TIPTON FAMILY

These notes represent an effort to arrange the various conflicting data on this famous family in a manner that will reconcile, as nearly as possible, the various lines, so as to aid future searchers.

No attempt has been made to bring the various lines down to the present time for the reason that they are too numerous and too widely scattered.

It seems obvious that there have been incorrect listings in every compilation of this family, and there are doubtless some in this one. However, we have set out deductions as such, so that there need be no doubt.

We have set out as the probable emigrant ancestor, Edward Tipton, although there has been found no tangible proof to support this. Moreover, it seems clearly apparent that if Jonathan Tipton was 118 years old when he died in 1757, there, obviously, was one or more intervening generations before we reach the Jonathan referred to as the father of Colonel John Tipton, reported as born in 1730.

It appears there was a Jonathan, Jr., as well as a John in Baltimore County in 1725, and that a Jonathan was in Ann Arundel County records in 1700.

While it has been claimed by some that the Tipton Family is of Irish origin, the origin of the name strongly supports the belief of others that the name was in England before it was in Ireland.

In England there is a Tipton Parish in an Urban District of South Staffordshire. It is an ancient church, and its parish registers go back to an early period.

The name Tipton appears in the DOMESDAY BOOK as TIBINTONE. Its meaning was "The tun or town of TIB'S or TIBRA'S people". It has been suggested, on very good authority, that the name had its origin from the Seventh Century St. TYBRA, patroness of hunting.

As early as 1606, there were Tiptons in Bedford County, England.

"The New Harlem Register", by H. P. TOLER, giving the genealogies of 23 original patentees of New Harlem, (N. Y.), includes in the list of names a Jonathan Tipton, born 1790. He married Mary Waldron, August 6, 1815, and had six children. No details are given as to location, etc.

The line from the Immigrant to Maryland is set out as follows:

-1-

(1) EDWARD TIPTON, born B 1620; died _____.

An Edward Tipton came into Maryland in 1668 in the ship "Friendship" of London. (See Annapolis Land Office Records, Libra 11, Folio 379, and W. C. 2, Folio 123, for Service 1680.) Apparently, as shown in the record of his son, #2, Jonathan, he settled first in Jamaica where Jonathan was born.

It would appear that Edward Tipton or Typton may have left Maryland to settle temporarily in Virginia. In Northumberland County, Virginia, Edward Typton married Margaret Downing, widow of Captain William Downing, circa 1683.

February 19, 1684, Edward Typton was ordered to pay bills drawn on Mr. Edward Jones of Bristol, England, and November 19, 1684, there is record of a suit filed by Samuel Typton, merchant, in Bristol, England, against James Jones. From this it appears that Edward Typton may have been a Bristol Typton.

Contemporary with Edward Typton, and in the same county, was Joseph Typton, probably his son. (See his record under (2) Joseph Tipton.) From this it would seem that Edward had first married an Elizabeth, and later married Margaret Downing. (See William and Mary Quarterly, First Series, Volume 24, Page 89, and Volume 25, Pages 46 and 47.)

We treat him as the probable head of this illustrious line.

He married I. Elizabeth _____.
II. Margaret Downing.

They had:

- * 2. JONATHAN TIPTON, born C 1639; died January 21, 1757.
- * 3. Joseph Tipton, born C 1650; died _____.

Nos. 4 to 9 reserved.

-2-

(2) JONATHAN TIPTON, born C 1639; died January 21, 1757.

He married _____.

It is probable that his wife's name was Smith as he is mentioned in the will of John Smith of Calvert County, Maryland, May 31, 1737, as having certain personal property at Smith's home. On the other hand, it is believed by others that he married Sarah Pearce or Pierce. This compiler believes

-2- (Cont'd.)

Sarah Pierce married # 11 Jonathan as he is referred to as Jonathan Tipton, Jr., which would be an improper designation for this No. 2, Jonathan Tipton.

He witnessed the will of Robert Goldsborough in Ann Arundel County, Maryland, November 23, 1700. In the will of Henry Attwood in Ann Arundel County, Maryland, February 20, 1729, mention is made of 100 acres of land purchased from Jonathan Tipton.

His death is reported at Page 869, "History of Baltimore City and County." Volume 13, page 15, Maryland Historical Society quotes his obituary in the Maryland Gazette of January 27, 1757. This showed he was born in Jamaica.

He is believed to have had the following:

- * 10. JOHN TIPTON, born _____; died _____.

Nos. 14 to 19 reserved.

-3-

- (3) JOSEPH TIPTON, born C 1650; died A 1717.

Joseph Tipton or Typton appears in Northumberland County, Virginia, in 1716, when he witnessed the will of John Downing, probably his step-brother. July 17, 1717, in the same county, he is in a suit which mentions a deed of gift from his mother, "Elizabeth", to him. (See William and Mary Quarterly, First Series, Volume 24, Page 89, and Volume 25, Pages 46 and 47.)

He married _____.

They had:

Nos. 20 to 24 reserved.

-10-

- (10) JOHN TIPTON, born _____; died _____. Little is known of this probable son. He appeared as a witness to the will of Richard Kemp in Baltimore County, Maryland, November 26, 1725, with his brother,

- 10 - (Cont'd)

Jonathan. In that will Mary Kemp was given to the care of Mary Tipton until she attained her majority.

We deduce that he probably married Mary Kemp, sister of Richard Kemp. She may have been the Mary Tipton whose death was reported December 6, 1736, in the Register of St. Paul's Church in Baltimore.

They had:

Nos. 25 to 29 reserved.

- 11 -

(11) JONATHAN TIPTON, born March 25, 1699; died _____.

He was referred to as Jonathan Tipton, Jr., when he witnessed the will of Richard Kemp in Baltimore County, Maryland, November 26, 1725, with his brother (10) John Tipton.

He is reported as having married twice, as follows:

- I. Elizabeth or Sarah Pierce, circa 1705.
- II. Mary Chilcote, after 1734.

The name of his first wife is deduced from the reference in the will of William Pierce in Ann Arundel County, Maryland, September 12, 1719, and from the Annapolis, Maryland, Land Office Records. (Libra A, Folio 425.)

He had the following children, number 34 being from his second marriage.

Later this man is in Baltimore County where his records appear in St. Paul's Parish Records.

He had:

- 40. MARY TIPTON, born February 18, 1717; died _____;
wed JOHN STEVENSON, 11/13/1735
- * 41. WILLIAM TIPTON, born February 27, 1719; died February 14, 1797.

He married Hannah Pierce C 1719.

He appears of record in Ann Arundel County, Maryland, 9/12/1719, as a witness to the will of William Pearce (Pierce) with his brother, Thomas. They are referred to in that will as nephews.

He made his will April 5, 1726, and it was proved in Baltimore County, Maryland, August 2, 1726.

He seems to have had only the three children named in his will, all very young at the time of his death.

He had:

(30) JOHN TIPTON, born August 15, 1730; died August, 1813 or 1815.

He was born in Baltimore County, Maryland, where his birth is recorded in the old St. Paul's Church Register. He died in Tennessee and is buried on Sinking Creek in Washington County, Tennessee. He was the famous Colonel John Tipton, whose fame is outstanding even in his great family of fighters.

He moved to Frederick County, Virginia, while a young man. Later when Dummore was formed he was located in the new county. He continued there when Dummore was renamed Shenandoah County.

Merely as a matter of information, we list a few of his early records as follows:

3/3/1756 and 3/6/1756 -- In suit in Frederick County, Virginia.
(Order Book 7, Page 21.)

6/3/1756 -- In suit in Frederick County, Virginia, vs. Jacob Wetmore.

11/1/1757 -- He obtained lease, and 11/2/1757, for land from the Northern Neck Proprietors, Frederick County, Virginia.

After 1780 -- He, with William Plumber, divided 142 acres of land in Shenandoah County, Virginia, which his wife had heired under the will of her father.

3/6/1771 -- He was a Vestryman in the Tinkling Springs Church.

4/17/1772 -- He was a Justice in Dummore County, Virginia.

1774 -- He served in Gen. Lewis' Division in the Dummore War.

- 30 - (Cont'd.)

He married twice as follows:

- I. Mary Butler, circa 1750. She was the daughter of Thomas Butler, and died June 8, 1776, following the birth of (63) Jonathan Tipton.
- II. Martha Moore, nee Denton, a widow, July 22, 1777.

From Virginia he moved into North Carolina, and his location fell within the later state of Tennessee. His activities in connection with the formation of the new state have no place in this compilation.

He served in the Revolutionary War, and in various Indian engagements before and after it.

He had the following children, number 64 by his second marriage. (Note two children named Abraham; the second was born after the first child had been killed in action in 1781.)

He had:

We have no further record of his activities or death. However, we list him for possible later records.

He married: _____.

- 31 - (Cont'd.)

They had:

Nos. 70 to 79 reserved.

- 32 -

(32) JONATHAN TIPTON, born October 23, 1732; died _____.

This man has been claimed by some compilers as the Major Jonathan Tipton who fought at Kings Mountain. However, it is to be noted that this man was born about 16 years before the Major Jonathan.

He probably was the Jonathan Tipton, mentioned as a Constable in Frederick County, Virginia, August 7, 1771. (Order Book 15, Page 247.)

Jonathan Tipton was defendant in a suit in Frederick County, Virginia, March 6, 1756. (Order Book 7, Page 38.)

It may have been this Jonathan Tipton who deeded land on Cedar Creek, Dumore County (now Shenandoah County, Virginia), December 24, 1774. The land was deeded to Lawrence Snapp, Jr., and Jonathan's wife signed as Elizabeth. Both signed by mark.

(35) JOSEPH TIPTON, born _____; died B 1842.

We follow the deductions of the Tennessee Historical Society in classing this man as a brother of (30) Colonel John Tipton, but we have no dates of birth or death.

He is reported as having gone to the Wautauga District of North Carolina with his brother, Jonathan, about 1775, and he was a member of the Jonesboro Convention there in 1784-1785. With his brother, John, he opposed the creation of a separate state. They lost and the state of Tennessee was the later result of that movement.

He also was a member of the Committee to Ratify the Constitution of the state of Franklin, which preceded Tennessee..

A Joseph Tipton was in a suit in Frederick County, Virginia, August, 1790. (Order Book 22, Page 366)

He died in Warren County, Tennessee.

He married Elizabeth _____. (A Joseph Tipton married Catherine Delshaver, June 22, 1797, in Shenandoah County, Virginia.)

They had:

Nos. 101 to 109 reserved.

- 41 -

(41) WILLIAM TIPTON, born February 27, 1719; died February 14, 1797.

We deduce he was the man who married Tabitha Wright in Baltimore County, Maryland, November 27, 1736. We list as probably his children the ones shown below, but without definite information. He reputedly married a second time to Angelica Cole. She was born March 19, 1720; died August 2, 1796.

- 44 -

(44) JOHN TIPTON, born July 6, 1726; died _____, 1825.

He married Mary (or Martha) Murray, February 18, 1747, in Baltimore County, Maryland. Here is another man whose record is difficult to separate from that of (30) Colonel John Tipton. His wife was born November 26, 1726, daughter of Jabez Murray and Mary, granddaughter of James Murray (Murray) and Jennie Morgan.

This compilation is largely deduction from such meager records as are obtainable. He or (30) John may have been the John Tipton in Shenandoah County, Virginia, tax records in 1783, with ten whites.

The Compiler believes this man was the progenitor of some of the Tipton lines which settled in Estill, and Montgomery Counties, Kentucky. We so record him, and will be glad to make such corrections as may be justified.

He was in the Montgomery County, Kentucky, tax lists from 1818 to 1833 with 100 acres of land, and had previously been in the Madison County, Kentucky, tax lists from 1797 to 1807.

He had:

He is believed to have been the one who married Mary Randall in Baltimore County, Maryland, November 2, 1793, as shown in St. Paul's Parish Register.

He may have been the Solomon Tipton reported as a Revolutionary War Soldier buried in the Baptist Cemetery, Perry Township, Coshocton County, Ohio. (D. A. R. Records.)

He was in the Shenandoah County, Virginia, tax list of 1782 and 1783, with two whites, but was not in the 1785 list. This indicates he moved to what is not Tennessee about 1784. He is buried in Green Hill Cemetery, Carter County, Tennessee, Elizabethton.

(It appears this man obtained 4,000 acres of land as the heir-at-law of Abraham Tipton. (Warrant 4458.)

(57) ABRAHAM TIPTON, born _____, 1761; died September 2, 1782.

His father named another son from his second marriage in honor of this dead hero.

A niece, Mrs. Isaac Dunlap, made application for a pension, as his heir, in Tazewell County, Illinois, August 14, 1847. It was rejected.

The papers with the pension refer to his brothers in Tennessee and elsewhere. They also include a certificate showing he was commissioned November 8, 1779, and killed September 2, 1781. (Note the difference of one year) (Pension Application R-18512)

The papers also refer to an unsuccessful attempt made by an alleged illegitimate son to obtain a pension as the heir of this man.

He got 150 acres in Shenandoah County, Virginia, December 9, 1778. (Patent Book R, Page 51.)

In the official records of the United States Army his records show as follows:

(58) WILLIAM TIPTON, born February 15, 1761; died A 1842.

He was born in Shenandoah County, Virginia, and died in Tennessee.
It is claimed that he lived to be 104 years old.

He enlisted in Shenandoah County, Virginia, in the spring of 1778 under Captain Walls, Colonel Richard Parker, in what was known as the 1st Virginia Regiment. Captain Alexander Parker later took over his company.

He was wounded at Savannah.

His discharge was sent to Richmond in 1782.

He applied for a pension in Knox County, Tennessee, July 9, 1834,
(S 295). The application recited that he moved to Green County, Tennessee, about 1784, then to Knox County, Tennessee, about 1787 or 1788 and finally to Blount County, Tennessee, near the Knox County line in 1815, or 1816.

He served as a Captain, enlisting March 19, 1791, in Washington District, Tennessee. In his company were:

Jonathan Tipton, enlisted June 7, 1791—probably his brother.

John Tipton, enlisted May 28, 1791—probably his brother.

William Tipton, enlisted May 26, 1791—probably his brother.

They marched to Ft. Washington near Cincinnati reaching there July 19, 1791. His company was attached to the Regular Army, but he longed for action so he joined a party of militia November 4, 1791, stating: "I came here to fight, and I will do it." He fell mortally wounded and his last words were: "My brave fellows, I am a dead man; do you fight on, and bravely do all you can for your country." (Knoxville Gazette, 12/17/1791.)

He seemed to have had a premonition of his fate for as he rode from home he turned and called his wife. He asked her in case he was killed on the expedition that she re-name their son, William, as Jacob. His wishes were complied with and this son became General Jacob Tipton in carrying on the family tradition.

(100) JONATHAN TIPTON, born Circa 1767; died September 14, 1848.

This man is tentatively identified as a son of Joseph Tipton, although the Compiler is without a shred of proof to confirm it.

This Jonathan Tipton moved to Marshall County, Alabama, where he applied for a pension for Revolutionary War Service. The application was rejected. The file is incomplete as it does not contain the application made during his life.

Four years after his death, his heirs sought to obtain a pension for his service, but they failed. He claimed to have served under Major Jonathan Tipton, but the War Department disallowed the claim due to his youth at time of the alleged service.

He married Elizabeth Porter _____.

He enlisted in Frederick County, Virginia, in 1778 and was in five tours.

- 141 - (Cont'd).

(142) JONATHAN TIPTON, born _____, 1750; died January 18, 1833.

In his application for a pension, he stated he was born in Frederick County, Virginia, in 1750. His papers show he died in Cumberland County, Kentucky, January 18, 1833, although it has been claimed by some that he died in Overton County, Tennessee. The two counties are in the same territory.

He enlisted for Revolutionary Service in Washington County, North Carolina, (now Tennessee). He applied for a pension October 29, 1832, in Overton County, Tennessee.

He was a Major in the North Carolina Service and was in the Battle of Kings Mountain. He lived in Washington County, for seventeen years after the war then moved to Buncombe County, North Carolina, where he remained twenty-seven years. From there he moved to Overton County, Tennessee.

Much confusion has resulted from efforts to identify this man. Many compilers have claimed he was a brother of (30) Colonel John Tipton.

- 142 - (Cont'd)

This cannot be for (32) Jonathan Tipton, brother of (30) John Tipton, was born October 23, 1734, 16 years too early for this man.

After his death, his widow claimed his pension and received it. She gave her name as Lavina or Leviney Stephens, and stated they were married in Buncombe County, North Carolina, in April or May, 1810, 1811, or 1813. In 1853 a man, Esau Tipton, 54, testified as to the marriage. So, too, did Wm. Stevens. She stated Jonathan Tipton had been married previously, but that she had not. March 6, 1861, she was in Reynolds County, Missouri. She refers to her "son, William Stevens". He was then 50 years old.

In the file is a letter from Irvine, Estill County, Kentucky, dated September 2, 1834, from Samuel Tipton and John Tipton in which they refer to their father Jonathan Tipton, who died in Cumberland County, Kentucky, in 1833. They deny that their father had married Leviney Stephens or Stevens. They say, "This woman was not the wife of Jonathan Tipton, neither was she ever married to him", and that his "only legal heirs live in this county".

They were advised by the Pension Bureau to sue to recover the amounts paid the widow if they were correct. Leviney (Stephens) Tipton lived in Buncombe County, North Carolina, until 1826, then moved to Overton County, North Carolina. Later she lived in White County, Tennessee, and finally in 1861 she was in Reynolds County, Missouri.

The Compiler identifies this man as the father of the three Tiptons who were brought to Kentucky by their uncle, John Daughhetee. These sons were Samuel, John, and William Tipton. They were in Estill County, Kentucky, when it was formed.

He married as follows:

- I. Perlina (?) Daughhetee before 1772.
- II. Kezia Sevier, nee Robertson. (As claimed by Tennessee authorities)
- III. Levina Stevens, Circa 1813.

He had:

(171) THOMAS TIPTON, born March 1, 1748; died September 20, 1862.

If the records of the D. A. R. plus the Pension Bureau records are to be relied upon, this man lived to be over 114 years of age.

He was born near Baltimore, Maryland, and later moved to Virginia about seven miles from Mt. Vernon. He later lived in Frederick County, Virginia. He enlisted for Revolutionary War Service in June, 1776, under Captain John Galloway.

His nephew (141) William Tipton served in the same company with him, and made oath, September 17, 1855, that Thomas Tipton was then "upwards of 90".

After the war, Thomas Tipton moved to Botetourt County, Virginia. He was there December 12, 1782, when a road was surveyed from his home. He acquired 80 acres on the James River, August 28, 1779, from David Tate. This land he sold June 7, 1783, to Wm. Frazier, Thomas deeding it with his wife, Mary. (Pages 366-368-370, Annals of Southwest Virginia.)

In 1787 and continuing until 1792 he was in the Madison County, Kentucky, tax lists, but listed no land. In 1794 he was in the Clark County, Kentucky, tax list.

He later moved to Champaign County, Ohio, and applied for a pension in that county, March 9, 1838, (S-16274). One of his character witnesses stated Thomas was a Deacon in the Baptist Church. Senator John Tipton (310) of Indiana wrote recommending his pension be allowed and indicated he was a nephew of the soldier.
