PREACHER JOHN SHIRK'S FAMILY HISTORY

The name "SHIRK" has been spelled in many ways such as: Schoerg, Scherich, Scherck, Shurch, Sherk, Shirk, etc. All are from the original German name. The difference in spelling was because of how the people pronounced it because they could not write and the ship's clerk (usually English) wrote it. SCHURCH meant a person of that time having the authority equivalent to a sheriff or constable in this country.

There is no known crest, insignia, or coat of arms. They were mennonites and did not believe in those things.

Ulrich Shirk I was born in the canton of Berne, Switzerland, in January, 1665. He married Helen Meyers of Basle, Switzerland. At the age of 63, his children persuaded him to come to America to live. They arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on August 24, 1728, on the ship Mortenhouse. About 1729 they came to Hickorytown (now Lancaster) and on April 5, 1732, had a land patent granted from Thomas and Richard Penn. He was a mennonite preacher and is believed to be buried on the Weaverland or Steinmetz cemetery at Schoeneck, Lancaster County, Pa.

The ship Mortenhouse did not appear to carry Redemptioners. The list for this sailing had 80 males above 16 years old, 69 women, 56 children. On the ship's list, our ancestor's name was spelled Uly Schurch. Tradition has that they were crowded and ran out of food and so caught mice on board to eat.

Ulrich I and his sons Ulrich II, Casper, and John settled in Schoeneck (which means "pleasant corner") in 1733. Michael settled nearby in New Holland, Peter in Mount Joy, and Joseph along the Conestoga. They also had two daughters, Martha and Jeanette. All did not come to America at the same time or on the same boat, we are told.

Alger Shirk still owns and lives on property in Schoeneck that was part of Ulrich's grant. He also possesses the original deed given Ulrich by Thomas and Richard Penn.

Ulrich II was born in Basle, Switzerland, August 20, 1704, and died in 1763. He married Anna Swar who was born in Lancaster County in 1720 and died in 1810. They had three boys and seven girls, namely: Ulrich III, David, Michael, Barbara, Kate, Magalena, Sally, Anna, Mariah. There is a history of this family written by Henry Yoder Shirk in 1914.

John died in 1783 leaving wife Barbara, 3 girls and no boys.

Casper was born May 26, 1758, and died April 4, 1827, leaving 4 girls and no boys.

Michael I, a miller born in 1707 in Basle, Switzerland, married Elizabeth Swar and died in 1772 leaving Michael II, Casper, Mary (Mrs. John Summy), and Elizabeth.

Peter, a blacksmith and minister, married Maria Swar and died in 1772. He had a son Jacob who had a son Jonathan married to Madgelene Sander. Jonathan and Madgelene's children are Martin, Jacob, Samuel, Jonathan, Annie, and Mattie. Jacob started Shirk's Motor Express Corp., the trucking company, in 1929. In 1930 Jonathan became a partner. Then Jacob's brother-in-law, J. William Weaver, became owner and sold it to Norwalk Truck Co. around 1959. Jacob's address is: Shirk's Machine Shop, 713 North Cherry St., Lancaster, Pa.

Joseph I died in 1770 leaving 5 girls and 3 boys - - Jacob, Joseph, and John.

Now to trace our family from Michael I. Michael II, born September 6, 1749, was a mennonite minister and came to Walker Township in Mifflin County (now Juniata County) in 1805. He settled on the homestead now owned by Banks Weaver. He married Barbara Weber and later, Mary Weber. His children were to Mary. An administrative paper dated October 20, 1829, is recorded in the Lewistown courthouse and was signed by Michael, Joseph, Peter, Samuel, Mary, Martha, Barbara, Elizabeth, Julia, John, and Susan. He is buried at Lost Creek near Oakland Mills, Pa. The marker inscription is German and spelled Scherck.

On June 25, 1829, he and his son Michael III went to the woods for a load of firewood. After cutting and loading a load on the wagon, he sent son Michael home to unload it. He remained to cut more while waiting for the wagon's return. During this time a severe thunderstorm came up; and not having time to get home, he took shelter under a large pine tree. While sitting there, a bolt of lightning struck the tree and killed him. After the storm was over, Michael III came back with the wagon and found his father sitting dead.

Michael II born 9-6-1749 and died 6-25-1829 married Barbara Weber (or Weaver) and later Mary Weber (or Weaver). He is buried at Lost Creek.

Samuel Shirk married Catherine Springer. Mr. Gilbert M. Shirk, R. D. 2, McVeytown, Pa., could probably give more information on this branch. They have an annual reunion at Kishacoquillas Park between Lewistown and Burnham the first Saturday of September each year. All Shirks are welcome to attend.

John Shirk married Eva Ranck and was the only one to stay in Ephrata, Pa. He died in 1840. He and his wife were separated and he raised the only child, John.

Now continuing in our line we'll take up Joseph Shirk (1777-1855) married to Margaret Shelly (1786-1851).

Preacher John Shirk born 9-19-1808 died 8-18-1863 married Elizabeth Basom born 3-7-1817 died 1-14-1892. Buried at Brick Church.

Their children listed in detail on the following pages.

Rebecca Shirk married a Mosser.

Eve Shirk born 2-8-1820 died 8-23-1896 married David Abel Acker born 10-1-1817 died 8-29-1882. Buried at Weaver Family Cemetery near Mexico, Pa.

Catharine Shirk born 10-16-1823, died 12-8-1850 apparently unmarried. Buried at the Brick Church.

Two places of local interest must be mentioned. First, the Brick Church or meetinghouse, two miles west of Richfield in Juniata Co. It sits south of Route 35 part way up the ridge and gives a lovely view of the Shade Mountain branch of the Blue Ridge. It was built in 1868. Adjacent to it is the oldest cemetery in the valley. You will find a number of Shirks and their relatives are buried here.

Second, Pomfret Fort. In West Perry Township, Snyder Co., near Richfield is an interesting stone springhouse. This seems to be at the junction of four valleys with a few high points near, especially at Shrawder's Mills, where outposts could be located from which to send smoke signals or detail marathons. Over this spring, on December 17, 1755, both the Penn Commissioners and Benjamin Franklin issued orders, following the Braddock defeat, for the Pomfret

Fort, on the Mahantango, to be built. This called for a 50 X 50 stone building, capable of hiding 50 persons from the Indians. There were to be no windows on the first story above the spring. Many portholes were provided for defense. With some remodelling; it served as the first residence of Jacob Krabiel (or Graybill), pioneer settler of Juniata County. Later Bishop Samuel Winey bought it and it was again remodelled. Aunt Sue Winey went to live on the farm it is on as a bride and we are told, she never left that farm. Her son, Philip, owned the farm and now his son, Guy, owns it. The fort still stands there.

Preacher John Shirk (1808-1863) married Elizabeth Basom (1827-1892) He taught each boy a trade so he could support himself.

Katherine (12-17-1837-3-5-1928) never married. Known as "Auntie" or Aunt Kate. She is buried at the Brick Church.

Susan (1840-1912) married John Winey. They are buried at the Crossroads cemetery north of Richfield.

Abel (1843-1924) married Cathrine Auker. His mother paid $300.00 to keep him home from the Civil War so he could support the family when his father died. He farmed the homestead of several generations in Sand Valley, Richfield, now occupied by Homer Brown and David Kauffman. He and his wife are buried in the Richfield cemetery.

Joseph (1845-1919) married Ada Mitchell. He was a tinsmith in Beavertown, Pa. Both are buried in Beavertown.

Jacob (1847-1921) married Emma Jane Keeler. He was a tinsmith in Freeburg, Pa. Both are buried in the Freeburg cemetery.

John (11-24-1849-1873) was engaged to a lady who later became Mrs. Jonathan Keiser. He worked in Thompsontown and died quite suddenly; with appendicitis or pneumonia when only 23 or 24.

Elizabeth (1852-1926) married Preacher Simon Auker. Both are buried at the Delaware Mennonite Church near Thompsontown, Pa.

Michael (1855-1935) married Josephine Shellenberger. He was a carpenter at the McAlisterville Buggy Shop. He helped Abel farm and built David Kauffman's house on the homestead after he married. Both are buried at the Brick Church.

Caleb (1857-1940) married Elizabeth Graybill and later Mabel Book. He was a painter at McAlisterville Buggy Shop and later went to live in a western state. He is buried at Port Royal, Pa.

Margaret (1863-1950) married William Gingrich. Both are buried at Lauver's Menmonite Church cemetery near Evendale, Pa.

Sarah was a twin to Margaret and she only lived about three months.

Most names were handed down from each generation so there is quite a confusion with Michael, Joseph, Peter, Jacob, John, Casper, etc. prevailing in almost every family. Some dates are not correct because members of the same family sent conflicting dates. Any corrections and any additions of births, deaths, or marriages will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you all who helped to gather this information, especially Frank Gingrich (who did not live to see it printed), Noah Zimmerman, and Ira Shirk who did a lot of research for me.

This is your invitation to attend the annual (since 1928) Shirk Reunion held on the first Saturday of June, rain or shine, in Shirk pavilion in Graybill's Grove, one mile north of Richfield, Pa., situated on Heister Valley Road. Dinner is at twelve noon with an afternoon program around two o'clock.
