FOREWORD

IN accordance with the expressed wish of the company at the Taylor Re-union, which was held at Rushford August 25, 1921, this Supplement to the Taylor Genealogy has been prepared. We have endeavored to obtain and record all the data concerning the descendants of our ancestor John Taylor¹, which were not recorded in the original book, or which may have transpired since that book was published.

We have attempted to follow the same general plan in recording the various branches, treating individuals in the order of their birth and completing the record of their descendants before taking up the next younger.

The Roman numerals at the beginning of a paragraph indicate the generation to which the person belongs in direct line from John¹, likewise a small numeral following a name indicates the generation of that individual. The early history of the family being recorded in the original book, we trace each person back only to the fourth generation.

In order to avoid repetition, and to facilitate the tracing of records we have indicated the page in the original book, where mention is made of the same person. Therefore it will be necessary to refer to both the original and supplement to get a complete record of many of the older individuals. The index will be valuable for this purpose.

These records are necessarily more or less incomplete and no doubt contain some errors, but great care has been taken to insure accuracy and to systematize the records that have been sent to us, and we trust that present and future generations will find sufficient interest in the following pages to preserve them and to perpetuate the organization.

This record would not be complete without mentioning the circumstances which led to the call for the first re-union at Rushford, N. Y. in 1921. On page seven of the original book we find that my father Ansel Miner Taylor and Edwin Hapgood Taylor of Rushford attended the second re-union at Hadley, Mass., in 1903. Shortly before his death, Ansel Miner sent for Edwin and urged him to use his influence to arouse interest in the matter of a re-union of the Taylors in and about Rushford. However nothing was accomplished along this line during Edwin's life, but the incident made such an impression upon the mind of Edwin's daughter, Elvie that she, with the assistance of Will B. Taylor persuaded the writer to issue a call for that memorable gathering, an account of which will be found on another page.

When the vote was taken authorizing a supplement, the writer had no thought of assuming the task of compiling the records, but when it became evident that our Secretary would be unable to accomplish it along with her school work I assumed the responsibility and submit the result herewith. Permit me to thank and give full credit to all who have assisted in gathering the material and helped in many ways to accomplish this result.

Sincerely yours,

FRANK L. TAYLOR

President Taylor Re-union Association.

FIRST RUSHFORD RE-UNION—1921
ALLEN TAYLOR HOMESTEAD—OCCUPIED BY ROY A. TAYLOR

Rushford's First Taylor Re-union

August 25, 1921

IN response to the request and earnest solicitation of two of our number, Frank L. Taylor of Rochester, N. Y., was persuaded to undertake to formulate plans for a Taylor Re-union. Acting as chairman he appointed a committee of five to assist in making the arrangements, and invitations were sent out for a re-union on August 25, 1921. To his splendid work of organization and untiring efforts was due the success of the undertaking.

The meeting place was the home of Plin A. Taylor and his son Roy on Taylor Hill, Rushford, N. Y. It seemed especially fitting that the first re-union be held there as it was the home of Allan, the first Taylor to settle on the hill. The day was ideal and one hundred fifty (150) persons responded to the call and met together in a splendid spirit of good fellowship that made the day one of pleasure to all.

Every one present was registered and tagged for identification. The opening event of the day was the placing of flowers on the graves of all Taylors in the vicinity.

A sumptuous dinner was eaten at long tables arranged to form the letter T on the lawn. Frank Taylor acted as toastmaster for the program that followed. Letters of greeting from absent relatives were read and impromptu speeches given by members of the different branches of Taylors. Mrs. Sophia E. Taylor spoke on behalf of the Taylors in appreciation of the colossal task of Rev. E. O. Taylor in compiling the Taylor genealogy book. Plin A. Taylor the oldest person present, merely rose in greeting as his emotions prevented speech.

The occasion was saddened by the sudden death of Miss Harriet L. Taylor of Williamsport, Pa., which prevented three families from that city from being present. A telegram of sympathy was sent by the company.

Full credit belongs to the committee who assisted in making the occasion a success. Viz.

Mrs. Grace Brooks, Rushford, N. Y. (Decorating Graves.)
Miss Elvie C. Taylor, North Tonawanda, (Registration.)
Mrs. Rena Hall, Ceres, N. Y. (Luncheon.)
Miss Marguerite Taylor, Williamsport, Pa. (Program.)
Will B. Taylor, Marilla, N. Y. (Sports.)

An organization was formed for perpetuating the re-union and Frank L. Taylor was chosen President; Will B. Taylor, Marilla, N. Y., Blaine C. Persons, Delevan, N. Y., Earl G. Taylor, Rochester, N. Y., Newman Woods, Rushford, N. Y., Rena Hall, Ceres, N. Y., Edna Haynes, Cuba, N. Y., Vice-Presidents; Elvie C. Taylor, North Tonawanda, N. Y., Secretary; Minnie Sherman, Arcade, N. Y., Treasurer. It was voted unanimously to hold a re-union in 1922, also that a supplement to the Taylor genealogy book be prepared bringing our records up to date.

This account will not be complete without recording our full appreciation of the work of Roy A. Taylor and family in opening their home and grounds for this enjoyable occasion.

ELVIE C. TAYLOR, Secretary.

VI. Ansel Miner Taylor, (p 75) s of Ozial,^s (Silas,⁴) d Nov. 26, 1907. At the time of his death he resided in Rushford, in the rooms over the store which he built in 1884. This building was burned Dec. 26, 1921. His wife Sophia E. now 82 years of age, resides with her son Frank L., in Rochester.

VIII. Helen M. Taylor, dau of Frank L.,⁷ (Ansel, M.,⁶ Ozial,⁶ Silas,⁴) (p 76) graduated from Rushford High School, and studied three years in Rochester University, took three years training in the State Hospital at Sonyea, N. Y., and in New York City Hospitals, becoming a Graduate Registered Nurse, m June 30, 1919, Charles Cannon of Mt. Morris, N. Y. Son, Thomas Francis, b Feb. 7, 1921.

VIII. Miner McCall Taylor, s of Frank L.,⁷ (Ansel M.,⁶ Ozial,⁶ Silas,⁴) (p 76) graduated from West High School, Rochester, N. Y., enlisted April 23, 1917, 3rd Regt. N. Y. Nat'l Guard, was discharged and re-enlisted in the U. S. Army, 27th Div. 108th Regt. in Sept. of the same year. He sailed for France May 10, 1918 landing at Brest, was sent to the Flanders Front for preliminary training and then into Belgium, where his regiment was assigned a position in front of Mt. Kemmal, flanked and supported by the British. Early in Sept. his regiment was ordered south to a position between St. Quentin and Cambrai. On Sept. 13, he was sent to Langres to an officers' training school, and on Oct. 31, 1918 was commissioned a 2nd lieutenant and sent to the 30th Div. 120th Infantry, D. Company, who were recuperating near Cambrai, where he remained until Feb. 1919 when he was sent to the American University at Beaune, completing the course in June. He then spent several weeks traveling through France and England, returning to the U. S. and being discharged Aug. 28, 1919. Later he was commissioned in the Officers' Reserve Corps. m Oct. 11, 1919, Grace McCormack. Son, Paul Miner, b Feb. 10, 1921, d Feb. 18, 1921. He has been employed in the Foreign Dept. of the Guaranty Trust Co. of New York since his return from France.

VI. Elbert Ozial Taylor, s of Ozial,⁶ (Silas,⁴) (p 76) d Feb. 13, 1920, at the home of Mrs. Grace Taylor Brooks in Rushford, where he and his wife were spending the winter. He was buried in the West Cemetery in Rushford, N. Y. To him we owe our deepest gratitude for his life work as outlined on page 77 of the original "Taylor Book" and for the book itself upon which we base our data for this supplement. Very few of us will ever realize what that book cost him in weeks and months of patient research and tiresome correspondence, besides untold hours of careful and painstaking thought to classify and arrange the facts in such comprehensive manner. There are a limited number of these books still unsold and so far as possible every person claiming descent from any branch of the Taylor family should avail himself of a copy, and have it properly bound with this Supplement. These records will be of inestimable value to succeeding generations. His wife Elizabeth makes her home with their daughter, Winnifred, in Boston, Mass.

In further commemoration of his life and character we reproduce two of his poems selected from many others of his writings.

REVERIE IN THE PRESENCE OF DEATH

By ELBERT OZIAL TAYLOR

Let every soul keep silence now
And every murmur still
Submissive to thy Soverign bow
And plead His holy will.

To Him in whom all goodness dwells,
Who bids all sorrows cease,
Whose heart to thee in pity swells,
Now look for "perfect peace".

The gentle spirit which has gone,
In safer hands by far,
Now dwells and sings redemption's song
Where kindred spirits are.

A father he has been for years,
A husband kind and true,
His wish would be to shed no tears,
That sorrows be but few.

The "valley" and the "shadow" too,
Must quickly be passed through,
May Jesus and His promise now,
Rejoice and comfort you.

Once it was death you know,
When Jesu passed it lone,
But now tis only a "Shadow"
To him who goeth home.

The land of Beulah he has passed,
To Jordan he has come,
Soon he'll obtain a lasting rest
In Canaan's heav'nly home.

There safe from all the cares of life,
Free from its alarms,
And conqueror over every strife
He rests in Jesus' arms.

Now in His strength may we abide,
And in His love be blessed,
Oh, may our souls be sanctified,
That with him we may rest.

The thoughts above were suggested while standing by the death-bed of Uncle Allen Taylor. (p 79). Written Sept. 12, 1865, Rushford, N. Y.

MY MOTHER!

By ELBERT OZIAL TAYLOR

Mother! Mother! Wondrous name!
No other word is just the same.
No other ever won such fame,
And nothing sets the soul aflame
As does the name—that blessed name—
The name of sainted—Mother.

The name that echo's back her prayer,
The very words she used, and where
She knelt, and plead, and wept, and there
Found grace to live, and help to bear
The load of life. She had her share.
No one e'er prayed like Mother.

My Mother's love! And, oh, what love!
Un-wea-ry-ing, born from above,
That follows me where e'er I rove,
A pardon-bearing, white-winged dove,
Such was, forsooth, my Mother's love.
No one e'er loved like Mother.

My Mother's song! And what a song!
In lullaby, mid choral throng,
In sacred hymn, on Sabbath dawn,
To strengthen faith, or curb a wrong,
Enchanting, heav'nly was her song.
No one e'er sung like Mother.

My Mother's book! Of books, the book!
Its truth her compass whence she took
Her course. Through lens of which to look
Beyond. Then once for all forsook
The fashion of the world. God's book!
The well-worn book of Mother.

My Mother's life! How full of care!
Her willing hand how quick to share
The hardship of each one—to bear
The galling load. How quick to hear
The cry at night, in play, on stair,
To dash through flame, and death, and dare
To save her child. Oh, wondrous care!
Unfaltering care of Mother!

My Mother's death! Her last farewell!
No human tongue can ever tell
Of rising tides that surge and swell,
Which, summoned from the soul's deep well,
Can never pass from mem'ry's spell,
Of that good-bye—her last farewell.
There is no death like Mother's.

My Mother's home! Her heav'nly rest!
Mansion prepared for all the blest,
Where never come the care-oppressed.
Her ministry, henceforth, expressed
In terms of heaven's own bequest—
Redemption's legacy—the best.
God give us rest with Mother.
