Explanations.

The usual Abbreviations for Genealogical Records are used in this Book, as follows, viz;

b--birth, born; bd--buried.

d--dead, died; dec--deceased, decedent.

fam--family; f'r--father, gr'd--grand; gr't--great.

gen--genealogy, genealogical, generation.

m--marriage, married; m'r--mother.

wd--widow, wd'r--widower,

The method followed in this work is, first, the Parent's Names; then the children in the order of their birth; then their families in the same order down to the last generation; then the next, so that each family is a complete group of its own by itself; apply this rule to every family.

Every name may be found by either of two methods; first, in the family group; second, by the Alphabetical INDEX with its Lineal Number and the page on which it is printed.

Family numbers are in BOLD-FACE type and are quoted in parenthesis () in the same.

Names of children dying in infancy and early youth are printed in Italic TYPE; names with dates of birth and death are given when known.

Family NAMES IN LINEAL order of succession are printed in CAPITALS, except names of Infants as noted above.

PREFACE.

This genealogy was started by the compiler, REV. WM. H. SMITH, with the intention of making it a small list of a few generations, but as he became interested in the work it grew to large proportions with the result that some features, first intended were, necessarily, eliminated. The compiler worked two years on listing the names, and had printed about one-third of the book, one page at a time, on a little hand press, when he was taken seriously ill and after several months illness, he passed away June 19, 1909 aged 81 years. His failing health was due, largely, to his persistent labor on this book.

Rather than lose the result of his efforts, the printing has been completed by his son, ALBERT G. SMITH, who has followed the original method with the exception of the index, which is simplified. We are not able to give credit to all who deserve it but find much correspondence from Geo. W. Doolittle, Mrs. Nelson Sawyer, his sister, Mrs. Samuel Grose, and this in form:

We are greatly indebted to a work compiled and published by a cousin, CHARLES HUTCHINSON THOMPSON, of Lansing, Mich. issued in 1890: his father, Nathan Thompson, married CLARISSA ELMER HUTCHINSON, so that in an Appendix to his GENEALOGY of the Descendants of JOHN THOMPSON, who was among the "First Comers" that landed at Plymouth, 1620, to 1622. thus we see the blending of two families of the early settlers of New England,

WILLIAM & LYDIA -PEASE- SMITH of the FIRST GENERATION

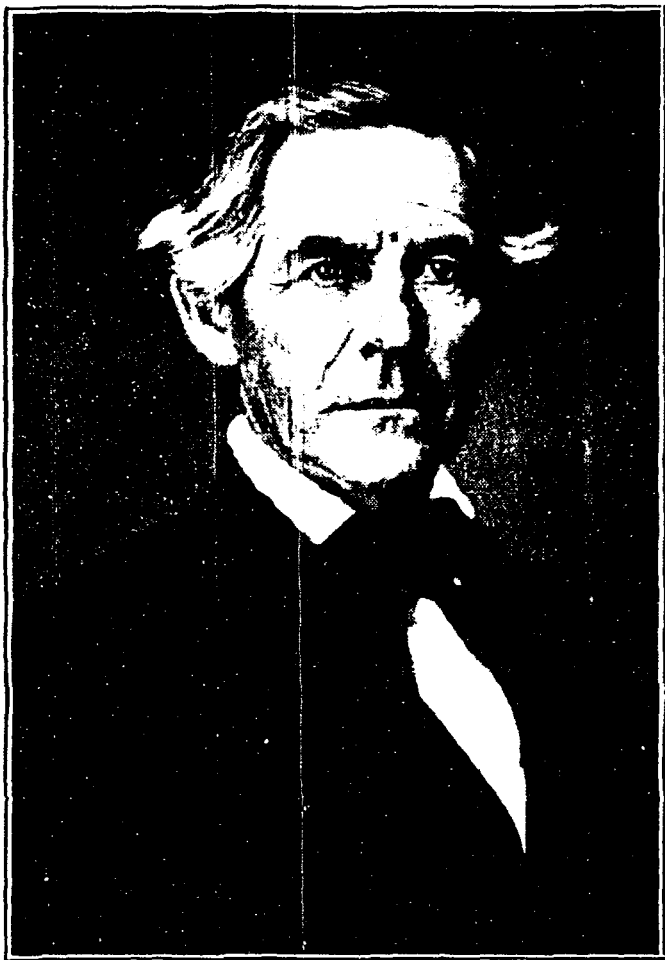

WILLIAM SMITH, of the first Generation and the first Family of this GENEALOGY, was born in the Sea-port city of Brest, in France; came to Salem, Massachusetts, afterwards settling at Whitestown, a suburb of Utica, Oneida County, New York, where he and his wife, LYDIA PEASE, (2) both died of the so called epidemic within two days of each other and were buried in the then Cemetery of Whitestown. A search for their graves a few years ago failed to locate them. He was a shoemaker by trade, industrious, a man of christian integrity and moral uprightness, becoming known as "DEACON SMITH," being an honored member of the Baptist Church. His wife was born in Scotland, of Huguenot parents who were forced to leave their native home in France; in memory of place and event, she named her youngest son GEORGE "CLEGHORN".

Of their eleven children all but one came to mature years of life, and all except the youngest, married, and their families and descendants are the subjects of this book, the regret of the compiler being the fact that he did not begin the work forty years ago when many facts of names and dates could have been furnished by those of the second and third generations then living. Of LYDIA PEASE, (2), very little is known, but her oldest sons and daughters claimed that she filled the description of Solomon's proverbial woman,^a At least "Her children arise up and call her blessed."^b a Prov. XXXI -- 10 to 31; b verses 28, and 29.

GEORGE CLEGHORN SMITH, (25) youngest of the eleven children of Wm. and Lydia Pease Smith was never married. Among the third, and later generations he was known as "Uncle George". No visitor of relatives was more welcome in any home than he. Genial, sociable, a cheerful christian gentleman, his circle of friends and acquaintances was large. Most of the years of his active life were spent as a teacher in District Schools. Many incidents are related of him more fascinating than any tales of fiction.

A revival of religion began in school one afternoon, some of the older scholars were unable to go on with their work; inquiring the reason, one after another said "I want to be a christian"; very well, said Uncle George, you may lay aside your books, the younger children may go home and those who wish may remain for a prayer meeting; resulting before midnight in many happy conversions; several of the boys became preachers and entered upon the work of the christian ministry. He was a most efficient and successful class-leader singing the old Methodist songs with an inspiring fervor that gave life to a meeting when he was present and took part. During the latter part of his life his hearing partially failed which was to him more of an annoyance than an affliction. His last years were spent with Elmer D. Benedict who with his wife kindly cared for him at life's closing hours.

The parents were born and lived in Whites-town,-- now Utica,-- Oneida county, N. Y. until their marriage, when they went to Canada settling on a farm in Hillier township, Prince Edward county where their nine children were born, some of whose children remain on the old homestead.

It will be noticed that the SMITH and DOOLITTLE's have several large families by inter-marriages. as the AINSWORTHS, HUFFS, HASKINS, REDNERS, etc.

We are all of us greatly indebted to GEORGE W. DOOLITTLE, for gathering the records of the Doolittle families; his 'photo' is found on the preceding page.

As most of the LUCY DOOLITTLE and JAMES HUFF (47) families remained in Canada the records are not easily obtained; this may be said of the Almira Huff (63) and Jesse Valleau (64) families nearly all of whom are industrious successful men, but with smaller families in the later generations, some of whom have made their homes in the United States.

ELI AINSWORTH, (277) has moved from his farm to the city of Belleville. For many years he did good service as a Local Preacher for the Church and the Master.

His pulpit ministrations were always instructive and acceptable to the people; his name is like the fragrance of flowers while he yet lingers among the friends of his earlier and more active years of strenuous life. Cousin Geo. W. Doolittle, myself and all the relatives of that branch of the CLARKE family are indebted to Cousin JOSEPH ORVILLE CLARKE (238) Fam., (64) page 16, for valuable assistance in helping complete the records.

Errata.--The marriage of Fam. 64, 213 & 214, should be -March-not Nov.

Three brothers of family (21), WM. SMITH, GEO. SAWYER and STEPHEN PUTNAM, lived and died on adjoining farms while JOTHAM (50) was a near neighbor. George S. was a carpenter and builder and his three brothers were well to do farmers highly respected by all who knew them.

GEORGE W. and MARCUS have been in Chicago, Ill. since 1881, both active business men; Geo W. has a home in South Haven, Mich., where the family resides, which he reaches by rail or boat on Saturdays, then back to the city for business on Monday mornings.

His daughter CORA, (475) is a teacher in the public schools and noted for theories and practice in teaching; CLARENCE E. youngest son of Marcus, feeling the force of "Go west young man," has gone to the vicinity of Denver, Col.

None are more entitled to the privileges opportunities and emoluments of these great progressive countries of Canada and the United States of America than the grand-children of the pioneers who opened up highways for commerce, laying the foundations for wealth and happiness for their own and all succeeding generations.

Densmore and Martha (492 & 493) are living on the old homestead in Canada, being the third generation to live there. Jetta Maud has been of great assistance to cousin Geo. W. in furnishing the Doolittle family records. Here ends the record of HANNAH SMITH of the II generation; she had seven children of the III, forty-two of the IV, and forty-nine great-grand-children of the V generation, some of whom have grand children of their own, making VII generations of the SMITH family. We have often wished while gathering these records that it had been our good fortune to have become personally acquainted with these kindred so that many more brief sketches could have accompanied their names. It is a source of great satisfaction that only good things could be said.

DORCAS SMITH and STEPHEN PUTNAM

The STEPHEN PUTNAM family trace their ancestry to a John Putnam who came from England in 1634, settling at Salem, Massachusetts; of course some have sought homes and fortune in other lands: to trace them would prove more curious than useful and we forbear. Of the Second generation none are living; of the Third generation there are two sisters living, (Nov. 25th. 1909), viz. LYDIA ROGERS (522) and JULIA (524), both daughters of Aunt DORCAS (7).

DORCAS SMITH and STEPHEN PUTNAM had ten children, nine of whom married and the eight who had families are given with their consorts (509) to (622). Having no personal acquaintance with Aunt Dorcas and Uncle Stephen, we are indebted to our Cousin Miss S. J. Huggins, (533) for most of the records of their families, items and incidents, for sketches. They were all of the intelligent, hard-working, thrifty, economical sort of people; lovers of home and home-builders, and with few exceptions, settling in near by neighborhoods, so nearly contiguous as to be in easy communication with each other, thereby enjoying many delightful family reunions and informal visits in their ample and well furnished farm homes.

LILLIE A. HUGGINS (542) is the second wife of ABRAM BROKAW who claims it as 'one of those continually happy unions'; they live near Littlefield, Illinois, in the southern part of the state. He is a veteran of the civil war; enlisted July 31st '61, but the quota of Ill. being full, nine companies went over into Missouri and became part of the 1st. Regt. Mo. Vol. Cavalry, serving under Gen. Fremont, in his body-guard in the notorious Zygonia charge; then under Hunter in the blundering retreat from Springfield; was in the battle of Pea Ridge, then chased Quantrell's Band for a year, was in Bank's disastrous campaign, and after being wounded seven times, was honorably mustered out in '64, carrying an encysted bullet in his left clavicle, and is partially blind in his left eye from a wound received in battle.

Among the bravest there, he too was brave,

Adventuring life, a nations life to save.

He had seven children by his first wife, a Miss Ruth Gibbs, all living and married except the youngest daughter. Like his ancestors he claims to be a "strict Presbyterian," but he tells of his faith as if he were an old fashioned Methodist.

HORACE PUTNAM, brother of STEPHEN (8), is of special interest to me personally for several reasons; first, because he and Aunt Polly, as she was known by all the near relatives, were my Father's foster-parents, for when the Grand-parents died they took him to their home and cared for him until he was of age; then, during part of the years 1847, '8 & '9, while attending school at Rome Academy, I lived with them, doing chores and my board in the old Northern Hotel; soon after they came to Rome from keeping the Checkered Tavern, in Camden. N. Y., this boy, as he was then, over seventy years ago, by invitation, spent his first Christmas away from home with Uncle Horace and Aunt Polly, the memories of that holiday-week are still treasured as among the precious things of my life; a gift of Peter Parleys' Books from Aunt Polly taught me my first lesson of education by observation; from that time the study of Insect life, Birds, Beasts Fowls and Fish has been a source of great pleasure. which never wanes throughout the years.

The Sawyer Family.

SAMUEL WM. SAWYER (616) was born in Camden, N. Y. Married Hannah Nelson of Albion, Mich. settling in Palmyra, N. Y. By trade, a master mechanic, for many years he was in the service of the State as Supt. of Yards at Palmyra.

SAMUEL NELSON SAWYER, (650) was born in Palmyra, N. Y. Oct. 6. 1858, and was educated at the Palmyra High School, Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and the Law Department of Union University, ordinarily spoken of as the Albany Law School, graduating therefrom in May, 1883, and on Sept 1st that year opened his first office for the practice of law in his native village of Palmyra. In the Fall of 1888 he was elected District Attorney of the County of Wayne, serving for two terms-six years, being the first man ever to be re-elected to that office. In the Fall of 1897 he was elected County Judge and Surrogate of the County of Wayne, serving the full term-six years, and was re-elected, serving nearly four years when he resigned to accept the office of Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, being appointed by the Governor in 1907. In November, 1907 he was elected for the full term of fourteen years.

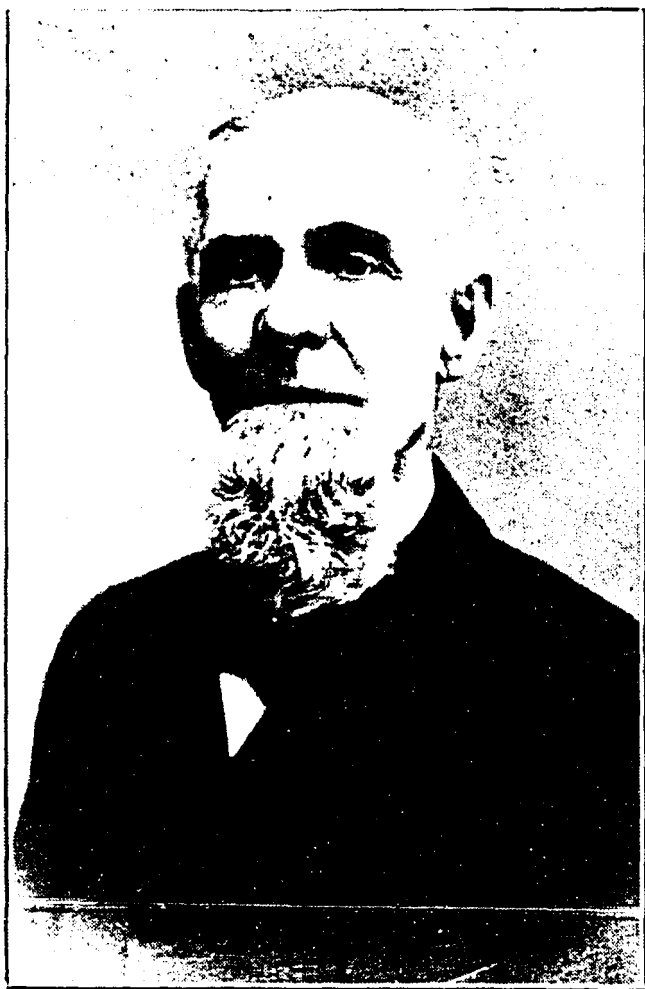

In addition to civic honors he followed in the foot-steps of his father and grandfather and upon his majority became a member of the Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons and passed through the offices of his local lodges, then the State Lodge, and in May, 1908, he was elected Grand Master of New York State, and says; "I esteem it the greatest honor conferred upon me, viz; to be chosen as the Supreme head of a body of one hundred and fifty thousand selected men."

On October 20, 1885 he was married to Augusta Webster, daughter of Rev. John Webster, formerly an Episcopalian clergyman of Palmyra.

AURELIUS P. SAWYER (609) was born in Camden, N. Y. In early life he taught school. He was married in Salmon River, N. Y. Jan, 15, 1840, soon after moving to Henrietta, N. Y. In 1842 he moved to Litchfield, Mich., soon after he went to Albion, Mich. where he died in 1846.

DeLano-Coney Families.

After the death of STEPHEN BRIGGS DELANO (15) two of his children, William S. and Emily R. went to live with his sisters; Wm. S. to the home of Mr and Mrs. Ichabod Hart who went to Michigan, probably in the late 30's, finally locating in the township of Cooper in Kalamazoo County. After leaving the Harts he lived near Martin, Allegan Co. and later on a farm in what is now the city of Kalamazoo, but soon after bought and improved a farm in Cooper township where he lived until his death. He married Louise Caroline Skinner, and six children were born to them. Stephen B (690) served with the 3rd Mich Cavalry until he sickened and died at Tusculumbia, Alabama. Four of the children are now living on farms within a mile of the old homestead.

EMILY R. DELANO (687) lived with her aunt and uncle, Mary and Jarvis Skinner near Albion. N. Y. until sometime in the 40's when she went west to teach school near Kalamazoo. In 1849 she was married to Albert G. Coney who had come from Ohio a few years before. In 1853 they settled on a forty acre piece of wild land which they improved, and where they and all but Fletcher lived until the Spring of 1887 when they sold the place. Since 1890 she has lived with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Tyler in South Haven. Mich.

FLETCHER CONEY (740) has worked at the carpenter trade the past few years and is now employed as a cabinet maker by a large factory in Allegan, Mich.

CHARLES S. CONEY (745) has made a grand success in his chosen profession-school work, having been County Superintendent of Stanton County, Nebraska schools since 1885 with the exception of about 9 years. He organized all the school districts in that county from 32 to 52, inclusive

The Benedict Ancestry.

GILBERT BENEDICT's father, Enoch Benedict was a Revolutionary soldier under Washington. In the War of 1812 Gilbert went north from Albany and Saratogo, N. Y. with a Company of Light Artillery. In 1826 he settled on a farm at Perinton, Monroe County, N. Y. By his first wife Cornelia Newkirk he had six children, the two eldest never marrying. Gool (781) enlisted in Co. L. 50th Reg. N. Y. Volunteers, served throughout the war, and in 1867 settled in Rochester where he engaged in business. Jacob (787) married Elizabeth Lockwood, of Pawucket R. I. She, too, is of Revolutionary stock; her great-grandfather was Jonothan Pitcher who served under Paul Jones, and her grandmother was Betsy Aruold, prominent in the Rhode Island Charter trouble of 1842-44. Jacob, loyal to his country in need, furnished a substitute for service. His half brother, George C. (798), enlisted in the 13th N. Y. Vol. Infantry, Co. E., serving through the war. Jacob is living in Grand Rapids Mich. For his second wife Gilbert married Lydia Smith, widow of Stephen B. Delano.

Wm. Hutchinson Smith.

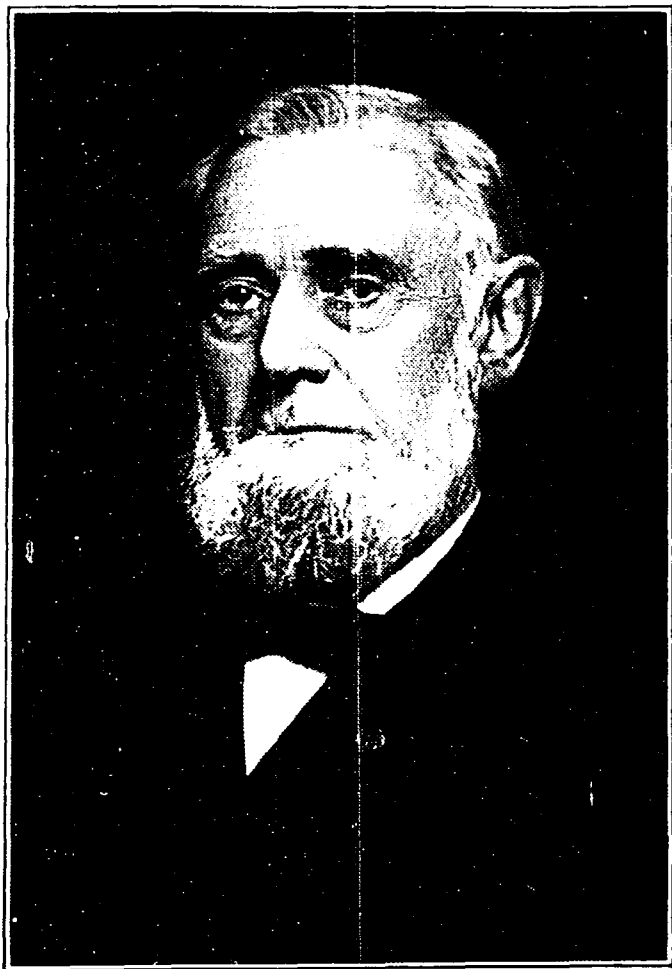

WILLIAM HUTCHINSON SMITH was born in Western, Oneida County N. Y. on June 16, 1829. He attended school in his native State, and went to Mich. in 1850, and on May 4, 1853, in Adrian, married Mary E. St John of Palmyra, N. Y.

In the Fall of 1855 he moved to Aurora, Ill. engaging as carpenter in construction work on the Illinois Central Railroad. In 1857 he went to Lee county and taught school. In 1858 he was licensed as a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church and joined the Rock River Conference. In the Fall of 1862 he became Chaplain of the 75th Regiment Ill, Volunteer Infantry. In a soldier's tent, on the battlefield of Stone River he was ordained by Bishop Simpson. After eighteen months he was taken seriously ill and honorably discharged. He was pastor at Dixon and then given charge of Jennings Seminary at Aurora. After forty-two years of active service, during which he designed and built several churches, converted thousands. and gave the church forty-two ministers, he retired in 1901, going to Park Ridge to live, where he celebrated his golden wedding in 1903, when he and his wife received many gifts and kind remembrances from hosts of friends near and far. He died June 19, 1910 and was buried at North Crystal Lake, Ill., The Chicago Preachers Association sent a delegation to the services and Rockford Post, No. 1 G. A. R., of which he was an honorary member, conducted the services at the grave.

His widow lives at Park Ridge. She was a daughter of Rev Marshall St John. He was born in Vermont in 1805, and was licensed to preach in 1828, joining the Genessee Conference of New York on Oct 21, 1833. In 1842 his health failed, and he took a superannuated relation which continued until his death, with the exception of the years 1846, 1847 and 1848, when he was active. He died in Grove, Alleghany County on July 5, 1852.

Samuel Grose.

SAMUEL GROSE (840) was born in Perry township. Wayne County, Ohio, Oct. 22. 1825. At eighteen years of age he began his trade as a tinner in the employ of Levi Zimmerman in Mansfield, Ohio. In 1847 he went to California, where he remained until 1854. While in California he became acquainted with Rev. William Taylor, the great missionary, and afterward, Bishop, whom he assisted in organizing the first Sunday School in San Francisco. Returning, he went in business in Van Wert, Ohio, where he remained but a short time. then went to Alligan, Mich. in 1855, where on Feb. 11th he married Cornelia Smith and returned to Van Wert where she died Feb. 8, 1859. They lived in Findlay. Ohio, one year. At their home the first prayer meetings of the Church of God were held. Out of these prayer meetngs a wide spread influence has grown. Today two good church organizations and a flourishing college of this denomination are in Findlay. Here their first child, Ida was born, losing her life by being burned in a sad accident. A sketch of their second child, Wm. E. will be found on page 81. On Oct. 18, 1860 Samuel married Fannie T. Smith, sister of his first wife, who survives him. Of the five children born of this union two are living; Cornelia, a practicing physician in Findlay, and Andrew, a master printer. Samuel died in Findlay on July 3, 1908, being in his 83rd year. Truly, a man of God, highly esteemed and universally beloved. He died as he lived, in the triumph of the gospel; verily he fell asleep as a little child.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep."

Zenas Hutchinson.

ZENAS HUTCHINSON (1021) was born in Lebanon, Conn., studied medicine and was a practicing physician in the town of Western, Oneida Co., N. Y. He was an honored member of the Presbyterian church and when he could do nothing more for an afflicted friend, he could kneel beside his couch and commend them to the Great Physician of souls. He served in the War of 1812 and laughingly boasted of lying on the soft side of a hemlock plank at Plattsburg while watching for the enemy. He was the first President of the first Medical Society of the State of New York. His first wife, Fanny Tyler Smith (1022) was a niece of Dr Knott, President of Union College. See page 83.

Jay W. Smith.

JAY WILLIAM SMITH (989) was born in Palmyra, N. Y. where he lived until the death of his mother in 1849. Sometime after her death his father moved to Oneida county and married his second wife, Jay living with them until 1856 when he went to live with Jay and Maria Putnam who had adopted his sister, Margaret Ann when she was seven weeks old. At the age of eighteen he enlisted in Co. C, 108th N. Y. Volunteer Infantry and sent to the front with the 2nd Army Corps. He served through the war, being honorably discharged with the rank of 1st Lieutenant. He went west in 1866, returning to New York in 1868 where he married Prudie Wells of Joy. He returned west and she died in Waukegan in the Spring of 1890. In the Fall of 1890 he married his second wife. and in the Spring of 1903 went to Mich., now living in Muskegon.
