McNAMARA

Congdon — Walkup

175. John McNamara was born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1718, and died in Uxbridge, Mass., Aug. 14th, 1801. (Uxbridge records.)

He must have left Dublin about 1735. The story goes that he was an only son and heir to a large estate. His uncle and aunt, in whose care he was left when an orphan, were next heir to him. His uncle was bound to get him out of the way, and his aunt thought of this plan, and he told the story, believing as his aunt told him, that his uncle would poison him or do something worse if he would not do as she planned. So she succeeded in getting him aboard ship and concealed him in a packing box.

He had with him his bagpipes on which he excelled as a performer and the captain and passengers paid him for his performances. Thus he earned his passage to America and had some money in his pocket when he landed.

He played along through the country, and once while he was traveling along the road (some time afterwards) he came to a farm house where he thought he would put up. Walking up he saw a lovely creature "milking a cow." This was the fair Ruth Parkhurst, with whom he fell in love and afterwards wed.

Ruth Parkhurst was born in Framingham, Mass., and died in Upton, Mass. They became very well off and left large tracts of land near Whitinsville. They had one child.

176. Susan, born in Upton, Mass. Married Richard Congdon; he died in Upton. Susan married a second time in 1784, James Henderson Walkup, who was born

182. Eleazor Fisher (Private Capt. Cushing's Battery), son of Eleazor and Rachael Fisher; born in Wrentham, Mass., Jan. 30th, 1730; married Mary Daws, Dec. 9th, 1756. He died in Franklin, Mass., May 19th, 1804. She died in 1806.

183. Olive Fisher, daughter of Eleazor Fisher and Mary Daws; born in Wrentham, Mass., Feb. 13th, 1758; married July 3rd, 1783, to Gaius Smith.

BELL

200. William Bell, of Lidesdale, Parish of Casselton, Rocksburysire, Scotland, came with wife, Flora McCorquedale and five children and one sister, Isabell. Letter from Robert Rutherford, minister of the Presbyterian Church of Lidesdale, Castletown Manse, and countersigned by James Armstrong, Elder, and Will Elliotte, dated May 3rd, 1772.

Another letter previously issued, May 27th, 1766, signed by Robert Rutherford and James Armstrong, probably indicates contemplated coming to America at that time, but deferred doing so until 1772, settled in Argyle, N. Y.

Pass reading, as follows:

"Permit the bearer, William Bell of Argyle Town to pass with his family and effects. He has taken the oath of His Excellency, General Bergoyn, manifesto to an oath of allegiance at Fort Edward, the 5th day of Aug., 1777, to all concerned.

(Signed) "Philip H." (balance torn off.)

Settled in Fredericksburg Township, L e n o x County, Ontario. William buried there in burying ground.

Among the children of William and Flora McCorquedale Bell, of whom there were five, was:

201. William Bell, born in Scotland; married Ann Carscallen, Apr. 5th, 1875, in County of Lenox, Ontario, near Kingston.

202. Duncan Bell.

203. John Bell—Left Canada and returned to Argyle, N. Y., shortly after Treaty of Peace signed, but never heard of afterward.

Children of William and Ann Carscallen Bell are:

204. William, born Apr. 12th, 1876; died in infancy.

205. William McCorquedale, born July 18th, 1787.

EDWARD PERRY

OF SANDWICH, MASS.

(Extract from genealogy of Edmund Freeman of Lynn, Mass., "First Settlers of New England," by Savage):

300. "Freeman, Edmund, of Lynn, came in the Abigail 1635, age 45, with others of name: Mary, 50; John, 35; Thomas, 24; John, 9, and Cecelia, 4. All entered at the Custom House 17th of June in London, but we know of six others for the same ship entered July 1st, as follows, viz.:

Edward, 34.

His wife Elizabeth, 35, and four children (not of Edward, but of Edmund).

Alice, 17,

Edmund, 15.

Elizabeth, 12.

John, 8.

Whom Mary and four others were who took their passage on the earlier day is all unknown, as well as the Edward with wife Elizabeth.

Conjecture will find no benefit from the records, it is thought, for we are not able to determine whether he brought a wife; yet we know he had one at Sandwich, but not her name. Presume we may conjecture (from his will of 21st June, 1682,—proven Nov. 2nd following, naming sons Edmund, John and Edward Perry, as the wife of Edward Perry was Mary) that he had married on this side of the water a Widow Perry, though Mr. Winsor took a divers view as if Edward Perry had married a daughter of Freeman—no daughter is ever mentioned in this country except the two found in the old records of London Custom House, Alice, who married Nov. 24th, 1639, deacon Wm. Paddy and died at Plymouth, Apr. 24th, 1651, and Elizabeth, who married, in 1645, John Ellis."

PERRY

From being named as son, in the will of Edmund Freeman, it may be that Edward Perry of Sandwich, Mass., had married a daughter of Freeman's, but more probably his mother had been second wife of Freeman (Edward or Edmund), by wife Mary (which may have been daughter of Freeman) he had Samuel, born 1664, and probably others.

301. Samuel Perry, son of Edward Perry of Sandwich, Mass., married Mary Miller, Dec. 12th, 1676. Their children were:
