THIS incomplete record of the descendants of Thomas Stanton is printed, not for general circulation, but to preserve what I have collected. Only about thirty or forty copies are printed, and most of these will be deposited in Libraries in Massachusetts and Connecticut. Although these records, after the first three or four generations, are defective and more or less fragmentary, it will be seen that many lines of descent from the first Thomas to the present time are complete. Others can easily be made complete by those interested in them. My hope is that some person or persons interested in the Stanton Genealogies will so enlarge this collection as to make it suitable for being printed for circulation among the Stantons of the great family to which it relates.

The descent of Hannah Stanton, my mother, from Thomas, the first American Ancestor, is through his son Capt. John, Capt. John's son Joseph, Joseph's son Nathaniel, and Nathaniel's son Capt. Nathaniel. See pages 25, and 29, 30. She lived 91 years and 8 days. Her second cousin Hannah Stanton, daughter of Isaac Wheeler Stanton, son of Joseph Jr., lived more than 105 years. See page 26.

Mr Baldwin wrote me 9 Apr 1874 that he had traced the Stanton family in England. Sir Melger de Stanton was a Saxon whom William the Conqueror allowed to keep his estates, was of Belvoir castle in Nottinghamshire. Before 1450 a branch of the family won distinction & acquired large estates with the very valuable manor of Longbridge in Warwickshire. On establishing at Longbridge the family took a new coat of arms & the coat of arms of the old family afterwards disappeared this is now the leading family of Stantons, present head John Stanton Esq.

THOMAS STANTON,

OF STONINGTON, CONN.,

AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

I. THOMAS STANTON OF 1634.

WHAT IS KNOWN OF HIM.

I THOMAS STANTON, OF STONINGTON, came to America in 1634. He embarked at London January 2, 1634, in the ship Bonaventura, and landed in Virginia. It is supposed, with strong probability, that he was son of Thomas and Katherine (Washington) Stanton, of the Longbridge family; that he was born in 1616; and that he was 18 years old when he embarked for America, although, to be sure of securing a passage in the ship, he professed to be 20. On arriving in Virginia, he went immediately among the Indians. In 1636, he was in Boston, and went from Boston to Saybrook with Mr. Fenwick and Hugh Peters, who were Commissioners to negotiate a treaty with the Pequot Indians. At this time Mr. Stanton was master of the Indian dialects.

In 1637, he settled in Hartford, Conn., and was married to Ann Lord, daughter of Dr. Thomas and Dorothy Lord of that place. The Commissioners of the United Colonies, appointed him "Indian Interpreter General of New England," and he also held the position of Special Indian Interpreter for the Connecticut Colony. After he went to Stonington, he was, from year to year, a "Commissioner to try Civil and Criminal Cases." When the county courts were established, he was one of the three Judges of the New London County Court; and he held this position until the year before his death. He was a deputy to the General Court every year, from 1666 to 1675, inclusive.

In 1650, Thomas Stanton, being licensed by the General Court, established a trading house in Stonington, on the Pawcatuck river. William Chesebro' was already there; and they were the first two settlers in the town called Pawcatuck, Southerton, Mystic, etc., until it became finally and permanently the town of Stonington. Mr. Stanton's wife and children resided in New London after 1650, until their residence was permanently fixed on the Pawcatuck. His trading house prospered; he became a very extensive landholder. As he was endowed with very superior mental qualities, was well educated and had great force of character, he became naturally a chief personage in that part of the colony. He died Dec. 2, 1677; his wife died in 1688. They had ten children, born and named as follows:

- 2 THOMAS, b. in 1638; m. Sarah Denison; d. in 1718, aged 80.
- 3 JOHN, b. in 1641; m. Hannah Thompson; d. Oct. 3, 1713, in his 73d year.
- 4 MARY, b. in 1643; m. Samuel Rogers, Nov. 17, 1662.

IV.

DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH STANTON, SON OF THOMAS.

6 JOSEPH STANTON, (son of 1 Thomas.) b. in 1646, settled on a great tract of land which his father had bought of a Narragansett Sachem, for a half bushel of wampum. In old records, at Boston, he is described as "Joseph Stanton of Squanicot, Narraganset Country, King's Province;" and in a lease recorded there, he describes the land leased as "half the farm or neck named Quannecontauge, where I do now live." It seems to have been situated in what is now Charlestown, R. I., which was formerly a part of Westerly. This lease was dated Nov. 20, 1685. Joseph Stanton was married June 19, 1673, to Hannah, daughter of Wm. Mead of Roxbury, Mass. I have seen private records which make Mr. Mead a citizen of New London. This is a mistake; at any rate he lived and died in Roxbury, and his will was made there in 1683. This will gave half of his estate to his wife, and half to Joseph Stanton, and there was a charge of £20 against Joseph for Mead's supply of clothing, &c., to his daughter Hannah. The wife Hannah's children were :

901 JOSEPH, b. 1674; m. Esther Gallup.

902 HANNAH, b. 1676; m. Dr. James York.

Joseph Stanton's first wife died in 1676, the year of Hannah's birth. August 23, 1677, he was married to Hannah Lord of Hartford, Conn. She had two children :

903 THOMAS, b. Dec. 16, 1678; d. young.

904 REBECCA, b. April, 1681; m. Joseph Babcock.

This second wife, Hannah Lord, was buried May 6, 1681. March 16, 1683, "Joseph Stanton's wife" was admitted to the church in Stonington. This was the third wife; but she seems to have been childless, for no other child appeared until 1691. Therefore, I conjecture that "Miss Prentice" was the fourth wife and mother of his next children. Her children were :

905 THOMAS, bapt. April 5, 1691.

906 DANIEL, " April 1, 1694.

907 SAMUEL, " July 17, 1698; d. young.

6 Joseph Stanton died in 1714, aged 68 years.

901 JOSEPH STANTON, Jr., (son of 6 Joseph,) b. in 1674, was married Jan. 3, 1705, to Esther Gallup, dau. of Benadam and Hester (Prentice) Gallup; he lived in Westerly, and had these :

908 JOSEPH, b. 1706; m. 1st. Mary Champlin; 2d, a Gardiner.

909 ESTHER, b. 1708; m. Robert Hazard.

910 MARY, b. 1711; m. Peleg Sanford Mason, Nov. 4, 1742.

911 HANNAH, b. 1714; m. Dr. Joshua Babcock.

912 NANCY, b. 1716; died unmarried.

913 SARAH, b. 1719; m. Dr. James Babcock.

914 LUCY, b. Sept. 22, 1722; m. Christopher Champlin, Aug. 19, 1756.

908 COL. JOSEPH STANTON, (son of 901 Joseph, Jr.,) b. about 1706, was married to Mary Champlin, Aug. 9, 1738; lived in Westerly, and had these :

V.

ABOUT 7 DANIEL STANTON, SON OF 1 THOMAS.

7 DANIEL STANTON, (son of 1 Thomas,) b. in 1648, was married and lived in Barbadoes. He had but one child, a son named Richard. This is the child mentioned in Mrs. Ann (Lord) Stanton's will, made in 1688, as "the fatherless child in Barbadoes;" which indicates that Daniel Stanton was dead when that will was made. He died in 1687. There is no further record of this child, Richard, except that he came to Stonington and sold his right to certain ancestral estate.

VI.

1005 ROBERT STANTON, (son of 9 Robert,) b. Dec. 7, 1689, was a clergyman. He was graduated at Harvard College in 1712, was master of the Roxbury Grammar School several years, was chaplain at the Castle in Boston, and was settled, April 9, 1719, as first pastor of the East Church in Salem, Mass. He was married May 5, 1719, to Katherine Simpkins of Boston, the ceremony being performed by Dr. Cotton Mather. She was born Dec. 23, 1698. He died May 3, 1727. His children were as follows :

1033 THOMAS, b. May 15, 1720.

1036 MARJERY, b. Sept. 10, 1725.

1037 WILLIAM, b. June 12, 1727.

After her husband's death, his widow, Katherine Stanton, lived in Boston, where she had relatives and property. She was the daughter of Thomas Simpkins of Boston, whose children were, James, Thomas, William and Katherine. The estate of her husband was settled by her brother William. In 1754, "Widow Katherine Stanton" mortgaged property on Ann street, Boston, to William Simpkins, in security for a loan of money "for her support." She died in 1760, for letters of administration on her estate were granted December 25, 1760. There is no mention or trace of her children. Her sons, if living, would have been old enough to settle the estate. It was settled by her brother William. But the inventory was only £84, which barely sufficed to pay debts and expenses. Her property on Ann street, Boston, was inherited from her mother's father, James Barton. She inherited property, also, from her father's father, Pilgrim Simpkins, whose will was made in 1714, and admitted to probate in January, 1720. Her father, Thomas Simpkins, had died in 1706. Pilgrim Simpkins was wealthy. His will gave his property to his son John, to his daughters Marian, Rebecca, and Sarah, and to the children of his deceased son Thomas.
