T H E S C H R E I N E R F A M I L Y

This report on the Genealogy of the Schreiner Family may aid as a remedy for the "Generation Gap", but is by no means complete. It requires additional research, information and cooperation from family members. It is subject to correction and revision by the very nature of changing subject matter.

The greatest need for the future record of the Schreiner Family is for some one or several volunteers to continue the project.

Further research of ancestors should be made by:

1. Visiting churches and cemeteries in Random Lake, Silver Creek, Dacada, Holy Cross, Lake Church, Port Washington, Belgium and Cascade, Wis.

2. Searching records of the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Capital at Madison, Wis. regarding births, deaths, marriages, naturalization, military records and micro film of census reports.

3. Searching County records of Port Washington, Sheboygan, Ozaukee and other nearby counties.

GENEALOGY OF THE SCHREINER FAMILY

BY WILLIAM GILSON

3355 N. Menard Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60634

December 1968

Method of the Genealogical Order

Each descendant of the Schreiner lineage is given an Arabic number, 1, 2, 3 etc., which identifies the person. The number is placed before the name, for example:
1. Nikolaus Schreiner. Each descendent is also given a number following the name for example: 1.Nikolaus Schreiner¹, which identifies the first known generation. Subsequent names and the generations to which they belong are given numbers in their proper order.

The descendent or child of any person is given in the order of his or her birth and so identified by a Roman numeral, lower case, i, ii, iii, iv, etc., before the name, for example:

*2.i, Johann Adam Schreiner², (1.Nikolaus¹)

2.Johann Adam Schreiner² is the first child of 1.Nikolaus¹. The asterisk or star () appearing before a number and name indicates that a further entry follows in the record which contains some vital statistics as well as personal comments. The absence of the star () usually indicates that no further reference to the person is made.

An attempt will be made to complete the records, now available, of each generation before recording the one that follows. Note that there is only one name in the first generation, 1.Nikolaus Schreiner¹, and only one name in the second generation, 2.Johann Adam Schreiner².

A sincere note of thanks is extended to those who have faithfully contributed aid and information concerning this attempt to describe the Schreiner heritage.

The First Generation of the Schreiner Family

1.Nikolaus Schreiner¹ of Uedersdorf, Germany, birth day unknown, died Nov. 31, 1822, was married to Elizabeth Thome, birth day unknown, who died Nov. 11, 1822 in Germany.

The authority for the above and other information is shown on the photo copy of the page following. This was secured in 1952 by William Gilson and Clara Gilson from Dr. Lang, Pastor of St. Bartholomew Apostle Church which was newly built in 1866. The town of Uedersdorf, Kreis Daun, Germany is about 30 miles West of Coblenz. The photo copy is dated April 1, 1927 by Gerhard Blum, Pastor. Foot notes on the copy were made by 46.John Baptist Schreiner⁴ during his visit in 1927. 62.Marjorie Sarah E. Boyd⁵ stated that these records may also be at the church in Grub, aus Uedersdorf.

The children, or issue, of 1.Nikolaus Schreiner¹ and Elizabeth Thome are:

*2.i,Johann Adam Schreiner²

Names of others are not known due to lack of or disappearance of records during World Wars I and II.

The Second Generation of the Schreiner Family

2.1,Johann Adam Schreiner², (1.Nikolaus¹) Ackerer or Farmer, born in 1790, died Mar. 31, 1882 in Wisconsin at the age of 92, the son of 1.Nikolaus Schreiner¹ and the late Elizabeth Thome. On Mar. 17, 1816, Johann Adam married Antonia Semmers, who was born in 1796, daughter of the late Johann Wilhelm Semmers and Magdalena Thelen from Mehren a. Eifel (on the Eifel River), Near Uedersberg. The ceremony was performed in the Catholic Parish Church of Uedersdorf, Germany by Pastor Walscheid. Witnesses were Peter hoffmann and Mathias Reicharts from Uedersdorf.

Of this marriage, eleven children were born. The mother Antonia died in Uedersdorf Dec. 3, 1835, in her 39th. year. Four of the children died in Germany. The father and seven children came to America.

82.Genevieve M. Puerling⁵ stated that 2,Johann Adam Schreiner² came to America with four sons and two daughters in 1846 and later lived with 8.Jacob Schreiner³ until his death at age 92 in Wisconsin. His last seven years were spent in blindness.

62.Marjorie Sarah E. Boyd⁵ offered the information that

He was married to Emmie Elizabeth Powell, in 1893 in Denver, Colorado, who was born July 16, 1860 in Birmingham, England and died Mar. 26, 1911 in Chicago, buried at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Worth Ill.

Mike taught in a County School briefly, left his farm home in Wisconsin after attending St. Michaels College in Toronto for two years, started his adventurous roving or wanderlust, going to Chicago where a butcher shop job earned travel money to the mining country of the West, where he served as sheriff for a time in Leadville, Colorado. Denver became his home base. He sought excitement as an amateur fighter, trapeze artist on the stage, billed as "The Apollo Belvidere", card player and horseman. He walked the desert from Goldfield Nevada to Las Vegas for six days with a pack horse to be delivered as agreed.

Mike soon went back to mining gold in Colorado, later bought a hotel and theatre in Denver at which time he met his future wife, who was in a vaudeville act with her aunt and uncle. In 1900 he left home, joined the stampede of the sourdoughs to Alaska in quest for gold, leaving Seattle on the steamer "Skookum" through the inside passage. "Skookum" was the name of "Skookum" Jim, Indian companion of George Carmacks who discovered gold in Alaska in 1896. Like other stampedeers, Mike staked a claim, built sluice boxes, mined gold for a time, when a tidal wave wiped out the entire claim. He then took a job in town at Tex Rickard's Casino "calling cases" for the game of Faro. He returned to the States in 1902, prospecting in Nevada with little success. Mike played piano, organ, violin and cornet with moderate success. During his theatre enterprise he became acquainted with Lillian Russell, Jo Howard, John L. Sullivan and other famous stage personalities. He returned to Chicago in 1906, worked for Kane's Secret Service, later with Wm. Wrigley Co. until his retirement in 1927.
