THE URANN FAMILY OF NEW ENGLAND*

1. WILLIAM<sup>1</sup> URIN, sometimes spelled Uran, Urann, Uren, Yuran, Youring and Yourin, was probably the ancestor of all bearing the name in New England. It has not been learned where he came from, but he was at the Isles of Shoals as early as 1653, for on 12 Sept. of that year he was granted a lot of land there, "between goodman Jacksone and William Cotton with convenient la[nding?]." At various times later he was given grants of land. He was one of the petitioners "that a Court might be held at the Isles of Shoals," also "that the inhabitants might be granted the privileges of a town." Like most of the inhabitants of the islands he was a fisherman. He died at the Isles of Shoals, and the inventory of his estate, filed 11 July 1664, amounted to £433. 12. 8.

His widow ELEANOR married secondly, about 1672, Richard Woolcome or Willcomb, who purchased part of the estate of William Urin, deceased, 17 July 1672. She died in 1699, and in her will, dated 19 Sept. 1699, she leaves the balance of her estate to her "five children, son-in-law John Muchemore to take care of Joseph Youring to bring him up in the faith of God and to such Larning as is convenient for one of his degrees." Richard Gooss or Goss, her kinsman, was one of the overseers of the will.

Richard Woolcome and Eleanor had two children: Zacheus, and Anne who married John Muchemore. In a petition of John Urin, son of Eleanor, to have his brother-in-law John Muchemore administer upon his mother's estate, he states that John Muchemore's wife "was his sister on his mother's side." The will of John Muchemore, dated 11 Feb. 1717-8, mentions wife Anne and children John, Richard, Joseph, William, Sarah, Abigail Priest, and Rachel Downs. William Wilkins or Willcomb of Ipswich, grandson of Richard Woolcome of Star Island, was appointed administrator of the estate 11 Aug. 1719.

* A tradition exists in several branches of the family that the name is of French origin. However this may be it appears in England at an early date. Bardsley in his work on English Surnames, writes that, "Urian, Urion, Uren, Urin, Uran.—Bapt. 'The son of Urian.' Both the masculine Uranius and the feminine Urania were in use as personal names. On a Welsh Variant Urien. A surname founded on this name seems to have crept into Staffordshire and Cheshire, and thence into Lancashire.

1635. John d. Finlye Eurin.

Richard Stephen Charnock in his Ludus Patronymicus, says, "Urine. The same as the Cornish name Euren, from Cornish voren, strange, or a corruption of Uren, from the ancient personal name Urwyn, for Irvine, from Irvine, a parish of Scotland, co. Ayr (formerly written Irwyn and Irwine), on the river Irvine. Urann, Urin are found as United States names."

Children :

2. i. JOHN.<sup>2</sup>
3. ii. EDWARD.
4. iii. FRANCIS.

2. JOHN<sup>2</sup> URIN (William<sup>1</sup>) was a cordwainer or tanner, and resided at Greenland, N. H. He was at Portsmouth, N. H., in 1689, when he signed a petition (Mass. Archives, vol. 35, p. 229). On 16 Mar. 1695-6 he received land in Portsmouth (eight acres) in confirmation of a grant given his father, William Urin, in 1653. In 1694 his name appears as on the jury list, and he held various minor offices in the town of Portsmouth from 1700 to 1709. His seat in the meeting-house was in the men's side gallery. He was received into covenant in the South Church of Portsmouth 9 Jan. 1715, and his children were baptized there the following September. He was one of the grantees of the town of Epsom, N. H., and his grandchildren sold their interest in his estate there in 1771.

He had two wives ; his first one, ABIGAIL, was probably daughter of John Westbrook of Portsmouth, who sold his son-in-law, John Urin of Portsmouth, land there 21 Mar. 1692. (N. H. Deeds, vol. 6, p. 254). He married secondly, 12 Nov. 1686, REBECCA CATE, daughter of James and Alice. John Urin, husband to Rebecca Cate, released his right and title to the estate of her father and mother, James and Alice Cate, 8 June 1702. John Urin died about 1734, and his widow died at Greenland Nov. or Dec. 1745.

Children, born at Portsmouth :

5. i. RICHARD,<sup>3</sup> b. abt. 1686.
6. ii. JAMES, bapt. 25 Sept. 1715.
7. iii. WILLIAM, bapt. 25 Sept. 1715; with his sisters sold his interest in his father's estate to James Brackett by deeds of 2 May 1734 and 13 Dec. 1735. His name does not appear on the tax lists of Greenland, N. H. He was probably that William Urin who was a private in the Snow Shoe Company, Capt. Domini Jordan, of Falmouth, Me., 14 Apr. 1744.
7. iv. JOSEPH, bapt. 25 Sept. 1715.
- v. ELEANOR, bapt. 25 Sept. 1715; was admitted to the church at Greenland in 1716; m. (1) DIAMOND CURRIER, son of Richard and Elizabeth (Diamond) of the Isles of Shoals, and the inventory of whose estate was filed 8 Aug. 1732; m. (2) ABRAHAM CROCKETT of the Isles of Shoals, who with wife Eleanor sold his interest in the estate of John Urin, deceased, 8 Aug. 1737.

- vi. MARY, bapt. 25 Sept. 1715; m. ——— FROST. On 13 Dec. 1735 she and her brother William, both of Greenland, N. H., and she at that time being a widow, sold their interest in the estate of their father.
- vii. JOHN, bapt. 25 Sept. 1715: probably d. young, as he is not mentioned in any of the family deeds.

3. EDWARD<sup>2</sup> URIN (William<sup>1</sup>) had wife JANE. He purchased, 4 Mar. 1667-8, of the administrators of William Urin's estate, one-half of a dwelling house, fish house, boats, etc., at Star Island. On 6 Nov. 1668, with his wife, he conveyed the same premises to James Blagdon of the Isles of Shoals. He was taxed in Boston, Mass., as early as 1674, and the same year purchased of Daniel Henschman land at the north end of the town, "bounded southwesterly with the street leading to the north buryall place." On 2 June 1675 he sold the last mentioned estate to Christopher Saise of Charlestown, Mass.

He was part owner of the shallop Phillip, of which George Manning was skipper. Unfortunately his vessel was one of the several captured by Capt. Samuel Moseley in his expedition of 1674 against the pirates, who were brought into the port of Boston 2 Apr. 1675. Urin's vessel was returned to him, it being shown from his testimony (Mass. Archives) that he had taken no part in piracy, and he was discharged. Five of the pirates were convicted and condemned to death, others were acquitted, while some were pardoned to serve against the Indians.

Administration on his estate was granted to his widow 31 Oct. 1676.

Children, born at Boston:

- i. EDWARD,<sup>3</sup> b. 2 June 1669.
  - ii. MATTHEW, b. 16 Nov. 1672.
  - iii. BENJAMIN, b. 25 May 1676.
4. FRANCIS<sup>2</sup> URIN (William<sup>1</sup>) was at Ipswich, Mass., as early as 1681, and had wife ALICE, of whom no record has as yet been found. While there is no direct evidence that he was the son of William of the Isles of Shoals, still the names and dates of birth of his children, and his occupation of fisherman, should allow him a place in that family.

He died at Ipswich about 1713, and administration on his estate was granted to his eldest son, William, 9 Apr. 1713.

Children, born at Ipswich:

8. i. WILLIAM,<sup>3</sup> b. 5 Aug. 1681.
- ii. FRANCIS, b. 16 Aug. 1685; probably d. young.
- iii. JOHN, b. 29 Sept. 1687; probably d. young.
9. iv. JOSEPH, b. 23 Feb. 1691-2.
10. v. PETER, b. 15 May 1694.

5. RICHARD<sup>3</sup> URIN (John,<sup>2</sup> William<sup>1</sup>). The earliest record found of him is his marriage at Haverhill, Mass. He was one of the first settlers of Penacook (Concord), N. H., and was admitted 5 Feb. 1725. The records show that he spent the winter of 1726 at Concord. In the division of land he drew lots Nos. 6, 8, and 42. He sold a portion of these lots to John Wainwright of Ipswich, Mass., 7 Apr. 1731. He was at Concord as late as 1742, when he married his second wife, who was of Newbury, Mass., and it may have been this fact that induced him to return to Newbury. With Sarah Urin, who in the deed is called a spinster, both being of Newbury, he sold land and buildings in Ipswich 11 Apr. 1752 (Essex Deeds, vol. 119, p. 39).

He married first at Haverhill, Mass., 17 Oct. 1717, MEHITABLE CORLISS, daughter of John and Mary (Milford), born there 15 May 1698; and secondly at Newbury, Mass., 22 Nov. 1742, SARAH FLOOD. He died at Newbury 13 Jan. 1776, aged 90 years. His children were baptized at Ipswich.

Children, born at Ipswich :

- ii. i. JOHN,<sup>4</sup> bapt. 10 Aug. 1718.
- ii. MEHITABLE, bapt. 6 Aug. 1721; m. EDWARD FITZGERALD, b. in Ireland; resided at Boscawen, N. H. Children: 1. Jane, b. 1742. 2. Mary. 3. Sarah. 4. James. 5. Rebecca. 6. Edward. 7. Susannah. 8. Dorcas. 9. Rachel. 10. John. 11. Martha.
- iii. MARY, bapt. 26 May 1723; d. at Bradford, Mass., 25 Nov. 1827, aged 102 years; m. at Newbury, Mass., 15 Aug. 1751, SAMUEL ATWOOD, son of John, bapt. at Bradford 30 Apr. 1727. Children, b. at Bradford: 1. Jane, bapt. 12 July 1761; m. at Bradford, 30 Aug. 1788, Joseph Holden of Reading, Mass. 2. Appty, bapt. 2 Oct. 1763. 3. Tamar, bapt. 9 Mar. 1766; m. at Bradford, Oct. 1789, Joseph Moores of Haverhill. 4. Ebenezer, bapt. 13 Dec. 1771; d. young. 5. Ebenezer, bapt. 13 Jan. 1773. 6. Susannah, bapt. 23 May 1776.
- iv. SARAH, bapt. 27 Feb. 1725.
- v. JAMES. Neither the date of his birth or baptism has been found. It was probably this James who signed a petition to the Mason proprietors for a charter of Sutton, N. H. In the division of the land of that township he drew lot No. 78 in the first division, and lot No. 50 in the second division. The record states that he was from Haverhill, Mass. He probably never married. Administration on his estate was granted to his father, Richard Uran of Dasyfield [? Derryfield], N. H., 23 Apr. 1753.
- vi. JONATHAN.*

*The identity of this Jonathan is not fully established, but circumstances seem to indicate that he belonged to this family. He served, at various times during the French and Indian War, from 13 July 1756 to 20 Nov. 1758, as private from Haverhill, Mass. He m. in 1755, ABIGAIL HODGKINS, b. at Ipswich, Mass., 21 Sept. 1736, d. at Wirt, N. Y., 26 Feb. 1842, aged 105 years. They had 10 children, among whom were

6. JAMES<sup>8</sup> URIN (John,<sup>2</sup> William<sup>1</sup>) was baptized at Portsmouth, N. H., 25 Sept. 1715. He was a cordwainer or tanner, and resided in that part of the town which was set off as Greenland. On 9 Apr. 1734 he sold all his interest and title in the estate of his father, John Urin, to Joshua Brackett. He was taxed at Greenland from 1743 to 1761. The latter date may indicate the time of his death. The first volume of the Greenland records was burnt.

He had two wives: the first REBECCA; the second HANNAH, whom he married previous to 1726, when she was admitted to the Church at Greenland.

Children, born at Greenland, N. H.:

- i. JENEY or JEAN,<sup>4</sup> bapt. in 1726; m. at Kingston, N. H., 8 Jan. 1749-50, OLIVER SMITH.

- vi. PAUL, resided at Greenland, N. H., and was taxed there from 1763 to 1778. This would indicate that he was born about 1742. In 1771, with his brothers and sisters, he sold his interest in the estate of his father and grandfather, which consisted of land at Epsom, N. H., to his cousin George Urin. On 22 Oct. 1779, with wife HANNAH, he sold land and buildings at Greenland. His business was that of tailor. In the census of 1790 he was located at Newmarket, N. He was taxed in the Greenland district of Portsmouth as early as 1717, which would give the year of his birth about 1696. His name appears on the tax lists, with a few exceptions, until 1760, which may have been the year of his death. He was a member of Capt. Joseph Week's company of Greenland, and his name was sent in as a delinquent 15 Oct. 1722. He signed an agreement, dated 13 Apr. 1734, with his mother, brother, and sisters, for the division of his father's estate, which was situated on the Great Bay in Greenland. With his wife Rebecca he sold land in Greenland 29 Sept. 1735, "being part of my mother Rebecca Urin's thirds in the estate of my father John Urin, deceased." He sold Enoch Clark of Greenland land in Epsom, N. H., 4 Apr. 1735.

He had two wives: the first one SARAH, who was admitted to the Church at Greenland in 1723; the second one REBECCA, whom he married previous to 1735. The names of his children have been obtained from the church records and the several deeds.

8. WILLIAM<sup>8</sup> URIN (Francis,<sup>2</sup> William<sup>1</sup>) was born at Ipswich, Mass., 5 Aug. 1681. He was a fisherman and resided at Ipswich, where he had permission to build a wharf in 1730. It is not known how he came into possession of the land that he sold by the following deed, though it may have been his father's interest in the estate of William<sup>1</sup>: William Urin of Ipswich, fisherman, sold Benjamin Damrill of the Isles of Shoals "a single dwelling house and a garden spot, situated and being upon Star Island in ye Isle of Shoals, bounded N.W. by Deacon Muchamore, N.E. by land formerly belonging to Mr. Fabins, S.E. by land of Dymond's garden and S.W. by the sea", dated 25 Feb. 1745-6.

On 17 Dec. 1755 he sold land and one-half a house formerly set off to Martha Uran by the Court of Probate as part of her father Smith's estate. The will of Thomas Smith of Ipswich, innholder, dated 22 Nov. 1725, mentions wife Martha, sons Thomas, John, and Ebenezer, and daughters Martha Urin, Mary Hodgkins, and Abigail Gleason.

He married first (intention recorded at Ipswich 29 Dec. 1706) MARTHA SMITH, daughter of Thomas and Martha (Kempton), who died at Ipswich Dec. 1748; and secondly at Ipswich, 27 Mar. 1749, widow RUTH WELLS, born in 1699, died at Ipswich 19 May 1789, aged 90 years. He died there 15 Jan. 1758.

9. JOSEPH<sup>8</sup> URANN (Francis,<sup>2</sup> William<sup>1</sup>) was born at Ipswich, Mass., 23 Feb. 1691-2. He was the first one of the family to spell the name Urann, a form which has been adopted by many of the family at the present time. On 10 Aug. 1729, he purchased land on May (now Revere) Street, Boston, which was sold 12 Jan. 1796 by his heirs. He was a shipbuilder, and resided in Milk Street, Boston. In the fire of 1760 his loss was placed at £73. On 3 June 1761 he purchased of Nathaniel Breed for £42 a lot of land in Milk Street, on what was afterwards known as Theatre Alley, and now Devonshire Street. This lot stands but a few feet south from the present line of Milk Street, and is occupied by the Equitable Building. On 23 Oct. 1734 he was appointed a member of the Boston fire department, and for a number of years served as captain.

He married first at Boston, 31 May 1714, SARAH STACEY of Ipswich, born Feb. 1689, died at Boston 6 Sept. He resided at Rowley, Mass., but attended church at Byfield, where his children were baptized. With his family he removed to Boscawen, N. H., where they were warned out of town 5 Feb. 1763. He signed the Association Test in 1776. In the census of 1790 the family consisted of himself and two females. On 6 Dec. 1796 he sold to James Urann of Boscawen several lots of land in Boscawen.

He married first at Newbury, Mass., 24 Nov. 1746, SARAH DUTY, daughter of Samuel and Ruth (Tenney), baptized 11 Feb. 1721, died at Newbury 1 July 1759; and secondly at Newbury, 12 June 1760, ABIGAIL LAYTON.

12. JOHN<sup>4</sup> URIN (James,<sup>3</sup> John,<sup>2</sup> William<sup>1</sup>) was baptized at Greenland, N. H., in 1728; but his name does not appear on the tax lists there. He settled at Phillipstown (now Sanford, Me.) as early as 1750, where he purchased land of John Dow by deed of 23 May 1750, in which he is spoken of as of Phillipstown, late of Greenland, N. H. His business was that of tanner and cordwainer. His house was built in 1753, as by the deed given for lot No. 9. He sold his estate at Phillipstown in 1758, and enlisted 31 Mar. 1759 for the French and Indian War, serving until 23 Oct. 1761 as a member of Capt. David Bean's company, under Brig.-Gen. Jedediah Preble, and was stationed at Fort Pownal, Me.

In 1762 David Bean and others petitioned for a grant of land for services during the late war. A township of six miles square was given them, which was afterwards known as Sullivan, Me. John Urin does not appear to have been one of the grantees of the town, but he must have settled there previous to 1774, as a deed given 24 May of that year by John Urin to Samuel Bean and others mentions the land as situated at Urin's Point.

He married at Berwick, Me., 1 June 1752, PHEBE DAVIS. He had two wives, but neither the date of marriage nor the name of his second wife has as yet been found. As late as 1798 his son John was called junior, which would indicate that he was living at that time.

  21. iii. PAUL, b. abt. 1778.

He was taxed there from 1743 to 1761, but in 1758 had the rates abated for the last year. The "History of Sanford, Me.," states that he came there from Greenland in 1752, and was a cordwainer and tanner. John Thompson, by deed dated 1 July 1755, sold James Urin one-half of lot No. 40 at Phillipstown in consideration of James Urin having conveyed to him one-half of lot No. 17, being the same lot that James Urin purchased of his brother John Urin 26 May 1752. On 5 June 1758, he gave a deed of land at Phillipstown, living at that time at Berwick, Me. He served as private in the French and Indian War, from 6 Mar. to 13 Nov. 1760, in Capt. John Wentworth's company.

He married, previous to 1756, ANNA THOMPSON, daughter of John and Priscilla (Davis), born at York, Me., 7 Jan. 1731-2. He died at Berwick previous to 1770. 14. GEORGE<sup>4</sup> URIN (Joseph,<sup>3</sup> John,<sup>2</sup> William<sup>1</sup>) was born at Greenland, N. H. He was taxed there from 1758 until 1763, which would give the date of his birth about 1737. The tax lists of Greenland are missing for the eight years following 1764. He served in the French War as a private in Capt. John Pickering's company, from 10 May to 13 Oct. 1758. On 15 Oct. 1771 Sarah Urin of Greenland, widow of Joseph, sold "my son George Urin, all my right, title and interest and right of dower or thirds in land in Epsom, which belonged to his [Joseph's] father John Urin." That year he purchased the interest of the family in the same property and removed to Epsom. On 2 June 1777 he sold land and buildings at Greenland, bounded "west by road leading to Rye, north by land of Joshua Stains, east by Clement Marsh, deceased. Which piece of land was heretofore part of the estate of my father Joseph Urin and came to me (descended) upon the settlement with my sisters for their share in said estate." He signed the Association Test in 1776 at Epsom. In the census of 1790 he was at Epsom, and his family consisted of himself, wife, two sons, and three daughters. He was a shipjoiner in Batterymarch Street, near Hallowell's shipyard, and resided in Milk Street. He was prominent in town affairs and held various offices. For 29 years he was a member of the Boston fire department, and for a number of years held the position of captain. He served in the Revolutionary War as captain of a company of artificers in Col. Richard Gridley's regiment of artillery from 20 June 1775 to 31 Dec. 1779. In 1777 he was chosen one of the committee to enforce the law against monopolies, and in 1779 he was one of the committee appointed to prevent people from going out of town to buy provisions. He purchased of the heirs the estate left by his father, and on 15 Apr. 1782 and 15 Oct. 1784 bought additional land in Theatre Alley. He was most prominent in the Masonic order; was made a member of the Lodge of St. Andrew 18 Sept. 1760, and on 30 Nov. 1772 was elected Worshipful Master, but served only one year. For a number of years he was a member of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Massachusetts and took an active part in their deliberations. He was one of the grantees when the Green Dragon estate was purchased for the Lodge of St. Andrew, 20 July 1784. He was a member of the Sons of Liberty and of the Boston Tea Party, and was one of the guards on the Dartmouth when the tea was thrown overboard.

He married at Boston, 3 Apr. 1751, MARY SLOPER of Portsmouth, N. H., who was born in 1730, and died at Boston (in the house of William Andrews) 29 Nov. 1815, aged 85 years. He died at Boston 8 Oct. 1792. His will was dated 27 May 1791 and probated 29 Oct. 1792. It gives to his wife Mary during her natural life the income of the estate, which after her death goes to his children: Joseph, Thomas, John, Sarah, Margaret, Mary, Samuel, Elizabeth, and Rebecca (son Richard deceased) in equal tenth parts as tenants in common. He lived at Sullivan, Me., in that part of the town now called Sorrento, and carried on the business of tanner. On 22 Jan. 1795 he sold Paul Urann one-half of the farm which he purchased of his father John Urin, "with the privilege of brook to set Tan Vats, Bark House and other buildings, for carrying on the Tannery business." A deed given by John Urann in 1798 was witnessed by Hannah Millens. Josiah Simpson sold John Urann, Jr., 100 acres of land adjoining that of Paul Urann by deed dated 18 Apr. 1804. This is the last deed given in which he is called junior. He later built a saw-mill, and engaged extensively in the lumber business.

On 4 May 1815 Alexander Baring and others, trustees of the estate of William Bingham, late of Philadelphia, Pa., for $10.00 sold Thomas Urann 100 acres of land at Hog Bay in township No. 9, being the right of John Urann, who was a settler before 1784. Samuel Phillips, Leonard Jarvis, and John Read, Commissioners of Massachusetts, sold William Bingham one parcel of land in Hancock Co. containing 61,872 acres, deed dated 26 Jan. 1793. Perhaps it was to satisfy the claim of the Bingham heirs that a deed was given Thomas Urann by the trustees. On 14 Mar. 1828 he sold land in Franklin at Flagg Bay to his son Thomas Urann, Jr. By deed of 24 May 1837 he sold his homestead at Franklin to his son Thomas.

37. WILLIAM GAMMELL (Margaret,<sup>5</sup> Thomas,<sup>4</sup> Joseph,<sup>8</sup> Francis,<sup>2</sup> William<sup>1</sup>) was born at Boston 9 Jan. 1786.

He received his early education in the Boston schools. His parents were Unitarians and attendants at the Federal Street Church, now known as the Arlington Street Church; but when still a young man he showed an independence of character by uniting, 3 June 1804, with the First Baptist Church of Boston, then under the charge of Rev. Samuel Stillman, by whose advice he decided to enter the ministry. His theological education however was under the direction of Rev. William Williams of Wrentham, Mass. He was ordained at Bellingham, Mass., in 1809 and began his pastorate at Medfield, Mass., the following year. He was an acceptable preacher and a faithful pastor in the care of his congregation, by whom he was greatly beloved.

The years of Mr. Gammell's residence in Medfield form the period in which the benevolent societies of the denomination had their origin. In their formation he took a lively interest and rendered important aid by his executive ability. In 1817 he received the honorary degree of A.M. from Brown University, and was a trustee from 1820 to 1827.

In 1823, he was called to the Second Baptist Church in Newport, R. I. This pastorate which was growing in usefulness and power was suddenly terminated by his death, which occurred 30 May 1827. While a resident of Newport he aided largely in the establishment of free schools, until then unknown in the city. He was esteemed for his intellectual qualities and sincere piety, and was known as an earnest friend to every object connected with the extension of Christianity.

He married (intention published at Bellingham, Mass., 27 Feb. 1811), MARY SLOCUM, daughter of Simeon and Esther (Plimpton), who was born there May 1790, and died at Medfield, Mass., 11 Apr. 1820; and secondly at Medfield, 14 (another record says 12) Mar. 1822, MARIE ANTOINETTE MADÉ or MADY, daughter of Jean S. Deconblanc and Prudence (Plimpton) (Cornette), who was born at Dedham, Mass., 8 Sept. 1794, and died at Warren R. I., 17 Aug. 1844. William Gammell died at Newport, R. I., 30 May, 1827.

47. WILLIAM GAMMELL (William Gammell, Margaret,<sup>5</sup> Thomas,<sup>4</sup> Joseph,<sup>3</sup> Francis,<sup>2</sup> William<sup>1</sup>) was born at Medfield, Mass., 10 Feb. 1812. His early boyhood days were passed at Medfield. He was a close companion of his father and inherited many of his qualities and characteristics. The removal of the family to Newport in 1823, gave him an opportunity to prepare for college at the classical school there. He entered Brown University in 1827. His record in the four years' course was that of a faithful and earnest scholar, who attended for the sole purpose of getting an education, and who was determined to make the most of his privileges. In 1831 he graduated with the first honors of his class, and the following year was appointed a tutor in the University. The Catalogue of 1834 styles him "Tutor and Lecturer in the Latin Language and Literature." In 1837 he was made Professor of Rhetoric, and in the department of Belle-Lettres was associated with Professor William G. Goddard, who undoubtedly had great influence in shaping his literary culture. In 1850 he became the head of a new department in history for which he had shown peculiar fitness. As a scholar and teacher his influence and efficiency steadily increased, and as a college officer he rendered valuable service. His standards were high, his criticisms fair and just, and his patience with the students untiring. His official connection with the University continued through thirty-two years, and great regret was manifested at his retirement.

Prof. Gammell continued to reside in Providence and gave his services to causes of learning, benevolence and public usefulness. In 1859 he received the degree of Doctor of Laws from the University of Rochester, and in 1870 became one of the Board of Fellows of Brown University. He was president of the Providence Athenæum and the Rhode Island Bible Society, and also a vice-president of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, as well as a life member. In 1882 he became president of the Rhode Island Historical Society and ever manifested the liveliest interest in its proceedings and welfare. The history of the State was always a fascinating theme to him and he brought to the notice of the Society in his various addresses new and important lines of historical investigation. For a number of years he was editor of the Christian Review and a valued contributor to many secular papers and magazines. He wrote the life of Roger Williams and of Gov. Samuel

Ward, and a History of Baptist Missions. Prof. Gammell was a devoted member of the First Baptist Church from 1837 to the time of his death. His religious character was decided and deep, and he showed the greatest interest in everything which pertained to the upbuilding of the Church.

He married first at Providence, R. I., 11 Oct. 1838, ELIZABETH AMORY WHIPPLE, daughter of Hon. John and Maria (Bowen), who was born at Providence 2 Apr. 1815, and died there 25 Nov. 1839; secondly at Providence, 21 Sept. 1851, ELIZABETH AMORY IVES, daughter of Robert Hale and Harriet (Bowen), who was born at Providence 10 Apr. 1830, and died at Dover, England, 1 Apr. 1897. He died at Providence 3 Apr. 1889.

He resided at Boscawen, N. H., and afterwards at Concord, N. H. The records of Boscawen show that he enlisted 23 Mar. 1780, as private in Col. Cilley's regiment; he again enlisted 15 Feb. 1781, being at that time 18 years of age. He was probably that Jonathan Urann of Concord who served in Captain Flanders' company, 45th regiment, War of 1812. URANN FAMILY OF NEW ENGLAND.

A Genealogy of the Urann Family of New England has been compiled and will be issued shortly.

The original ancestor of the family was William Urin, who settled at the Isles of Shoals previous to 1653 and died there about 1664.

His son, John Urin, who settled at Portsmouth, N. H., in that part of the town afterwards set off as Greenland, was the ancestor of the Maine and a portion of the New Hampshire families.

Another son, Francis Urin, removed to Ipswich, Massachusetts, and was the progenitor of the Boston branch, as well as some of the New Hampshire lines.

Much valuable genealogical material has been collected which never before has been printed. In addition to the Urann records, there also is given the descendants of Margaret Urann, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Sloper), who married John Gammell at Boston, October 14, 1773.

The genealogy is arranged on the plan of the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, and has a complete index.

The pamphlet, of which a limited number has been printed, contains about sixty pages, and will be mailed to any address on receipt of seventy-five cents.

CHARLES COLLYER WHITTIER.
