INTRODUCTION

The names listed in the dark type are those that appear later with their consorts, biographical sketches, etc. The numbers that head the names with consorts are the same as those given them when they first appear.

The intermarriages between families are designated by cross numbering.

The compiler is very grateful to those members of the family through whose efforts this genealogy was made possible.

REFERENCE

The Wolcott Genealogy.

The Hull Family in America.

History of the Hubbell Family. Ancestral Records and Portraits Vol. 1. American Armory and Blue Book.

Arms—Argent, Chevron between three chess-rooks ermine.

Crest—A bull's head erosed, argent, ducially gorged, armed, lined and ringed or.

Motto—Nullius addictus jurare in verba magistri.

Accustomed to swear in the words of no master.

The Wolcotts trace their ancestry back (in England) to Sir Henry Wolcott, who (according to a legend written in the books of heraldry) while playing chess with King Henry the 5th, checkmated the king with a rook, and thereafter the king placed the rooks upon the Wolcott arms to commemorate the event.

1. Henry Wolcott, born Dec. 1578, Tolland Somersetshire, Eng. Died May 30, 1655; buried at Windsor, Conn. Married Jan. 19, 1606, Elizabeth Saunders. Baptized Dec. 20, 1584. Died July 7, 1655.

He came to New England on the ship "Mary and John," arriving May 30, 1630. They later settled in Windsor, Conn. One of his descendants was Roger Wolcott, Governor of Connecticut, whose son Oliver, became Governor of Connecticut, and was a signer of the Declaration of Independence. And his son, Oliver, Jr., was a member of Washington's Cabinet, and also Governor of Connecticut.

Thus father, son and grandson were each in turn, Governor of Connecticut. A later descendant, Roger Wolcott, became Governor of Massachusetts. Frances Folsom (now Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, Jr.), who married President Cleveland, was also a descendant of Henry Wolcott.

2. Simon Wolcott, son of (1), born between Sept. 11, 1624, and Sept. 11, 1625; died Sept. 11, 1687; married 2nd, Martha Pitkin, born 1639; died Oct. 13, 1719.
