From a report on Slaton origins by Leonard Wilson F.R.S.A. April 1930, courtesy Helen Slaten Gregg, Route #1, Box 156, Valparaiso, Ind.

"This family has a surname of geographical origin. It was spelled originally both Slaten and Sladen; the latter appears to be the more ancient form of the name. Other ways of spelling the name were also used during the generations. From a cursory glance at such records as the writer happens to have under his hand at the moment, the first mention of the name in British annals occurs as far back as 1222 when Thomas De Slayden was Mayor of the ancient Cathedral City of Winchester.

The family which was long ago seated in the County of Kent are presumed to have come from the town of Schleiden in the government of Aix-la-Chapelle in Rhenish Prussia. John Sleidan, the historian of the Reformation in Germany, a native of that town, was deputed to the English Court by German reformers in 1545 and it is probable that others of the name and religion afterwards sought a home in England. Slatten, Slaten, Sladdon and Sloddon are variations of the name and this seems the more probable inasmuch as the Continental town is pronounced as if written with two d's. The name Schleiden is still well known in Germany, especially in Westphalia, where the family bears German coat-of-armor, the grant of which there is record.

As early as 1601 a branch of this family was resident within the parishes of Dewsbury and Elland, in Yorkshire, England, and at the time of the British grants of coat-armor, the head of the family was Joseph Sladen of Lee, in the County of Kent. The family estates there were named Hartsbourne and Ripple Court, and the family was included among the landed gentry of Great Britain.

From early American records it seems that the immigrant ancestors of this family to America, had their names recorded as Slayton and Slayten, and the records of coming of these immigrants and their descendants are available.

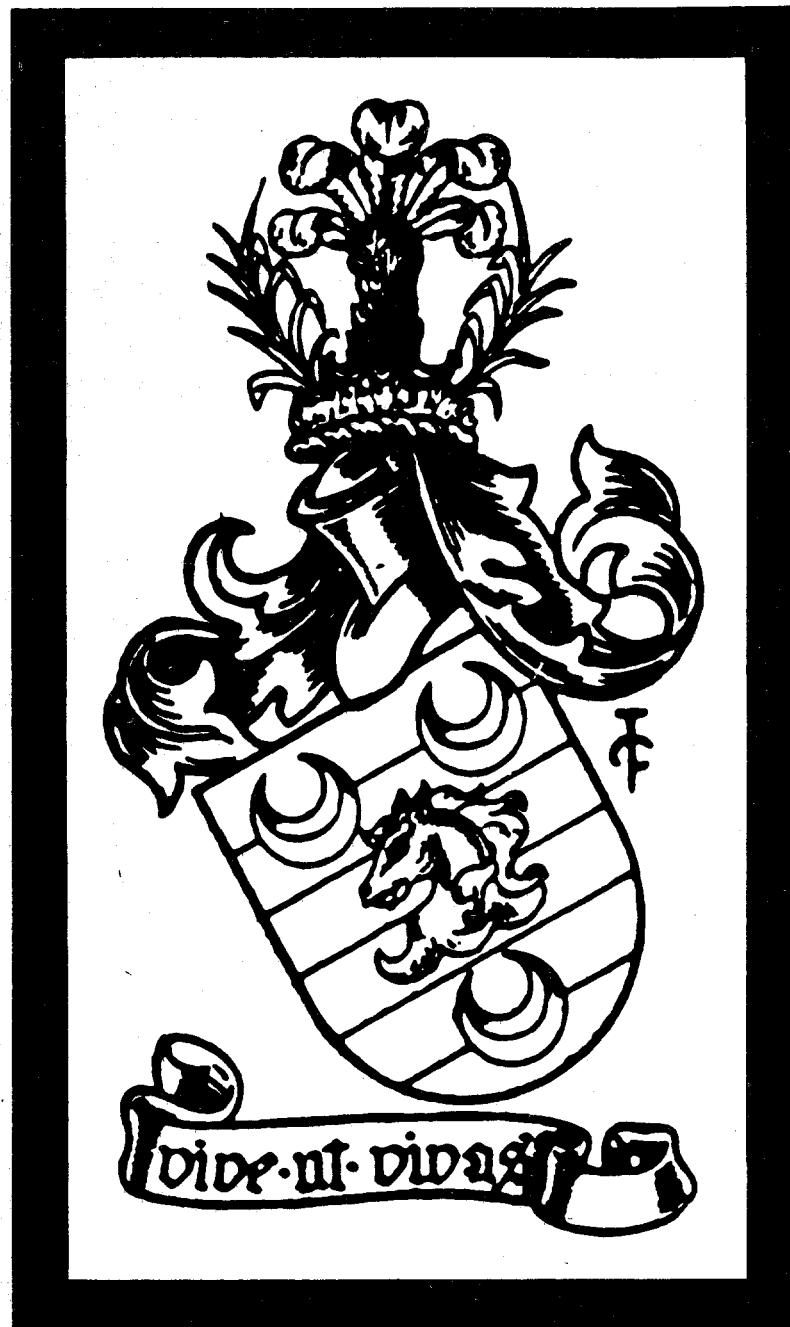

The blazon of the coat-armor prescribes the shield of this family to be divided horizontally into six bars tinctured alternately blue and silver, with thereon a horse's head and three crescents of gold. For crest on the helmet is borne a green billock, thereon a lion's paw holding a plume of five ostrich feathers of scarlet, the whole between two palm branches in their natural color."

Motto: Vive et Vivas.

Earliest mention of the name Sladen found in America to date is found in Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Lancaster County, Va., vol. 22, p. 208, 1652-55 (Fleet), exact copies of the original, "Court orders, Sladen Marie, Headright of Mr. Ja Bagnell, 6 August 1655."

THE SLADEN COAT OF ARMS

From Burke's General Armory, published in England 1844. This Coat-Armour was granted to Joseph Sladen of Lee, County Kent. The family estates were Hartsbourne and Ripple Court.

No connection has been found to date between this branch of the family and those in America.

order to correct several misquotes found throughout the book, "The Slaton Family."

p. #13. "The Joshua records say that Thomas #2 had a brother, Phineas, and nothing more is known of him, and a sister Hannah who died at age 88. Now it may be that Phineas emigrated from Massachusetts and was the Slaton who settled in Goochland County, Va., about the middle of the last century and Thomas ----."

p. #15. "The Slaton who settled in Goochland County, Virginia, before the Revolution had four sons, Edward, Arthur, John and James. Their father died while they were young and the grandchildren cannot tell his name. About 1798 the first three went to Nelson County, Kentucky, and about 1805 to Hopkins County, Kentucky, where many Slatons now live, although some have gone to Southern Illinois and Missouri. James went from Virginia to North Carolina, then to Tennessee where he died and his descendants are found in Tennessee and Georgia and perhaps the Slatons in Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas are of his descent. Edward H. Slaton was born February 13, 1777, in Goochland County, Virginia, died November 9, 1841 in Hopkins County, Ky., and had five sons, James A., John P., Benjamin H., Arthur Walker and Thomas M. Arthur Walker, my correspondent, born December 28, 1810 in Hopkins County, Ky., is the father of 14 children, truly a Slaton characteristic. John, brother of Edward, died in Hopkins County in October 1840, and Arthur died there in April 1843."

"I presume that Professor William Franklin Slaton of Atlanta, Georgia, can trace back to one of these for his father's name was John and died when William was young. William F. was born March 6, 1831, began his career as a teacher in 1849, served 4-1/2 years in the Confederate Army, being wounded three times and a prisoner on Johnson's Island for 18 months, in hospital ninety days with 'bullet complaint,' not sick a day otherwise for over 50 years. He taught after the war, being in Atlanta since 1874 and Superintendent of Schools since 1879. He has two sons and five daughters."

p. #33. "#3, Phineas (2) The name is in all the old records and that is all, no trace can be found. If we could show that he was the Slaton who settled in Goochland County before the Revolution, that would account for all the Slatons found in Kentucky, Illinois, Tennessee, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. #4, Hannah (2) the same records say that she died at age 88 and that is all. Remember that no public record of birth, marriage or death of the first Thomas or these last two have been found so far, although the records of all towns and counties where there is a suspicion of their having lived have been repeatedly examined. The first public record found is that of the marriage of Thomas (2), son of Thomas (1) (and brother of Phineas and Hannah) September 21, 1732. The year of his birth is learned from his will. All about the first Thomas and Phineas (2) and Hannah (2) is from the Joshua records and others traced to it and tradition."

In January 1901, Asa W. Slayton sent out a few pages of additions and corrections, the pages numbered 323-330, on page #328, the following:

"See origin of name and similar names, also number 3. From my correspondence with Slatons in Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Louisiana and Texas, also Illinois and California and from a comparison of family characteristics and all traditions of their origin, I am more convinced that Phineas (2) was the ancestor of the Southern Slatons and Thomas (2) was of the Northern Slaytons. So much migration was there from Massachusetts to Virginia about 1730-50 that a book about it was printed, but I failed to get a copy. "

From records compiled by William H. Bason, Genealogist, Raleigh, N.C. (1937)

Copy of Arthur Slayden's will made by Mr. Bason shows spelling of "Barbara Bead." Others have copied this name as Becol and Bevis; apparently last name of this person is illegible on the original copy, which I have been unable to examine (see p.6).

Appraisement of Arthur Slayden's estate recorded 9/17/1787, deed book 14, p. 475, Goochland County, Virginia, gives amount as 128 pounds, 4 shillings, 2 pence. Ibid, p. 453. Arthur, Daniel and Joseph Slayden, Executors of estate of Arthur Slayden dec'd., deed 182 acres of land in St. James Northam Parish, on Licking-hole Creek, to William Isbell, for 100 pounds, dated 7/20/1787.

St. Peter's Church, New Kent County, Virginia (picture taken 1963) on State Route #30 at junction of State Route #155, was built 1701-3. Tower with porch and pyramidal steeple was added in 1740. Except for mellowness of age, St. Peter's looks much as it did in the 18th century. The church survived the Revolution, but its furnishings were destroyed during the war between the states. It was the first brick church built in the parish and was called "the brick church." Only once in Colonial records (1752) is it referred to as St. Peter's Church.

St. Peter's Parish was formed from Blissland Parish in 1679. Here as elsewhere, the Colonial Vestry concerned itself with matters material as well as spiritual, one reason for the unpopularity of the established church at the time of the Revolution. Referring to this parish, the Reverend Nicholas Moreau, Rector from 1696 to 1697, wrote the Lord Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry: "I don't like this Country at all, My Lord, - Your Clergy in these parts are of a very ill example. I have got in the very worst Parish of Virginia and the most troublesome -- an eminent Bishop -- sent over here -- will make Hell tremble and settle the Church of England in these parts forever."

Hennings Statutes vol. 7, p. 224;
Lists Daniel Slayden as a Colonial soldier, he having received 6 pounds, 12 shillings as pay for his services. He was a private, and served under Major William Caldwell in 1758.

Note: I personally examined this entry in vol. 7, p. 224, Hennings Statutes; it states payment was for supplies furnished the Colonial Army. Mr. Bason has probably incorrectly stated the source of his information on this item. (AJS)

From records furnished by Mrs. A. Waldo Jones of Vinings, Georgia, we are able to identify positively some of the children of Samuel Slaton, others probably. Not necessarily in the order of birth, they are as follows:

1. Henry Crawford Slaton
2. William (A?) Slaton
3. Sarah A. Slaton
4. Mary A. Slaton
5. James Slaton
6. Susan Slaton
7. Anna E. Slaton

Henry Crawford and William Slaton are positively identified in the records below and it would appear there is little doubt regarding the other five.

From Order Book, Goochland County, Va. p. 94, 1780-83:

From Miss Eloise Slaton, Atlanta, Georgia (1964):

The book Virginia Cousins was compiled by a G. Brown Goode of Virginia, probably out of print now. It purports to be a factual history of the Goods family, but I found so many errors in it it leaves me wondering how much is based on actual fact and how much on suppositions..... We always lived near and visited my grandmother Slaton's family, so I knew many of them quite well. Elona and Charles Wesley mentioned in Virginia Cousins I never heard of. I found many discrepancies in names and dates in the book; some I knew were not included, and some I never heard of were listed. He lists the birth date of my oldest brother as four years prior to the marriage of my parents. John Goode came to Georgia from Virginia and settled where Wilkes County, Oglethorpe and Green Counties converge; there he married Frances Hunter. John and Frances Hunter Goode had a daughter named Sarah who married John Wright of Oglethorpe County. Their daughter, Frances Wright, married William Slaton (b. 11. 11. 1830) of Wilkes County. William and Frances Wright Slaton were my grandparents. Their children were:

- 3-b-1. Sarah A. Slaton who m Aaron Grier Stephen, brother of Alexander H. Stephens, vice president of the Confederacy. He died in 1843 and Sarah died in 1883. Their only child died in infancy.
- 3-b-2. Mary Slaton m Samuel E. Daniels; she died in the 1890's.
- 3-b-3. John Slaton, died in his late teens.
- 3-b-4. William Slaton, died in his early 20's (was not in the Civil War)
- 3-b-5. Henry Thomas Slaton. Was one of the first to volunteer for service with the "Irvin Guards" Artillery, served full four years of the war and was with General Lee at Appomatox; he died in 1918.
- 3-b-6. Alexander Slaton, volunteered while a student at the University of Virginia; after the war he returned to school and received his degree in law; after graduating he settled in the town of Baxley, Early County, and practiced law there until his death about 1905-06.
- 3-b-7. Franklin P. Slaton, m 1st Cornelia Fouche and after her death married my mother, Victoria Armstrong. He was born 9/12/1841, d. 5/9/1898; his mother died when he was age 2; raised by his sister Sarah A.

Franklin Pierce Slaton, from William A. Slaton, 4431 Ish Brant Rd., Jacksonville, Fla. (1964):

"My dad was a lawyer, member Georgia State Bar for over 50 years, and a cousin of John M. Slaton, former Governor of Georgia. The picture on page 25a is my dad's home and was my home until we sold it in 1953 and now is a Georgia State owned museum, filled with many interesting items dating back from pre-Revolutionary days up to the present. The house referred to on p. 25 which was built by Franklin Pierce Slaton (my grandfather) still stands and was in good repair the last time I saw it. Directly behind this house, on land then part of the Slaton Plantation, was fought the Battle of Kettle Creek, in which a small band of Americans surprised a larger British force at dawn and captured them all. The Federal Government built a large marker there in the early 1930's. It is locally known as "War Hill" and is located in a small park."

Excerpts from a manuscript written in 1907 by Mary Jane Cook Slaton, wife of Daniel Henry Slaton and given to Mrs. Richard Y. Thorpe of Nashville, Tenn. by Mrs. Jewell Wise of El Paso, Texas, who is identified as the Jewell Fuller, twin sister of Judson Fuller, last names on page 26-c. Many names and dates are given, and the information should be of great value to this branch of the family:

"Your father's mother, Mary Lowe, was born in Georgia, September 7, 1785. I can't call to mind now any of her family except one brother and two sisters. Her brother was David Lowe - Methodist minister, lived in Stewart County, Ga. Married - had quite a family of children. Your father lived with them two years before he was grown. I don't remember seeing but two of his children, John and Sarah. Cousin Sarah married Mr. McGeehe (sic). After she was a widow she came to Texas and lived for a while on Grapevine Prairie near where your Uncle Tillman lived. She had several children - can't recall their names - they went west - I lost sight of them. Your grandmother's sister that married Mr. Perry had no children; they lived in Georgia. Aunt Sallie Perry and Sarah Jane Loveless, one of your Aunt Elizabeth's daughters, came to visit us when we lived between Creek Stand and Warrior Stand, then we all went to visit your Grandma's sister, Mrs. Hettie Willis that lived in Pike County, Ala. She raised a large family - can't recall their names. Two of her girls married brothers by the name of Uebanks (Eubanks?); one of the girls married a Mr. John; one of her sons married a Johns sister --.

Your Grandfather (Joseph) and Grandmother (Mary-Polly) Slaton were married in Georgia - if I remember right in January 1803 - don't know the County - were living in Jones County when your father was born, and moved to Talbot County, near Talboton when he was a small boy. He was raised in Talbot County, Ga. They had 14 children - first two died in infancy - Sarah, the first to live, if I remember right, was born 1807, Elizabeth in 1809, James A. was born May 30, 1811, Martha February 1813, Elisha November 1814, Joseph August 1816, David L. August 1818, Matilda October 1820, Emily October 1822, John B. January 11, 1824, Daniel H. March 26, 1826, Rebecca October 1, 1827 - Don't know for certain I have all the dates right - looked them over in mother's Bible last summer at R. A. Tillman's so I think most if not all are correct. Joseph and Martha both died before your father and I were married. Your Aunt Sarah married John Lumkin, raised nine children, lived in Talbot County, Ga. - sons were Edward, John and William - can't recall all their names. Aunt Sarah died in the summer of 1854. Your Uncle James married a Miss Watson and lived in Columbus, Georgia, for quite a while, then moved to Macon County, Ala. - eight children, William, Arthur, Mary & Sarah (twins), Joseph, Ella, Anna and Watson (these are children of James Slaton, Thorpe). William, Arthur and Mary are all dead. William left two boys, Arthur, his oldest, living at Rush Springs, Indian Territory. I don't know where William is. Joseph, Anna and Watson was living in North Alabama the last I heard from.

Your Uncle James moved to Texas in 1872 and settled in Ellis County and died there fall of 1875. His daughter Mary married Mr. Martin, no children, she died at Commerce, Texas, Oct. 8, 1896. Sarah married Mr. Neal and lives in Waxahachie, Texas, has one child, a son. Ella married twice - heard she and her last husband, Mr. Pressley, was living in Oak Cliff, also her daughter, a Mrs. Butcher. Your Aunt Martha left five children, Alexander, Samuel, Amelia, James D.C. and Martha. Alex and Sam were both killed, or died, in the war. Amelia married John Kelso - had one son Willie. Her husband got killed in the war. Then after her son was grown and married she got married to Col. Hilliard of Pike County, Ala. - to them were born two children, a boy and a girl. All are living in Pike County, Ala.

James D. Cooper married Miss Arra M. Dickson in Tallapoosa County, Ala. - lived in Dadeville, Ala. Three children born to them there, Daniel, James N. and Willie D. They came to Texas in January 1874 and three children were born to them in Texas, Mattie, John M. Mattie and the other baby sister died in infancy. His wife died December 1879, then he married Miss Mary Thomas, to them were born two sons, Oscar and Horace. J.D.C.'s sister Martha married Mr. Ray in Opelika, Ala., they had some children, one of her daughters married and living in Atlanta, Ga. Martha is also dead. Your Uncle Elisha married Miss Jernigan in Georgia. To them were born 7 children, Mary J., William, John, Emily, Joseph, Eliza, George. William and John both got killed, or died, in the war. I heard that Joseph and George were also dead. Don't know if Mary J. ever married or not. Eliza married a Mr. Brown, they also were living in Alabama when last heard from. Elisha died March 3, 1872.

Your Uncle David was married to Miss Brown, to them were born 5 children, George, Henrietta, James, Sallie and John William. Only George and Sallie lived to be grown. After his wife died he married widow Graham in Dadeville, Ala. Your father performed the ceremony. Your Uncle David died in Dadeville, Ala., March 10, 1872, his widow and children came to Texas after his death, both children married brothers and sisters - can't recall names - living in West Texas when last heard from. His widow also married at our home in Dallas, your father performing the ceremony - I guess you remember it. Your Aunt Matilda married Mr. Tyra Brannon and lived quite a while in Talbot County, Georgia, then moved to Macon County, Ala. They raised a large family - Mary, their oldest daughter, married Mr. John Wicker. They also raised a large family, came to Texas several years ago, lived in Ellis County. Frank, the oldest son, lives in or near Grand Saline, Vanzant County. Your aunt, R. A. Tillman, could tell you about them. Your aunt's husband died in the summer of 1891 and she died a few years since. She was 70 years old. Your Aunt Emily never married - died Macon County, Ala., 1871. Your uncle, John B., was married to Mattie Beckham in Pike County, Georgia, January 1862, they had four children - the first died in infancy. His widow and three boys, Wilbur, Oscar and John, came to Decatur, Texas, when we were living there. Wilbur was married and lived in Wise County the last I knew of them. Oscar and John were both lawyers. I never heard of Oscar being married. John married and was living in Montague, Texas, the last I heard of him.

Well, I suppose you want me to tell you about our family. Your father and I were married in Leon County, Florida, May 30, 1850. Your sister Mary E. born Leon County Dec. 16, 1851. We moved to Macon County, Ala. January 1853. Rebecca was born in Macon County, Ala. Aug. 3, 1853. Orilla was born August 16, 1855. Johnnie was born August 6, 1857. We moved to Tallapoosa County in the fall of 1857. Annie was born in Tallapoosa County July 17, 1859. James Daniel was born in Dadeville, Alabama, May 5, 1862 and died January 1, 1863. Caruth was born in Decatur, Wise County, Texas, May 21, 1879 and died near Marlow, Indian Territory, May 9, 1904. Your father, D. H. Slaton, died August 29, 1892. Your Aunt Rebecca A. was married to Mr. J. T. Tillman in the fall of 1854, in Talbot County, Ga., came to Alabama in 1858, came to Texas in, I think it was, the fall of 1874 to Dallas County, and in the fall of 1887 to Vanzant County, where she now lives.

WILLOUGHBY SLATON, See #5 on Page #21 and ARTHUR SLAYDEN'S WILL ON Page #27.

Birth date not located, probably in Virginia. Records and tradition indicate he lived for a time in Kentucky and at least one child, John Slaton, was born there. It also seems likely that he may have been married three times as records listed on the following pages seem to indicate, however only one record of his marriage has been found, as follows:

From Columbia County (loose papers) Records in Georgia State Archives, Atlanta: "William Low and Elizabeth Hodgins (sic) Nov. 14, 1807 (in 1800-1820 folder) "Know all men by these presents, that we, Willoughby Slaton and Arch Walker are held and firmly bound unto the Court of Ordinary of Columbia County in the sum of $857.14 to which payment well and truly to be made. We bind ourselves our heirs, executors and administrators jointly, severally, firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this 16th day of November 1807. The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas there is a marriage intended to be solemnized between the above named Willoughby Slaton and Elizabeth Low now if there be no lawful cause to obstruct same, then this obligation is to be void, else to remain in full force and virtue.

Signed sealed and acknowledged in presence of A. Crawford, Clk.

JOHN SLATON, SON OF WILLOUGHBY SLATON, See #5-e, Page 17 of this addenda:

While positive proof that John Slaton who married Nancy Harris and whose descendants are listed below is the son of Willoughby Slaton has not been found, there is little doubt in the minds of the several persons who have worked on this research, that this is true. The reasons for this opinion are to be found in this addenda and in the book, The Slaton Family. Some are: John had brothers named Joseph and Cornelius; Willoughby's is the only family found with sons named Joseph, John & Cornelius. Kentucky land records indicate Willoughby was in Kentucky about the time of John's birth; considerable research has located no other John Slaton who could have been Willoughby's son.

CORRECTION: SEE JOHN SLAYDEN #3, on Page #37.

All references to John Slaton who married Nancy Harris and lived in Georgia and Alabama, on pages 37, 38, 39 are incorrectly placed and do not apply to John Slayden #3, on p. #37. For correct identification of John Slayden #3, on page #37, see page #4 of this addenda which lists his descendants in Kentucky and Illinois. \4✓

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON WILLIAM FRANKLIN SLATON.

Excerpts from Georgia's Bi-Centennial Memoirs and Memories by L. L. Knight, published 1933, Vol. IV, pp. 194-198.

Major William Franklin Slaton was born in Merriweather County, Georgia, near Warm Springs, March 6, 1831, and died in Atlanta, Georgia, November 29, 1916. In Major Slaton's early youth, his father moved to Prattsville, Ala. (Autauga County) and became a prosperous farmer and slave owner. Major Slaton was only 16 years old when he lost his father.....

Major Slaton's father was John Slaton, of Kentucky, who came to Georgia in his youth and settled in Hancock County. A man of sterling qualities, he was a wide-awake, energetic and successful farmer. He was born ca. 1795-96, and died near Prattsville, Ala. at his plantation February 25, 1847. He moved from Georgia when the Indians resided near where he settled, Major Slaton being only 4 years old (ca 1835). Major Slaton's mother was Nancy Harris, who was born in Hancock County, Ga., the daughter of Hon. Henry Harris of Greenville, Merriweather County, sister of Congressman Henry R. Harris of the 4th Congressional District of Georgia. Another brother, Ben Harris, was a member of the Georgia Secession Convention.

Excerpts from a typed paper in the possession of Mrs. Lamar (Slaton) Hitt, copied by Mrs. A. Waldo Jones in 1963, who says this paper was written while Major Slaton was still alive.

Born near Warm Springs, Georgia, March 6, 1831, son of John Slaton and Nancy (Harris) Slaton, the former born in Kentucky 1796 and the latter in Hancock County, Ga., 1811. Major Slaton's war record is in Alabama. John Slaton moved to Autauga County, Alabama in 1834, when Indians lived in that part of the state.

The maternal line Major Slaton is descended from is two Harris families, his mother having been a Harris and her mother a Harris. The Major's grandfather, Henry Harris, was a son of Absalom Harris, a loyal soldier in the war of Revolution, the family at that time residing in Virginia. Absalom Harris came to Georgia from Greenville County, Virginia, and settled on Shoulderbone Creek in Hancock County, where he spent the remainder of his life.....

Major Slaton was afforded the advantages of various country schools of the old type, thereafter attending school conducted by Dr. Archelus Mitchell at Summerfield, Ala. He was later sent by his mother to the noted Dr. Carlisle P. Beman at Mt. Zion, Hancock County, Ga., whose name and fame is yet treasured by many men of note in Georgia. Later Major Slaton was granted a degree of Master of Arts from the University of Georgia.....

.....when it became certain that a conflict must occur between the States, Major Slaton, then teaching school in Auburn, Ala.....went forth to the defense of the cause of the Confederacy. At the outbreak of the war he held the office of 1st Lieutenant of the Auburn Guards and with this command went to Pensacola, Florida, to assist in the defense of Ft. Barrancas. In the spring of 1862 his Company formally entered the Confederate service at Auburn as Company D, 37th Alabama Infantry. He participated in the battles of Corinth, Iuka, Shilo, and in all the engagements down to the siege of Vicksburg..... Wounded at Corinth but within a few weeks was able to resume his command, under General Pemberton at the siege of Vicksburg. Captured at Lookout Mountain, was accused by General Grant of having violated his parole which had been given at Vicksburg when he was captured there.....this contretemps was caused by the fact that the Secretary of War CSA had returned 5000 of the Vicksburg troops to the field on account of an equal number captured at Harper's Ferry, paroled in the field and recaptured the next day in Maryland with arms in their hands..... Major Slaton was sent, under sentence of death, to Louisville, Kentucky, where he was tried by General Burbridge without being permitted to appear in his own defense and sentenced to be shot. By the intervention of Hon. Benjamin H. Hill, his life was saved and he was sent to endure the horrors of the Federal prison at Johnson's Island in Lake Erie, where after 18 months of weary captivity, he remained until the close of the war. The late Governor William J. Sanford of Alabama was a pupil of Major Slaton when war was declared, met him in prison at Johnson's Island, where together the education was completed and Major Slaton wrote his diploma on foolscap paper in lieu of parchment. Major Slaton was promoted for valor at Corinth, made Major and finally was commissioned Colonel in 1864; preferred the title of Major; he is and always will be known as Major.....

Discharged as a prisoner of war June 5th, 1865, he returned to Georgia, located on a farm at Sandtown, now Woodbury, Georgia. ... He has been identified with educational work since attaining his majority; in 1855 was elected to a professorship in Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, an institution of which he was practically the founder and in which he taught for six years. In 1871 he gave up farming to teach at Griffin, Georgia, for four years, then took up residence in Atlanta where he assumed the position of Principal of the Boys High School until 1879 when he was elected Superintendent of Schools in Atlanta which he has held continuously since that time.

From a typed article in possession of Lamar S. Hitt, dated about 1907, upon the occasion of the retirement of Major Slaton as Superintendent of Atlanta

Schools:

.....now after 32 years association with the school system, which he has seen built up from a mere handful, Major Slaton will still remain as an officer of the Atlanta Public Schools, a position he undoubtedly will hold as long as he lives. The oldest pioneer residents remember how ten years after the war between the States, Major Slaton came to Atlanta as Principal of Atlanta Boys High School, five years later he was made Superintendent of the system, that was in 1879; for 27 years Major Slaton has filled that office.....Seventy-six years old, Major Slaton's life has been filled with struggles, successes and incidents that make most interesting reminiscences.....soldier, educator, founder of one of the largest colleges of the South and head of local schools.

Not many years ago, Governor Sanford of Alabama visited Major Slaton at his home in Atlanta. The former chief executive was a fellow prisoner of Major Slaton after his capture. Speaking of their war life, Governor Sanford turned to one of Major Slaton's friends and said, "While I was in prison I completed my education and Major Slaton gave it to me. I have the diploma which he wrote for me on a piece of paper that we found in the cells."

From the papers of Miss Martha Slaton, courtesy Mrs. A. Waldo Jones:

Excerpts from a letter written by Mrs. William Franklin Slaton, from Asheville, N.C., to her son and his wife, Mr. & Mrs. John Marshall Slaton, while on a trip abroad. Letter addressed to London, England, August 12, 1900.

"Mrs. Lowell's, Charlotte Street, Asheville, N.C.this place has a large lawn, with oak trees of a century, which embrace each other, forming a dense grateful shade. I am told Cousin James Dubose lives in the rear of the place. We hope to give them a call if the weather becomes favorable. It has been too dusty to take a drive to 'Biltmore'. Annie Waldo Vandeman (Cousin Abie's niece from Florida) by invitation is spending a few weeks at Biltmore. On Friday, Hugh Dorsey and Harry Alexander, who are staying at Battery Park Hotel, called to see Lulah. A Mr. Slaton from Grand Rapids wrote your father, that Slaton formerly was spelled Slayton and Sladen, for convenience.....I thought while here I would call on J. C. Slayden who has a wholesale grocery store (old man) as he came from Kentucky, to ascertain if they are the missing link of your father's family. A gentleman at Tate Springs told me they were very well to do, highly respectable....."

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH SLAYDEN. From information furnished by Colonel William M. Slayden, Knoxville, Tenn. (Tennessee records have been verified.) from family records and from the family chart compiled by Mrs. Mary Slayden Green (deceased) formerly of Los Angeles (See page #100). Mrs. Green's chart gives no clue as to source of her information; from the detailed dates and names shown, it would appear that she spent considerable time and effort contacting various branches of the family and that most of her information is from family records. Joseph Slayden's wife, named in his will as "Milly," is probably Mildred Everett. An Epps Everett is mentioned in his will, and the Everett name is carried down by descendants. Mrs. Green states that his wife was Mildred Everett.

OTHER MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

It is noted that of the hundreds of Slayden names listed by Mrs. Green in her chart, no variation is found in spelling of the name. Where public records of this branch of the family have been found, there are the usual variations in spelling found elsewhere, such as Slayton, Slaydon, etc. It would seem possible that all of the descendants of the 16 children of Joseph Slayden did not hold strictly to the Slayden spelling.

From "History of Humphreys County, Tenn." by Jill Garrett:

"Brothers of Rachel Slayden who married Thomas Slayden, were Stokley Westmoreland Slayden, Daniell Everett Slayden and William Everett Slayden who settled in Maury and Dickson Counties, Tennessee."

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND CORRECTIONS JOHN SLATON, See Page #31, John Slaton, Wife Elizabeth Hill (or Hillis) and #3, on Page #37.

Recent information indicates rather clearly that the John Slayden referred to on page #31 and whose application for Revolutionary war pension is reproduced on page #34, from Henderson County, Kentucky, in 1832, is not the same person as John Slaton (wife Elizabeth) whose children are listed on page #31. No information at this time available indicates the identity of this John Slayden, who joined the Revolutionary Army from Charlotte County, Virginia. The letter from James Slaton of Bedford County, Tennessee (see page #36 & 36-a) indicates he knew him but apparently was aware of no relationship.

The following information, researched by Miss Evadine Parker of Bowling Green, Kentucky (1965) seems to leave little doubt but that John Slaton (wife Elizabeth) whose descendants are listed beginning on page #31, is the son of John and Susannah Slayden, b. Sept. 12, 1773, Goochland County, Va., and the brother of Arthur, Edmund and James. (Nos. 8, p. 44; #9, p. 45; and #2, p. 35 respectively).

From Earl S. Dennis & Jane F. Smith Bedford County, Va. marriages, p. 60: John Slaton m. Elizabeth Hibbs, November 28, 1791. James Bunch surety. While only speculation, it seems reasonable that this is record of John Slaton's (#3 on page #37) marriage to Elizabeth, since spelling of her name is doubtful because of being almost illegible in the records of Charles G. Bourland.

Arthur P. Slaton was administrator of the estate of John Slaton, but died before the estate was completely settled and final settlement was made by Arthur P. Slaton's administrator. The following:

Hopkins County, Ky. Will book 6, p. 278:

From the Madisonville, Ky. Messenger June 23, 1954:

FLETCHER SLATON HOME BUILT DURING CIVIL WAR.

A farm home rich in historical significance was featured in the aerial photo on the farm page last week, the 395 acre farm of Fletcher Slaton located on Route 3, six miles east of Madisonville was identified immediately as the one in the picture. The lovely old home on the place was built in 1860 or '61 by James E. Slaton, grandfather of the present owner. Another of the grandsons is Judge L. R. Slaton. Fletcher Slaton's father was the late T. M. Slaton who was Magistrate of this district years ago. (Note by LEP: T. M. Slaton was the father of Judge L. R. Slaton).

James Slaton bought the farm from his wife's mother, a daughter of Thomas Wilson; previous owners before the Wilsons were the Edmund Slatons who sold the land for $1.00 per acre to the Wilsons. Edmund Slaton was an uncle of James E. Slaton.

From 1880 census, Hopkins County, Ky., p. 11, entry 88:

ALLEN FAMILY, See Page #45.

From Mrs. Carl Bledsoe, Aroya, Colo. (1964)

Benjamin Allen's daughter, Mary Allen, m. Abraham Wiseman, Nelson County, Ky. 10/18/1797, by Rev. James Rodgers; she was b. 1778. Might be sister of Benjamin Allen who m. Sally Lee.

There was only one Allen, William, in the Nelson County census of 1800.

There were five Benjamin Allens in the 1800 Kentucky census. Archibald Allen in Washington County had descendants in Crawford County, Ind. Mary Allen Wiseman moved to Crawford County, Ind., with her family, in 1816. (Names 4 Benjamin Allens, one in each of the counties of Clark, Hardin, Lincoln and Campbell, might have been two in one county).

A Mrs. Harvey of Texas has done much research on the Kentucky Allens; her ancestor Hiram Allen & wife Mary Ann were in Louisiana by the time of the 1810 census; they were from Campbell County, Ky. His brother Martin Allen recorded that he was born in Ireland Nov. 28, 1780. Hiram & Martin's father was Benjamin Allen.

From Kentucky County Records by Annie Walker Burns:

Adair County Wills:

In 1790, Benjamin Clardy, his wife Aggie Booth Clardy, brother-in-law Stephen Booth, and his three sons-in-law, John Clardy, David Spearman and Jimmie Fleming, moved from Halifax, Virginia, to South Carolina.

John Clardy had married the oldest daughter of Benjamin and Aggie Clardy, Mary (Polly). John and Mary settled near the Saluda river in Pendleton District, now Anderson County, near where the Piedmont Cotton Mill now stands. They reared a large family. The children were:

Langley Clardy	Nancy Clardy m. William Orr
Ellet Clardy	Sally Clardy m. Ford
Waddie (Wadsworth?) Clardy	Lude Clardy m. Dalton
Joab M. Clardy, m. Mary (Polly) Gambrell	Agnes Clardy m. Payne
Mary (Polly) Clardy m. Loving Slaton

Mr. David Guthrie came from Virginia to visit his brother-in-law, Benjamin H. Clardy. He bought a farm in South Carolina, 1000 acres, for $1,000.00 December 14, 1809. Then went back to Virginia and made arrangements to move. They came all the way by ox cart and arrived here March 25, 1810, after travelling for three months. Mr. Guthrie had three daughters; two of them never married; the youngest, Polly Guthrie, married a Mr. Williams. They disagreed and separated. Their daughter, Amanda Williams, married (John) Clardy Slaton, Benjamin Clardy's great-grandson.

Penelope Guthrie reared the children of Clardy and Amanda Slaton since their mother died when they were very young and Clardy Slaton was killed, or died, in the Civil War.

On page 39, there is brief reference to Dorothy Lamour, in addition the following; Information phoned to A. J. Slaton, October 1964, by a Mrs. Castleberry who stated that she is the mother of Dorothy Lamour:

Her first husband and Dorothy Lamour's father was John Wilson Slaton, that he had two sisters, one named Mary Watson Slaton, now deceased.

John Wilson Slaton's parents were Samuel Watson Slaton and Letitia Wilson Slaton, that she knew them well, visited them many times.

Samuel Watson Slaton was for many years connected with the Birmingham Bank and Trust Company of Birmingham, Ala. (A brief investigation failed to locate a bank in Birmingham of that name.)

Dorothy Maryletia Slaton (Dorothy Lamour) lives in Baltimore, Maryland, has two sons, age 14-18. Her married name, Mrs. William R. Howard. The World Almanac shows Dorothy Lamour b. New Orleans, La. 1914. This apparently is an Alabama family.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SLATON

Origin of this man has not been located; information below seems to indicate reference to two or more George Slatons, and some information may have no connection with any G. W. Slaton.

Excerpts from a letter by J. W. Slaton, Baptist minister, 557 Washington Street, Walla Walla, Washington, June 8, 1943. Addressed to Mrs. John M. Slaton, 2962 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Ga. (from the papers of Miss Martha Slaton).

My grandfather, George Washington Slaton, was born in South Caroline about 1799, the same year George Washington died. He died in Tennessee 1895. He moved his family, consisting of a wife and five children - four daughters and one son - to Tennessee. He homesteaded land in Monroe County in 1833, the year the stars fell - built a log house that still stands and is occupied by one of his great-grandsons by name of Mason.

The son was eight years old when the family moved to Tennessee, born 1825..... I have always been told that grandfather (George Washington Slaton) had three brothers, Wade, a Baptist minister, William and John. These brothers all migrated, one to Alabama, one to Georgia, and perhaps one to Mississippi.

I never heard my great-grandfather's name called-----.

I have a brother in Oklahoma, William -----.

I had a brother named George Washington Slaton -----.

My mother's father was George Washington Lee, came to Tennessee about the time my grandfather came from South Carolina, 1832 or thereabouts; he was from Virginia. My father and mother lived in Georgia for a short time during the first five years of the Civil War.

My father, Berry Wilson Slaton, b. 1825, d. 1874, at the age of 48.....

My grandfather was 96 when he died in 1895.....

I am the youngest of three sons, am past 72 years of age, school teacher and minister for 50 years.....I left Tennessee in 1901, was in Texas and Oklahoma for several years before coming to Washington State in 1908.

I wrote a book...during my illness...(family history) mimeographed, selling for 60 cents.....having a good sale in Tennessee.....

Excerpts from a letter written by Martha Cain, 7730 East End Ave., Chicago, Ill., dated November 8, 1952, to Miss Martha Slaton, Atlanta, Ga. (from her papers).

Rev. John Slaton died in 1944, his brother William Slaton is living in La Junta, Calif., aged 89, his wife died in 1946. William Slaton had ten children.....My mother's name was Barrette, my father Wade Davis Slaton had a sister named Martha.....

Rev. John Slaton was my father's nephew.....Berry Wilson Slaton's wife was a niece of Robert E. Lee.....My grandfather was George Washington Slaton, his father settled in South Carolina, had four boys and two girls. My grandfather had four girls and one boy (Berry Wilson Slaton); he moved to Athens, Tennessee, where he lived until he died.....

.....My great-grandfather came to this country prior to Revolutionary days. He was of war and marriageable age as it is known that he had a family in South Carolina, 4 sons - their names, Wade, William, John and George Washington Slaton, my grandfather. They migrated to other states about the time my grandfather moved from South Carolina to East Tennessee, one to Alabama, one to Mississippi, and the other to Georgia. Grandfather George Washington Slaton was born in 1799. When he was 34 years old (1833) he brought his family to Tennessee, consisting of grandfather, grandmother, four daughters, Malinda, Matilda, Mahala and Sarah, and one son, Berry Wilson Slaton, my father. They settled in the southwestern part of Monroe County, East Tennessee. Later another son, George, was born, but died young. In a few years grandmother died. Grandfather married again and raised a second family of eight children, 5 girls and three boys. Polly, Jane, Harriet, Betty, Martha, Wade, William and Steven. Polly, the oldest, was last to die in 1941 at age 82..... About 1857 my father, Berry Wilson Slaton, was married to a Miss Patterson; she died within the year. Soon after he married Thursa Jane Lee, to whom were born seven children, George Washington 1859, James Isbell 1861, Isaac Melmirth 1863, who died at a young age, Mary Alice 1865, William Archibald 1867, Martha Athalona 1869, and John Winslow Slaton 1871. My father's name was Frederick Adolphus Slaten; he never used the full name but instead Fred A. Slaten. His grandfather, John Wesley Slaten, named him..... John Wesley Slaten was a Methodist minister, circuit rider, 41 years on horseback in Missouri and Southern Illinois. He learned to be a lawyer in the little town of Grafton and when circuit riding became too hard turned to law and practiced and taught in his county.

John Slaton was living in Surrey County, N.C. in 1771 and Major Slaton, George Slaton and John Slaton were there the following year. In 1800 Uriah Slaton was in the Greenville District of South Carolina and in the Pendleton District were William and George Slaton. George Slaton sold to Isham Blankenship on April 16, 1796, land on Little Beaver Dam of Rocky River, witnessed by Oliver Charles and Jeremiah Elrod.

While searching for an old Bailey Cemetery near White City, Hopkins County, I found the following:

Haden S. Littlepage, May 5, 1822 - June 2, 1862.

And in some strip mines area there are roughly 15-20 graves with only one marked grave which reads:

In memory of James Littlepage, March 12, 1786 - March 28, 1850.

Would never have found this if one of the local residents had not taken us to it.

From "History of The Sisk Family," from a newspaper in Newport, Tennessee, by Hugh Allen, 2511 Nadine Street, N.E., Knoxville, Tenn.

SISK FAMILY ONE OF THE PRIME PIONEER FAMILIES OF COCKE COUNTY, TENN.

The Sisk family apparently stems from Captain Bartlett Sisk, an officer in the Virginia Forces during the Revolutionary War. One account says he was a private and served with the North Carolina troops. Both may be correct. Or there may have been a father and son of the same name. One Bartlett Sisk drew a Revolutionary War pension in Cocke County in 1840; his age was given as 79, but is given slightly different in another source. His son Lawson Sisk moved to Cocke County from Virginia and built a large home at the head of English Creek in 1801. His father, Bartlett Sisk, also came from Virginia. Lawson Sisk's wife was Sallie Clevenger. Also a Martin Sisk is mentioned in the same period; his wife, Mary. They joined the Big Pidgeon River Baptist Church June 5, 1802.

It is not known for certain who the father of Elias Sisk was, but it seems safe to assume that he was one of the above. Elias Sisk was born 1792, undoubtedly in Virginia; he married Polly Allen, daughter of "John, the bricklayer," on August 31, 1813. Elias and Polly Sisk were received by experience into the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in 1842. Date of his death is not known, but it is believed he was living in 1860. The following is a list of the children of Elias and Polly (Allen) Sisk (subject to errors, additions and subtractions):

1. Mary Sisk, b. 1814, m. William Vinson who was b. 1810. Their children included Jud Vinson, Murray Vinson, Luther Vinson & Creed Vinson; the latter lived to age 94, was a Methodist preacher, unmarried and lived with his unmarried sisters. It is said that Mary and William Vinson died when their children were young.
2. Houston Sisk, nothing known, said to have left no children.
3. _____? Sisk, m. John Hall, one of the sons of this couple, Horace Hall, is thought to have married a Massey, older sister of the late Mrs. Cora Massey Mims. Another son, Alfred Hall, was the father of the late J. Allen Hall.
4. _____? Sisk, m. _____ Brooks, nothing known, possibly the ancestor of Mel Rutherford and possibly connected in some way with Mrs. Oliver Grey.
5. _____? Sisk, m. Elihu West, nothing known, believe one son m. Julia Kyker, dau of Jim Kyker.
6. _____? Sisk, nickname Nantie, unmarried.
7. _____? Sisk, nickname Rhumy. These two might have been the unmarried sisters of Rev. Creed Vinson (?) (sic).

8. Eliza Sisk, b. 1830, d. 2/7/1892, nothing more known, left her property to a nephew, H. J. Hall.
9. Nancy Sisk, b. 1820, nothing known (might be the Nanty above).
10. Lucinda Sisk, nothing known, b. 1832.
11. Blackburn Sisk, b. 1838. The writer recalls a Blackburn Sisk, but according to his birth date, could not have been the same man.
12. Parmelia Sisk, b. 1840, nothing known.

In addition to the above there was a Toliver Sisk b. 1836 according to census records. Birth dates of Lucinda, Blackburn and Parmelia are from the 1860 census. In 1856 William Bryant m. Elizabeth Sisk; he b. 1832, she in 1836. Elizabeth could also have been of this family.

Re. Allen, mentioned above:

_____? Allen m. "Granny Chris," two sons named are 1. John (Jack) Allen, the bricklayer, b. 1777 in Virginia, m. Nancy Mattox, b. 1796. A John Allen b. 1774 in Virginia, lived in Cocke County, Tenn., d. there in 1859. 2nd son, Capt. James Allen, m. Millident (Millie) Mattox, sister of Nancy (above); he was in the Battle of Horseshoe, supposed to have "gone west," no record of his family. All of the above through courtesy Mrs. Robert L. Johnson, 12636 Croydon Circle, Dallas, Texas.
