Mrs. A. H. Burrell.

About the year 1700, there came from Scotland a man named Thompson, I Generation, who located in Pennsylvania. His wife, it is thought, was of Irish descent. Although they had a goodly number of sons and daughters, but one son lived to have a family. This man's name was Archibald Thompson, II Generation, and by occupation was a blacksmith. His wife was a German woman. Her name was not positively known, but probably Lighthiser. Here again the family name was preserved by one son only, and his name was John Lighthiser Thompson, III Generation. His wife's name was Nancy Stoffer, born 1778. He was born 1774
