Worcester Family: OR THE
DESCENDANTS
OF
REV. WILLIAM WORCESTER,

"It is a noble faculty of our nature, which enables us to connect our thoughts, our sympathies, and our happiness with what is distant in place and time; and, looking before and after, to hold communion at once with our ancestors and our posterity."—WEBSTER'S PLYMOUTH ADDRESS.

"THE first individual who bore the name of Worcester, very probably took it from the place of that name in England; but when, and the circumstances connected with that individual, are beyond the reach of all investigations. . . . As Camden, and other antiquaries, before and since the days of that prince of antiquaries, are not agreed upon the matter, we, on this side of the Atlantic will readily be excused, from attempts to elucidate it." It were certainly unsafe, were we disposed, to question an authority so competent as the learned editor of the Historical and Genealogical Register.

The name of Worster has long been common in the mother country. Whether this is an original name or an abbreviation of Worcester, is also an open question. There can be little doubt, however, that the names of Wooster, and Woster, that occur in the following pages, are substitutes for one or the other of those above mentioned, inasmuch as the first minister of Salisbury invariably wrote himself William Worcester, and the will of the progenitor of the Connecticut family is signed Edward Worster.

Among the papers of Rev. Francis Worcester, of Hollis, N. H., was found the following description of the family arms:—

"THE FIELD IS ARGENT. TEN TORTEAUXES; FOUR, THREE, TWO, AND ONE:—WHICH ARE SO MANY CAKES OF BREAD, AND SIGNIFY THE FIRST BEARER TO HAVE BEEN A PRIEST, OR SOME RELIGIOUS PERSON; OR ELSE ONE THAT HAD DONE MUCH FOR THE CHURCH."

No pictorial illustration of this device of heraldry is contained in any work on the subject, that has come to the notice of the compiler. The arrangement of the torteauxes, (roundlets,) on the preceding page, is probably correct;—of the embellishments, it can hardly be said that they are "well and truly vouched."

The engraving of Noah Worcester, D. D., which was kindly furnished by his son, Rev. Thomas Worcester, of Boston, is a life-like and beautiful portrait of that venerable "Apostle of Peace." The portrait of Samuel Worcester, D. D., with less pretension as a specimen of art, is equally good as a likeness of the original.

A notice of the Connecticut family has been added in the hope that some descendant will be interested to pursue the investigation. Enough has been ascertained to satisfy the compiler that the genealogy can be brought down to the present time with comparatively little labor, and, furthermore, that the valiant General David, and the Rev. Capt. Benjamin, are, by no means, the only individuals who have done something to illustrate that family name.

In the first four generations, the authorities, which are mostly public records, have been indicated. For other information the compiler is under obligation to numerous correspondents. Of these, Alfred Worcester, of Windsor, Vt., Summers Wooster of Hancock, Me., Henry E. Worcester, of Tewksbury, Mass., and John Newton Worcester, of Hollis, N. H., have rendered him such service as entitle them to a special acknowledgment.

J. F. W.

SALEM, MARCH, 1856.

EXPLANATION.

Rev. William Worcester is the first generation. His descendants who bear the family name, are numbered in order from himself to 1332.

Small figures at the end of a name denote the generation to which the individual belongs.

If an individual is to be the subject of a distinct notice, his name, when it first occurs is printed in large capitals, without date of birth; and the notice will be found under the running title of the generation indicated by the small figure at the end of his name.

An Index at the end of the volume, will enable any head of a family in the name of Worcester, Worster, Wooster, or Woster, to turn at once to the record in which he is most interested. To this we would refer our amiable correspondent who "has no patience with genealogies,—they are so provokingly figurative."

FIRST GENERATION.

(1) William Worcester, Rev. came from England, and was settled pastor of the church first gathered in Salisbury, Ms., sometime between the years 1638 and 1640. The place and date of his nativity have not been ascertained. His family, at the time of his arrival, consisted of a wife Sarah; two sons, Samuel and William; and two daughters, Sarah and Susannah. Supposing the births of these four children to have occurred at the same intervals as the births of six others recorded in Salisbury, it is fair to infer, that he must have been at least thirty years old at the time of his arrival.

He continued his ministry in Salisbury until his decease, Oct. 28, 1662. His grave is supposed to be recognized at this time. It is covered by a large flat stone, which, according to tradition, was to protect the body from disinterment by the wolves.

No production of his pen has been transmitted to posterity to indicate his intellectual character or attainments. Cotton Mather, in the Magnalia, enrolls his name in the list of the "reverend, learned and holy divines, arriving such from Europe to America, by whose evangelical ministry the churches in America have been illuminated." Johnson, in his "Wonder Working Providence," mistaking the name, speaks of the first minister of Salisbury, as, the "reverend and graciously godly M. Thomas Woster." And the General Court say in an Order in reference to the payment of his support, that "they of New Town, (now Amesbury,) should forbear to content themselves with private help, whilst the Lord pleases to continue so bright a star in their candlestick."

He married 1st, Sarah, d. Salisbury, Apr. 23, 1650; m. 2d, July 23, 1650, Mrs. Rebecca Hall, d. Ipswich, Mass., Feb. 21, 1695, ag. 78. (Rebecca had been twice married before she became the consort of Wm.

Worcester : 1st, to Henry Bylie ; 2d, Apr. 3, 1641, to John Hall. She married for a fourth husband, Samuel Symonds, Deputy Governor of the Colony.)

SECOND GENERATION.

(2) SAMUEL WORCESTER, son of Rev. WILLIAM, (1) was born in England and came with his father to Salisbury, Mass. As early as 1658, he was engaged in business in Salisbury, as "partner in a saw mill." In May, 1662, he bought of "Samuel Sewall, of Newbury, . . . . for three score and ten pounds, . . . . 300 acres of upland, . . . . 4 acres of meadow," &c., "being within the bounds and precincts of Rowley, . . . . 200 acres of said upland bordering on Merrimac River;"—in other words, a tract of land in that part of Rowley which, in 1675, was incorporated under the name of Bradford, and, in 1850, was separated from Bradford and incorporated under the name of Groveland. On this purchase he must have settled in the course of a few months, as the Rowley records make mention of the birth of one of his sons in March, 1663. At the first recorded meeting of "the Merrimac people," Feb. 20, 1668—69, he was chosen an overseer. He was the first Representative from Bradford to the General Court, and took his seat as a member of that body, Jan. 1679—80. He was re-elected the next year, 1680—81. He left home for Boston, on foot, to attend an adjourned meeting of the Court, to be holden Feb. 22, and, on the evening of Feb. 20, reached that part of Lynn which is now called Saugus. Failing to obtain accommodations at the inn, he started for the house of a friend, and, in the morning, was found dead, in the middle of the road, in the attitude of kneeling. He was a man of distinguished piety, and shared largely in every effort to advance the interests of his adopted town. The gift of "one acre of meadow land, to be improved in general for the use of the ministry, or bestowed upon some able, faithful, minister for his encouragement to settle amongst them," is one of several recorded instances of his liberality. He married, Nov. 29, 1659, Elizabeth, dau. of Francis Parrott, of Rowley, b. May 1, 1640.

Eleven children.

(33) FRANCIS WORCESTER, Rev., 2d son of FRANCIS, (14) was born in Bradford, June 7, 1698. He lived in Bradford, until 1722; in Concord, and Littleton, some years; in both of which places he worked as a blacksmith; then, in Bradford, where, in 1728, he was one of the selectmen; then, in Boxford, where he was licensed to preach; thence he removed to Sandwich, where he was ordained, June 18, 1735; over a Congregational church that separated from Mr. Fessendon's, and continued ten years before, and one year subsequent to his dismissal. From Sandwich he removed to Exeter, N. H., thence to Plaistow, N. H.; and thence to Hollis, N. H., in 1750. From this date until his death, Oct. 14, 1783, he was employed the greater part of the time, in preaching as an evangelist in the destitute parts of New Hampshire, and other sections of New England. "When confined in weakness, and in the 60th year of his age;" he wrote a series of "meditations all in verse," which were published, in Boston, in 1760. In one of these "The author speaks of his honored great-grandfather, his grand-father, and of his father; godly men he trusts." In another, "The author speaks something modestly of himself." While as poems they possess little merit, and betray a deficiency in early education, they, nevertheless, shew the author to have been a faithful student of the Bible, and a remarkable exemplification of its happy influences. (A copy of these poems is in possession of J. E. Worcester, LL. D., of Cambridge, Mass., a great-grandson of the author.) He was buried at Hollis, N. H.; where there is a tomb stone to his memory. He married 1st, April 18, 1720, Abigail Carlton, of Rowley, d. July 25, 1774, ag. 78; m. 2d, Mrs. Martin.

Five children by Abigail.

(34) JOHN WORSTER, 3d son of FRANCIS, (14) was born in Bradford, Nov. 5, 1700. He lived in Bradford until 1729; then removed to Boxford, where, in 1737, he was elected a deacon of the church; thence he removed to Leicester, in 1747, "and built a house, since owned by James Livermore and Benjamin Drury, Esq., and on the same site of Amos Brown." March 6, 1753, he was chosen one of a committee to prefer a petition to the General Court, asking to be incorporated into a town. The petition was granted, and that part of Leicester in which he resided received the name of Spencer. He was a selectman, and assessor, for several years. He removed from Spencer, probably, about 1772, and left the farm to his eldest son. He died in Grafton, about 1777. Married, June 5, 1727, Mary Carlton, of Newbury.

S. Worcester

(164) SAMUEL WORCESTER, D. D., 5th son of NOAH, (65) was born in Hollis, N. H., Nov. 1, 1770. He labored on the farm of his father until 1791; then pursued studies preparatory to college, at New Ipswich Academy, and with Dr. Wood, of Boscawen, N. H.; entered Dartmouth College in the summer of 1792; graduated in 1795; studied theology with Dr. Austin, of Worcester, four months; taught school in Hollis, in the winter of 1795—6; in the spring following, became preceptor of New Ipswich Academy, and shortly afterwards, was licensed to preach. He was ordained pastor of the Congregational Church, in Fitchburg, Mass., Sep. 27, 1797; dismissed, Sep. 8, 1802, and installed pastor of the Tabernacle Church, in Salem, Ms., Apr. 20, 1803. At the first meeting of the A. B. C. F. M., he was chosen Corresponding Secretary, and performed the duties of this office in connexion with those of the sole pastorate of the Tabernacle, until July, 1819, when he was relieved of a portion of his responsibility as pastor, by the settlement of Rev. Elias Cornelius, as his Associate. He continued these relations with the Tabernacle, and the American Board, until his decease, June 7, 1821, at Brainerd, E. Tenn. He was buried at Brainerd, and, a monument, erected by the Board, bears the following tribute, from the pen of Jeremiah Evarts, Esq., who succeeded to the office of Corresponding Secretary;—

“As a minister of the gospel, Dr. Worcester labored for more than twenty years, with zeal, fidelity, and success. As a distinguished agent in exciting and directing the missionary enterprise of the American churches, he displayed eminent talents, and was impelled by an ardent desire for the salvation of the heathen. To the promotion of this divine work he applied all his faculties, till, exhausted by arduous labors, he fell asleep in Jesus, while on a visit of kindness to the Cherokee people.”

His remains were removed to Salem, Mass., in the autumn of 1844, and deposited in Harmony Grove Cemetery, May 5, 1845.

He received the degree of D. D., from Princeton College, in 1811. Besides numerous occasional discourses, he published, “Sermons on Universalism;” “Two Discourses on the Abrahamic Covenant;” three “Letters to Dr. Channing;” ten “Reports of the A. B. C. F. M.,” “Christian Psalmody;” and “Watts’ Entire, and Select Hymns.” He married, Oct. 20, 1797, Zervia, dau. of Dr. Jonathan Fox, of Dracut, Mass., and Hollis, N. H., b. Feb. 16, 1779.

APPENDIX

A.

(p. 5.) Traditions that William Worcester was born in Salisbury, England, and, that he first landed in this country, at Gloucester, Mass., are not confirmed by any thing contained in the records of those towns.

(p. 5.) At a "Meeting of the General Court at Boston, 5th day of 9th mo. 1639, The petition of the inhabitants of Colechester is granted for Mr. Samuell Dudley, Mr Worster, Christo: Batt," and others "to order all businesse of the towne." At a meeting, Oct. 7, 1640, "Colechester henceforward to be called Salsbury."—Rec. of the Col. of Mass. Bay, in New England.

Salisbury was incorporated in 1640, and, in the same year, Mr. William Worcester shared in the division of town lands. There are no records of the church prior to 1687. Johnson, in his "Wonder Working Providence," gives 1639, as the date of its organization, and names M. Thomas Woster, as the first pastor.

The following is an attested copy of the WILL of REV. WILLIAM WORCESTER, as found on file in the Probate Office, in Salem, Mass. It was never recorded, and, consequently, its deficiencies cannot be supplied.

A true copy of record.

Attest. JAMES ROPES, Register.

Salem, Feb, 1856.

Inventory, £635. 5s. 6d.;—"Real Estate" £255.; "Personal Estate," £189. 7s. 6d.;
"Notes Receivable," £51. 10s. 0d.; "Books" £30. "Cattle" £109. 8s. 0d.

The names of his cows:—the "barbar," "goldling," "mad-fit" and "ghost," would seem to hint at a dash of the humorous in the old gentleman's composition.

"Mr. Worcester's house lot, my father informed me, was where the meeting house now stands, now the land of David M. Deal; the house was in from the road."—
Josiah French, Salisbury, Mass., Feb. 1886.

(p. 6.) WILLIAM (4). Under the name of Worcester, in the "Early Settlers of Essex and Old Norfolk," printed in the Historical and Genealogical Register, is "Thomas, Boston, cordwainer, 1668." Joshua Coffin, Esq., the indefatigable compiler of the list, has found, on a revision of his notes, that it should have been printed, William, Boston, cordwainer. This correction is considered important, as an impression has obtained to some extent, that this Thomas was "one of three brothers who came to New England in company."

NOTE.—In Farmer's "First Settlers of New England," Noah Webster, Esq., is made the patriarch of the Hollis branch of the Worcester Family. Amusing as is the misprint, it is surely a very respectable misnomer.

(p. 6.) Timothy's young widow appears to have been of too lively a turn to suit the puritanic notions of her time. "30, 10 mo. 1672; Susannah Worcester widow, for suffering inconvenient meeting of young persons at her house, was fined for the county twenty shillings by Major Robert Pike."—Norfolk Records.

B.

NOTE.—The only reference to this letter of the appendix is on page 82. Some items received after the genealogical portions had been printed, are, however, introduced with a reference to the pages that contain the subjects to which they allude.

(pp. 8—10.) Peter Cheney, the father of Martha, Mary, and Huldah, was the son of John Cheney, who removed from Roxbury to Newbury, in 1636. These sisters had a brother Eldad; which will probably account for the currency of that name, in the Tewksbury branch of the Worcester family.

(p. 9.) MARY,<sup>4</sup> (39) had twelve children:—Francis,<sup>5</sup> b. Aug. 21, 1737; Timothy,<sup>5</sup> b. April 23, 1739; Nicholas,<sup>5</sup> b. Nov. 4, 1740; John,<sup>5</sup> b. Aug. 9, 1742; Infant,<sup>5</sup> b. Aug. 31, 1743; Ruth,<sup>5</sup> b. Aug. 12, 1744; Infant,<sup>5</sup> b. 1745; Mary,<sup>5</sup> Joshua,<sup>5</sup> b. Oct. 26, 1748; Josiah,<sup>5</sup> b. July 22, 1752; Jemima,<sup>5</sup> b. Nov. 27, 1753; Hannah,<sup>5</sup> b. June 6, 1855. Josiah French, the father, died, April 9, 1789.—Josiah French, of Salisbury, grandson of Mary,—March, 1856.

(p. 11.) MERCIE, (55) married Oliver Whitney, and had seven children.

(p. 28.) OSGOOD,<sup>6</sup> (138) "was a man of wonderful physical endurance. He would work 18 hours out of the 24, for months together without showing any wear. He had another peculiarity;—he worked with one hand as well as with the other;—would change his knife and fork a dozen times during a meal without knowing it."—George Worcester, Andover, Mass.

(p. 32.) The brothers, Noah, Jesse, Leonard, and Thomas, were good specimens of self-made men. The father's pecuniary circumstances, may be inferred from the following:—

"I was a stout lad," said Jesse, "before I had any thing like a surtout, or a great coat, and I never owned a hat worth more than a dollar, or wore any kind of boots, until I had a family. It was thought more of for my parents to have tez, once a week for breakfast, (sabbath morning) than it is now for families to have it three times a day."

Nosh taught school in the winter of 1776-7. "In the course of that winter, I probably acquired more useful knowledge than I had ever before done in any two winters by going to school. . . . About this time I procured a dictionary, which was the first I ever had the privilege of perusing, though I was then in my eighteenth year."—Letter to Rev. S. M. Worcester, D. D.

"I have no recollection of having been taught to read by any female, unless it was my mother, or grand-mother. I never heard a lesson given in English Grammar, or Geography, when I came into a master's school; and in respect to books,—if we except the Bible,—the spelling book, the psalter, and the primer, were more than the scholars generally possessed." Jesse Worcester, to Rev. S. M. Worcester, D. D.

Leonard, says, in some autobiographical notes, "All my opportunity for obtaining an education, was comprised in attending school about three months annually, from my childhood, until I had just entered my eighteenth year, in a common school, such as common schools then were in New England; in which, so far as my acquaintance then extended, the principal, and, indeed, almost the only studies were reading, orthography, writing, and common arithmetic. Beyond these my school education never extended."

(p. 57.) MIRIAM<sup>s</sup> (765). Add to children:—Ellen,<sup>s</sup> b. Jan. 31, 1852; Mary,<sup>s</sup> b. Aug. 19, 1853, d. Sept. 8, 1853; Anna,<sup>s</sup> b. Jan. 16, 1855.

C.

Moses was in Salisbury, April 21, 1673; in Kittery, June 23, 1673.—Nor. Rec. York Co. Rec.

Deeds of Moses Worster, "of Kittery," dated 1675, 1695, 1699, 1709, 1712, 1713, 1714, 1720, and 1730—31, are recorded in Norfolk, York Co., and Essex Co. Records.

In 1709, he sold " $\frac{1}{2}$  right in Woster's river running into Salmon Falls river." In 1712, "having infirmities of age upon him," he gave to his son Thomas, "200 acres of land in Kittery," and " $\frac{1}{2}$  a saw mill upon a stream, running through my land, called Woster's river."—York Reg. Deeds.

In 1714, he gave to his "son Thomas, and to his brother William, and sister Elizabeth, son and daughter of Moses."—Deed in possession of Hannah Worster, of Berwick.

In 1730—31, he quitclaimed to Abraham Brown, of Salisbury, "lands owned by him (Moses)" in the right of his father, Mr. William Worcester, and sold to said Brown, by said Moses, in 1675; to settle a dispute whether the first deed was extensive enough to cover the whole of his father's right."—Essex Co. Reg. Deeds.

"Whereas Mr. Samuel Hall, resident in England willed £100, for charitable uses, and such as had sustained loss by the great fireing in Boston, and by the Indian wars in the Colony of Massachusetts; and made Mr. John Hall, of Ysslington, near London, Eng., his Executor ;—the said Mr. John Hall, sent an order to his honored mother, Mrs. Rebecca Symonds, of Ipswich, to request her to gratify such, (respect being had to the premises,) accordingly, she thought fit to bestow upon Moses Wooster of *Newwichawanock, County of Yorkshire, who was a sufferer by said Indian wars, the sum of £10,—I hereby discharge and receipt, &c." Signed, Moses Wooster, July 5. 1682.—Ipsw. Records.

April 3, 1707; Hannah, b. Feb. 23, 1709; David, b. March 2, 1710; Abraham.—Stratf. Rec. Rev. Benjamin Wooster.

David Wooster, Gen., son of Abraham, (10) removed from Stratford to New Haven. Graduated at Yale College, in 1738. He was mortally wounded at the battle of Danbury, Conn., April 27, 1777. Married, March 6, 1746, Mary, daughter of Rev. Thomas Clap, President of Yale College. Children:—Mary, b. June 2, 1753; Thomas, b. July 30, 1751.

Benjamin Wooster, Rev., great grand-son of Abraham, (10) was born in Waterbury, Conn., Oct. 29, 1762; grad. Yale, in 1790; entered the Revolutionary Army, at the age of 14; served four years; ordained at Cornwall, Conn., in 1798; installed at Fairfield, Vt., in 1804; captain of volunteers at the battle of Plattsburg, in the war of 1812. Died, at Fairfield, Feb. 18, 1840.

(12) EBENEZER WOOSTER, son of EDWARD, lived in Stratford, Conn. Married, Margaret, daughter of Zachariah Sawtell, of Groton, Mass. Children, Henry, b. May 27, 1712; Zachariah, b. March 17, 1714; Ebenezer, b. Jan. 5, 1715.

The Rev. Benjamin Wooster, late of Fairfield, Vt., under date of July 20, 1835, in reply to the question "What connection, if any, between the Connecticut Woosters, and the Massachusetts, and New Hampshire Worcesters?" wrote to J. E. Worcester, of Cambridge, as follows:—

"Some 40 years ago, while I resided in New Haven, Conn., I fell in company with Genl. David Wooster's widow,—a daughter of old President Clap. She informed me that she had a family tree which traced the Wooster line back to a considerable extent. She thought she had ascertained that two brothers came from England; one settled in Massachusetts,—the other in Connecticut."

Dr. Smith, late President of Vermont University, in a note to a sermon preached at the funeral of Rev. Benjamin Worcester, Feb., 1840, quoting the autobiography of the deceased, says "It is reported of Abraham, senior, (great grand-father of Benjamin,) that he was in the habit of visiting the Worcesters, in Massachusetts, and New Hampshire, and calling them cousins."

The above is all the evidence of relationship between the two families that has come to the knowledge of the compiler.
