MEMORIAL OF THE INHABITANTS IN THE CHEROKEE COUNTRY

(State Department records. Endorsed August, 1819.)

To the honourable Secretary of War:

Your petitioners viewing the calamitous situation in which many of our citizens are placed, owing to an Order recently published by the agent for Indian affairs of the Cherokee Nation Ordering all Intruders on their land to remove by the first day of July 1819. Your petitioners believing the same indulgence would be extended to them, as has been the constant practice to others in similar circumstances, induced them to settle on the lands lately ceded to the United States by the Cherokees, north of the Tennessee River, nor did the order ever make its formal appearance until the 19th of June* of the present year leaving a removal impracticable, if not impossible-- Your petitioners are poor but industrious farmers, to deprive them at this season of the year of their hard earnings in the Wilderness and thus leave them destitute where will your petitioners apply for bread to support their starving families?-- its notorious that all improvements made by your petitioners add real value to the land-- this Order enforced, will involve at least One thousand families in total ruin.-- nor will the evil end here, your petitioners must subsist somewhere, they will thus become unwelcome guests to the frontier counties to beg (for they cannot buy) something for their little Children. this measure if carried into operation will produce alarming effects-- The Indians on the North of Tennessee are not desirous of having the settlers driven off the land, those being few in number most of which have taken reservations & are good neighbors -- Your petitioners Knowing the levity of their government & believing they will take our case into consideration will every pray &c &c
