FOREWORD

IN 1897, Theron Royal Woodward of Chicago, Ill., published in volume fifty-one of The New England Historical and Genealogical Register, a slight genealogical account of some of the descendants of Nathaniel Woodward, mathematician and surveyor, who settled in Boston, Mass., before November 1635. In the following account of this same family has been incorporated most of his research with corrections of some errors and much additional material. The book has been edited by Mary Lovering Holman, of Boston, but for the compilation and the deductions from found evidences she is not responsible.

Doubtless errors will also be found in this later work although no effort has been spared to make it accurate. It is by no means a complete genealogy of the family but it seemed a waste to let material gathered by me in searching out my own lines not be made available to others. In the hope, therefore, that what I have gathered here may be of use, I am sending forth this small volume.

AN EXPLANATION

IN dealing with any family of Taunton and Buckland, where the records have been burned in both towns, it is difficult and in most cases impossible to obtain the dates of births. In this book where the birth date is lacking but the date of death and the age is known, the birth date has been estimated from the death record. Such dates are marked (c), and it must always be remembered that they frequently are a little at variance with the real date.

SOME DESCENDANTS OF NATHANIEL WOODWARD

1. NATHANIEL¹ WOODWARD, born in England, died possibly in Boston, Mass., after July 1661. He probably married first in England about 1610, ———, who died before 1635. He married, probably secondly, about 1638, MARGARET ———, who was living in Boston in 1661.

Nathaniel Woodward came to Boston before 1633 as he became a member of the First Church in that year. He brought with him three sons but apparently was a widower as no wife of his joined the church with him. The fact that his son Nathaniel married a girl from Boston, Eng., has led to the assumption that this branch of the Woodwards originated in that shire but this is apparently erroneous as there are few Woodwards in Lincolnshire. A descendant of Nathaniel's who has had research done in England advances the theory that he came from Wiltshire but fails to give any proofs of his hypothesis. Nathaniel was an educated man, and in many records is called "mathematician". He was a carpenter by trade or a builder as his branch of artisanship is called at present. A carpenter, as so considered now, was a "joiner" then. He was admitted a Freeman, 17 Apr. 1637.

He evidently understood surveying as he was used by the infant colony for that purpose. In 1638, he was employed to run the line between the Plymouth Colony and the Massachusetts Bay Colony and also the line between the latter colony and Connecticut. With others, he was ordered, 6 Sept. 1638, to lay out the southernmost part of the Charles River and also to lay out the line north of the Merrimac. A report on the southerly survey was made, 10 Oct. 1638, by Nathaniel Woodward, mathematician, and others to the Court at Boston. On 6 June 1639, the Court at Boston ordered that £3 be paid to Goodman Nathaniel Woodward for the Merrimac survey to which 10s., were added by order of the Governor and Deputy. Later, 5 Nov. 1639, the Court ordered 20s., paid to John Gardner for carrying Goodman Woodward's instruments to Ipswich and for other services.

The Court further ordered, 2 June 1641, that Lieutenant Willard, Sergt. Collicot, and Mr. Holman with Goodman Nathaniel Woodward lay out the south line, or any three of them, but Goodman Woodward to be one of the three. At the same time they were empowered to treat with the Indians. On 14 June 1642, it was ordered that Goodman Nathaniel Woodward and others set down the bounds between

"Charlestowne and Linn" as may be most convenient for them both. (Records of the General Court of Massachusetts Bay Colony, 3: 107, etc.)

Later Nathaniel Woodward was joined with another surveyor, one Solomon Saffrey, about whom little is known except that he spent a few years in the colonies and then vanished from the archives. He probably returned to England. Later records show that they surveyed the line between Springfield and Windsor. In 1702, John Winthrop writing to Governor Dudley about the boundary line between Rhode Island and Massachusetts Bay Colonies, called his attention to the fact that they had a chance to survey from the line formerly run by Woodward and Saffrey and that would lay considerably East and thence to three miles of Samuel Riswell's house, but otherwise than that the line of Woodward's survey was correct. (State Archives, Mass.)

In 1751, trouble arose about this boundary, the committee from Dorchester and Stoughton and that of Wrentham claiming that, in brief, no one knew about the so-called line, that it had not been accepted by the court, etc., but the matter was finally settled to the satisfaction of the towns concerned. (ibid., vol. 116, pp. 47, 91.)

In 1657, Nathaniel Woodward made an inventory of the estate of Nicholas Barby. When the great allotments were made at Muddy River [Brookline], 8 Jan. 1637, Nathaniel Woodward, the elder, was given 28 acres of land bounded south-east by widow Anne Ormsby and northeast by the Cedar Swamp. (Boston Records, 1634-1660.) Again on 28 Oct. 1639, a great lot was granted to Brother Nathaniel Woodward for three heads. (ibid.) He was also paid for a water channel of timber in one of the causeways towards Roxbury. Various deeds of inhabitants of this district are bounded by the property of Nathaniel Woodward, "senior" and "elder." He appears in the following land records:

"Nathaniel Woodward of Boston Carpenter for . . . a valuable Summe . . . paid . . . Doe . . . sell . . . vnto Richard Richardson of Boston . . . plainter & Johana his wife. a parcel of land nere the fort hill in Boston," 26 May 1655. (Suffolk Deeds, 4: 115.)

"Nathaniel Woodward of Boston . . . Carpenter & margaret his wife . . . for . . . tenn pounds sterling to them . . . paid . . . by James Penniman of the same Boston felt maker . . . Doe . . . Confirme vnto the said James Penniman all that there peece or parcel of land . . . in Boston . . . Conteining . . . thirty foote in breadth and sixty foote in length," 4 Jan. 1659. Signed by Nathaniel Woodward with a seal and by Margaret by mark and a seal. Wit: Thomas Wiborne, Jonathan Negus. (ibid., 3: 364.)

"Nathaniell Woodward of Boston . . . Carpenter and Margaret his wife . . . for . . . one hundrd Pounds sterling . . . paid . . . by John Marion of the same Boston Shoemaker . . . Doe . . . Confirme vnto the said John marion . . . All that there dwelling house and housinge thereunto belonging together with the yards Orchard wth the trees growing therevpon, . . . upon the streete that leadeth to Roxbury," 18 July 1661. Signed by Nathaniel Woodward and Margaret Woodward, with seals. Wit: Samuel Eddy, Joshua Rise, Jonathan Negus. (ibid., 519.)

Nathaniel Woodward had by 1661 sold all the land he possessed in Boston. He must have been at least seventy-one or two years of age and possibly went to Taunton. It is also possible that he went back to England where he may have had other children living. He left no will and no administration was taken on his estate. Nothing is found of him later than the deed in 1661 although his property or property lately his is mentioned as late as 1670, but in no mention is he called "deceased."

Children:

By first wife ———,

2. i. NATHANIEL², b. about 1613, England; m. MARY JACKSON and KATHERINE ———.
- ii. JOHN, b. about 1615, England. He is called the son of Nathaniel Woodward, on 18 Dec. 1637, when he was granted a house lot. Nothing further has been found of him, after he was granted another house lot in Boston, 29 Apr. 1640, provided he build upon it within five months.
3. iii. ROBERT, b. about 1618, England; m. RACHEL SMITH.

By second wife, Margaret ———,

- iv. PRUDENCE, b. prob. abt. 1638; m. July 1661, CHRISTOPHER MOSSE, a mariner of Boston, being called in her marriage record, "daughter of Nathaniel Woodward of Boston." Children (Mosse), born in Boston, (1) Sarah, b. 28 Mar. 1662; (2) Margaret, b. 23 May 1663, d. y.; (3) Prudence, b. 6 Feb. 1665; (4) Margaret, b. 19 May 1668.*

2. NATHANIEL² WOODWARD (*Nathaniel*¹), born in England, about 1613, died, possibly in Taunton, Mass., after 1686. He married first in England, probably in or near Boston, Lincoln, MARY JACKSON, baptised in Boston, 26 Nov. 1618, died before 1650, probably in 1646, daughter of Edmund Jackson, gentleman, of Boston, Eng. He married secondly before 1650, KATHERINE ———, whose birth, death, and parentage have not been found.

* It is possible that Ezekiel Woodward, another early settler of Boston, may have been a son of Nathaniel Woodward. Ezekiel Woodward deposed at Salem, Mass., 30 Nov. 1680, aged about 58 yrs., hence born about 1622. He married about 1650, Anne Beamsley, daughter of William Beamsley of Boston and had deeds of land in Boston in 1651 and 1658. (Suffolk Deeds, 3:306.) He moved to Ipswich and sold lands in Boston in 1662, while living in Ipswich. (ibid., 4:42.) He married secondly, 20 Dec. 1672, Elizabeth (——) Solart, widow of John Solart and, after her death, 3 Feb. 1677-78, he married thirdly, Sarah, widow of Nathaniel Piper. His children, born in Boston, were (1) Anne, b. 10 Aug. 1651; (2) Sarah, b. 21 Jan. 1653 (sic); (3) Sarah, b. 14 July 1653 (sic); (4) Margaret, b. 24 Feb. 1655; (5) Elizabeth, b. 22 Oct. 1657; (6) Prudence, b. Apr. 1660; born in Ipswich. (7) Martha, b. 3 May 1662; (8) Mary, b. 8 Dec. 1664; (9) Ezekiel, b. 9 Aug. 1666; (10) Rachel, b. 20 Jan. 1668. The reasons for thinking him a possible son of Nathaniel's is that he was born about the right time, he settled in Boston, he named two daughters, Margaret and Prudence, both rather unusual names, and he was also a carpenter.

The Will and Testament of Samuel Jackson, son to Mr. Edmund Jackson late of Boston, dated 7 Aug. 1642, proved 21 Nov. 1646, states, "I do freely give unto my loving brother Nathaniel Jackson, son to my father Edmond Jackson, the sum of five pounds which was left me by my uncle Mr. John Storie at his death, which was due to me the fifteenth day of March last past, A. D. 1641, and was to be paid me by Mrs. Millicent Storie, wife to Mr. John Storie whom he left his executor. And I do freely give unto my sister Sarah Jackson, daughter to my father &c., eight pounds which was given me at the death of my grandfather Mr. Robert Story, due to me the fifteenth day of March last, and five pounds which was given me by the will of my grandmother Mrs. Elizabeth Storie, wife to Mr. Robert Storie, which was left to be paid by my uncle Story, son to the said Robert and Elizabeth Storie, due to me the fifteenth day of March aforesaid, but with a proviso that the said Sarah pay unto John Perrott, citizen and merchant taylor of London, who liveth in Abchurch Lane in the parish of St. Nicholas Acons, the sum of twenty shillings which I borrowed of him for my own use. And I do give unto my brother Elisha Jackson, son &c. twenty shillings to be paid unto him or whom he shall appoint. And I do likewise give to my sister Mary, now Mary Woodward, living in Boston in New England, twenty shillings, to be paid to her or her child or to my brother Elisha if in case she should die; so likewise if my brother Elisha should die before the receipt thereof to fall to my sister Mary Jackson, and if they both die to fall to my sister Sarah." Wit: John Fullerton.

Commission, as above, to Nathaniel Jackson, brother &c., to administer goods &c. according to the tenor of the above will, no executor having been named. Twisse 160.

[In the probate Act Book for the year 1646 the testator of the above will is called "late of Boston in the Co. of Lincoln." (Genealogical Gleanings in England, by H. F. Waters, p. 1015.)

From this will it is evident that Mary Jackson was the wife of Nathaniel Woodward of Boston. Of the two children who are recorded in Boston, Mass., the first was named Elisha, which is an unusual name at the time. Edmund Jackson had a large family of which, by the repetition of the names, most are shown to have died. Of these children, Mary was baptised, 26 Nov. 1618; Samuel, 15 Mar. 1620-21; Nathaniel (the second of the name), 28 Nov. 1622; Elisha, 6 Nov. 1623; Sarah, 8 Jan. 1625-26. The mother may have been that Barbara Jackson, gentlewoman, buried 13 Nov. 1626. "Edward" Jackson, Alderman was buried 8 Mar. 1627-28. This is probably Edmund, not Edward, the names being frequently confused. Edmund Jackson was an Alderman and apparently a warden of St. Botolph's Church.

Nathaniel Woodward, Jr., of Boston, granted 29 acres of land at Muddy River [Brookline] to Henry Stevens, 5 Mar. 1645. (Suffolk Deeds, 1: 58.) and 16 Oct. 1648, he sold his dwelling house and garden in Boston to John Langdon. (The Book of Possessions, p. 47.) He had already received letters to the church at Taunton, dated 8 Oct. 1648, but was not dismissed there until 14 Aug. 1653. He served on a jury of inquest on 11 May 1650, on one 10 June 1651, and again, 2 Aug. 1653. He was a proprietor of the Ancient Iron Works, established in Taunton, 1653-54. He later returned to Boston where, 25 Feb. 1655, he and his family were admitted as inhabitants, giving the town a bond of £20, Thomas Harwood going his bondsman.

Remaining only a few years in Boston, he went back to Taunton where in a division of lands, 28 Dec. 1659, he received six acres. He, Nathaniel Woodward "of Tanton in the Collony of Plimouth in New-England Carpenter" with Katherine his wife, for £22, sold to William White of Boston, Bricklayer, their dwelling house in Boston, standing on the town land for which they paid 8 shillings yearly ground rent to the town for the two lots, bounded as follows: E. by John Rosse, W. by town land held by Phebe Blanton, N. by the town highway, and S. by the sea, 21 Mar. 1664. (Suffolk Deeds, 7: 110.)

In a deed, dated 14 Sept. 1686, in which he gives 20 acres of housing, orchards and meadows to his son James Woodward, Nathaniel is called "Senior."

He has no will in Plymouth or Bristol County Registries.

3. ROBERT² WOODWARD (*Nathaniel*¹), born in England, probably in Lincolnshire, about 1618, died in Boston, Mass., 21 Nov. 1653. He married about 1640, RACHEL SMITH, born apparently in England about 1620, died in 1695, daughter of John and Mercy Smith. She married secondly in Boston, 7 July 1654, Thomas Harwood, who died after 1695, by whom she had five more children.

John Smith, a tailor of Boston, in his will, dated 23 Sept. 1673, proved 13 June 1674, after giving legacies to his grandchildren, Nathaniel and Robert Woodward, of land on which they had already built houses, bequeathed the residue of his property to his daughter Rachel Harwood. (Suffolk Probate.)

Robert Woodward was allowed a house plot in Boston, 18 Dec. 1637. He owned a house lot with a garden in 1664 but was arraigned

For speaking abusive words against Mr. Shove, the pastor of Taunton church, Nathaniel was sentenced by the Court, in June 1671, to sit in the stocks during the pleasure of the Court, a sentence which was accordingly carried out. At this time he was but twenty-five years old.

She married secondly in Taunton, 13 June 1676, John Cobb, who died before 1736.

The will of John Cobb mentions Elizabeth Woodward and Israel Woodward, the children of his wife, calling them "son Israel Woodward" and "daughter Elizabeth Woodward." (Genealogical Advertiser, 4: 60.)

In the administration of Robert Crossman's estate, granted 26 Nov. 1692, it was divided to his children, John Crossman, Robert Crossman, Sarah Woodward, Mary Gould, Elizabeth Hayward, Samuel and Mercy Thresher, and the children of his son Joseph Crossman, deceased. (Bristol Probate.)

John Woodward was made a Freeman, 1 June 1680. His name appears on the original roster of the First Military Company, first squadron, of Taunton, 8 Apr. 1682. With his wife Sarah, he sold land to Shadrach Wilbore in October 1684.

She probably married secondly, 19 Feb. 1733-34, Bridgewater, Mass., Joshua Willis, as his second wife, being called a "widow" in the marriage record.

James Woodward sold land in the South Purchase to John Reed, 12 Apr. 1694, and other land to Samuel Dean, 6 Sept. 1694. He was a member of the First Military Company, first squadron, of Taunton, 8 Apr. 1682.

10. JOHN⁴ WOODWARD (*John*³, *Nathaniel*², *Nathaniel*¹), born in Taunton, Mass., 3 July 1676, died in Taunton in July 1765. He married about 1697, DEBORAH * ———.

John Woodward enlisted for service in King William's War, 25 July 1697, being then a resident of Taunton. He served at Castle Island, Boston Harbor, under Major John Walley. He was a member of the First Military Company of Taunton, 30 May 1700, and of the First Foot Military Company there, 16 Jan. 1710.

With his wife, Deborah, he joined the Baptist Church in Norton, Mass., in 1748. In 1759, he was excused from taking an oath to a legal document on the ground that he was a Quaker. Several of his children also embraced the Quaker faith.

He appears in the following land records, which are of interest:

We John Woodward Senior and Robert Woodward, yeomen, both of Taunton, quit claim unto Jonathan Woodward of Taunton all our right and title that we have in the land belonging to the right of our honored grandfather Robert Crossman in Taunton, 4 Apr. 1749. Signed by both John and Robert Woodward. Witnessed by Samuel Woodward and Deborah Woodward. (Bristol Deeds, 42: 293.)

John Woodward sold land near Spring Brook, 12 Sept. 1722, and, with his wife Deborah, sold more land, 18 Jan. 1731, to Robert Woodward.

John Woodward of Taunton, being 83 years of age, testifyeth and said that for sixty years past or more I well remember going to work in a swamp called y^e Pine Swamp, and I well remember that on the northerly side of said swamp was land reputed to be the land of Isaac Dean, etc., 24 Mar. 1759. Signed by John Woodward. He was a Quaker and would not "swear" but avowed this was the truth.

* Deborah is said to have been daughter of Nathaniel and Rebecca (Briggs) Thayer. They were married in 1691, and Deborah's first child was born about 1698. She was born therefore probably about 1680 or earlier and could not be their child. No proof is given that she was a Thayer.

He left this will:

"In the name of God Amen this fifth day of April 1760, I John Woodward of Taunton . . . yeoman, being in my advanced age but of sound and disposing mind and memory, thanks be given to Almighty God, . . . do make and ordain this my last will and testament . . .

Just when Ezekiel Woodward moved to Providence is not known but apparently he was living there before 1758, and probably went there between 1748 and 1749.

19. CALEB⁵ WOODWARD (John⁴, John³, Nathaniel², Nathaniel¹), born in Taunton, Mass., about 1708, died about 1786. He married in Taunton, 1 June 1739, his cousin RACHEL WOODWARD, born in Taunton about 1718, died after 1758, daughter of Ezekiel and Sarah () Woodward.

Ezekiel Woodward mentioned his daughters in his will, made in 1759, by their first names only and no deed has been found whereby the daughters, Rachel and Huldah, the wife of Peter Woodward, sold the real estate he gave them. At the time of their marriages they were living in Taunton and they were the only Woodward girls of the names and the right age to have married Caleb and his brother Peter. There is no doubt that it was Ezekiel's two daughters who married his nephews.

Caleb and his wife were Quakers.

Caleb Woodward sold land in Taunton to his son Caleb Woodward, Jr., 30 Oct. 1782, the deed being witnessed by Spencer Woodward and Isaac Briggs. Recorded, 18 Nov. 1799. (Bristol Co., Deeds, 78: 329.)

Caleb Woodward sold land in Taunton to his daughter Hannah Bassett, 9 Feb. 1784. Wit: Daniel Woodward and Rachel Bassett. Recorded 27 Jan. 1786. (ibid., 78: 138.)

He also sold land to Samuel Gardner, 18 Feb. 1785, and with Peter Woodward, bought land of Ezekiel Woodward in 1757. (ibid., 64: 196, 59: 379.) See account of Ezekiel⁴ Woodward.

20. PETER ⁵ WOODWARD (*John*⁴, *John*³, *Nathaniel*², *Nathaniel*¹), born in Taunton, Mass., about 1712, died in 1763. He married in Taunton, 8 Feb. 1733, HULDAH WOODWARD, born in Taunton about 1714, died after 1763, daughter of Ezekiel and Sarah () Woodward.

No absolute proof has been found that Huldah Woodward, wife of Peter, was Huldah, the daughter of Ezekiel Woodward, mentioned in her father's will, but it can scarcely be doubted. See account of Caleb ⁵ Woodward.

The will of Peter Woodward was entered for probate, 7 Dec. 1763, Huldah, his wife, being the executrix.

21. ISAAC ⁵ WOODWARD (*John*⁴, *John*³, *Nathaniel*², *Nathaniel*¹), born probably in Taunton, Mass., about 1718, died in Taunton in 1769. He married SARAH ———, who outlived him.

Benajah Woodward was appointed administrator of the estate of Isaac Woodward of Taunton, 27 Mar. 1769. The estate was finally settled 5 May 1786, possibly after the death of the widow Sarah.

Child:

- i. ISAAC ⁴, born probably about 1750; m. 3 May 1779, MARTHA LUTHER. Swansey Meeting records give "Isaac Woodward, son of Isaac and Sarah of Norton and Martha Luther daughter of William and Susanna of Swansey, 3d-5mo. 1779". Probably other children.

22. SAMUEL ⁵ WOODWARD (*Robert*⁴, *John*³, *Nathaniel*², *Nathaniel*¹), born in Taunton, Mass., about 1707, died there, 28 Oct.

23. JOSIAH ⁵ WOODWARD (Robert ⁴, John ³, Nathaniel ², Nathaniel ¹), born in Taunton, Mass., in 1711, died in Norton, Mass., 5 Jan. 1771. He married about 1745, HANNAH MACOMBER, born in Taunton in 1723, died in Taunton, 3 Oct. 1813, aged ninety years, daughter of Dr. Thomas and Mary () Macomber.

Josiah Woodward lived in Norton. In 1754, he took part in the expedition against the French at Cape Breton. After his death, it is evident that his widow went to Taunton to live, probably with one of her children.

Dr. Thomas Macomber in his will, made 7 June 1766, mentioned his daughter Hannah Woodward.

Children, born in Norton, Mass.:

36. i. JOSIAH ⁶, b. 19 Aug. 1746; m. SARAH BURT.
37. ii. ELKANAH, b. 11 Jan. 1749; m. ANNA FIELD.

24. ISRAEL ⁵ WOODWARD (Israel ⁴, John ³, Nathaniel ², Nathaniel ¹), born in Taunton, Mass., 29 Apr. 1711, died in Easton, Mass., 12 Mar. 1792. He married in Taunton, 17 May 1742, HANNAH KEIZER of Easton, who died in Easton 28 Jan. 1804.

Israel Woodward was fined while living in Taunton, £5 and costs, because he would not take the oath as constable which his Quaker principles would not permit his doing. He appealed the verdict.

In 1790, the census of Easton, Mass., shows Israel and his wife, living alone in the town.

* A record states that he died of a fever that also carried off his three eldest sons. It seems probable that the two eldest sons did die of it but that Ephraim was a younger son.

Children, probably all born in Easton, Mass.:

- i. JOSIAH⁴, b. about 1743.
- 39. ii. GEORGE, b. 22 Sept. 1744, bapt. 2 Apr. 1745; m. LAVINA HUNT.

- v. SETH, b. 31 Jan. 1756.

25. BENAJAH⁵ WOODWARD (Israel⁴, John³, Nathaniel², Nathaniel¹), born in Taunton, Mass., about 1714, died, probably before 1790. He married in Taunton, 17 May 1742, ABIGAIL HARVEY, born in Taunton about 1720, who probably died in Petersham, before 1792, daughter of William and Hopestill (Briggs) Harvey.

Benajah Woodward, administrator of his father's estate, received in the division of the property, twenty acres of land and the "Great Bible." He sold his homestead farm at Taunton, 5 Feb. 1777, and the following 13 Oct., bought land in Petersham, Mass., from his son Seth. He does not appear in the census of 1790 and hence it can be concluded that he was deceased.

Children, born in Taunton, Mass.:

- 40. i. NATHAN⁴, b. about 1744; m. PRUDENCE BRIGGS.
- 41. ii. SETH, b. 1747; m. RUTH AYERS and ELIZABETH BARBER.

26. EPHRAIM⁵ WOODWARD (Ebenezer⁴, John³, Nathaniel², Nathaniel¹), born in Taunton, Mass., about 1728, died in Taunton, 4 Jan. 1800. He married in Taunton or Swansea, Mass., 9 Oct. 1746, ABIGAIL BURT, born in Taunton in 1728, died there, 15 May 1815, aged eighty-seven years, daughter of James and Mary (Thayer) Burt.

The Swansey Friends Records (R. I., Records, vii.) give this marriage.

"Ephraim Woodward, son of Ebenezer, deceased and Elizabeth, and Abigail Burt, of James and Mary, all of Taunton, 9d. 8m. 1746."

The census of 1790, lists Ephraim as living in Taunton, with one male above sixteen and one female, evidently himself and Abigail. Ephraim, Jr., also appears in the census.

Children, born in Taunton, Mass.:

43. i. EPHRAIM⁴, b. 16 May 1752; m. WEALTHEA BABBITT. Probably others.

27. EBENEZER⁵ WOODWARD (Ebenezer⁴, John³, Nathaniel², Nathaniel¹), born in Taunton, Mass., in 1732, died before 1790. He married in Taunton, 27 July 1758, MARY WILLIS, who died after 1790, probably in Buckland, Mass.

After Ebenezer's death, the sons, Spencer, Henry, and David, continued to live in Taunton but before 1790, Ebenezer Jr., and James had gone to Conway to live. This is shown by the following brief items from the land records.

Ebenezer and James Woodward of Conway, Mass., sell land to Henry and Spencer Woodward both of Taunton, part of the estate of their father Ebenezer Woodward of Taunton, 21 Sept. 1789.

David Woodward of Taunton sells land to Henry Woodward of Taunton, part of the estate of mother Mary Woodward, widow of Ebenezer Woodward, 9 Apr. 1795.

Ebenezer Woodward of Conway and James Woodward of Buckland sell to Henry and Spencer Woodward of Buckland, land they originally had of their father, Ebenezer Woodward of Taunton, 16 Oct. 1797.

In two other deeds, one in 1790 and one in 1791, the two brothers are arranged as Spencer and Henry, and in the two above as Henry and Spencer.

Between 9 Apr. 1795 and 16 Oct. 1797, Henry moved to Buckland, and it is probable that Spencer went there the same time.

Children, born in Taunton, Mass.:

44. i. SPENCER⁴, b. prob. about 1759; m. ABIGAIL THAYER.
 45. ii. HENRY, b. prob. about 1761; m. AZUBAH THAYER and RACHEL HOUGHTON.

 iv. MARY, b. prob. about 1764; m. 6 Nov. 1780, Taunton, JOHN TAYLOR of Shelburne.
 v. EBENEZER, b. prob. about 1766. Ebenezer was living in Conway in 1790, with one male above 16, one male below 16 and two females.

- vi. JAMES, b. prob. about 1768. James was living in Conway in 1790, with one male above 16, two below, and four females. As he would be about 22 in 1790, it is evident that he had with him others than his own wife and possible child.

28. JOSEPH⁵ WOODWARD (Joseph⁴, John³, Nathaniel², Nathaniel¹), born in Norton, Mass. 9 Mar. 1738-39, died possibly in Shelburne, Mass., after 1790. He married in Norton, 28 May 1766, HANNAH⁶ WOODWARD, 3d, born in Norton, 21 Mar. 1750-51, death unknown, daughter of Josiah and Hannah (Macomber) Woodward.

Joseph Woodward evidently left Norton after 1771. He may have been in Taunton for awhile, but is not listed as a resident there in 1790. There was a Joseph Woodward in Shelburne with one male above sixteen, two below, and two females in his family. There are only two other Joseph Woodwards in Massachusetts in 1790 but the other two are obviously not of this family of Woodwards. The family may have removed to some other state.

Children:

- i. HANNAH⁶, b. 3 Oct. 1767, Norton.*
 - ii. JOSEPH, b. 12 Sept. 1769, Norton.

29. NOAH⁵ WOODWARD (Israel⁴, James³, Nathaniel², Nathaniel¹), born in Norton, Mass., 27 Sept. 1737, died in Hallowell, Me., 29 Oct. 1835, aged ninety-eight years and one month. He married in Sharon, Mass., 27 Sept. 1764, MARY FULLER, probably the Mary, born in Stoughton, Mass., 16 Sept. 1740, died in Hallowell, 18 Oct. 1821, aged eighty-one years, daughter of Jeremiah and Hannah () Fuller.

Noah Woodward was a representative to the Massachusetts Legislature in 1776, 1777, and 1778. He was also a member of the Committee of Correspondence at Norton and of the Convention that formed the first constitution of Massachusetts.

He served as a Minute-Man in Capt. Silas Cobb's company which marched from Norton on the Lexington Alarm, in 1775, and he marched in Capt. Israel Trow's company to Rhode Island on an alarm in August 1780.

* Hannah's birth is not recorded in Norton, but Hannah, dau. of Noah, was born there, 13 Oct. 1767.

32. DANIEL ⁶ WOODWARD 2nd. (Caleb ⁵, John ⁴, John ³, Nathaniel ², Nathaniel ¹), born in Taunton, Mass., 20 Aug. 1758, died in Heath, Mass., 5 Mar. 1832. He married first in Taunton, 1 Sept. 1786, MERCY EDDY, born in Norton, Mass., 4 Feb. 1764, died in Buckland, 28 July 1820, daughter of Abiel and Zerviah (Harvey) Eddy. He married secondly MARY ———, who survived him. She married before 30 Apr. 1833, as his second wife, Billy Johnson, of Charlemont and Colrain, Mass., who died 31 Mar. 1849 and who is buried in Colrain beside his first wife, Levina.

Daniel Woodward is called "2nd", because of the presence in Taunton of Daniel ⁵, (Samuel ⁵) who was born about 1749. As Daniel Woodward, 2nd, he appears on the town books of Norton in the publication of his marriage in 1786, and in 1790, Daniel Woodward, 2nd, was of Taunton with a family of two males above sixteen, two below sixteen, and four females. As in 1790, according to the Taunton records, his family consisted of himself, two daughters, and his wife, it is evident that there were others, probably relatives of his or his wife's, living with them in this year.

On 11 Jan. 1793, Daniel Woodward, 2nd, sold land in Taunton, wife Mercy assenting. Two years later, on 7 Jan. 1795, Daniel Woodward bought land in Buckland, 49 acres. (Franklin Co., Deeds, 7: 688.)

Daniel Woodward of Buckland sold to his brother-in-law, Jeremiah Bassett of Taunton, land in Buckland and also a piece of land in Taunton containing 21 acres which was all he had in that place, 15 June 1795. (ibid., 8: 341.) In 1797, he repurchased from Bassett the Buckland land.

Daniel Woodward deeded to Marcy Woodward Jr., and to Joel Woodward, a tract of land in Buckland, in July 1816, and on the following 4 Mar. 1817, Marcy, Jr., and Joel gave a life lease to the selectmen of Buckland of land to be used for the support of said Marcy. In 1821, Marcy Woodward Jr., deeded a tract of land to Rachel Woodward; on 1 May 1832, Joel deeded his part of their inheritance to Marcy Woodward Jr., and on 30 Apr. 1833, Joel Woodward deeded to Daniel Barnes, land in Heath, this deed being signed by

* The only mention of the name of Cave in the Taunton records is in a marriage: William Cave and Susanna Dean, 27 Oct. 1811. Either Susanna Woodward married a Dean first, or she was the first wife of William Cave, and died before 1811.

Billy Johnson, Mary Johnson, Mercy Woodward, Rachel Woodward, Joel Woodward, Daniel Woodward, Cephas Woodward, and Alfred Woodward.

Abner Lincoln and Zeruah Lincoln of Norton, Bristol Co., and Mercy Woodward, Rachel Woodward, Joel Woodward, Cephas Woodward, and Alfred Woodward all of Buckland, and Daniel Woodward of Conway, Franklin Co., all heirs of Abiel Eddy and Zerviah Eddy deceased quit all right to certain land in Norton, one tract being one-half the farm of the said Abiel Eddy, deceased. They all sign and Delania and Nancy Woodward wives of Daniel and Alfred release their dowers, 8 Apr. 1830. (Bristol Co., Deeds, 131: 123.) In another deed, Joel is called the attorney for the heirs of Mercy Woodward, deceased. (ibid., 131: 389.)

Daniel Woodward purchased land in Heath and developed it with one Daniel Barnes. If he moved there, his family apparently remained in Buckland. As his death is entered on the town records of Heath, as "Mr. Woodward", it is very probable that he was not a resident of the town, but possibly was there on business.

On 15 May 1832, Mary Woodward petitioned the probate court to have Joel Woodward, the oldest son, appointed to administer the estate of her husband, Daniel Woodward, and 12 Feb. 1833, Mary Woodward, wife of William Johnson of Colrain, petitioned for her dower in the estate of her husband, Daniel Woodward, deceased.

Daniel Woodward, 2nd, his wife Mercy (Eddy) Woodward, and their daughter, Mercy Woodward, were all buried on their farm in Buckland. The little plot is now badly overgrown but the field stones marking the graves can still be found.

Children, born in Taunton and Buckland, Mass.:

- i. MERCY [?], b. 27 Feb. 1787, Taunton, d. 22 Mar. 1877, unm. Mercy Woodward of Buckland mortgaged her property there, bounded on Alfred Woodward, Rachel Woodward now Rachel Chapin, etc., to John Eddy of Norton, Mass., 21 Apr. 1845. In 1856, she gave a quitclaim to John Eddy Jr., of this property. In 1870, Mercy aged 83 yrs., was living alone in Buckland.
- ii. RACHEL, b. 22 Aug. 1789; m. HENRY CHAPIN. She and Mercy lived together before her marriage and they could not agree so they drew a chalkline through the middle of the kitchen and one had one side and the other one, the other. Rachel is said to have been very cranky. Her husband said to her one time when they were talking of their being buried, "Well, Rachel, we will bury you face down because if we don't, you will claw your way out, but if your face is down you will have to claw your way to Hell or China." In 1870, Rachel Chapin, aged 80, was living with Joel-C. Woodward, aged 27. She had a hat of which she was very fond and was so afraid that something would happen to it after she was gone that she had it buried with her.

The wife of Isaiah Reed, died of dropsy, Apr. 25, 1841, "widow of the late Ambrose Woodward," aged eighty-two. It is extremely probable that she was the widow of Isaiah Reed when she married Ambrose Woodward, and that the church and cemetery records have not been clearly read.

About 1777, he left Taunton for Petersham where he remained until 1799. He then went to Benson, Vt., where he was in 1799, and thence to Orwell, Vt., and from this latter place to somewhere in Pennsylvania. * There is no clue to the births of most of these children. The estimated birth dates are derived from the dates of some marriages, the census of 1790, and the order in Henry's will. Joel Woodward was deeded land by his father in 1816 when he was just twenty, the land being for the use of his sister Mercy for life. She was then aged only twenty-nine and this action by her father suggests that she may have been crippled in some way. He was a successful farmer and noted for his skill in

* Philena's birthplace is stated in her death record to have been in Canaan, N. Y. Her birth is recorded, with all her many brothers and sisters, in Charlemont, Mass.
