Marque Brig Resolution, mounting 16 guns, and after a smart contested action, in which he lost his right leg by a cannon shot, the Resolution surrendered, and was taken to Boston. By the pension act of 1818, he now draws from the Treasury of the United States the sum of $96 annually, towards the support of his declining years.

24. Seth, son of Samuel, m. Lucy, da. of Capt. Seneca Wadsworth of Duxbury, in 1801. He lived with his parents till he was seventeen years old, and then went to learn the Carpenter's trade, of Mr. John Cook. When free, he went to Maine to work, where he was wounded, and laid up for many months. About this time his attention was called seriously to the subject of religion, and his thoughts to the ministry. He spent part of his time with Rev. W. Riddel of Bristol, and part in keeping school; and after about three years, was approbated to preach, by the Lincoln Association of Congregational Ministers, which met in Winthrop, where Rev. J. Belden was then minister. He married at the age of twenty-five, and removed to Norridgewock, Me., where he preached part of the time, and part of the time in other places, for about two years. In 1804, he was called to settle in Plymouth, Mass., over the Society at Monument Ponds; and from the Massachusetts Historical Society's Collections, 2d Series, Vol. 3, p. 201, I find that the settlement took place July 18, 1804, Sermon by Mr. Baker of Middleboro', from Hab. 2: 2. Mr. Niles and Mr. Judson assisting. Here he remained about sixteen years; but after preaching twelve years, he met with a change in his views; and from being a Trinitarian, and Hopkinsonian, became a Unitarian. Disaffection arising on this account, in 1820 he asked his dismissal, and removed to the village. While he lived at the Ponds, eight of his children were born, and four of them died. He resided in the village four years, and here had three more children. About this time he preached in connection with the Unitarian Missionary Society, and went to New York, to the town of Galway, and spent a few months, and to Belfast, Me., and Carver, Mass. He then advanced in Scripture doctrine, and finally renounced the creed which contains endless sin and misery, and became a Restorationist. He then preached in Old Colony Hall, Plymouth; in Carver; and in Duxbury. In 1825, he was invited to preach in Charlestown, and Salem; and after spending one winter in Charlestown, was installed in Salem, over the Universalist Church and Society. With that Society he remained about three years, and then removed to Boston for a few months. After this he went to Brunswick, Me., and likewise to Bath, and Bowdoinham; and in 1828, with his family, went to Maine, where he has since resided, preaching the gospel to different societies; and now resides in Brunswick. He says,—"The Lord has followed us with his goodness all our lives long. We have abundant reason of gratitude and praise, for his long suffering and mercy towards us. He has proved his love, too, by chastening us. It has been good for us to be afflicted. We have found kind friends wherever we have sojourned. It is now about forty-five years since I began to preach the word of God, and this is still my sweetest work. I hope to meet my departed children and friends, ere long, in a better world."

SERGEANT SAMUEL OF SCITUATE.

V. Samuel, son of the Cornet, m. Lydia ——. (The children, on the Scituate Town Records, are called children of Samuel and Lydia; but from the same Town Records, I find that Mercy or Mary, wife of Samuel Stetson, d. in 1687. Was he m. twice?) He lived in Scituate, and was a man of considerable note. His name occurs quite frequently on the Church Records. Thus, in 1702-3, Samuel Stetson, Peter Colemore, and William Perry, were chosen to attend to the sale of a parcel of land belonging to the Church. He was chosen with Mr. Cushing, and Dea. James Torrey, to make the rate in 1703. In 1707 he was on a Committee with Ensign Clapp, to see the town about changing the locality of a road. He was chosen with two others, in 1709-10, to see about clearing and fencing the parsonage land. And from 1719 to 1722, he was chosen to make the rates.

JOHN OF SCITUATE.

VI. John, son of the Cornet, m. Abigail ——. (See the Cornet's will. Deane, in his History of Scituate, calls his widow Mary; but he must be mistaken.) "In the Canada expedition, in 1690, under Sir William Phipps, at the taking of Port Royal, and the attempts upon Quebec, Scituate furnished sixteen men, under Capt. Joseph Sylvester, Lieut. Israel Chittenden, and Ensign John Stetson." Deane, 130. He died in that expedition, and the inventory of his estate was taken by his brother Benjamin.

On the Plymouth records, I find, that "at the Court holden at Plymouth, the 3d Tuesday of March, 1690-1. In reference to the settlement of the estate of Ensign John Stetson, late of Scituate, deceased, the Court do order that the oldest son John shall have and enjoy the house and land which his father died seized of, when said son shall attain to the age of 21 years; excepting his mother's thirds thereof during her life, he paying to Honour and Barnabas, his sister and brother, each of them 50 shillings when they attain to the age of 21 years, or at the day of their marriage, which shall first happen or be. And the relict of the sd. deceased to have all the goods and chattels of sd. deceased, as her own proper estate, and the benefit of the sd. house and land till the heir come of age as aforesaid, for the bringing up of the sd. children, she paying to Abigail, her oldest daughter, and to Anne, her youngest, each of them 50 shillings at their day of marriage, or coming to the age of 21 years, which shall first be or happen. Attest, SAMUEL SPRAGUE, Clerk."

ROBERT OF PEMBROKE.

VII. Robert, son of the Cornet, m. Joanna Brooks, in 1676. The same year his house was burnt by the Narragansett Indians. Deane says he "left no family on record." This must mean on the Scituate books; for it is beyond question, in my mind, that he left children, though the information I have been able to obtain of his family is less satisfactory than in relation to the other sons. He appears to have resided in what was afterwards Pembroke. On the Pembroke Church Records, under date of Aug. 1711, I find the following entry, made by Rev. Daniel Lewis, the first pastor of the Church in that place. "Sometime in the Spring of the year 1712, Pembroke was made a township, consisting of the north-easterly part of Duxborro', a Tract of Land called the Major's Purchase, and the Land commonly called Marshfield;" and among the names of those who were heads of families in the place, I find those of Robert Stetson, and of Isaac, who was doubtless his son. All or most of the descendants of Robert and Isaac, have resided, and still do reside, in Pembroke and its vicinity; and the family has been a noted one, from the fact, that its members have been very extensively engaged in the Iron business, and yet rank among the foremost of those engaged in this business, in Plymouth County, or even in Massachusetts. Few families, probably, have been more noted than this for mechanical ingenuity; and now, some of its prominent members hold important offices, as superintendents of forges and rolling-mills. Mr. Abisha Stetson, who died in Bridgewater; and his son, Mr. Nahum Stetson; and the family of Mr. Dyer Robinson of Taunton, which is connected with this; and Mr. Jonathan Stetson, lately of Marshfield, but now of Scituate; are names well known to the business community; and for business activity and enterprise, have few superiors. The children of Robert, so far as I have been able to learn any thing concerning them, were —

1. Isaac.
2. Timothy.
3. Resolved.
Sarah. m. Ebenezer Bennet of Middleboro', Ap. 23, 1719.
4. Nathaniel.

1. Isaac, son of Robert, lived in Pembroke, and probably died there. I have not been able to learn the name of his wife, or the date of his marriage. His name occurs several times on the early records of the town. His children were —

5. Abisha. b. about 1706.

6. Nathaniel. b. about 1708.

7. John. b. 1710.

Jennet. bap. Mar. 23, 1729, aged 17. m. Benjamin Thomas, Nov. 5, 1730.

8. Peleg. b. 1714.

Jerusha, b. about 1718. m. Elisha Palmer, Dec. 31, 1741.

Agatha. b. about 1720. m. William Page, May 31, 1742.

Mary. b. about 1722. m. Peleg West of Kingston, Mar. 8, 1743 — 4.

2. Timothy, son of Robert, appears to have lived and died in Pembroke. I cannot learn, however, that he left any family. He died in 1759, and John Stetson of Pembroke, administered on his estate. I find, from the town records, that he was chosen in 1722, as one of the Jury of trials at Plymouth, from which I infer that he was probably, at that time, 25 years old at least, and possibly older.

3. Resolved, son of Robert. He also lived and died in Pembroke; but as in the other case, I cannot find that he left any family. He d. in 1749. Prob. Rec. Plym. 11. 104. Nathaniel Cushing, Isaac Kean, and Isaac Taylor, were the administrators on his estate. Prob. Rec. Plym. 11. 275.

4. Nathaniel, son of Robert, m. Susanna Randall, July 28, 1710. He had one daughter,— Susanna. b. June 9, 1712.

This was his only child. See letter of guardianship. Prob. Rec. Plym. 3. 242. He d. Ap. 12, 1713, and his widow m. John Holmes of Pembroke, Nov. 29, 1714. The daughter, Susanna, d. Oct. 23, 1715. Prob. Rec. Plym. 4. 3. and 3. 398.

5. Abisha, son of Isaac, m. Elizabeth James of Hingham, in 1730. Mitchell, in his History of Bridgewater, states that he was from Kingston. Possibly he lived there for a time previous to his removal to Hingham. The only children I find on the Hingham records are —

9. Levi. Dec. 12, 1732.

10. *Gaius. Aug. 14, 1739.

11. John. July 10, 1741.

*From the Prob. Rec. Suff. I find that "Gaius, son of Abisha Stetson of Hingham, Shipwright, deceased; being a minor, constitutes Theophilus Cushing of Hingham, his guardian. Date, Nov. 6, 1755. From this I infer that Mr. Abisha d. previous to the year 1755, and was a Shipwright by trade.

6. Nathaniel, son of Isaac, m. Elizabeth Stetson of Scituate, in 1739. His will may be found in the Prob. Rec. Plym. 30. 259. He lived in Marshfield, but his descendants are in Pembroke, and there, it is said, the latter part of his days were spent, and there he died.

12. Samuel. May 3, 1742.

Rachael. Aug. 20, 1744. m. Zaccheus Fish, Nov. 25, 1779.

7. John, son of Isaac, m. 1st, Abigail Crooker, Nov. 28, 1734; and 2d, Deborah Tower of Cumberland, R. I. He was engaged in the Iron business at quite an early date; and his grandson, Mr. Jonathan Stetson, tells me he was a furnace-man, in Marshfield. It is his descendants, in particular, that have been eminent in the Iron business. He d. Dec. 12, 1802. By his first wife he had —

32. Harvey, son of Lot, m. Polly Landman of Scituate, Nov. 25, 1802, and now resides in Pembroke. He informs me, that he learned the Ship-carpenter's trade, and served his time with William Turner of Boston, formerly of Scituate, with whom he continued till his failure. He then went to St. Johns, N. B. and staid there about three years, working at his trade. After his return, he married, and went to Duxbury, and worked for Capt. John Alden awhile, and then went to Plymouth, where he lived eight years, during which period he built several vessels on his own account. Times being hard, and money scarce, and having met with serious losses in trade, he took a journey to New Bedford, and finally worked there, and at Fairhaven, four years, for Capt. John Delano. From thence he went to Mattapoisett, and worked awhile, and then to Nantucket, where he worked, off and on, for seventeen years. In 1828, he took a voyage to East Florida, and during his absence, kept a journal of the occurrences of each day, which I have seen, and which is quite interesting. After leaving Nantucket, he went to Pembroke, built a house, and settled there, working occasionally, and at intervals, at his trade, in Plymouth and Duxbury. He has but three ch.

38. Jonathan, son of Abisha, m. 1st, Huldah Magoun of Pembroke, June 14, 1791; and 2d, Sally Curtis, Dec. 13, 1835. Had children only by the first. Mr. S. has been extensively engaged in the factory business, during his life. He built a Furnace, for Iron, at Carver, and carried it on for about fourteen years. He then went to West Bridgewater, and there, with his brother Abisha, and Mr. J. Perkins, owned a forge in Hanson, and a store in East Bridgewater, which he carried on for several years. While in B. he went to Franconia, N. H., and superintended building a furnace, and carried it on for a company at Salem, for a year or more. In 1810, he went to Marshfield, and erected a Cotton Factory, which he carried on for twenty-eight years. This was the first Cotton Factory put in operation, in Plymouth Co. There was one building at Plymouth the same season, but his started first. Mr. S. now resides in South Scituate, about one half a mile from Rev. Mr. Moseley's meeting-house.

39. Abisha, son of Abisha, m. 1st, Alice, da. of Ezra Allen, in 1794. She d. in 1821., and he m. 2d, Mary Johnson of Kingston, in 1821. He d. in 1844, aged 71. He commenced life, a poor boy, and learned the millwrights trade, as I have been told, in company with Mr. Jacob Perkins of Bridgewater. Subsequently, he and Mr. Perkins carried on business together for many years, and were always, till his death, partners in the house of Lazell, Perkins, & Co. which has been in existence about forty years. In connection with his brother Jonathan, he and Mr. Perkins started the Marshfield Cotton Factory; and afterwards he had the management of a similar Factory, erected in East Bridgewater. For many years he had the charge of a Blast Furnace and Cotton Factory, in Kingston. After this, with others, he purchased a Cotton Factory in Hanson, of which he had the Agency; also the Agency of the Anchor Works, erected by Charles Josselynn, which he managed till his death, a period of about ten years. He was a man extensively known; of great business enterprise; and very much respected by all his acquaintances. But for him, probably, the Hon. Artemas Hale, one of the Representatives in Congress from Massachusetts, would not have held that distinguished office. Mr. Stetson took him from Hingham, where he was keeping school, to the Cotton Factory in East Bridgewater, and from thence he went into the counting-room of Lazell, Perkins, & Co. where he formed a connection with Mr. Carver, the inventor of the Cotton Gin, in which business he was abundantly prospered. He was many years Town Treasurer; many years Representative; many years Senator; and is now in Congress.

58. Nahum, son of Abisha, m. 1st, Sarah, da. of Rev. George Barstow of Hanson; and 2d, Lucy A. F. Barstow. In the year 1825, he entered the store and employment of Lazell, Perkins, & Co. of Bridgewater, with which House he is still connected. In 1828, the whole charge of the Books and Accounts of that extensive establishment devolved upon him, and on the death of Nathan Lazell, jr. Esq., he was chosen Agent and Treasurer, which office he now fills. It is well known that this house is extensively engaged in the Iron business, and it is of this business that Mr. S. is Agent. In 1837 and 8, he had the temporary charge of erecting the Weymouth Iron Company's Works, in East Weymouth; and in 1841, was elected Agent and Treasurer of that Company, which office he also now holds. In March 1846, he was called upon to erect, and put in operation the Tremont Iron Company's Works, in Wareham, where the first Rail Road Iron in this country was made; and of that Company he is also Agent and Treasurer. Thus it will be seen that he has the charge of three extensive Iron Works, the chief business of which is conducted by himself personally. He has been a Director of the Bristol County Bank, at Taunton, ever since the fall of 1835; and in 1837, 8, and 9, was elected a Representative from Bridgewater, to the State Legislature. He is a Director of the Fall River Rail Road Company, and of the Cape Cod Rail Road Company; and altogether, is a man of indefatigable industry, and distinguished business talent; and all who know him will testify to his private virtues, and his gentlemanly deportment. Resides in Bridgewater.

P. 1. "Family Origin." It is presumed that the Cornet married after his settlement in Scituate, as his first child was not born till 1639, and the date of his settlement was 1634. — P. 8. In reference to the visit of Cornet Stetson to the Indian King Phillip, I find this note on the Col. Rec. " 1677. Paid Cornett Studson for his horse time and paines 40s." In June 1659, " Maj. Josiah Winslow, Lieut. Southworth and Robert Stetson were appointed by the Court to join with such as the Bay government may appoint, to view the line betwixt the Bay government and us," i. e. the line between the colonies of Plymouth and Massachusetts Bay. Deane, p. 3. In 1653, Cornet Stetson was foreman of the jury for laying out roads. Deane, p. 12. In 1680, Cornet Stetson, and Nathaniel Thomas of Marshfield, hired the Cape fishery for bass and mackerel. Deane, p. 25. In 1675 Cornet Stetson was on the committee to procure clothing, &c., for the soldiers in the Indian Wars. Deane, p. 120.

P. 49. Benjamin of Scituate. The following note relating to his history, was accidentally omitted, and it is inserted to show at how early a date the Stetsons were engaged in the Iron business. " 1720. The town of Scituate granted two acres of land on the Indian Head river, between Pine hill and Rocky run, to Joseph Barstow and Benjamin Stetson, for the accommodation of a forge and finery." Deane, p. 29.

P. 53, last line. Mr. Shuble Monroe, who m. Abigail, da. of John Stetson, yet lives in Hanover, aged 85. He is a man of wonderful memory, and I obtained from him a great deal of information about the Stetsons in Hanover, and on examining family and town records, I found the information furnished by him strikingly accurate.

5. Isaac, son of Zenas, m. and moved to Henry Co., Ohio, where he practised Law. He is dead, and left one child; but nothing is known of its present residence, or that of the mother.

6. Nathan, son of Zenas, m. Sally Brown, and lives in Dorchester, Mass.?

Fanny.	Chauncey.	Marshall.	Betsy.
David.	Emeline?	Silas.

7. David, son of Zenas, m. and moved to New York state, where he died. "Of his family," says Mr. L., "I can learn no particulars."

There are two families of Stetson's in Pawtucket, Mass. viz. Miss Ann, and Mr. James.

---

There is a Stetson living in New York State, who has been a Representative to Congress.

---

I have been told that there was formerly a Stetson in Sandwich, Mass., connected with the Glass works there.
