THE TITUS FAMILY IN AMERICA

THREE GENERATIONS

ROBERT TITUS, the first of the name in America, was born in England in 1600, probably St. Catherine's parish, near Stansted Abbots, Hertfordshire, some thirty miles north of London. There is a probability that Robert was of the same family of Col. Silas Titus who played quite a part in the politics of his time. The father of Col. Silas was also Silas, and Silas senior had three sons, Silas, Stephen, and one other son, whom the record does not mention, but whom we suppose was Robert, who at the time was in America. Silas, Senr.,<sup>1</sup> married Constancia ____, who d. October 22, 1667. He d. Nov. 24, 1637. Their children were: Robert(?), b. 1600, removed to America in 1635; Silas, b. 1622; Stephen d. Mar. 30, 1671.

Silas Titus, Jr., m. Catherine Winstanley, daughter of James Winstanley, Esq., of Lancastershire. He entered a commoner of Christ's Church, Oxford, in 1637, and became about 1640 a member of one of the Inns of Court. In the rebellion, when parliament raised an army against the king, he obtained a captain's commission, but disapproving of the course pursued by the Independents, abandoned his colors for the royal standard, and was subsequently of eminent service to the two Charleses. Col. Silas Titus was a man of wit and the author of a very famous pamphlet called "Killing no Murder." It was published anonymously, and created a stir in political circles. King Charles rewarded him for services rendered. He d. in December, 1704, aged 82, and was interred in the chancel of the parish church of St. James, at Bushy, in Hertfordshire, where his father and other members of the family also lie buried.<sup>2</sup>

1. Robert Titus embarked from London April 3, 1635. The following is the entry in the passenger list, preserved in the Public Record Office, London. "Theis under written names are to be transported to New England, imbarqued in ye Hopewell, Mr. Wm. Bundick. The p'ries have brought certificate from the Minister and justices of Peace that they are no Subsedy men, they have taken the oath of Alleg. and Supremacy,"

They arrived at Boston in a few weeks following, and soon were granted land in the present town of Brookline, near Muddy River, adjoining Boston. Here the family remained two or three years, when they removed to the town of Weymouth, some nine miles to the southeast. Their land is described in the records of the town of Weymouth, and was located in the present village of North Weymouth, and is not far from the unfortunate settlement which Capt. Weston made in Sept., 1622. In the spring of 1644 Robert, in company with some forty families, removed with the minister of the Weymouth parish, Rev. Samuel Newman to the town of Rehoboth, just east of Providence, R. I. He was one of the founders of the first parish. While a resident of Rehoboth, he was often entrusted by the freemen with offices of confidence. He was Commissioner for the Court of Plymouth from Rehoboth the years 1648-9, and 1650 and 1654. He had some trouble with the authorities because he harbored Abney Ordway and family, they being of "evil fame," which, the author supposes, means they were Quakers. He gave notice of his intention to leave the colony. He sold his property to Robert Jones, of Natasket, 23d, 3d mo., 1654, and we fix this as about the date of his migration to Long Island. According to Thompson, his sons Samuel, Abiel, and Content, were freeholders in Huntington in 1666. John, the oldest son, remained in Rehoboth, north Purchase, now Attleboro, and Edmond came to Hempstead as early as 1650. The will of Hanna Titus, widow of Robert, was made May 14, 1672. Letters of administration were granted her son Content by Governor Andros, and an inventory made of the estate which amounted to 52 pounds 13s. 6d, March 24, 1678-9. The following is a literal copy of her will, made at Huntington, L. I., where her home was.

The original is on file in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, at Albany, N. Y.:

"May 14th 1672. The last Will and testament of Hanna Titus, being in prefit memory, I bequeath my sowl to God that gave it, and my body to the earth, and for my Estate I dispose of it as followeth:—Imprimis I give to my sonn Content my house and all my land; and out of the forsaid house and Lands I give to my sonn John tenn poundes, which my son Content is to pay him. And also I give to my son John my mare, and to my son Edmond I give a horse, and to my son Samuel a browne cow, and a yearlen stear, and I give to my son Samuel's wife my warming pan, and to my son Abialle's wife my smothing yron and to my son Contente's wife my Skimar, and for what remnantes of sarg and cloth I have, my will is, that it be equally divided among all my children, and to my dafter Susana I give my sarg hoode, and for all the rest of my estate within the house and without it, I give to my son Abiall and Content to be equally divided between them two, and to this my will I set my hand in the presence of

The land at old Westbury is still in the possession of the family. Edmond Titus early became a Quaker or Friend, for which he suffered many things at the hands of the authorities.

From the records of the Quarterly Meeting we extract the following: "Edmond Titus, one that Received ye truth many years since and lived and dyed in it. In his latter days his Eyes grew dim that he could not see and thick of hearing, all which he bore very patiently. In the time of his last sickness his daughter Phebe field standing by him, he said, my Life is in Christ my God," with many more comfortable words. His Last words were these: —I have put away all filthiness and superfluity and Haughtiness. I have Received with meekness ye engrafted word that is Able to save the soul and soon departed this life in a quiet frame of Spirit sensible to the last ye 7 d. 2d mo., 1715 aged near 85 years." [N. Y. GENEALOGICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD, 1876, p.

42.] "His wife survived him twelve years and died the 17th of 2d mo, 1727 in ye ninetieth year of her age. Some years before her death she was helpless and kept her bed. Her natural faculties became much impaired; yet she retained a lively sense of the divine goodness, and many times near her door, feeling the fresh springs of the Divine life to well up in her soul, she would exhort her children and others to wait upon God, that they might thereby be made sensible of the workings of Truth in their hearts which was the way through obedience thereunto to find peace with God."
