Index to the Censuses.....	28 - 37
----------------------------	---------

Introduction

As you know, since 1790, the Federal Government has conducted a census of the population every ten years. From 1790 to 1840, the census listed the head of the household by name, and the age and sex of all persons (related or not) living in the household. In 1850, this procedure was changed and each person in the household was also listed by name.

To use the enclosed census information you must know the name of an ancestor (named Whiteside) who was born prior to 1880. By checking the Index to the Censuses (page 28-37) one can readily discover if he is listed in the enclosed material. If he is listed all that remains is to check the page or pages listed next to his name. In most cases he was living in a household that I have genealogically connected to other families (see pages 114-).

As usual, the enclosed information is free of charge. My only request is that you carefully check the information on your family, noting errors in spelling of names, filling in full middle names, maiden names, date of death, place of burial, connecting linkages to other families, etc., etc., etc. If you will then send these corrections to us the entire Whiteside will benefit from the information. Also, if you know of anyone who can provide information on any of the branches of the family please let us know.

It is hoped that this information will stimulate your interest in research on the genealogy of the family. This material is only a stepping stone, not the final product. In fact, this compilation is very incomplete. Most of the counties in Pennsylvania are just too large for me to pay for detailed searches of them.

There were only 100 copies of this information distributed. Therefore, when you are through with the material, and you no longer want to have it, please deposit your copy with the local Library or Historical Society so that others, in years to come, may also use it.

Although we have tried to insure completeness, it is possible that omissions have occurred.

Further, we have followed the spelling of names as found in the census even though it is known to be in error.

Unless otherwise noted, the place of birth is Pennsylvania.

Grateful appreciation is extended to Mrs. Peter V. Hopper who greatly aided in the search of these censuses and to The Canada Council who provided a grant for this project.

Genealogical Connections of Heads of Households and Selected Others, Pennsylvania.

The following statement introduced this section in previous attempts to accomplish the same task for Whitesides listed in other censuses. It is also applicable here.

"The attempt to trace ones genealogical history is fraught with problems. It is indeed difficult to find adequate information to 'prove' that person "A" who was born in 1790, is the son or daughter of person "B". If the parental line, which is most basic to our heritage, is difficult to reconstruct we can expect the worst when we attempt to reconstruct the sibling and cousin connections. In some instances, obviously, there is sufficient information about the person to make a fairly certain judgement: but where the information is scant the problems abound. Hence, it is with a great deal of hesitation that I make these connections -- the information is meager. Yet, I feel this attempt should be made now, and revised as new information is uncovered.

"In cases where I do not have substantial evidence of the specific connection I use a question (?) prior to the name."

I have ordered the connections primarily by county.

1. Frank Best, "Compilation on the Whiteside Family," unpublished ms., 1909, Chicago, quotes Pennsylvania Notes and Queries, Volume 2, to arrive at the following genealogy (the following comments are his):

1 John, died before 1751, Carlisle, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania; m _____ () who _____ by 1751 married again to John Giles. After John's death Ralph Whiteside was named executor.

2 John

2 Samuel

2 William (ancestor of Oldham County, Kentucky and Indiana Whitesides?)
