FOREWORD

The Treadways in America have descended from an honorable family of England. Several of the family have been knighted and many have held positions of honor and responsibility in that country. The coat of arms is described in Burke's General Armory of England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, as follows: Argent a chevron azure between three trefoils slipped vert. Crest—A dexter hand couped below the wrist in armor holding a sword, on the point a Turk's head couped at the neck all proper.

Tradition says that John, a descendant of this family, and his son Crispin, left Rutlandshire and started for America about the year 1700. John died on the voyage and was buried at sea. Crispin came on, landed in Bush River and settled at its head in what is now Harford County, Maryland. Crispin married and had a son Thomas, who, in turn, married and had the following children: Daniel, Mary, John, William, Aaron and Moses.

Daniel of this family married Sarah Norris. To them were born eleven children, namely: Thomas, Daniel, Edward, Hannah, Susan, Elizabeth, Sarah, Nancy, Mary, Crispin and John Norris.

Thomas, the eldest of Daniel's children, married Christina Saunders, settled in Harford County, Maryland, and raised a family of ten children. Their names were: Daniel, Sarah, Charity, Elizabeth, Thomas, Edward (whose descendants are delineated in this booklet), Mary, Aquila, Nancy and John Norris. Edward and John Norris emigrated from Maryland to Hamilton County, Ohio, and from there to Cass County, Illinois, where both raised families and died. Thomas, the father, after the death of Christina, his wife, followed them to Hamilton County, Ohio, where he died in 1819.

In the History of the Tredway Family, which was published last autumn by William Thomas Tredway, 1112 Park Building, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in Chapter XVI of which will be found the larger part of the data contained in this booklet, the author traces the ancestry of our branch of the family back through the English line to the time of Queen Elizabeth. Being devoted mainly to the various branches of the family in America, many of which are traced from the time of the earliest settlers down to the present day, this splendid volume presents a wealth of material of special interest to all who bear the Treadway name or are of Treadway blood.

It has been a great pleasure to collect the data contained in the following pages. So much interest has been shown that the compiler has decided to have it printed in order that each member of our branch of the family may have a copy. If this little booklet helps, in some measure, to make us feel a little more akin to each other and to learn to know each other a little better, the compiler will feel that he has been well repaid for the time and effort spent in compiling it.
