BATTLE HYMN OF THE YOUNGS

TUNE: Battle Hymn of the Republic

In England, Wales and Scotland, and the Emerald Isle as well,
In U. S. A. and Canada, in city, plain and dell,
Where English tongue is spoken—that is where Young families dwell.
The clan goes marching on!

CHORUS: Glory to our grand old family,
Glory to our name and record;
Sure Young is a grand old family.
"The clan goes marching on!"

Sir Peter Young was a noble knight, who feared not anything;
He went on royal missions—messages to take and bring.
He was in regal favor and was tutor to the King.
The clan goes marching on!

Sir George was the admiral who was with courage blest.
In covered wagons, Brigham led his brethren to the west.
Owen served his country at the President's request.
The clan goes marching on!

The clan of Young is mighty—nearly half a million strong;
In seventy-six, a thousand kinsmen fought to right a wrong.
"Press through" is our motto, let us sing it loud and long.
The clan goes marching on!

When danger threatened country, or a battle to be won,
Or righteous causes need defenders, or work to be done,
The Youngs were always there and never were they known to run.
The clan goes marching on

The sons of Young are loyal and our daughters true and sweet;
More noble sires and mothers you could never hope to meet;
The stories of their lives and deeds with pleasure we repeat.
The clan goes marching on!

We must prove worthy of our place upon Young family tree;
Let Young standards with the highest in the world agree;
We owe a duty to the generations yet to be.
The clan goes marching on!

(B) THE YOUNG COAT OF ARMS

COAT of Arms is an emblem or a device which is displayed by titled persons, persons of royal blood, and their descendants. Coats of Arms were originally used for purposes of identification and recognition on the field of battle as well as in civil life.

It is claimed by some writers that Coats of Arms, in a crude form, were used by Noah's sons after the flood. There are records of other Coats of Arms, in one crude form or another, at different periods of ancient history. Heraldry, however, as we know it today, did not become of much importance until soon after the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, A.D. 1066. Heraldry became of general interest at about the time of the Crusades.

The Young Coat of Arms shown in the front of this volume is the Arms of the Youngs, Baronets, of Buckinghamshire; North Dean, Co. Bucks; and Leny, Scotland. Coats of Arms very similar to it are used by the Youngs of Bailieborough; Lindbank, Scotland; and in slightly varying form by various other English, Irish and Scotch lines. The Youngs of Auldbar, Co. Forfar, and numerous other branches of the Young family use arms resembling it.

This is the most widely used of all Young Coats of Arms and has been in existence for many centuries. It is described in BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY, BURKE'S LANDED GENTRY, BURKE'S PEERAGE AND BARONETAGE and other reliable works on heraldry, in some cases accompanied by illustrations and pedigrees. It has been used for generations by many American branches of the Young family.

	HERALDIC LANGUAGE	ENGLISH DESCRIPTION
Arms . . . . .	Or, three piles sable, on a chief of the first, three annulets of the second.	A golden shield, bearing in the lower portion three black triangles, and above them three circles, also black.
Crest . . . . .	A cubit arm, the hand grasping an arrow, all proper.	A lower arm in natural colors, the hand grasping an arrow.
Motto . . . . .	Press Through	Press Through.

Sir Bernard Burke, of Heralds College, London, said "Heraldry is prized by all who can show honorable ancestry or wish to found honorable families."

Besides its family significance this Coat of Arms makes an excellent mural decoration and inspires the admiration and comment of all who see it.

It is quite appropriate that members of the Young family who have a pride in their ancestry should display the family Coat of Arms, in proper colors.

(K) YOUNG TOWNS, ETC.

There are in the United States towns as follows:

YOUNG: Ariz.; YOUNGDALE: Pa.; YOUNGS: Calif., Ga., N. Y.; YOUNGS CREEK: Ind., Ky.; YOUNGSPORT: Tex.; YOUNGSTOWN: Fla., Ill., Mo., N.Y., Ohio, Pa.; YOUNG STREET: Tex.; YOUNGSVILLE: La., N. Mex., N. Y., N. C., Pa.; YOUNGTOWN: N. Dak.; YOUNGWOOD: Pa. There are also in the United States numerous counties, townships, streets, avenues, etc., bearing the name "Young". This is eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which the name is held in this country.

(L) YOUNG CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES

The compiler of these records has made up a list from city and telephone directories of the United States, and from other sources, as follows. Care was taken to eliminate, wherever possible, persons known or believed to be colored, or of nationalities other than British and American:

Alabama.....	207	Maine.....	237	Oklahoma.....	256
Arizona.....	40	Maryland.....	230	Oregon.....	46
Arkansas.....	79	Massachusetts.....	921	Pennsylvania.....	1831
California.....	1356	Michigan.....	855	Rhode Island.....	118
Colorado.....	278	Minnesota.....	247	South Carolina.....	22
Connecticut.....	366	Mississippi.....	48	South Dakota.....	32
District of Columbia...	200	Missouri.....	444	Tennessee.....	338
Delaware.....	39	Montana.....	105	Texas.....	830
Florida.....	260	Nebraska.....	173	Utah.....	175
Georgia.....	218	Nevada.....	12	Vermont.....	126
Idaho.....	44	New Hampshire.....	172	Virginia.....	336
Illinois.....	1038	New Jersey.....	658	Washington.....	297
Indiana.....	730	New Mexico.....	13	West Virginia.....	88
Iowa.....	300	New York.....	2154	Wisconsin.....	235
Kansas.....	218	North Carolina.....	121	Wyoming.....	14
Kentucky.....	305	North Dakota.....	14		—
Louisiana.....	99	Ohio.....	1605	Total.....	18,510

To secure an estimate of the "Young population" of the United States, we figure as follows:

	(a) Multiply by
Only about half the names were taken from each directory consulted.....	2
Half of the Youngs reside in the rural districts or in small towns having no printed directories which were available to us.....	2
There are an average of more than four persons in each American family.....	4
Since Young daughters marry and have as many descendants as the Young sons, there are as many descendants of "other names" as there are bearing the name Young (though it is much easier to locate the latter).....	2
By multiplying each figure of column (a) into the preceding figure, we have a total of.....	32
Conservative estimate of the Young population of the United States, one-half of whom bear the name Young and one-half of whom bear other names.....	592,320

The estimated Young population of any of the states may be obtained by multiplying the figures shown by 32. There are Youngs in every State of the Union. The Young population of the British Empire is probably equal to that in the United States.

(M) RELIGIONS OF THE YOUNGS

For several centuries the Youngs lived in England, North Ireland and Scotland. Most of the British (with the exception of those living in South Ireland), and, likewise, the Youngs were and are of the Protestant faith.

There are a few Youngs of the Catholic faith in the British Isles, but it is estimated that their number does not exceed four per cent of the entire Young population.

The Youngs who came from the British Isles to America continued in the faith of their fathers, for the most part, though their descendants in this country today will be found in the memberships of practically all the various churches. It is estimated that of all the Youngs in America who are church members, at least ninety-eight per cent are of the Protestant faith.

Biographical sketches of seventy-one Youngs appear in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Their religious faiths are shown as follows: BAPTIST, 4; CHRISTIAN SCIENCE, 1; CONGREGATIONALIST, 5; EPISCOPAL, 3; METHODIST EPISCOPAL, 1; PRESBYTERIAN, 11; OTHER PROTESTANTS, 2; RELIGION NOT STATED, 46.
