This crest or coat of arms is one of two that we found,
that are supposed to have been used by the Starbucks.

PREFACE - - - - -

So far as we can learn, most of the 5100 Starbucks in this country today, and an even larger number of their daughter's descendents, could trace their ancestry back to Edward Starbuck (1604-1691) of Derbyshire, England, according to James C. Starbuck of Chicago. He indicates there are a few Starbucks in Columbus, Ohio, of German origin, as well as a few later emigrants from England, who settled in Connecticut. He also advises that the James Starbuck of TV is probably a descendent of a Portugese cabin boy, brought home to Nantucket from the Azores by a Starbuck sea captain. This often happened. They usually took the name of the captain. Others have been adopted into the family also.

"The name Starbuck is Scandinavian and signifies a person of imposing appearance, great or grand bearing". This is from Alexander Starbuck's History of Nantucket. He also states that it is not improbable that the family was of Danish origin and settled in England in the days of the Danish invasion, during the last half of the ninth century.

The movement of people from place to place is always interesting, but especially so in our own family. Edward Starbuck, mentioned above, came to America during the mass migration from England, to avoid religious persecution in the seventeenth century. His later move to Nantucket was part of another migration, although much smaller. Some left the Massachusetts Bay Colony to avoid puritan persecution.

It seems nearly impossible to have much understanding of this family, without first taking a quick look at the history of Nantucket Island. Tristram Coffin, of Salisbury, Massachusetts, was the leader in negotiations with Thomas Mayhew for Nantucket Island. A deed was drawn July 2, 1659, to nine purchasers. The price was thirty pounds sterling and two beaver hats. By agreement, each purchaser was allowed to take on a partner. Later, others were added on a half share basis. There was a total of 27 shares, but only 11 actually settled and stayed on to populate the island. They were: Coffin, Macy, Hussey, Swain, Bernard, Starbuck, Coleman, Worth, Wyer, Gardner, and Folger. In the early fall of 1659, Thomas Macy, his wife and five children, accompanied by Edward Starbuck and a 12 year old boy, Isaac Coleman, traveled in a small open boat, from Salisbury, out around Cape Ann, then Cape Cod, and on to Nantucket. This was a total distance of more than 100 miles.

After the deed from Mayhew, the next step was to treat with the Indians, who lived on the island, for it's second purchase. From the first they dealt honorably with the Indians. They drew up a formal deed for the land they occupied in the summer of 1660, the year that ten families settled there. The islanders lived without formal worship for forty years. About 1700, a group of quaker missionaries visited the island. Among their first converts was Mary Coffin Starbuck. The first quaker meeting house was built in 1711. Quakerism dominated the island for nearly 200 years. By 1750 the island had become a refuge for the Quakers and there were 2000 members of quaker congregations on Nantucket. This was more than half the population.

The circumstance of the American Revolution dealt harshly with Nantucket residents. At the time, whaling and fishing had brought prosperity to the people. In 1773 the population was nearly 5000. The islanders owned a sailing vessel for each three or four houses. Although the Revolution actually started in 1775, fishing, whaling and trading with England were restricted prior to that time. All this seriously effected the economy of Nantucket, so dependent on ships and shipping. The British seized a million dollars worth of ships owned by the people of Nantucket, one hundred thirty four in all. It also cost them an undetermined loss of life, that has been estimated as high as 1600. It is known that at least 1200 were killed or captured by the British. At the close of eight years of actual war, there were 200 widows and 342 orphans among the 800 families still living on the island. The suffering was acute, both from hunger and cold, since their food and fuel practically all had to come from the mainland. The poor sandy soil never produced well.

Many families left the island between 1774 and 1800. It was during this period that this family really began to scatter. Gayer Starbuck and his wife and family moved to North Carolina, in 1774. He and his wife lived there the rest of their lives. Hezekiah, his brother, arrived there about eleven years later, with his wife and family. His children were among the scores of Quaker families that moved north, to avoid slavery, and west to new lands of opportunity. They reached Ohio in 1805.

This family history, as you will find it here, really started about 1937, with inquiries into the family Quaker background. Individual family record sheets were used from the first to gather vital statistics. Unfortunately, little attention was paid to biographies even when talking to older members of the family. They were not inclined to volunteer information about themselves or their ancestry. Even at family reunions, this was not discussed, that we know of, prior to 1957. In fact, it was at about that time we became aware there was a possibility of tracing our children's Starbuck ancestry back as far as colonial times. When the really interesting history of the family became apparent to us, we became more and more engrossed in it. We wrote distant cousins we had never met, asking a lot of questions. We became aware that many were interested but found almost no written records available in the family, not even family bible records. We have seen only one. Soon we felt that what we were learning should be made available to others. Hence this publication.

Library research has proven quite interesting and confusing as well. It is difficult to evaluate the accuracy of some publications and they do not always agree. During the middle of the eighteenth century, two changes were made in the calendar. The first month of the year was changed from March to January, and in 1752, a ten-day error was corrected. This makes dates prior to that time confusing. For example: 12-4-1690 is 2-4-1691, by our present day calendar. Unfortunately, few books of real value in genealogical research are available outside a few special libraries. Many of these must be used entirely in the library reading room. David did the library research for the biographies and royal connections.

Our amateur courthouse research has been fruitful but not as productive of biographical facts as we had hoped. Several of the biographies are sketchy for various reasons. We would like to have included more information, but this is all we had that we considered worth passing on and that we felt was accurate.

The family pages are an attempt to record the descendants of Hezekiah Starbuck (1749-1830). They are as complete as we could get them at the time this went to press. Dates of birth, marriage, and death are shown. Parentage of spouse and present addresses are shown where known. While this is intended primarily for the descendants of Ohio Starbucks, others may find something of interest in it. A few copies will be placed in certain local and genealogical libraries. Space has been left on the family pages for other children to be added, marriages listed, and dates of death recorded. Each family record, kept up to date, will be most interesting to its future readers.

Information has been gathered from many sources too numerous to list. Much credit for extensive research in the family history must be given to James C. Starbuck, 1346 Bryn Mawr Avenue, Chicago 40, Illinois. Edwin P. Arthur, 3110 Las Faldas Drive, Fullerton, California, has also made available some of the more remote family connections. A partial bibliography will be found in the back. We feel that it is sufficiently complete that an interested reader would have a good place from which to launch further research, or prove his own Starbuck ancestry for more than 300 years back to quite a number of important people in this country's early development.

Even as this goes to press, we are working on other sections of the history of our family ancestry. We have found it lots of fun. Drop us a line occasionally to keep us posted on the latest moves of the Starbucks.

THE EARLIEST STARBUCKS IN AMERICA

1. EDWARD STARBUCK (1604-1691)

Just who Edward was before he arrived in what is now Dover, New Hampshire, has been lost in the past. He was born in the year 1604, in either Derbyshire or Attenborough, England, and arrived in the New World about 1635. His wife, Katherine Reynolds, daughter of Robert, is thought to have been Welch. Beyond this we know nothing except what he became on these shores.

He was highly looked upon in Dover. In the town records as published in the Dover Enquirer between 1850 and 1888, his name appears time after time. In 1647, and 1650, he was granted the right to erect sawmills; in 1652 he was granted the right to use certain lands. In 1643, he was chosen as the first Representative from Dover to the General Court of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, and served again in 1647. (This was before New Hampshire existed as a separate colony.) On the other hand, Edward had his problems in Dover. His religious views were not acceptable to his fellow townsmen, but he was not a Quaker as had long been the tradition with his descendents. Rather, he had evidently come under the influence of the Anabaptists who were disturbing the colony. In 1648, he was charged with "denying to joyne with the church in the ordinance of baptisme."

But this was probably not the primary reason for his settling on Nantucket. While his religious views may have remained a point of issue in Dover, another important factor may well have been that of the business opportunity of a new town. Whatever the reason, Edward removed himself and his family to Nantucket in 1660. While not an original purchaser, Edward and his son Nathaniel were a part of the first group of associates chosen by the purchasers in 1659.

Edward became highly esteemed on the island. He was much respected by the Indians; quieting them when it appeared there might be trouble. His name appears on the earliest Indian deed in 1660, and on many others until his death. A mill was established through his efforts. He served as selectman in 1673, and was nominated to the position of Captain though he was not chosen. During the thirty years of his life spent on Nantucket, he was instrumental in the development of that land.

He had lived a fruitful life for the sixty-five years he spent in the New World at his death on February 4, 1691 (1690 old system). The date of his wife's death is unknown, but is believed to have been prior to the move to Nantucket, as there is no record of it there. Lists of their children are conflicting, but the following seems to be most generally accepted:

1. Nathaniel: b 1635; d 8-6-1719; m Mary Coffin, 1662.
2. Sarah: birth and death unknown; m William Story, 1668; Josep Austin, 1684; Humphrey Varney as second wife.
3. Dorcas: b unknown; d October 1696; m William Gayer
4. Abigail: birth and death unknown; m Peter Coffin, who became a Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire.
5. Esther: birth and death unknown; m Humphrey Varney as first wife.
6. Jethro: b 1651; d 5-27-1663, having been run over by a cart.

2. NATHANIEL STARBUCK (1635-1719)

Nathaniel, son of Edward and Katherine (Reynolds) Starbuck, through whom almost all Starbucks in the United States trace their ancestry, was born in 1635 or 1636. The place of birth is unknown and depends, of course, on the exact date of Edward's arrival in Dover. We know nothing of Nathaniel's early years, but pick up the thread of his life as he accompanied his father, brother Jethro, and sisters Dorcas, Abigail, and Sarah to Nantucket. He was chosen along with his father as one of the associates by the original proprietors. Nathaniel became an influential man on the Island and "One of the wealthiest, if not individually the wealthiest, men on the Island." He inherited much of his wealth from his father, but undoubtedly expanded it through the store owned and operated by he and his wife.

As influential and important as Nathaniel was, it is his wife, Mary Coffin, Daughter of Tristram, one of the original proprietors, who is remembered in the history of the Island. She was born in Haverhill, Massachusetts, on February 20, 1646. (1645, old system) Her marriage to Nathaniel in 1662, was one of the first on the Island. Their daughter Mary, was the first white child born there. Mary Tristram Coffin was admired and respected. In the journal of John Richardson (one of the early Quakers to visit Nantucket) we read that it was she whom "the islanders esteemed as a judge among them for little of moment was done without her." She is supposed to have expressed her opinion by saying, "My husband and I, having considered the subject, think-- etc."

She was the moving force in establishing the Society of Friends on the Island. In 1701, at the age of fifty-five, she is reported to have accepted the tenets of the Quaker faith. In 1704, a series of meetings of the Friends took place in her home. Her children soon followed her into this religion, though her husband was evidently somewhat slower in his acceptance.

Mary died on November 13, 1717, at the age of seventy-two. Nathaniel outlived her by almost two years, dying August 6, 1719, in his eighty-fourth year. Their children were as follows:

1. Mary; b 3-30-1663; d 1696; m James Gardner.
2. Elizabeth: b 9-9-1665; d 1706; m Peter Coffin, 8-15-1682.
3. Nathaniel, Jr.: b 8-9-1668; d 1-29-1753; m Dinah Coffin 11-20-1690.
4. Jethro: b 12-14-1671; d 8-12-1770; m Dorcas Gayer 12-6-1694.
5. Barnabas: b 1673; d 11-21-1732.
6. Eunice: b 4-1-1674; d 2-12-1776; m George Gardner.
7. Priscilla: b 10-24-1676; d 3-14-1762; m John Coleman.
8. Hepsibah: b 4-2-1680; d 4-7-1740; m Thomas Hathaway.
9. Ann: no dates.
10. Paul: no dates.

3. JETHRO STARBUCK (1671-1770)

At this point in tracing the history of the family, records become very scarce, giving us little knowledge of the lives of Jethro and his son Thomas.

Jethro, the fourth child, second son, of Nathaniel and Mary (Coffin) Starbuck, was born December 14, 1671. He lived a long life - the longest on record on the Island, dying there on August 12, 1770, in his ninety-ninth year. He was closely connected with the Society of Friends, having joined with the group about the same time as his mother. His name appears as one of the signers of a petition from the group on Nantucket to the Rhode Island yearly meeting, asking to be joined to it. In 1716 he and his brother Nathaniel, Jr., were appointed to oversee the work of enlarging the meeting house.

Jethro held a respected place in the town, having served as selectman for thirty years. In 1721, he and four others were chosen as trustees of the "towne proportion of ye fiftie thousande pounds loan granted by ye General Court."

Dorcas Gayer, daughter of William Gayer and Dorcas Starbuck, became Jethro's wife on December 6, 1694. Dorcas Starbuck was Jethro's father's sister, making the marriage one between first cousins. Dorcas died December 11, 1747. Their children follow:

1. Sarah: b 12-20-1696; d 10-28-1789; m Jabez Macy 11-27-1712.
2. William: b 7-22-1698; d 10-17-1760; m Anna Folger 12-9-1720;
m Lydia Coleman 19-28-1751.
3. Eunice: b 2-4-1702 (1701- old system); d 12-9-1745; m Daniel Pinkham 4-2-1724.
4. Lydia: b 9-15-1704; d 6-2-1751; m Benjamin Barney 3-31-1722.
5. Thomas: b 12-12-1706; d 1-5-1777; m Rachel Allen 12-2-1726
6. Dorcas: b 4-13-1710; d 12-1710.
7. Jemima: b 7-2-1712; d unknown; m Silvanus Allen 10-31-1728.
8. Mary: b 9-8-1715; 10-24-1780; m Richard Mitchel 2-26-1731.

4. THOMAS STARBUCK (1706-1777)

Thomas was born December 12, 1706, to Jethro and Dorcas (Gayer) Starbuck. Information about Thomas is practically non-existent. According to Alexander Starbuck, Thomas could trace direct descent to Edward I of England, through his mother and maternal grandmother. At this time, we have found no information to substantiate this statement.

On December 2, 1726, Thomas married Rachel Allen, daughter of Edward and Ann (Coleman) Allen. She was born December 31, 1709 and died May 31, 1789. Thomas died February 6, 1777. Their children were:

1. Silvanus: b 8-16-1727; d 5-11-1813; m Mary Howes 1-16-1746. (1745 OS)
2. William: b 4-27-1732; d 6-3-1812; m Mary Folger 5-10-1753.
3. Rachel: b 6-20-1735; d 8-29-1775; m Paul Gardner 2-7-1754.
4. Elizabeth: b 6-13-1738; d 9-24-1821; m Walter Folger 1-13-1757.
5. Thomas: b 10-8-1742; d 12-13-1830; m Rachel Allen 12-2-1762
6. Gayer: b 11-9-1744; d 3-12-1814; m Rachel Folger 4-7-1770.
7. Hezekiah: b 4-10-1749; d 6-10-1830; m Mary Coffin Thurston 11-18-1771; m Judith Macy 12-3-1812.

5. GAYER STARBUCK (1744-1814)

Gayer, son of Thomas and Rachel (Allen) Starbuck was born November 9, 1744, on Nantucket Island. He was married there, April 7, 1770, to Rachel Folger, daughter of Peter and Christina (Swain) Folger. She was born December 30, 1747, on Nantucket. They were one of the many families to leave before the outbreak of the Revolutionary War. The records of December 31, 1874, of the New Garden Monthly Meeting in Guilford County, North Carolina, show that Gayer and wife Rachel were received by certificate from Nantucket, dated April 25, 1774. This indicates that their two older children were born in Nantucket. All of the others were born in North Carolina. Gayer died there on March 12, 1814. Rachel died there on August 30, 1842. All of their ten children lived to marry and most had large families. Several moved to Ohio and Indiana. Their children were:

1. Pamela: b 11-6-1771; d ; m Peter Coggeshall 6-25-1791 (dis mou)
2. Peter: b 6-7-1773; d ; m Rachel Dillon 10-27-1798 (dis mou)
3. Elizabeth: b 12-14-1774; d 4-5-1845; m George Starbuck 11-26-1796 (con mar. kin.)
4. Rachel: b 10-30-1776; d 12- -1845; m Joseph Leonard 12-20-1801.
5. Thomas: b 9-10-1778; d 3-15-1834; m Eleanor Leonard 4-28-1804 (rpd mou)
m Rachel Beeson
6. Ruth: b 6-13-1780; d ; m Andrew Knight 9-10-1801.
7. Lydia: b 10-9-1782; d 5-30-1874; m John Leonard 1-25-1806 (dis mou)
8. Dorcas: b 1-22-1785; d 10- -1872; m Benjamin Beeson 4-25-1807 (con misc.)
9. Reuben: b 11-3-1787; d ; m Mary Beeson 2-12-1812.
m Rachel (Trueblood) Standly.
10. Eunice: b 11-27-1790; d 1-11-1884; m Thomas Beeson 1-16-1817.

5. HEZEKIAH STARBUCK (1749-1830)

Hezekiah, the youngest of seven children of Thomas and Rachel (Allen) Starbuck, was born on Nantucket Island, February 10, 1749. At an early age, he went to sea, as did most of the boys on the Island. He was married November 18, 1771, to Mary Coffin Thurston of Rhode Island. Her parents were John and Mary (Coffin) Thurston. She was born July 17, 1752.

According to one authority, Hezekiah was captain of a whaling vessel for several years before the Revolutionary War. At the outset of the war, his ship was at sea. When he returned to Nantucket, he found a British man-of-war between them and port. He had to outmaneuver the enemy to get into port. He remained on the Island until the war was over.

Hezekiah was granted a certificate by the Nantucket Monthly Meeting on August 29, 1785, and moved his family to Guilford County, North Carolina. The records of the New Garden Monthly Meeting, there, show that on January 28, 1786, Hezekiah and wife, Mary, and children, George, Gayer, Clarissa, Hezekiah and Jethro were received into membership from Nantucket. These same records show the family as listed below, with the exception of Mary Coffin, who had died in Nantucket. These same records show the death of his wife, Mary, as June 9, 1806.

Hezekiah was married again on December 3, 1812, to Judith Macy, a daughter of Paul and Bethiah (Macy) Macy. She was born March 22, 1767. The Dover Monthly Meeting records of North Carolina show the family of Hezekiah and Judith along with Latham and Rebekah. These same records show that on February 19, 1825, Hezekiah and Wife were given on request a certificate to the Dover Monthly Meeting in Clinton County, Ohio. The records of this latter meeting show that they were received into membership on May 7, 1825. It is really not surprising that they made the trip to Ohio, since all of his children had left North Carolina before that time. He was 76 years old at the time of this trip. Family legend has it that they traveled by water, down the East coast to the Gulf of Mexico, up the Mississippi and Ohio rivers to Cincinnati. It is of interest to note that eight of Hezekiah's children died in Ohio; three in Belmont County, three in Clinton County, and two in Logan County. His youngest is thought to have died in Indiana.

Hezekiah Starbuck died in the Dover community about five miles northeast of Wilmington, Ohio, on June 10, 1830. He was buried at the Dover Meetinghouse. His wife Judith was given a certificate on request, to the Millcreek Monthly Meeting in Miami County, by the Dover Monthly Meeting on October 23, 1830. We find her death in Indiana, on August 20, 1854. We found no record of any children from Hezekiah's second marriage. The children of his first marriage were:

1. Mary Coffin: b 7-17-1772; d 5-24-1782.
2. George: b 4-8-1775; d 12-12-1815; m Elizabeth Starbuck in 1796.
3. Gayer: b 8-10-1777; d 12-30-1866; m Susannah Dillon 1-17-1799.
4. Clarissa: b 1-28-1780; d 6-2-1834; m Rueben Mills 1-19-1806.
5. Hezekiah: b 10-14-1782; d 12-20-1852; m Anna Hussey in 1807.
6. Jethro: b 5-15-1785; d 12-19-1815; m Rebecca Mills 8-8-1805.
7. Samuel: b 1-10-1788; d 7-5-1836; m Asenath Hedge in 1810.
8. Mary: b 3-25-1790; d 11-28-1849; m Joel Hunt 11-14-1811.
9. Latham: b 2-3-1793; d 3-24-1870; m Sarah Milton in 1814.
10. Rebecca: b 1-14-1800; d 5-27-1853; m Jesse Hodson.

THE OHIO STARBUCKS

6. GEORGE STARBUCK (1775-1815)

George, son of Hezekiah and Mary Coffin (Thurston) Starbuck, was born April 8, 1775, on Nantucket Island. As a boy of ten he accompanied the family to North Carolina. Little is known of his life there. At twenty one he married his first cousin, Elizabeth Starbuck, daughter of Gayer and Rachel (Folger) Starbuck. (See Page 9.) She was born December 14, 1774, in Guilford County, North Carolina. According to the New Garden Monthly Meeting, they were reprimanded for marrying near kin in the fall of 1796.

George and Elizabeth and their two small children moved to Nantucket about 1800. They stayed a couple of years. Their son Elisha was born there. It is not known for sure whether Mary was born there, but it is thought that she may have been born in North Carolina. The New Garden Monthly Meeting gave George and his family a Quaker certificate dated February 23, 1805.

According to Caldwell's 1880 History of Belmont and Jefferson Counties, we quote: "George Starbuck arrived in Belmont County in the spring of 1805. (He bought) the east half of Section 1, Warren Township. There he erected a sort of tent and covered it with canvas, drove forked stakes into the ground, at a required height, upon which they fixed their beds to protect themselves from the venomous reptiles, among which were rattlesnakes. In this way, they lived until four acres of ground could be cleared and planted to corn, when they erected a cabin. In 1810, they erected a hewed log house which is still standing. This land remained in the Starbuck family until the winter of 1875." We think this was the first Starbuck family in Ohio. The 1820 tax record (Belmont County's first) showed Elizabeth Starbuck as the owner of 563 acres of land in Warren Township.

The Plainfield Monthly Meeting (near Barnesville) accepted them into membership on July 23, 1805, along with Hezekiah Starbuck, George's brother. Hezekiah's certificate was dated March 30, 1805, and given by the New Garden Monthly Meeting of North Carolina. Hezekiah probably stayed and helped clear that first land. With the reorganization of the Quaker Monthly Meeting of Belmont County, during the period of rapid settlement and growth, the names of George and Elizabeth are shown successively in the Concord, Plainfield, and Stillwater Monthly Meeting records.

George and Elizabeth's younger four children were born on this farm southeast of Barnesville. George Starbuck died there on December 12, 1815. This left Elizabeth a widow with six children,--three boys age 18, 14, and 1, and three girls under 9. Elizabeth died there on April 5, 1845. Both are buried at the old Stillwater Meeting House. Their children were:

1. John: b 8-11-1797; d 3-13-1864; m Anna Delitha Lappin in 1820.
2. Rachel: b 6-27-1799; d ; m Silas Patterson, 5-4-1814.
3. Elisha: b 1801; d 1886; m Mary Plummer, 7-30-1828.
4. Mary: (No record. Thought to have died as an infant.)
5. Lydia: b 2-12-1807; d ; m Amasa Patterson 3-6-1833.
6. Elizabeth: b 5-31-1809; d ; m Thomas Smith 10-1-1834;
m James B. Patterson
7. Eunice: b 8-24-1809; d ;
8. George, Jr: b 3-8-1814; d 1901; m Lydia Bailey in 1836; m Mary (Painter)
Stratton 10-31-1855.

6. GAYER STARBUCK (1777-1866)

Gayer, son of Hezekiah and Mary Coffin (Thurston) Starbuck, was born August 10, 1777, on Nantucket Island, Massachusetts, the third of ten children. After the hardships of the Revolutionary War, in the winter of 1785-6, his father took the family to Guilford County, North Carolina, to make a new start. As a boy, Gayer learned to do blacksmith work. He did some blacksmithing all the rest of his life, although he also farmed. He was married January 17, 1799, in Guilford County, North Carolina, at New Garden Monthly Meeting, to Susannah Dillon, by consent of Jesse and Hannah (Ruckman) Dillon, her parents.

The word that they received from his brothers and friends in Ohio must have made the state very attractive for they emigrated to Ohio in the spring of 1807, with four small children. They settled first, on rented land, near Painesville, Green County. They purchased land in 1810, and moved into the Dover community. This is about four miles northeast of Wilmington, in Clinton County. The land was without improvements and in heavy timber. It is known yet today as the old Starbuck homestead. Gayer and his wife lived together 62 years, 10 months and 16 days. She died December 3, 1861. Gayer also died on the farm December 30, 1866. They had eleven children, ten of whom lived to maturity.

11. Asa: b 11-18-1821; d 12-28-1844; nm.

6. CLARISSA (STARBUCK) MILLS (1780-1834)

Clarissa, daughter of Hezekiah and Mary Coffin (Thurston) Starbuck, was born January 28, 1780, on Nantucket Island, the fourth of ten children. The family was received into membership in the New Garden Monthly Meeting, Guilford County, North Carolina, on January 28, 1786. She was married in that same Quaker Meeting House on January 25, 1806, to Rueben Mills. Son of Rueben and Sara (Overman) Mills. He was born October 22, 1781. No effort has been made to trace their move to Ohio, but they did move to Belmont County, according to Concord Monthly Meeting, Ohio, dated September 7, 1807. It was there that she died June 2, 1834. It also is known that at least two children were born to them:

1. Anna Starbuck Mills
2. Rueben Mills.

6. HEZEKIAH STARBUCK (1782-1852)

Hezekiah, son of Hezekiah and Mary Coffin (Thurston) Starbuck, was born October 14, 1782, on Nantucket Island, the fifth of ten children. He was only three years old when the family moved to Guilford County, North Carolina, where he grew to manhood. According to the New Garden Monthly Meeting records of that county, he was given a Quaker Certificate on March 30, 1805. He presented it and was received into membership in the Concord Monthly Meeting (Colerain, Belmont County) on July 27, 1805. On requests, his membership was endorsed to another society on March 24, 1807. While in Belmont County, he purchased some land in Somerset Township about a mile south of his brother George's farm.

The dates of birth of his family would seem to indicate that he was married about the time of his trip from Ohio. We found no record of date or place of his marriage.

During 1807, he returned to North Carolina and was again received into membership in the New Garden Monthly Meeting on August 29, 1807. At the same meeting, he was reprimanded for marrying a non-member. He evidently stayed less than two years, since he was given a certificate to the Stillwater Monthly Meeting at Barnesville, on April 29, 1809. They lived in the Barnesville, Somerton Community through the summer of 1817, when he sold the last of his farm to Pusy Nethers, in July 1817. He had sold another part of his 320 acres in August, 1816, to the same buyer.

He took his family to Center Monthly Meetings, Clinton County, in late 1817. We found a record of him next at Goshen Monthly Meeting in Logan County, on February 26, 1829, when he withdrew to become charter member of a Hicksite Church (also Quaker) near Zanesfield. He died in that community December 20, 1852. Nothing is known of his wife except her name, Anne Hussey.

Although there may have been more children, the Stillwater Monthly Meeting records show their family was:

1. Nathan Hussey: b 8-16-1807.
2. Alfred: b 12-19-1809; d 1-24-1810.
3. Joseph: b 2-8-1811; d 3- -1844; m Grace Lupton; m Rachel Lupton.
4. Irena: b 4-19-1813.
5. Sidney: b 5-5-1815.
6. Lydia: b 10-7-1817.

6. JETHRO STARBUCK (1785-1815)

Jethro, son of Hezekiah and Mary Coffin (Thurston) Starbuck was born May 15, 1785, on Nantucket Island, the sixth of ten children. He was only a few months old when the family moved to Guilford County, North Carolina, where he grew up. Jethro Starbuck and Rebekah Mills were married in Deep River Meeting House, North Carolina, on August 18, 1805. Rebekah was received into membership in the New Garden Monthly Meeting on November 30, 1805. Less than a year later they were given a certificate by that monthly meeting and moved to Belmont County, Ohio. According to the records of the Concord Monthly Meeting (Colerain), Jethro and wife Rebekah and daughter Sara were received into membership on January 20, 1807. There were three Starbuck brothers members there at that time.

Jethro's family was listed in the Stillwater Monthly Meeting as shown below. They cleared land and farmed near George's farm southeast of Barnesville. We cant help but wonder if some accident did not cause the death of Jethro on December 19, 1815, just a week after his brother George died. This left Rebekah a widow with five daughters under ten years of age right next door to Elizabeth with her six fatherless children. We have not attempted to trace this family further.

1. Sara: b 5-23-1806
2. Mary: b 1-29-1808
3. Elizabeth: b 1-18-1810
4. Rhoda: b 1-27-1812
5. Hilda: b 2-7-1814

6. SAMUEL STARBUCK (1788-1836)

Samuel, son of Hezekiah and Mary Coffin (Thurston) Starbuck was born in Guilford County, North Carolina, January 30, 1788. He married Aseneth Hedge, a non-member, in 1810, but was given a certificate by the New Garden Monthly Meeting on October 30, 1813, to the Stillwater Monthly Meeting in Belmont County. While we have made no serious effort to locate further information, we did find his family, as listed below, in the Stillwater Monthly Meeting records. This would seem to indicate that he lived in Belmont County from 1813, until at least 1824. He is thought to have died July 5, 1836, Logan County. No record of his wife's death was located.

Their children were:

1. Elizabeth: b 8-20-1816
2. Sibilla: b 12-10-1819; d 2-1-1824. Buried at Stillwater.

6. LATHAM STARBUCK (1793-1870)

Latham, ninth of ten children of Hezekiah and Mary Coffin (Thurston) Starbuck was born February 3, 1793, in Guilford County, North Carolina. He lived there until he married a non-member and was reprimanded by the New Garden Monthly Meeting on March 26, 1814. He married Sarah Milton. They must have moved to Dover Monthly Meeting (North Carolina) shortly after they were married, as they were given a certificate on December 21, 1816, to the Center Monthly Meeting in Clinton County, Ohio.

He traveled west into Tennessee, stayed about a year, raised a crop there, lost a child by death and arrived in Union Township, Clinton County, in the spring of 1818. This trip was made in a "Carolina Wagon". This was a one-horse wagon with an arched canvas top. According to the 1882 History of Clinton County, they had 12 children but we have a record, at present, of only two of these. We have no record of Sarah's death. Latham lived in Union Township the rest of his life but did make a visit to North Carolina. He died in Clinton County, March 24, 1870, the last of his father's children.

The children were:

4. John T.: b 10-6-1822
7. Nathan: b 2-13-1826

6. MARY (STARBUCK) HUNT (1790-1849)

Mary, (second of the name) daughter of Hezekiah and Mary Coffin (Thurston) Starbuck was born March 25, 1790, in Guilford County, North Carolina. She was eighth of ten children. Her marriage on November 11, 1811, to Joel Hunt was recorded in the New Garden Monthly Meeting. Joel Hunt, October 6, 1789, a son of Isaiah and Elizabeth (Floyd) Hunt, was listed as one of the charter members of the Center Monthly Meeting (Quaker) in Clinton County, Ohio.

Mary died in Clinton County, November 28, 1849.

We have this record of children:

1. Sally: b 3-21-1813.
2. Lewis: b 10-1-1814; m Rebecca Bently
3. Joel: b 10-8-1816
4. Daniel:
5. Clarissa: m Bragg.
6. Mary Ann: m Lewis Pearson
7. Hezekiah:
8. Elizabeth: m I. R. Bond

6. REBEKAH (STARBUCK) HODSON (1800-1853)

Rebekah, daughter and youngest of the 10 children of Hezekiah and Mary Coffin (Thurston) Starbuck was born in Guilford County, North Carolina, January 14, 1800. We know very little about her, except that she married Jesse Hodson. She died May 27, 1853, in Indiana.

7. JOHN STARBUCK (1797-1864)

John, son of George and Elizabeth (Starbuck) Starbuck, was born August 11, 1797, in Guilford County, North Carolina. About 1800 the family moved to Nantucket, stayed a couple of years and returned to North Carolina. They stayed there only a couple of years and moved to the Ohio wilderness, in the early spring of 1805. See page 11 for more details of their early privations in Belmont County. The death of his father left his mother with six children. John was the oldest, 18.

John Starbuck and Ann Delitha Lappin were married in 1820. We have found no record of her parentage. The membership records of the Stillwater Monthly Meeting show John and his wife, Ann, and their three older children. In the reorganization of the Quaker Meetings, their membership was transferred to the Somerset Monthly Meeting, near somerton, on May 23, 1829. This record showed the five older children.

The earliest tax records of Belmont County (1820) show John Starbuck as the owner of 262 acres of land in Somerset Township and 80 acres in Wayne Township. The tax records of 1833 show John as the owner of a sawmill near Captina Creek, south-east of Barnesville. He operated the sawmill for some years and was engaged in a substantial mercantile business at the time of his death on March 13, 1864. The records of the Internal Revenue Service show that he paid an income tax of $5.21 that year. His wife, Ann, died on November 2, 1850. Both are buried in Ridge Cemetary along with five of their 11 children.

1. George: b 7-8-1821; d 10-20-1840; nm.
2. Samuel: b 5-12-1823; d 10-13-1905; m Sarah Stahl in 1851.

11. Thomas: b 3-8-1843; d 5- -1864; POW Andersonville Prison, Ga.

7. ELISHA STARBUCK (1801-1886)

Elisha, third child of eight of George and Elizabeth (Starbuck) Starbuck, was born 1801, on Nantucket Island. The family had gone to the island about a year before, from Guilford County, North Carolina. They only stayed on Nantucket a couple of years, then returned to North Carolina. They moved to Ohio in 1805. Elisha was a boy of 14 years when his father died. He married July 30, 1828. His wife was Mary Plummer, daughter of Robert and Rachel () Plummer. No serious effort has been made to trace this family, but it is thought that Elisha and Mary lived their lives out in Belmont County. We found no record of the exact dates of their deaths. He died in 1886. Some of this family moved to Indiana. Abram, the third son was the inventor and manufacturer of the Whippoorwill Washing Machine. It was quite an improvement over the washboard. See the next page for the family.

The children of Elisha and Mary (Plummer) Starbuck:

1. Robert: b 6-26-1829;
2. George: b 11-12-1830;
3. Abram: b 7-4-1832;
4. Rachel: b 9-6-1834;
5. Elizabeth: b 8-1-1836;
6. Sarah: b 6-24-1838;
7. Elisha: b 9-9-1840;
8. John: b 3-11-1842;
9. Mary Jane: b 3-4-1844;
10. Hezekiah: b 7-11-1846;

7. GEORGE STARBUCK (1814-1901)

George, son of George and Elizabeth (Starbuck) Starbuck, was born March 8, 1814, near Barnesville, Ohio. He was only two and a half years old when his father died, leaving his mother with seven children. George was the youngest. He attended the Stillwater Monthly Meeting (Quaker) all his life. His first marriage was to Lydia Bailey in April, 1836. She died on November 3, 1851, leaving him with six children ranging in age from two to fifteen years of age. The Salem Monthly Meeting, Columbiana County, Ohio, shows that he married there October 31, 1855, to Mary (Painter) Stratton, a widow. They had one child, shown below. The Belmont County Court Records show the probate of his estate in 1901. The first entry was made June 15, 1901. The records show that his estate went to: Martha Outland, a daughter of Barnesville; Jesse Starbuck, a son of Horton, Kansas; Melissa Ervin, grand-daughter of Pasadena, California; Mabel Varnum, a grand daughter of Elsinor, California; Viola Starbuck, a grand daughter, of Pasadena, California; Earl Starbuck, a grandson of Pasadena, California; George W. Parterson, a grandson of Hillsboro, Oregon; and Eva L. Bailey, a grand daughter of Barnesville, Ohio. There was no widow mentioned. The children of George Starbuck, by his first wife, were:

1. Martha: b 1-18-1837; d ; m Thomas Outland
2. Eunice: b 10-3-1838;
3. Jesse: b 4-23-1841; d ; m Mary Jane Bundy
4. Milton: b 5-27-1843; d ; m Tacy Fame
5. Edmund: b 4-10-1845; d 2-8-1848;
6. Joseph: b 6-19-1847; d 10-24-1861;
7. Margaret: b 10-17-1849; d 5-13-1862;

George's daughter by his second wife:

1. Lydia Ellen: b 7-23-1858; d 1-12-1862.

The children are thought to have been buried at Stillwater Meetinghouse.

7. SAMUEL STARBUCK (1809-1901)

Samuel, son of Gayer and Susannah (Dillon) Starbuck was born September 27, 1809, the sixth of ten children, in Clinton County, Ohio. The date of his birth is shown as 1809 in Quaker Records, but as 1812 in "Boone, Clinton, and Hendricks Counties, Indiana". He was married March 10, 1832, to Rebecca Furnas, born February 9, 1815, a daughter of Robert and Hanna (Wilson) Furnas, in Clinton County, Ohio. She died without children, July 1, 1846.

Samuel had moved to Hendricks County, Indiana in 1834. His younger brother helped him get started in clearing a farm in the wilderness. He remarried on March 23, 1848, this time to Luzena Jessop, born September 16, 1825, daughter of Isaac and Ann (Gray) Jessop. He was a successful farmer and lifelong Quaker, first in Dover Monthly Meeting in Clinton County, Ohio, and finally in Hendricks County, Indiana. His wife preceded him in death on November 16, 1899. He died September 22, 1901. They had ten children:

1. Isaac: b 2-16-1849; d 12-6-1898; m Julia Ann Mills 4-1-1874.
2. Asa: b 9-24-1851; d 1-29-1929; m Thurza Ann Harvey 10-31-1883.
3. Anna: b 8-18-1853; d 10-14-1895; m William Chandler 4-2-1891.

13. Elihu C.: b 10-21-1857; d 1-22-1861.

7. JESSE GAYER STARBUCK (1819-1913)

Jesse G. as he was always known, was the son of Gayer and Susannah (Dillon) Starbuck, the youngest of ten children. He was born in Clinton County, Ohio, on October 8, 1819. While he lived almost all of his life near Wilmington, Ohio, he helped his older brother clear and establish a farm in Hendricks County, Indiana. While there he met and eventually married Amy Cox, on October 20, 1842. She was born June 1, 1823, the daughter of Harmon and Martha (Cox) Cox. Jesse G. operated a steam powered sawmill for several years. He was well educated, taught school and was a surveyor. He surveyed most of the farms in his community. He owned a large farm and was regarded as well-off. He lived about five miles north-east of Wilmington. His wife died in 1891 or 1892. He died January 4, 1913. They had ten children:

1. Adin L.: b 5-10-1844; d ; m Louisa Melissa Pidgeon 10-12-1865.
 2. Asa: b 3-3-1846; d 1-27-1929; m Almira Custis 6-25-1868.

8. SAMUEL STARBUCK (1823-1905)

Samuel, second son of eleven children of John and Ann Delitha (Lappin) Starbuck was born May 12, 1823, southeast of Barnesville, Belmont County, Ohio. He was a man of ordinary education. He farmed all of his life, although he undoubtedly helped with his father's sawmill. He was a member of the Somerset (Quaker) Monthly Meeting until May 26, 1851. He was dismissed for marrying a non-member. He married Sarah Strahl, daughter of David and Deborah () Strahl of Somerton. They lived near Somerton. She died April 8, 1852, leaving him with a seven week old daughter. He was a highly successful farmer. He died October 13, 1905. The Belmont County Probate Court records show only one heir:

1. Camsie: b 2-17-1852; d 5-1-1939; m Genius Pierce Rinehart 2-17-1875.

8. JOHN STARBUCK (1827-1904)

John, fourth of eleven children of John and Ann Delitha (Lappin) Starbuck was born April 10, 1827, near Somerton in Belmont County, Ohio. He was a member of the Somerset Monthly Meeting (Quaker). He married Sara Jane Bundy, August 23, 1854, a daughter of Benjamin and Delitha (Bailey) Bundy. She was born January 11, 1833, at Colerain, Ohio. About a year after their marriage, the church records show that on November 26, 1855, his membership was transferred to the Short Creek Monthly Meeting in Southern Jefferson County. He farmed in that community for several years. He bought the "Big Brick" at Colrain, from the heirs of John T. Bracken, on March 22, 1875. The farm contained 160 acres but the price of $18,560. seems high compared to nearby farms of similar size, selling for less than $5,000 at that time. He was deeply in debt and had a family of ten. A few years later he refused $75,000 for the farm when the first oil well in the community was drilled on the farm, and it turned out to be a gyser. It was ruined by shooting. A later well produced enough to help pay off the big debt on the farm and educate the children. Three became school teachers and one a trained nurse. The coal was sold for enough to pay off the last of the debt. Sarah died March 30, 1908. John died March 10, 1904, with the whole family gathered in the room. Thier children were:

1. Benjamin Franklin: b 7-21-1855; d 2-17-1945; m Sarah Milhouse 8-25-1879;
m Anna Llewellyn 2-17-1893.
2. Addison: b 2-11-1857; d 3-18-1940; m Florence Savage 5-12-1896.
3. Marietta: b 11-2-1859; d 8-10-1924; m Benjamin Hoopes Cope 8-26-1885.
4. Anna Delitha: b 4-15-1861; d 5-6-1934; nm.
5. Eva Bundy: b 5-15-1863; d 6-8-1955; m Aaron S. Edkin 5-23-1900.
6. Thomas: b 1-1-1865; d 9-12-1930; m Abbie S. Hall 6-2-1898.
7. Lorena: b 2-22-1866(7); d 10-3-1921; nm.
8. Elizabeth: b 12-29-1868; d ; nm.
9. Alice Jane: b 4-17-1871; d ; m Lewis Karl Peterson 5-20-1905.
10. Eunice: b 2-26-1873; d 11-24-1924; nm.

8. WILLIAM STARBUCK (1831-1904)

William, son of John and Ann Delitha (Lappin) Starbuck, was born February 8, 1831, near Barnesville, Ohio. He was the sixth of eleven children. According to the Somerset Monthly Meeting (Quaker) records, he married Rebecca Crew, daughter of James and Sara Crew, on August 7, 1856. They immediately started west in a covered wagon. The full extent of the journey took about five years. Their first daughter was born in Illinois, the second in Iowa and the third in Kansas. Rebecca's parents accompanied them to Iowa. Church records, mentioned above, show that Rebecca was buried at Clayton, Illinois. Family recollections indicate that she died shortly after the birth of her third daughter. Whichever is true, Sara was left with her Crew grandparents and lived with them until she was ten years old. She returned to Ohio to live with her father who had remarried. The above church shows this record of these daughters:

1. Almedia: b 1-29-1857; d ; m Stephen Bailey 7-24-1876 (dis-mou).
2. Sara: b 10-2-1858; d 12-5-1938; m Horace Outland 2-27-1878.
3. Ruthellen: b 3-23-1860; d 4-26-1927; m John Shotwell 3-24-1881 (dis-mou).

William served in the Civil War. He was married near Woodsfield in 1869, to Mary Louise McMullen, a daughter of Richard McMullen. They lived most of their lives in the area between Barnesville and Woodsfield. William was buried at the old Union Church near Barnesville in 1904. More exact dates of death are not known at present. They had four children:

1. Mary Rebecca: b 9-15-1870; d 8-25-1951; m James Matthew Peddicord
2. Elizabeth: b 9-30-1872; d 9-27-1957; nm.

4. John Clancy: b 8-30-1878; (living) m Clara Skinner; m Edna Shotwell.

8. DANIEL STARBUCK (1835-1887)

Daniel, son of John and Ann Delitha (Lappin) Starbuck, was born September 25, 1835, near Somerton, Ohio. He lived all his life in that community, most of it, if not all, on the farm where he was born, about two miles East of State Route 9, on Captain Creek. He married Emily Martin, a non-Quaker, and was dismissed from the Somerset Monthly Meeting on February 25, 1861. Emily was a daughter of Thomas and Lavisia () Martin. She died in 1913, at the age of 87. Daniel was a strong believer in education. His three daughters were teachers and his youngest son was a college graduate. Daniel taught school and farmed for about twenty years. He died on December 1, 1887, and was survived by all five of his children:

1. Flora; b 2-23-1864; d 12-16-1942; nm.
2. Anna Lavisia: b 12-3-1865; d 3-9-1956; m Samuel Exum Lewis, 1893.
3. Thomas Grant: b 1867; d 1939; nm.
4. Eugenia Ruth: b 1869; d 1931; nm.
5. Daniel Kar: b 2-15-1877; (living); m Louise Gillette Mills.

FAMILIES

In this section of this book will be found the known descendants for three generations of the names that appear at the top of each page. Where either spouse survives, the last known address is shown. An underlined middle name indicates the name the person was known by rather than the first name. The numbers at the top of the columns indicate the generation in America via their Starbuck ancestors.

OUR PARENTS

Away out west
 On the prairie wide
 Our parents are sleeping
 Side by side.

Together again
 After long, long years,
 No cause for grief
 No need for tears.

But only thanks
 To the God above
 For the years we had
 Of their wondrous love.

For of all the gifts
 From the One divine,
 There is none better,
 Than parents fine.

They live in our memory
 Every day,
 In the things we do,
 In the things we say.

They live in our hearts,
 They have not died.
 Altho' they sleep
 On the prairie wide.

By Caroline Cope Dewees.

APPENDIX

OUR FAMILY'S STARBUCK ANCESTRY

Tristram Coffin (1605-1681)

Tristram Coffin is of special interest to Starbuck decedents since he is an ancestor also. His ancestry has been traced back to the Conquest of England by William The Conqueror with the assistance of Richard Coffin, Knight of Normandy, 1066. Sir Richard Coffin was granted an estate, now called "Portledge", not far from Dover. Much more information is available in Major Geneological Libraries on the Coffin Family.

Tristram Coffin, founder of the name in America, was born in Brixton, Devonshire, England, in 1605. His Father was Robert Coffin. He married Dionis Stevens, also of Brixton. She was a daughter of Robert and Joan Stevens. Tristram Coffin brought his family and widowed mother to America in 1642. He resided at Newbury, Haverhill, and Salisbury until 1660, when he settled on Nantucket. He died there on October 2, 1681. The children of Tristram Coffin were:

1. Peter, b 1631; d 3-21-1715; m Abigal Starbuck
(He was a Massachusetts Magistrate)
2. Tristram, Jr.: 1632 - 2-4-1704; m Judith Greenlief.
3. Elizabeth: 1634 or 5 - 11-19-1678; m Stephen Greenlief.
4. James: 8-12-1640; 7-28-1720; m Abigal Severence.
5. John: Died as an infant.
6. Deborah: Died as an infant.
7. Mary: 2-20-1645 - 9-13-1717; m Nathaniel Starbuck.
8. John: 10-30-1647 - 9-5-1711; m Deborah Starbuck.
9. Stephen: 5-10-1652 - 11-14-1734; m Mary Godfrey Bunker.

OTHERS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Benjamin Franklin (1706-1790)

Benjamin Franklin was a grandson of Peter Folger, an early settler on Nantucket. Another grandson was Walter Folger, a first cousin of Franklin's, who married Elizabeth Starbuck (1738-1777), sister of Hezekiah and Gayer Starbuck, sons of Thomas Starbuck (1706-1777). This may account for the use of the name Benjamin and Franklin, that shows up many times in this Geneology.

Lowell Jackson Thomas

The famous Radio Commentator, Lowell Thomas, is an 11th generation descendent of the Starbucks in America, via George Thomas (10); Pharida Ann Jackson (9); Phoebe Simmons (8); Abigail (Starbuck) Simmons (7); William Starbuck (6); Edward Starbuck (5); Paul Starbuck (4); Nathaniel Starbuck (3); Nathaniel Starbuck (2); Edward Starbuck (1).

STARBUCK COLONIAL ANCESTRY

The following names have been verified and accepted by the General Society of the Colonial Dames. Numbers refer to the Honor Roll published in 1922. Also accepted by New York Chapter Colonial Dames; Yearbook of 1927.

Commissioner for Portsmouth to Court of Commissioners 1648-63; Deputy 1664-78; Governor's Assistant 1665-78; Captain 1669-78. Born 1614. Died 1679.

The following names are two of those that have been verified and accepted by The Daughters of American Colonists:

Edward Starbuck

1604 - 1691

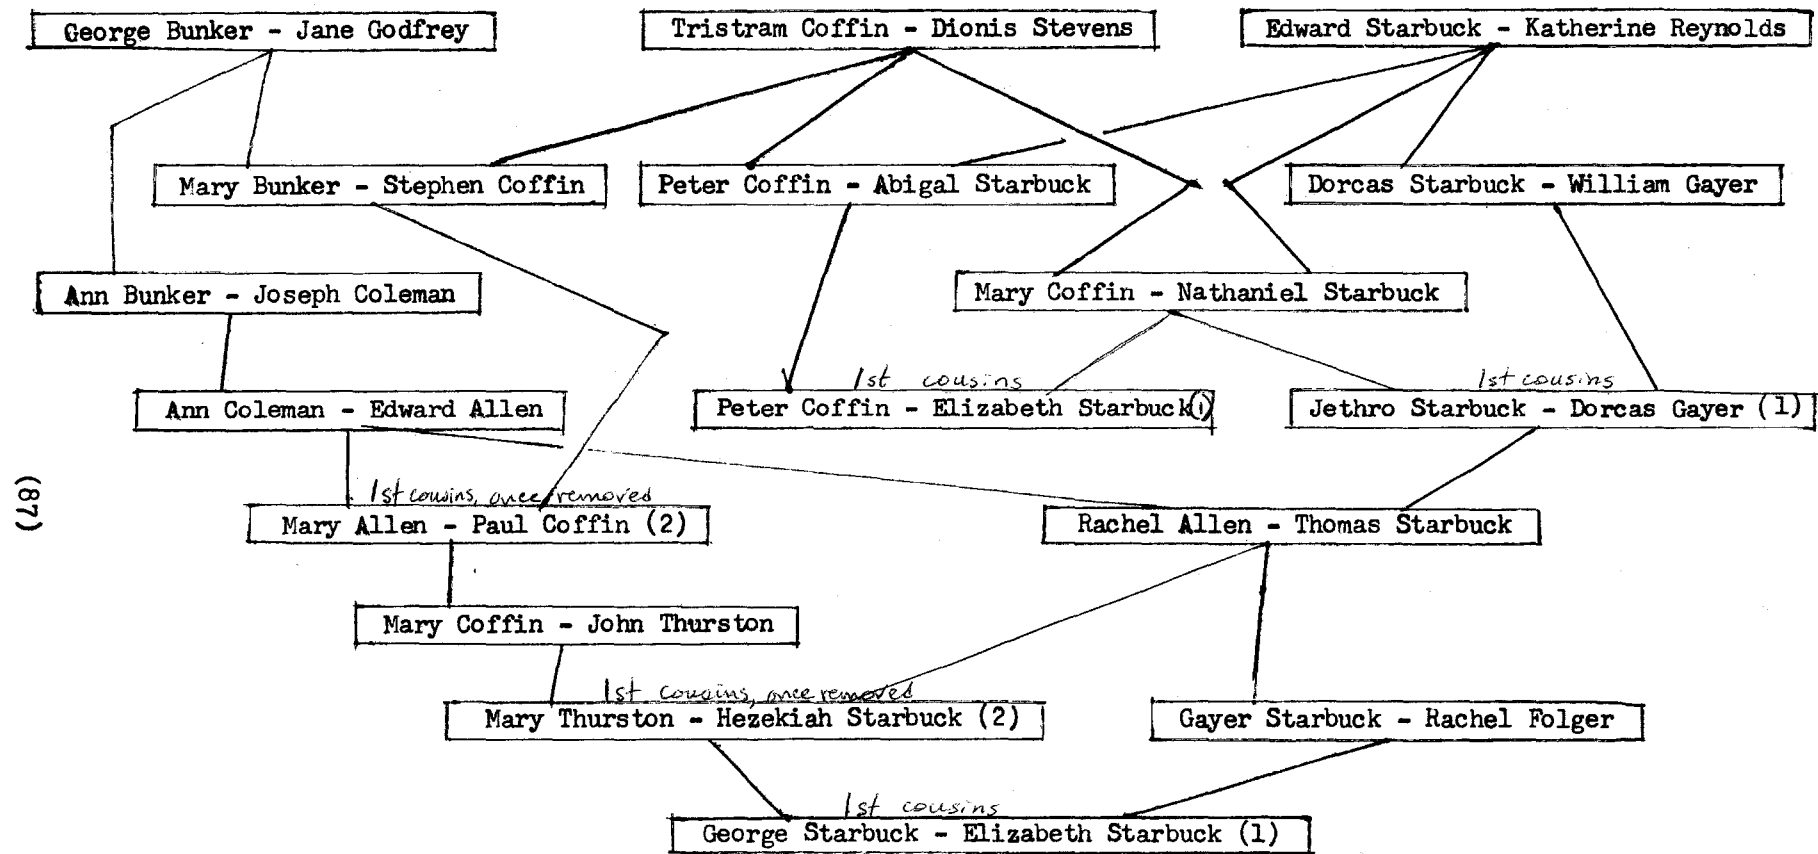

Representative of Dover to the General Court of Massachusetts, 1643 and 1646.

Jethro Starbuck

1671 - 1770

Selectman of Nantucket, Massachusetts, for thirty years.

SOME UNUSUAL EARLY STARBUCK FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

Foot notes:

(1) First Cousin marriage.

(2) Marriages where his mother and his wife's grandmother were sisters.

After a few generations, most of the people on Nantucket were relatives.

POST SCRIPT

We have received scores of interesting letters from all over U.S.A. From the comments in many of these letters, we are sure that some long-cherished family stories would have to be revised, in order to agree with the facts as we have found them. Names have been found spelled in different ways, in different records. This is especially true in the older church records. Jessup is also spelled Jessop.

Many "Old Starbuck Homesteads" have not been in the family as long as family members have come to believe. Perhaps some Belmont County family member can make a thorough deed search back to 1808, and advise us of their findings. We could devote only one day to it. We would like to have spent much more time in Belmont County. The same is true of Wilmington.

We had hoped to locate some really old family heirlooms, but have not been successful. The family crest, or coat of arms, is thought to have hung in the dining room of the home on Captina Creek, southeast of Barnesville, in Belmont County, Ohio, for five generations. The coat of arms that is shown opposite Page 1, is one of two that we located. They are similar, but the one shown in Americana Magazine (See Bibliography) did not have the scrole with name on it. That one was in color.

We have seen a single book of genealogy on the Starbucks. It dealt with only one small segment of the family and was printed in June, 1962, after we had started on the rough draft of this book. This book is the second genealogy and family history that we know of, that has been printed to date, dealing with the Starbuck family. None were found in the Library of Congress, or the Genealogical Libraries in Boston, Massachusetts; Chicago, Illinois; or Columbus, Ohio.

With the hundreds of dates and names this book contains, it would be most unlikely if no errors appear. We would appreciate it if the reader, who finds an error, would call it to our attention so it can be corrected in the master copy. We hope to publish a revision of this book in about 1970 or 1972, and would like for it to be correct and up to date at that time. Keeping us informed of family changes from time to time will make the job possible.

Information on some family pages is more or less sketchy. It was not our intention that this be so. We wrote more than 500 letters to get the information that you find in this book. About 30 letters went unanswered, even after second reminders were written, in some instances.

Drop us a letter and help us complete the blank sections that you know about.
