Lists of Inhabitants in Washington County, Penna 1800 or before with maps of early townships

Settlers by the thousands poured into southwestern Penna in the 1770's. Many stayed, while in later years others pushed on to Kentucky or Ohio. In 1771 the territory was organized as a part of Bedford Co; in 1773 it was made a part of Westmoreland Co; in 1781 it became Washington Co (see the maps). Virginia claimed this territory until 1780 and held courts 1775-1780.

The following are the best published lists of the inhabitants:

		Names
1773 tax lists of the Westmoreland Co. townships set off from Bedford Co. In Pitt and Springhill Twps.	(1)	545
1775-1780 names in Virginia Court records including Virginia militia	(2)	2500
1776-1780 names on petition for new state	(3)	2000
1781 state tax Washington Co.	(4)	3400
1784-85 county tax lists Washington Co.	(5)	4300
1790 federal census Washington Co. Allegheny Co., part taken from Wash. Co.	(6)	3743 1072
1793 county tax lists Washington Co.	(5)	4800
1800 county census of taxables Washington Co. (recently discovered in the courthouse)	(7)	4970

Additional material can be obtained from

Militia and rangers of Penna 1776-83 for Westmoreland and Washington Cos. Pa Archives VI 2 and III 23.

Oaths of allegiance during Revolution - Leckey (see below)

List of land grants in Washington, Fayette, Greene Cos. - The Horn Papers vol 3 (Note, vols 1 and 2 are not reliable.)

In 1781 Washington Co. included all of sw Pa. lying west of the Monongahela and south of the Ohio River. In 1788-89 the northern part became Allegheny Co. and in 1796 the southern part Greene Co.

In 1800 a small part of Hanover Twp. became a part of Beaver Co.

See Joseph H. Bausman: History of Beaver Co., Pa. (N.Y. 1904) pg. 1215 for Hanover 1802 tax list.

(1) The printed Pa. Archives III 22 list the 1773 taxables for Bedford Co. Included are the eight townships which were set off that year to form Westmoreland Co. Pitt and Springhill Twps. included what became Washington Co. in 1781. The approximate number of names on these 1773 lists are:

Armstrong	45	Mt Pleasant	120	Springhill	460
Fairfield	90	Pitt	85	Tyrone	110
Hempfield	250	Rostraver	120	TOTAL	1280

Few of the Springhill names are from west of the Monongahela. Most of them are from Fayette Co., east of the river.

An original copy of these 1773 tax assessments is in the Historical Collections of Washington and Jefferson College at Washington, Pa. It has better spellings than the list in the Archives. It appears to be the same list that at one time belonged to James Veech, who copied Pitt and Springhill in his The Monongahela of Old (Pittsburgh 1892). Howard L. Leckey in his The Tenmile Country and its Pioneer Families (Waynesburg 1950) copies them from Veech.

(2) Boyd Crumrine, whose History of Washington Co., Pa. (Phila., Pa. 1882) has been basic to this study, also published the Virginia Court Records in Annals of the Carnegie Museum vols 1-3 (Pittsburgh 1902-05). Inez R. Waldenmaier in her Index to the Virginia Court Records in Pa. (Washington, D.C. 1957) lists in alphabetical order all the names (about 2500) that are listed in Crumrine's Virginia Courts. While not a complete list, this gives many names not otherwise available.

(3) Leckey found in the Papers of the Continental Congress No. 48, Folios 251-6, pgs 89-96 a Petition for a New State (approx 1776-80) which was signed by about 2000 persons living in sw Pa. and adjoining West Va. These persons were unhappy with the conflict between Pa. and Va. for this territory and wanted a new state formed. The Revolution brought an end to the dispute and also to the need for a new state. On pgs 11-22 these names are alphabetized.

(4) The first tax list of Washington Co. was for a state tax taken in 1781. This is given in Pa. Archives III 22.

(5) The first county taxes were assessed in 1784. Most of the lists from this date are still to be found in the Washington County courthouse. In 1955 the Washington Co. DAR under the direction of Raymond M. Bell published Tax Lists of Washington Co., Pa. 1784-85 and 1793. All of the townships were found for 1793. All were found for 1784 or 1785.

(6) The first Federal Census 1790 lists Washington Co. inhabitants without any townships, and under Allegheny Co. lists the part that came from Washington. It would be possible by comparing tax lists to break the 1790 census down by townships. Leckey has done this for Greene Co. This is the only published census and was published as Heads of Families 1790, Pennsylvania (Washington, D.C. 1908).

(7) In the summer of 1800 the County Commissioners conducted a census of the taxables of the county. The original papers have recently been found in the Washington Co. courthouse (as well as a similar census for 1814). All the townships have been found for 1800 except Donegal and Fallowfield. These names have been taken from the tax lists. While the 1800 Federal census is more complete, these 1800 taxables are listed from pg 12 on, just as copied from the originals.

Maps are given on pgs. 6-10 showing Washington Co.: before 1781, 1781, 1788, 1792, 1800. On page 5 are listed the townships of Washington Co. before 1800. It may be of interest to report that in the Washington Co. courthouse are petitions for townships which were never formed: 1786 Ohio Twp. from Robinson, Potato Garden Twp. in the region of Smith Twp; 1793 New Germain Twp. from Donegal, Riche Twp. in the Smith-Hanover region. A careful study shows that the early townships were laid out by streams, dividing ridges, and drainage systems.

Of course, the main source for information on the early inhabitants of Washington Co. is to be found in the court records at the courthouse. These exist in two main forms - copies in books, original papers in file-boxes. Many of the papers contain material of historical or genealogical value not listed anywhere. The division by county offices is:

Register of Wills and Clerk of Orphans Court

Will books, account indices, Orphans Court books

(The wills for 1781-1811 were abstracted in the Publications of the Genealogical Society of Penna. vol 6 p 135 Phila. 1917)

Will book #1 includes 1781-1803. O.C. book #1 goes to 1796.

There are file-boxes for original wills, accounts of estates, inventories of estates, Orphans Court papers. Many of these deal with estates for which there were no wills.

Recorder of Deeds

All deeds from the beginning of the county are in books and on micro film. Books A B C cover up to 1787.

County Commissioners

Tax lists since 1784 - original papers.

Prothonotary

Dockets listing civil cases, both appearance and execution.

Books and original papers.

Clerk of Courts

Quarter sessions - criminal cases - listed in books and files.

Road petitions and grants, lists of twp. officials, petitions for new twps. These contain many names.

There are many other miscellaneous papers with names of early settlers, e.g. receipts in 1784 for bounties for wolves in the papers of the county treasurer.

For a complete inventory of the Washington County records see Inventory of the County Archives of Pa. No. 63, Wash. (Wash., Pa. 1941). A similar publication was made for Greene Co. in 1940.
