YOUR HUMBLE SERVANT, JOHN J. VAN DER VEER.

INTRODUCTION.

Most of the records of this geneology were gathered by my cousin, Dr. Daniel S. Young, of Cincinnati, Ohio. He worked patiently for many years during his vacations to gather these statistics. But life with him was too short, and he died leaving this work unfinished. After a time I undertook to complete it. I have traced some branches of the family he did not have and have carried others down to date. I have secured the war record in the revolution of our ancestor, George Serviss, No. 2, who was born February 23, 1753, and died May 3, 1833. He served in Col. Fredrick Fisher's third regiment of Tryon county militia as per roster of the army of the state of New York, in the war of the revolution, as compiled by Comptroller James A. Roberts' 2d edition, page 181. Any person in this geneology who can trace their descent to said George Serviss, No. 2, can join the patriotic societies of the day without other statistics.

Any one who can trace to Christian Serviss, No. 3, can join. as he served in the same regiment with his brother George, as per roster of the army, page 181.

I have endeavored to make this geneology as simple to trace back as is possible. I give each individual a birth number and this same number is carried before their name when they marry, which makes it very easy to trace families.

OBITUARY. March 20

JOHN D. SERVISS. 1880

John D. Serviss, long a familiar figure in this city, died about midnight last night at the home of his son-in-law, James L. Shuler, on Shuler street. He has been in feeble health for a long time, and his demise was due to a gradual failure of the vital powers. Mr. Serviss would have been 74 years of age June 1. He was a native of the town of Florida, and his early days were passed on his father's farm. When twenty years old he went to Albany and engaged in mercantile business. Four years later he removed to Port Jackson. In 1849 he returned to Albany and remained there for eleven years. In 1857 he was elected alderman from what was then the fourth ward of the capital city and served two years in a very acceptable manner. He was conspicuously connected with the Albany fire department, and was the first secretary of the first hose company organized in that city. In 1860 he came to Amsterdam, and has lived here ever since. In company with Charles Flint he carried the mail route to Northville. He afterwards engaged in the insurance business and conducted at the time the largest agency in Amsterdam. He served nine years as one of the trustees of the village. He was a deputy sheriff under Sheriff Hagaman and for three years was county superintendent of the poor. In 1884 he was elected justice of the peace, his term expiring January 1, 1889. Mr. Serviss has justly been styled the father of the Amsterdam fire department. He took a very prominent part in the organization of the department and was connected with it from its inception. For three years, during the '70s, he was chief engineer. He was instrumental in getting both the steamers here. The J. D. Serviss steamer and hose company took its name from him. His politics were always Democratic and he was for many years a leader in the councils of the party. In all the positions which he held he discharged his duties faithfully and satisfactorily. He was for a number of years the owner of the Commercial hotel, in its day the leading hostelry in Amsterdam, which came into his possession from his father-in-law, the late Jubal Livermore.

Mr. Serviss leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. John F. Morris and Mrs. James L. Shuler. Three brothers, Putman Serviss, of Glen, and Jacob and A. G. Serviss of this city, also survive him. He was a man of much natural ability, kindly disposition and cordial and pleasant manner, and was popular with all classes.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 11 o'clock from James L. Shuler's residence. The interment will be made in Green Hill.

The J. D. Serviss steamer house is draped in mourning and will remain so for thirty days out of respect to Mr. Serviss' memory. The company will attend the funeral in a body.
