

JOHN WATSON,

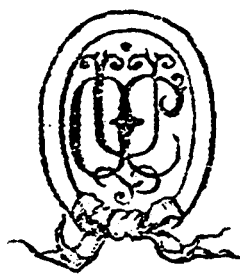

OF HARTFORD, CONN.,

AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

A GENEALOGY,

BY

THOMAS WATSON.

NEW YORK:

PRINTED FOR THE U. Q. CLUB.

1865.

PRESS OF J. M. BRADSTREET & SON.

EXPLANATION.

THE names of descendants in the male line are arranged in generations, the whole of one generation being given before any of the next ; while those in the female line, bearing other names, are given in connection with the names of the parents, and the number of the generation is noted by the small superior figure at the right of the name.

One number, of a regular series, is given to each person named Watson, for convenient reference, and if that person is named elsewhere, the same number follows his name, in brackets, thus [   ], to identify him and refer to his record, but another number following his name in parenthesis, thus (   ), refers to the record of his eldest child.

The Roman numerals before the names of the Watsons, and the Arabic figures before those of other descendants, indicate their order in their respective households.

THE following records were collected and arranged in 1859, at the request of Rev. John A. McKinstry, who wished to embody them in a History of the Town of Torrington, Conn., which he was then writing. The publication of that book having been abandoned, I have consented to the printing of the records, in their present form, in order that my labor may not be wholly lost.

I wish to thank Hon. Origen S. Seymour, of Litchfield, Conn., Mr. Chauncy Watson, of New York City, and Mr. James Watson Williams, of Utica, N. Y., for assistance received from them in collecting facts: and my special acknowledgments are due to my neighbor, Mr. D. Williams Patterson, for the use of his genealogical library, and the advice and encouragement he has given during the progress of the work.

Any additions or corrections will be gratefully received, and recorded; and, should enough be gathered to warrant it, will be printed in a supplement.

GENEALOGY OF THE WATSON FAMILY.

1. JOHN WATSON<sup>r</sup> (2) is supposed to have been a native of England. A tradition among his descendants, says, that one of the passengers on the same vessel with him was Peggy Smith, a young woman who fell overboard, and that he saved her life, and on reaching New England they were married.

We first find him in Hartford, Conn., in 1644, in which year he was a juror. In 1646, he was highway surveyor; and, as shown by Mr. W. S. Porter, he lived on lot No. 9, South Main street, in 1646. He afterwards bought land of the original proprietors in the West Division, now West Hartford.*

The exact date of his death does not appear, but the date of his will, and the date of its proof, show that it must have been between March 26 and June 4, 1650.

* Robert Watson was in Windsor, Conn., in 1639, was a bellfounder from London, in England. He married Mary Rockwell in 1646, died in 1689, and has numerous descendants in East Windsor at the present day. Thomas and John were in the Colony in 1644. Of Thomas we learn nothing further. Caleb, son of one John Watson, born in Roxbury, Mass., 1641, afterwards came to Hartford, Conn., and died there in 1725. He was a school-teacher for 25 years, and sometimes had the title of Rev. prefixed to his name. His will dated Jan. 27, 1721,—his widow Mary, executrix,—estate £320. They left no issue.

There is a vague tradition among the descendants of both Robert and John, that Robert, Thomas and John, were brothers, and Caleb a relative; but we find no positive proof of it on record. The fact that the names of John, Thomas and Caleb, have been cherished and transmitted among the posterity of Robert and John, affords good ground for conjecture, but not conclusive evidence that they were relatives.

The following copy of his will is taken from the second volume of the Records of the Particular Court, folio 26:

“ March 26th, 1650.

I John Wattson being very weake in Body but in perfect memorye doe ordaine this to bee my last will and testament in manner and forme as followeth: first my debts being discharged, my dwelling howse and all my mouable goods, I giue and bequeath vnto my wife, and the vse of my meadow and swampe, till my Sonne John come to bee of twenty yeares of Age. And my will is that shee should bring vp my children. And my will is that my Sonne John should haue my meadow and swampe at that Age aforementioned, and further it is my will that my wife should pay to my daughter Sarah five pounds when shee is eighteene yeares of Age, and to my daughter Mary also five pounds at eighteene yeares of Age. And further it is my will that my Sonne John shall pay to his mother five pounds when he comes to his lands, And it is my will also that if any of my children departe this Life before they come to the Age that is before mentioned, that then the portion of that that dyes, shall bee equally devided betweene them that are liuinge or if two should departe before they come to the before mentioned Age, then that that liues should haue the portions of both the others. If all should dye then that it should returne to my wife: And if my wife should change her estate to marry againe It is my will shee should giue security to my ouerseers for the performance of my will for my childrens portions: and my will is that in case my Children should not bee well educated or not well vfed, then my ouerfeers dispose of them so as they may be brought up in the feare of God, and my wife to Allowe what shall be thought meete for the bringing of them vp, and I doe ordaine my Beloved ffreindes John White and Gregory Willerton to bee ouerfeers of this my will

"An Inventory of all the goods and Lands of John Wattson Lately deceased," may be found recorded on folio 27 of the same volume. It was dated June 4, 1650, amounted to £126:01:06. "Prised by John White, John Bernard."

Mrs. Margaret Watson, widow of John Watson, made her will in March, 1683, and it was proved Sept. 6, 1683, and between those dates her death occurred, though the exact date does not appear.

2. I. JOHN,<sup>2</sup> (5), b. —, 1646; had two wives, the first named Anna —, the second named Sarah —: settled in West Hartford, where he d. in 1730; aged 84 years. His estate, amounting to £1017, was distributed July 2, 1730.
3. II. SARAH,<sup>2</sup> b. —; m. —, JOHN MERRILL. They settled in West Hartford, where he d. July 18, 1712. Several of their sons drew lots in the distribution of land by the first proprietors of the Town of New Hartford, in 1736, and the name of Merrill on the Town Records in connection with important Town offices, and on the grave-stones, is more frequently found than any other name. Their descendants are numerous in that town at the present day.
