COLONIAL COMMISSIONS

1680-1770

Previous to the fire of 1911 in the State Library at Albany, N. Y., there existed five volumes of original commissions, orders, and warrants for various appointments and commands both civil and military, relating to the Province of New York and covering the period 1680 through 1770. These volumes were part of a series of thirty-eight in the office of the Secretary of State and were transferred to the State Library before the fire which destroyed them. The balance of the volumes from six to thirty-eight still remain in the Secretary of State's office and date from 1770 to 1822.

Among the papers of the late Dr. E. B. O'Callaghan transferred to The New York Historical Society in 1882, after his death, was a calendar of the first twenty books of commissions which makes available a digest of each of the original documents lost in the fire, giving the date, from and to whom issued, and for what purpose. This abstract of a most important series of lost records becomes, therefore, first-hand information.

Dr. O'Callaghan's calendar of volumes one through five was first printed serially in the QUARTERLY BULLETIN of The New York Historical Society beginning in January, 1924, and running through July, 1928, and is here reprinted with an index by Miss Dorothy C. Barck.
